

A COLLECTION

OF

SPIRITUAL HYMNS,

ADAPTED TO THE

VARIOUS KINDS OF CHRISTIAN WORSHIP,

AND ESPECIALLY DESIGNED FOR THE USE OF THE BRETHREN IN CHRIST.

KNOWN AS

"RIVER BRETHREN."

COMPILED ACCORDING TO DIRECTIONS OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE,

SECOND EDITION.

"Sing unto the Lord a new song, and His praise in the congregation of saints."-Psalm cxlix.

> LANCASTER, PA. 1876.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1874, by JACOB M. ENGLE,

In the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

COMPILED BY

ABRAHAM M. ENGLE, SAMUEL ZOOK, JACOB M. ENGLE,

Stereotyped and Printed by The Inquirer Printing and Publishing Co. Lancaster, Pa.

PREFACE.

THE praise of God in spiritual songs ever has been and ever will be an important element of Christian worship; hence, the place occupied by the Book of Hymns in the Church is second only to that of the Bible. The importance of its office makes the necessity of careful arrangement and complete adaptation to all occasions plainly apparent; and it was with a full consciousness of the importance of the work, and a prayerful trust in the Divine guidance, that the committee undertook and carried to completion the preparation of the present volume.

Soon after the publication of the Brethren's Hymn-Book, in 1862, it became evident that the collection was too small, and did not give the expected satisfaction; but it is hoped that this revised and enlarged edition will supply the former want.

Inasmuch as each locality have their favorite hymns, such hymns were selected from the various contributions as the committee thought would give general satisfaction.

The collection being thus materially enlarged, it should be considered that in many families the hymns are not only sung, but also read, studied and meditated upon; many persons who do not sing thus using the Hymn-Book more than those having the gift of song.

The work has grown upon us far beyond our expectation; but no pains have been spared to secure from every proper source such material as might suit our purpose, and to select therefrom what was best adapted to the wants of the Brotherhood. In this we have received from the Brethren, in different localitics, valuable aid in the form of selections of their choice hymns; and to these, as to all who contributed their assistance to the work, the committee tender a thankful acknowledgment.

111

Aware that their work shares the imperfection common to all human efforts, the committee still hope that it may possess sufficient merit to give general satisfaction. As the result of days and nights of anxious thought and prayerful labor, it passes from our hands into those of the Brethren and the Christian public, still followed by our prayer that God may bless it to the strengthening of His children, the spreading of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and the glory of His holy Name, both here and in that better world—

"Where we, in nobler, sweeter songs, Shall sing His power to save; When these poor, lisping, stammering tongues Lie silent in the grave."

HYMNS.

| | G | OD-HIS BEING AND ATTRIBUTES. |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | | God mani/ested in his works. Rom, 1: 20. C. M. |
| | | S there a God? Yon rising sun In answer meet replies, Writes it in flame upon the earth, Proclaims it round the skies. |
| | 2 | Is there a God? Hark! from on high His thunder shakes the poles;I hear his voice in every wind, In every wave that rolls. |
| | 3 | Is there a God? With sacred fear I upward turn my eyes; "There is," each glitt'ring lamp of light— "There is," my soul replies. |
| | 4 | If such convictions to my mind His works aloud impart,O, let the wisdom of his word Inscribe them on my heart. |
| 2 | | Holiness of God. Isaiah 6: 3. C. M. |
| | | HOLY and rev'rend is the name Of our eternal King; "Thrice holy Lord," the angels cry; "Thrice holy," let us sing. |
| | 2 | The deepest rev'rence of the mind, Pay, O my soul, to God; Lift, with thy hands, a holy heart To his sublime abode. |

3 With sacred awe pronounce his name, Whom words nor thoughts can reach: A contrite heart shall please him more Than noblest forms of speech. 4 Thou, holy God, preserve my soul From all pollution free: The pure in heart are thy delight, And they thy face shall see. 3 Faithfulness of God. L.M. Heb. 6: 17. 18. VE humble saints proclaim abroad The honors of a faithful God; How just and true are all his ways ! How much above your highest praise! 2 True to his word, God gave his Son, To die for crimes which man had done; Blest pledge ! he never will revoke A single promise he has spoke. C. M. 4 There is a God. ENY it not! There is a God-There is a Holy One; The stars proclaim it all abroad, The planets and the sun. 2 His voice is heard in every clime, Wherever man has trod. And all his works proclaim and chime-"There is-there is a God." 3 The whisp'ring zephyr, and the winds That howling tempests send, And flow'rs that bloom, and birds that sing, The glorious faith defend. 4 The brook that ripples on its way, And cascade roaring loud, In unison with conscience say-"There is-there is a God." 8

6

God's goodness and love. C. M. YE humble souls, approach your God With source of source Nahum 1: 7. With songs of sacred praise; For he is good, immensely good, And kind are all his ways. 2 All nature owns his guardian care; In him we live and move: But nobler benefits declare The wonders of his love. 3 He gave his Son, his only Son, To ransom rebel worms; 'Tis here he makes his goodness known In its diviner forms. 4 To this dear refuge, Lord, we come ; On this our hope relies; A safe defense, a peaceful home. When storms of trouble rise. 5 Thine eye beholds with kind regard The souls who trust in thee: Their humble hope thou wilt reward With bliss divinely free. 6 Great God, to thine almighty love What honors shall we raise? Not all the raptur'd songs above Can render equal praise. C. M. ORD, all I am is known to thee; In vain my soul would try To shun thy presence, or to flee The notice of thine eye. 2 Thy all surrounding sight surveys My rising and my rest, My public walks, my private ways. The secrets of my breast.

9

GOD,

3 My thoughts lie open to thee, Lord, Before they're form'd within, And ere my lips pronounce the word, Thou know'st the sense I mean.

 4 O wondrous knowledge! deep and high, Where can a creature hide?
 Within thy circling arms I lie, Beset on every side.

5 So let thy grace surround me still, And like a bulwark prove, To guard my soul from every ill, Secured by sov'reign love.

And the books were opened. Rev. 20: 12. C. M. A LMIGHTY God, thy piercing eye, Strikes through the shades of night, And our most secret actions lie

All open to thy sight.

7

2 There's not a sin that we commit, Nor wicked word we say, But in thy dreadful book 'tis writ, Against the Judgment Day.

3 And must the crimes that I have done Be read and published there? Be all exposed before the sun, While men and angels hear?

4 Lord, at thy feet ashamed I lie; Upward I dare not look; Pardon my sins before I die, And blot them from thy Book.

5 Remember all the dying pains That my Redeemer felt; And let his blood wash out my stains, And answer for my guilt.

HIS NAMES AND RELATIONS.

S. M.

MY soul, repeat his praise, Whose mercies are so great, Whose anger is so slow to rise, So ready to abate.

9

2 His power subdues our sins, And his forgiving love, Far as the east is from the west, Doth all our guilt remove.

3 The pity of the Lord To those that fear his name, Is such as tender parents feel, He knows our feeble frame.

4 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweeps o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

5 But thy compassion. Lord, To endless years endure, And children's children ever find Thy word of promise sure.

GOD-HIS NAMES AND RELATIONS.

The Lord is our Shepherd. Psaim 23. S. M. THE Lord my Shepherd is; I shall be well suppli'd; Since he is mine, and I am his, What can I want beside?

2 He leads me to the place Where heav'nly pasture grows, Where living waters gently pass, And full salvation flows. GOD,

 If e'er I go astray, He doth myself reclaim, And guides me, in his own right way, For his most holy name.

4 While he affords his aid, I cannot yield to fear; Tho' I should walk thro' death's dark shade, My Shepherd's with me there.

5 In sight of all my foes, Thou dost my table spread; My cup with blessings overflows, And joy exalts my head.

10

God all and in all

Psalm 73, 25. MY God, my life, my love, To thee, to thee I call; I cannot live if thou remove, For thou art all in all.

2 Thy shining grace can cheer This dungeon where I dwell; 'Tis Paradise when thou art here, If thou depart 'tis hell.

3 The smilings of thy face, How amiable they are! 'Tis heaven to rest in thine embrace, And no where else but there.

4 Not all the harps above, Can make a heav'nly place, If God his residence remove, Or but conceal his face.

5 Nor earth nor all the sky Can one delight afford, No. not one drop of real joy, Without thy presence, Lord. S. M.

HIS NAMES AND RELATIONS. 6 Thou art the sea of love Where all my pleasures roll, The circle where my passions move, And center of my soul. God our dwelling place. Psalm 90: 1. C. M. 11 OUR God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come; Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home: 2 Under the shadow of thy throne, Thy saints have dwelt secure ; Sufficient is thine arm alone, And our defense is sure. 3 Before the hills in order stood, Or earth receiv'd her frame, From everlasting thou art God, To endless years the same. 4 Thy word commands our flesh to dust, "Return, ye sons of men!" All nations rose from earth at first, And turn to earth again. 5 The busy tribes of flesh and blood. With all their lives and cares, Are carried downward by the flood, And lost in foll'wing years. God our Father. Matt. 6: 9. C. M. 12Y God! my Father! cheering name! O, may I call thee mine! Give me with humble hope to claim A portion so divine. 2 This only can my fears control, And bid my sorrows fly; What real harm can reach my soul Beneath my Father's eye?

GOD

| | 3 Whate'er thy providence denies, I calmly would resign; |
|---|--|
| ١ | For thou art just, and good, and wise- O bend my will to thine! |
| 1 | 3 God our portion. Psalm 119: 57. C. M. |
| - | HOM have we, Lord, in heav'n, but thee, And whom on earth beside? Where else for succor can we flee, Or in whose strength confide? |
| 2 | Thou art our portion here below, Our promis'd bliss above; Ne'er may our souls an object know So precious as thy love. |
| 3 | When heart and flesh, O Lord, shall fail, Thou wilt our spirits cheer, Support us through life's thorny vale, And calm each anxious fear. |
| 4 | Yes, thou shalt be our guide through life, And help and strength supply; Sustain us in death's fearful strife, And welcome us on high. |
| | GOD IN CREATION. |
| 1 | - 1 Saini 13 - 1. |
| | THE spacious firmament on high, With all the blue ethereal sky. |

And spangled heav'ns, a shining frame, Their great Original proclaim.

2 Th' unweari'd sun, from day to day, Does his Creator's pow'r display, And shows his power to every land, The work of an almighty hand.

IN CREATION.

- 3 While all the stars that round her burn, And all the planets in their turn, Confirm the tidings as they roll, And spread the truth from pole to pole.
- 4 What though in solemn silence all Move round this dark terrestrial ball; What though no real voice nor sound Amid their radiant orbs be found:
- 5 In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter forth a glorious voice; For ever singing as they shine, The hand that made us is divine!
- 15 Man's Creation and Innocency. C. M. JEHOVAH'S image brightly shone In Eden's lovely pair, And oft, before his gracious throne, They bowed in praise and prayer.
 - 2 With rectitude, as with a robe, Their spotless souls were dressed; With peace abounding, and with joy, They were divinely blessed.
 - 3 No self-reproach, no slavish dread Disturbed their peace within; No frowning storm their path o'erspread, While undefiled with sin.
 - 4 Thus souls renewed by saving grace,— Whose sins have been forgiven,
 Behold the smiles of Jesus' face,
 And feel an inward heaven.

GOD

GOD IN PROVIDENCE.

16

"The Lord will provide." 10s & 11s. Genesis 22: 14.

THOUGH troubles assail and dangers affright, Though friends should all fail, and foes all unite, Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide, The Scripture assures us, "The Lord will provide."

2 The birds, without barn or storehouse, are fed; From them lot us learn, to trust for our bread: His saints, what is fitting, shall ne'er be denied, So long as 't is written, "The Lord will provide,"

3 His call we obey, like Abrah'm of old— Not knowing our wan; but faith makes us bold; For though we are strangers, we have a sure gnide, And trust in all dangers, "The Lord will provide."

4 When Satan appears to shut up our path, And fills us with fears, we trimmph by faith; He cannot take from us, though oft he has tried, This heart-cheering promise, "The Lord will provide."

5 He tells us we're weak, our hope is in vain— The good that we seek we ne'er shall obtain ; But when such suggestions our graces have tried, This answers all questions, "The Lord will provide."

6 No strength of our own, or goodness we claim; Yet since we have known the Saviour's great name, In this, our strong tower, for safety we hide: The Lord is our power, "The Lord will provide."

7 When life sinks apace, and death is in view, The word of his graceshall comfort us through; Not fearing or doubting, with Christ on our side, We hope to die shouting, "The Lord will provide."

| 17 | The Mystery of Providence. Psalm 73. | S. | M. |

IN PROVIDENCE.

3 The tumult of my thought Held me in hard suspense,
Till to thy house my feet were brought, To learn thy justice thence.

4 Thy word, with light and pow'r, Did my mistake amend;

I viewed the sinners' life before, But here I learn their end.

5 On what a slippery steep The thoughtless wretches go! And O, that dreadful fiery deep, That waits their fall below!

18 Thy judgments are a great deep. Psalm 36: 6. C. M. COD moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform; He plants his footsteps in the sea, And rides upon the storm.

 Deep in unfathomable mines Of never-failing skill, He treasures up his bright designs, And works his sovereign will.

3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take; The clouds ye so much dread Are big with mercy, and shall break In blessings on your head.

 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, But trust him for his grace;
 Behind a frowning providence He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast, Unfolding every hour: The bud may have a bitter taste, But sweet will be the flower. (2) 17

WORSHIP AND PRAISE.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err, And scan his work in vain; God is his own interpreter, And he will make it plain.

Confidence in God's government. C. M. SINCE all the varying scenes of time God's watchful eye surveys, O! who so wise to choose our lot, Or to appoint our ways?

2 Good when he gives, supremely good, Nor less when he denies; Afflictions from his sovereign hand Are blessings in disguise.

 Why should we doubt a Father's love, So constant and so kind?
 To his unerring gracious will Be every wish resigned.

4 In thy fair book of life divine, My God, inscribe my name; There let it fill some humble place Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.

Going to Church.

C. M

HOW did my heart rejoice to hear My friends devoutly say, "In Zion let us all appear, And keep the solemn day."

2 I love her gates, I love the road; The church, adorned with grace, Stands like a palace built for God, To show his milder face.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

3 Up to her courts with joys unknown The holy tribes repair; The Son of David holds his throne, And sits in judgment there.

- 4 Peace be within this sacred place, And joy a constant guest! With holy gifts and heavenly grace . Be her attendants blest!
- 5 My soul shall pray for Zion still, While life or breath remains; There my best friends, my kindred dwell, There God my Saviour reigns.

21

Waiting on God.

C. M.

DEAR brethren, come, draw near to God, With songs of sacred praise; For he is good, supremely good, And just are all his ways.

- 2 All nature owns his guardian care; In him we live and move; But nobler benefits declare The wonders of his love.
- 3 He gave his Son, his only Son, To ransom rebel worms;
 'Tis here he makes his goodness known In its drviner forms.
- 22 How amiable are thy tabernacles. Psalm 84: 1. L. M. CORD, what a heav'n of saving grace, Shines through the beauties of thy face, And lights our passions to a flame! Lord, how we love the charming name!
- 2 When I can say my God is mine, When I can feel thy glories shine, I tread the world beneath my feet, And all that earth calls good or great.

WORSHIP AND PRAISE.

- J^W While such a scene of sacred joys Our raptur'd eyes and soul employs, Here we could sit and gaze away A long, an everlasting day!
- 4 Well, we shall quickly pass the night, To the fair coasts of perfect light; Then shall our joyful senses rove O'er the dear object of our love.
- 5 Send comforts down from thy right hand, While we pass through this barren land; And in thy temple let us see A glimpse of love, a glimpse of thee.
- 23 The communion of spirits in worship. 1 Cor. 5: 4. B E still! be still! for all around, On either hand, is holy ground, Here in his house, the Lord to-day Will listen, while his people pray.
- 2 Thou, tossed upon the waves of care, Ready to sink with deep despair, Here ask relief, with heart sincere, And thou shalt find that God is here.
- 3 Thou who hast laid within the grave, Those whom thou hadst no power to save, Now to the mercy-seat draw near, With all thy woes, for God is here.
- 4 Thou who hast dear ones far away, In foreign lands, 'mid ccean's spray, Pray for them now, and dry the tear, And trust the God who listens here.
- 5 Thou who art mourning o'er thy sin, Deploring guilt that reigns within, The God of peace is ever near; The troubled spirit meets him here.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

Worthy is the Lamb. C. M. $\mathbf{24}$ Rev. 5: 12.) EHOLD the glories of the Lamb, Amid his Father's throne; Prepare new honors for his name, And songs before unknown. 2 Let elders worship at his feet. The Church adore around, With vials full of odors sweet, And harps of sweeter sound. 3 These are the pray'rs of all the saints. And these the hymns they raise: Jesus is kind to our complaints. He loves to hear our praise. 4 Thou hast redeemed our souls with blood. Hast set the pris'ners free-Hast made us kings and priests to God, And we shall reign with thee. C. M. 25The loveliness of Christ. COME, heav'nly love, inspire my song, With thy immortal flame; And teach my heart and teach my tongue The Saviour's lovely name. 2 The Saviour! O what endless charms Dwell in the blissful sound! Its influence ev'ry fear disarms, And spreads sweet comfort round. 3 Here pardon, life and joys divine, In rich effusion flow, For guilty rebels, lost in sin, And doomed to dreadful woe. 4 God's only Son-stupendous grace !--Forsook his throne above, And swift to save our wretched race, He flew on wings of love.

WORSHIP AND PRAISE.

 5 O, the rich depths of love divine, Of bliss a boundless store !
 Dear Saviour, let me call thee mine, I cannot wish for more.

 $\mathbf{26}$

Praise for mercies.

. Psalm 103. S. M.

O BLESS the Lord, my soul! His grace to thee proclaim; And all that is within me, join To bless his holy name.

2 O bless the Lord, my soul! His mercies bear in mind; Forget not all his benefits— The Lord to thee is kind.

3 He will not always chide; He will with patience wait; His wrath is ever slow to rise, And ready to abate.

4 The Lord forgives thy sins, Prolongs thy feeble breath; He healeth thine infirmities, Aud ransoms thee from death.

5 Then bless his holy name, Whose grace hath made thee whole; Whose loving kindness crowns thy days; O bless the Lord, my soul!

The Fount of Blessing.

- 8s & 7s.

COME, thou Fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace; Streams of mercy, never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise: Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues above; Praise the mount—I'm fixed upon it Mount of thy redeeming love.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

2 Here I raise my Ebenezer; Hither by thy help I'm come; And I hope, by thy good pleasure, Safely to arrive at home: Jesus sought me when a stranger, Wandering from the fold of God; He, to rescue me from danger; Interposed his precious blood.

3 O, to grace how great a debtor Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter, Bind my wandering heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it; 'Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart; Lord, take and seal it; Seal it from thy courts above.

 $\mathbf{28}$

The song of the Lamb. Rev. 15: 3. C. M.

THOU dear Redeemer, dying Lamb, We love to hear of thee; No music's like thy charming name, Nor half so sweet can be.

- 2 O may we ever hear thy voice, In mercy to us speak; And in our Priest we will rejoice, Thou great Melchisedek.
- 3 Our Saviour shall be still our theme, While in this world we stay; We'll sing our Jesus' lovely name, When all things else decay.

 When we appear in yonder cloud, With all the favor'd throng,
 Then will we sing more sweet, more loud, And Christ shall be our song.

WORSHIP AND PRAISE.

29 Praise the Lord, all ye nations. L. M. Psalm 117.

FROM all who dwell below the skies Let the Creator's praise arise, Let the Redeemer's name be sung Through ev'ry land, by ev'ry tongue.

- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord; Eternal truths attend thy word; Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, Till sun shall rise and set no more.
- 3 Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring; In songs of praise divinely sing; The great salvation loud proclaim, And shout for joy the Saviour's name.
- 4 In ev'ry land begin the song; To ev'ry land the strains belong; In cheerful sounds all voices raise, And fill the world with loudest praise.

30

The unspeakable gift. 2 Cor. 9: 45.

L. M.

COME, worship at Emmanuel's feet; Behold in him what wonders meet! Words are too feeble to express His worth, his glory, or his grace.

- 2 He is the Head—each member lives, And owns the vital power he gives; The saints below, and saints above, Joined by his Spirit and his love.
- 3 He is the Vine—his heav'nly root Supplies each branch with life and fruit; O! may a lasting union join My soul to Christ, the living Vine.
- 4 He is the Rock—how firm he proves! The Rock of Ages never moves; But the sweet streams that from him flow, Attend us all the journey through.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

5 Yet faintly to us mortals here, His glory, grace, and worth appear; His beauties we shall clearly trace, When we behold him face to face.

S. M. 31 Heaven begun on earth. COME ye that love the Lord, And let your joys be known; Join in a song with sweet accord, While ye surround his throne. 2 Let those refuse to sing That never knew our God; But servants of the heav'nly king May speak their joys abroad. 3 The men of grace have found, Glory begun below; Celestial fruits on earthly ground, From faith and hope may grow. 4 Then let our songs abound, And ev'ry tear be dry; We're marching on Immanuel's ground, To fairer worlds on high. C. M. 32Gratitude.

WHEN all thy mercies, O my God, My rising soul surveys.
Transported with the view, I'm lost In wonder, love, and praise.
2 Unnumber'd comforts on my soul Thy tender care bestow'd, Before my infant heart conceiv'd From whom those comforts flow'd.
3 When in the slippery paths of youth, With heedless steps I ran,

Thine arm, unseen, convey'd me safe, And led me up to man. 4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts My daily thanks employ; Nor is the least a cheerful heart, That tastes those gifts with joy.

5 Through every period of my life, Thy goodness I'll pursue; And after death, in distant worlds, The glorious theme renew.

6 Through all eternity, to thee A grateful song I'll raise; But O, eternity's too short, To utter all thy praise!

33 Unto him that loved us. Rev. 1:5. C. M. THERE is a name I love to hear; I love to sing its worth; It sounds like music in mine ear, The sweetest name on earth.

2 It tells me of a Saviour's love, Who died to set me free; It tells me of his precious blood The sinner's perfect plea.

 3 It tells of One whose loving heart Can feel my smallest woe:
 Who in each sorrow bears a part That none can bear below.

4 Jesus! the name I love so well, The name I love to hear! No saint on earth its worth can tell, No heart conceive how dear.

5 This name shall shed its fragrance still Along this thorny road— Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill That leads me up to God:

| 3 | 9 | r saim ob; b. | L. |
| | 1 | WAKE, my soul, in joyful lays, | |
| | ŧ | And sing thy great Redeemer's praise; le justly claims a song from me, | |
| | | lis loving kindness, O how free! | |
| 2 | | le saw me ruin'd by the fall, | |
| | | et lov'd me notwithstanding all; | |
| | E | le sav'd me from my lost estate, | |
| | E | lis loving kindness, O how great! | |

- 3 Though num'rous hosts of mighty foes, Though earth and hell my way oppose, He safely leads my soul along, His loving kindness, O how strong!
- 4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud, Has gather'd thick and thunder'd loud, He near my soul has always stood, His loving kindness, O how good!

36 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house. L. M. Psalm st: 4. UOW pleasant, how divinely fair,

O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are ! With long desire my spirit faints To meet the assemblies of thy saints.

- 2 My soul would rest in thine abode, My panting heart cries out for God; My God! my King! why should I be So far from all my joys and thee!
- 3 Blest are the souls that find a place Within the temple of thy grace;There they behold thy gentler rays, And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.
- 4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set To find the way to Zion's gate; God is their strength, and through the road They lean upon their Helper, God.

37 The song of Moses and the Lamb. Rev. 16:3. S. M. A WAKE, and sing the song Of Moses and the Lamb; Wake every heart, and every tongue, To praise the Saviour's name.
2 Sing of his dying love: Sing of his rising power; Sing how he intercedes above For us, whose sins he bore.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

3 Sing, till we feel our heart Ascending with our tongue; Sing, till the love of sin depart, And grace inspire our song.

4 Sing on your heav'nly way, Ye ransom'd sinners, sing; Sing on, rejoicing every day In Christ, th' eternal King.

5 Soon shall we hear him say, "Ye blessed children, come !" Soon will he call us hence away, To our eternal home.

Zion's joyful travelers.

38

CHILDREN of the heav'nly King, As we journey let us sing— Sing our Saviour's worthy praise: Glorious in his works and ways!

M. 7s.

- 2 We are traveling home to God, In the way our fathers trod; They are happy now, and we Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 O ye banish'd seed, be glad! Christ our advocate is made; Us to save, our flesh assumes, Brother to our souls becomes.
- 4 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand, On the borders of our land— Jesus Christ, our Father's Son, Bids us undismay'd go on.
- 5 Lord! obediently we'll go, Gladly leaving all below; Only thou our Leader be, And we still will follow thee!

WORSHIP AND PRAISE.

The blest hour of worship.

L. M.

BLEST hour when mortal man retires To hold communion with his God, To send to heav'n his warm desires, And listen to the sacred word.

2 Blest hour when earthly cares resign Their empire o'er his anxious breast, While all around the calm divine Proclaims the holy day of rest.

3 Blest hour when God himself draws nigh, Well pleas'd his people's voice to hear, To hush the penitential sigh, And wipe away the mourner's tear.

4 Blest hour, for where the Lord resorts— Foretastes of future bliss are giv'n, And mortals find his earthly courts The house of God, the gate of heav'n.

Grateful adoration. Psalm 100.

L. M.

BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne, Ye nations, bow with sacred joy; Know that the Lord is God alone; He can create, and he destroy.

- 2 His sov'reign pow'r, without our aid, Made us of clay and form'd us men; And when, like wand'ring sheep, we stray'd, He brought us to his fold again.
- 3 We are his people, we his care,— Our souls and all our mortal frame; What lasting honors shall we rear, Almighty Maker, to thy name?

4 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs High as the heav'ns our voices raise; And earth, with her ten thousand tongues, Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise. 30

OPENING HYMNS.

5 Wide as the world is thy command; Vast as eternity thy love;
Firm as a rock thy truth must stand, When rolling years shall cease to move.

OPENING HYMNS.

8 & 7.

BRETHREN, we have met to worship, And adore the Lord our God, Will you pray in faith with fervor, While we strive to preach the word? All is vain, unless the Spirit Of the Holy One comes down; Brethren, pray, and holy manna Will be showered all around.

2 Brethren, don't you see poor sinners Slumb'ring on the brink of woe; Death is coming, hell is moving, Can you bear to see them go? There are fathers, there are mothers, And their children sinking down, &c.

3 Brethren, there's the poor backslider, Who was once near heaven's door, But, alas! he's sold his Saviour, And is worse than e'er before; But the Saviour proffers pardon, If he will repent and turn, &c.

4 Sisters, will you join and help us? (Moses' sister helped him;)
Will you seek the trembling mourner, Who is lab'ring hard with sin?
Tell them all about the Saviour, Tell them that he will be found. Sisters, &c.

WORSHIP AND PRAISE.

5 Let us love our Lord supremely; Let us love each other too;
Let us strengthen one another, Till our Lord makes all things new, And when we get home to heaven, At his table we'll sit down;
Christ will gird himself, and serve us With sweet manna all around.

42

A blessing asked for.

C. M.

O NCE more we lift our hearts to God, Once more his blessing ask; O may not duty seem a load, Nor worship prove a task!

- 2 Father, thy quickening Spirit send From heaven, in Jesus' name; To make our waiting minds attend, And put our souls in frame.
- 3 May we receive the word we hear, Each in an honest heart; And keep the precious treasure there, And never with it part.
- 4 To seek thee all our hearts dispose, To each thy blessing suit; And let the seed thy servant sows Produce a plenteous fruit.

4.3 Spiritual Improvement. M. 8s, 7s & 4

IN thy name, O Lord, assembling, We, thy children, now draw near; Teach us to rejoice with trembling; Speak, and let thy servants hear,— Hear with meekness,— Ilear thy word with godly fear.

2 While our days on earth are lengthen'd, May we give them, Lord, to thee; Cheered by hope, and daily strengthen'd, We would run, nor weary be, Till thy glory, Without clouds. in heaven we see. 3 There, in worship purer, sweeter, All thy people shall adore, Tasting of enjoyment greater Than they could conceive before,---Full enjoyment,-Holy bliss, for evermore. 44 Prayer for minister and people. 88, 78 & 4. DEAREST Saviour, help thy servant To proclaim thy wondrous love! Pour thy grace upon this people, That they may thy love approve: Bless, O bless them. From thy shining courts above. 2 Now thy gracious word invites them To partake the gospel-feast; Let thy Spirit sweetly draw them; Ev'ry soul be Jesus' guest! O receive us, Let us find thy promis'd rest. Take heed, therefore, how ye hear. 45 L. M. Luke 8: 18. THY presence, gracious God. afford; Prepare us to receive thy word; Now let thy voice engage our ear, And faith be mixed with what we hear. 2 Distracting thoughts and cares remove, And fix our hearts and hopes above; With food divine may we be fed, And satisfied with living bread. (3)33

| | 3 To us thy sacred word apply, With sov'reign pow'r and energy, And may we, in thy faith and fear Reduce to practice what we hear. |
|---|--|
| | 4 Father, in us thy Son reveal; Teach us to know and do thy will; Thy saving-pow'r and love display, And guide us to the realms of day. |
| 4 | 6 There am f. Matt. 18: 20. L. M. |
| | WHERE two or three, with sweet accord, Obedient to their sov'reign Lord, Meet to recount his acts of grace, And offer solemn pray'r and praise: |
| 2 | "There," said the Saviour, "will I be, Amid this little company; To them unvail my smiling face, And shed my glories round the place." |
| 3 | We meet at thy command, dear Lord, Relying on thy faithful word; Now send thy Spirit from above, Now fill our hearts with heav'nly love. |
| 4 | 7 Prayer for the Success of the Word. C. M. |
| | COME, O thou all victorious Lord, Thy pow'r to us make known, Strike with the hammer of thy word, And break these hearts of stone. |
| | Speak with the voice which wakes the dead, And bids the sleeper rise, And let each guilty conscience dread The death that never dies. |
| 3 | To them a sense of guilt impart, And then remove the load, Quicken, and wash the troubled heart In thine atoning blood. |
| | 34 |

CLOSING HYMNS.

 4 Their desp'rate state through sin declare And speak their sins forgiv'n;
 By daily growth in grace prepare, Then take them up to heav'n.

48

Humble Request. P. M. 7, 7, 7, 7.

ORD, we come before thee now, At thy feet we humbly bow; O do not our suit disdain; Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

- 2 In thine own appointed way, Now we seek thee, here we stay; Lord, we cannot let thee go Till a blessing thou bestow.
- 3 Send some message from thy word That may joy and peace afford; Let thy Spirit now impart Full salvation to each heart.
- 4 Comfort those who weep and mourn, Let the time of joy return; Those who are cast down, lift up; Make them strong in faith and hope.
- 5 Grant that all may seek and find Thee a God supremely kind; Heal the sick, the captive free, Let us all rejoice in thee.

CLOSING HYMNS.

The Lord bless thee and keep thee. Num. 6: 21. L. M.

FRE to the world again we go, Its pleasures, cares, and idle show, Thy grace, once more, O God, we crave, From folly and from sin to save.

- 2 May the great truths we here have heard, The lessons of thy holy word— Dwell in our inmost bosoms deep, And all our souls from error keep.
- 3 O, may the influ'nce of this day Long as our mem'ry with us stay, And as an angel guardian prove, To guide us to our home above.
- 50 For the fulness of peace and joy. 87 & 4. L ORD, dismiss us with thy blessing, Fill our hearts with joy and peace! Let us each, thy love possessing, Triumph in redeeming grace; O refresh us, etc., Trav'ling through this wilderness.
 - 2 Thanks we give and adoration, For thy gospel's joyful sound; May the fruits of thy salvation In our hearts and lives abound! Ever faithful, etc., To the truth may we be found!

51

At the close of meeting.

S. M.

ONCE more, before we part, We'll bless the Saviour's name; Record his mercies, ev'ry heart; Sing ev'ry tongue, the same.

- 2 Hoard up his sacred word, And feed thereon and grow;
 Go on, and seek to know the Lord, And practice what you know.
- 3 And if we meet no more On Zion's earthly ground,
 - O may we reach that blissful state Where all thy saints are found.

CLOSING HYMNS.

At the close of meeting.

L. M.

DISMISS us from the house of pray'r, With blessings such as mortals need, And make our souls thy constant care, Till we from evil shall be freed.

2 And if we never meet again, Till we our Lord appearing see, O may we all with Jesus reign,

And always with our Saviour be!

53 It is good that the heart be established. S. M. Heb. 13: 9.

ORD, at this closing hour, Establish ev'ry heart Upon thy word of truth and pow'r, To keep us when we part.

 2 Peace to our brethren give;
 Fill all our hearts with love;
 In faith and patience may we live, And seek our rest above.

 Through changes, bright or drear, We would thy will pursue;
 And toil to spread thy kingdom here, Till we its glory view.

4 To God, the Only Wise, In every age ador'd, Let glory from the church arise Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Keep them from the evil. John 17: 15. 8s, 7s & 4.

G OD of our salvation, hear us;; Bless, O bless us, ere we go, When we join the world, be near us, Lest we cold and careless grow : Saviour, keep us— Keep us safe from ev'ry foe.

37

2 May we live in view of heav'n, Where we hope to see thy face; Save us from unhallow'd leaven, All that might obscure thy grace; Keep us walking Each in his appointed place.

3 As our steps are drawing nearer To the place we call our home, May our view of heav'n grow clearer, Hope more bright of joys to come; And, when dying, May thy presence cheer the gloom.

55

A prayer for success.

Н. М.

O^N what has now been sown, Thy blessing, Lord, bestow: The power is thine alone To make it spring and grow; Do thou the gracious harvest raise, And thou alone shalt have the praise.

56

Apostolic Benediction. 2 Cor. 13: 14. 8s & 7s.

MAY the grace of Christ, our Saviour, And the Father's boundless love, With the Holy Spirit's favor, Rest upon us from above.

2 Thus may we abide in union With each other and the Lord, And possess, in sweet communion, Joys which earth cannot afford.

57

Dismission.

L. M.

DISMISS us with thy blessing, Lord-Help us to feed upon thy word; All that has been amiss forgive, And let thy truth within us live.

SOCIAL WORSHIP.

2 Though we are guilty, thou art good-Wash all our works in Jesus' blood; Give ev'ry fett'red soul release, And bid us all depart in peace.

58

After Sermon.

THIS God is the God we adore, Our faithful, unchangeable friend; Whose love is as large as his pow'r, And neither knows measure nor end.

2 'T is Jesus, the first and the last, Whose Spirit shall guide us safe home; We'll praise him for all that is past, And trust him for all that's to come.

SOCIAL WORSHIP.

59 Retirement and proyer. Luke 6 : 12. C. M. LOVE to steal awhile away From ev'ry cumb'ring care ;

And spend the hours of setting day In humble, grateful pray'r.

- 2 I love in solitude to shed The penitential tear; And all his promises to plead, Where none but God can hear.
- 3 I love to think on mercies past, And future good implore: And all my cares and sorrows cast On him whom I adore.

 4 I love by faith to take a view Of brighter scenes in heav'n;
 The prospect doth my strength renew, While here by tempests driv'n.

5 Thus when life's toilsome day is o'er, May its departing ray Be calm as this impressive hour, And lead to endless day.

60

Advantages of secret prayer.

11s.

M Y closet, my temple, my social retreat, II It's there, with my Saviour in concert I meet; How many the objects inviting me there, To pour out my soul in the order of pray'r.

2 When shades of great darkness come over my heart And I fear that my God is about to depart, I come to my closet and find him still there, His hands fill'd with blessings in answer to pray'r.

3 I bless the glad day when his grace I first felt, His mercy then sav'd me and cancel'd my guilt; I will visit my closet, and never despair— It was there my Redeemer first answer'd my pray'r.

4 My Saviour is found in all places below; His mercy abounds and his grace overflows: A temple, a closet, I find ev'ry-where, And Jesus is waiting to bless me in pray'r.

Importunity in prayer.

S. M.

THE Lord, who truly knows The heart of every saint, Invites us by his holy word, To pray and never faint.

2 He bows his gracious ear!
We never plead in vain;
Yet we must wait till he appear, And pray and pray again.

3 'Twas thus a widow poor, Without support or friend, Beset the unjust judge's door, And gained at last her end.

4 And shall not Jesus hear His chosen, when they cry?
Yes, though he may a while forbear, He'll not their suit deny.

Nearness to God.

C. M.

O COULD I find, from day to day, A nearness to my Lord! Then should my hours glide sweet away, While leaning on his word.

2 Lord, I desire with thee to live Anew from day to day—

In joys the world can never give, And never take away.

3 O, Jesus, come and rule my heart, And make me wholly thine, That I may never more depart, Nor grieve thy love divine.

4 Thus, till my last expiring breath, Thy goodness I'll adore; And when my flesh dissolves in death, My soul shall love thee more.

63

God is present every-where.

7s.

THEY who seek the throne of grace Find that throne in ev'ry place; If we live a life of pray'r, God is present ev'ry-where.

- 2 In our sickness and our health, In our want, or in our wealth, If we look to God in pray'r, God is present ev'ry-where.
- 3 When our earthly comforts fail, When the woes of life prevail, 'T is the time for earnest pray'r; God is present ev'ry-where.
- 4 Then, my soul, in ev'ry strait, To thy Father come, and wait; He will answer ev'ry pray'r: God is present ev'ry-where.

We took sweet counsel together. Psalm 55: 14. O IT is joy in one to meet Whom one communion blends, Council to hold in converse sweet, And talk as Christian friends.

2 'T is joy to think the angel train, Who 'mid heaven's temple shine, To seek our earthly temples deign, And in our anthems join.

3 But chief 't is joy to think that he, To whom his church is dear, Delights her gather'd flock to see, Her joint devotions hear.

4 Then who would choose to walk abroad, While here such joys are given?"This is indeed the house of God, And this the gate of heaven!"

Sweet hour of prayer.

SWEET hour of pray'r! sweet hour of pray'r! That calls me from a world of care, And bids me at my Father's throne Make all my wants and wishes known; In seasons of distress and grief, My soul has often found relief; And oft escap'd the tempter's snare By thy return, sweet hour of pray'r.

L. M.

2 Sweet hour of pray'r! sweet hour of pray'r! Thy wings shall my petition bear, To him whose truth and faithfulness, Engage the waiting soul to bless; And since he bids me seek his face, Believe his word and trust his grace, I'll cast on him my ev'ry care, And wait for thee, sweet hour of pray'r!

THE LORD'S DAY.

3 Sweet hour of pray'r! sweet hour of pray'r! May I thy consolation share; Till, from Mount Piszah's lofty hight, I view my home, and take my flight: This robe of flesh I'll drop, and rise To seize the everlasting prize; And shout while passing through the air, Farewell, farewell, sweet hour of pray'r.

66

The influences of the spirit desired. Acts 2:2.

SPIRIT Divine! attend our pray'r, And make this house thy home; Descend with all thy gracious pow'r, O! come, Great Spirit, come!

2 Come as the light; to us reveal Our emptiness and woe; And lead us in those paths of life Where all the righteous go.

3 Come as the fire, and purge our hearts Like sacrificial flame; Let our whole souls an off'ring be To our Redeemer's name.

THE LORD'S DAY.

67

Blessings of the Sabbath.

C. M.

C. M.

THIS is the day the Lord hath made; He calls the hours his own; Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad, And praise surround his throne.

2 To-day he rose and left the dead, And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints his triumphs spread, And all his wonders tell.

Hosanna to th' anointed King, To David's holy Son! Help us, O Lord—descend and bring Salvation from thy throne.

- 4 Blest be the Lord, who comes to men, With messages of grace; Who comes, in God his Father's name.
 - To save our sinful race.
- 5 Hosanna! in the highest strains The church on earth can raise; The highest heav'ns, in which he reigns, Shall give him nobler praise.

As it began to dawn. L. M. 68 Matt. 28: 1. Y op'ning eyes with rapture see The dawn of thy returning day; My thoughts, O God, ascend to thee, While thus my early vows I pay. 2 I yield my heart to thee alone, Nor would receive another guest: Eternal King, erect thy throne, And reign sole monarch in my breast. 3 O bid this trifling world retire, And drive each carnal thought away : Nor let me feel one vain desire, One sinful thought, through all the day. 4 Then, to thy courts when I repair, My soul shall rise on joyful wing, The wonders of thy love declare, And join the strains which angels sing. S. M. 69 Welcome, sweet day of rest. ELCOME, sweet day of rest, That saw the Lord arise: Welcome to this reviving breast

And these rejoicing eyes.

THE LORD'S DAY.

2 The King himself comes near, And feasts his saints to-day; Here we may sit, and see him here, And love, and praise, and pray.

One day, amid the place
 Where Christ, my Lord, has been,
 Is sweeter than ten thousand days
 Of pleasure and of sin.

 4 My willing soul would stay In such a frame as this,
 Till call'd to rise and soar away To everlasting bliss.

A solemn review.

THE light of Sabbath eve Is fading fast away; What record will it leave, To crown the closing day? Is it a Sabbath spent, Of fruitless time destroy'd; Or have these moments lent, Been sacredly employed?

2 How dreadful and how drear, In yon dark world of pain, Will Sabbaths lost appear, That cannot come again! Then, in that hopeless place, The wretched soul will say "I had those hours of grace, But cast them all away."

3 To waste these Sabbath hours, O, may we never dare; Nor taint with thoughts of ours, These sacred days of pray'r:

6s.

But may our Sabbaths here Inspire our hearts with love; And prove a foretaste clear Of that sweet rest above.

71 It is a good thing to give thanks, etc. Psalm 92:1. L. M. SWEET is the work, my God, my King, To praise thy name, give thanks and sing; To show thy love by morning light, And talk of all thy truth at night.

- 2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest; No mortal cares shall seize my breast; O may my heart in tune be found, Like David's harp, of solemn sound.
- 3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord, And bless his works, and bless his word; Thy works of grace, how bright they shine! How deep thy counsels! how divine!
- 4 Lord, I shall share a glorious part, When grace hath well refined my heart, And fresh supplies of joy are shed, Like holy oil, to cheer my head.
- 5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know All I desir'd or wish'd below; And ev'ry pow'r find sweet employ In that eternal world of joy.

72

The Sabbath a delight.

8s.

WE bless thee for this sacred day, Thou who hast ev'ry blessing giv'n— Which sends the dreams of earth away, And yields a glimpse of op'ning heav'n.

2 Rich day of holy, thougtful rest! May we improve thy calm repose, And, in God's service truly blest, Forget the world, its joys, its woes.

THE LORD'S DAY.

 3 Lord! may thy truth upon the heart Now fall and dwell as heav'nly dew,
 And flow'rs of grace in freshness start Where once the weeds of error grew.

4 May pray'r now lift her sacred wings, Contented with that aim alone Which bears her to the King of kings, And rests her at his shelt'ring throne.

73

There remaineth a rest, etc. Heb. 4:9. L. M.

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love; But there's a nobler rest above; To that our longing souls aspire, With cheerful hope and strong desire.

- 2 No more fatigue, no more distress, Nor sin, nor death shall reach the place; No groans shall mingle with the songs Which dwell upon immortal tongues;
- 3 No rude alarms of angry foes; No cares to break the long repose; No midnight shade, no clouded sun, But sacred, high, eternal noon.

4 O long-expected day, begin; Dawn on these realms of pain and sin; With joy we'll tread th' appointed road, And sleep in death to rest with God.

74 A present rest. Heb. 4:3 C. M.
TO-DAY God bids the faithful rest, To-day he show'rs his grace;
Seek ye my face, the Lord hath said; Lord, we will seek thy face.
2 Come, let us leave the things on earth, With God's assembly join; Lo, heav'n descends to welcome man,

To taste the things divine!

- We come, dear Saviour, lo, we come, Lord of our life and soul!
 We come diseas'd, and faint, and sick, Be pleas'd to make us whole.
- 4 We thirst and flee to thee, O Lord! Thou fountain-head of good! Filthy we come, and all unclean; O cleanse us in thy blood!
- 5 O may we please our God to-day, May that be all our care!
 Give, Lord, thy grace, lest evil thoughts Should mingle in our pray'r.
- 6 Amid th' assembly of thy saints Let us be faithful found :
 - And let us join in humble pray'r, And in thy praise abound.

Sabbath in the Sanctuary. M. 6 lines 7s.

SAFELY through another week God has brought us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek,

Waiting in his courts to-day,— Day of all the week the best, Emblem of eternal rest.

2 While we seek supplies of grace, Through the dear Redeemer's name, Show thy reconciling face, Take away our sin and shame; From our worldly cares set free, May we rest this day in thee.

3 Here we come thy name to praise; Let us feel thy presence near; May thy glory meet our eyes, While we in thy house appear; Here afford us, Lord, a taste Of our everlasting feast.

THE LORD'S DAY.

4 May the gospel's joyful sound Conquer sinners, comfort saints, Make the fruits of grace abound, Bring relief from all complaints; Thus let all our Sabbaths prove, Till we join the church above.

76

77

The Sabbath.

L. M.

A NOTHER six days' work is done, Another Sabbath is begun : Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest, Improve the day that God hath blest.

- 2 Come, bless the Lord, whose love assigns So sweet a rest to wearied minds, Draws us away from earth to heaven, And gives this day the food of seven.
- 3 Oh, may our prayers and praises rise As grateful incense to the skies, And draw from heaven that sweet repose Which none but he who feels it knows.
- 4 In holy duties may the day, In holy pleasures, pass away; How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend In hope of one that ne'er shall end!

The type of everlasting rest.

C. M.

COME, let us join with one accord In hymns around the throne; This is the day our rising Lord Hath made and call'd his own.

2 This is the day which God hath blest, The brighest of the seven,
Type of that everlasting rest The saints enjoy in heaven.
(4) 49

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

3 Then let us in his name sing on, And hasten to that day When our Redeemer shall come down, And shadows pass away.

4 Not one, but all our days below, Let us in hymns employ; And, in our Lord rejoicing, go To his eternal joy.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

Buy the truth and sell it not. Prov. 23: 23. L. M.

THE worth of truth no tongue can tell, 'T will do to buy, but not to sell; A large estate that soul has got, Who buys the truth and sells it not.

- 2 Truth, like a diamond, shines most fair More rich than pearls and rubies are, More worth than gold and silver coin, O may it ever in us shine.
- 3 'T is truth that binds, and truth makes free, And sets the souls at liberty From sin and Satan's heavy chain, And then within the heart doth reign.
- 4 They have a freedom then indeed, That doth all freedom else exceed; Freedom from guilt, freedom from woe, And never more shall bondage know.
- 5 O happy they, who in their youth Are brought to know and love the truth! For none but those whom truth makes free, Can evermore the Saviour see.
- 6 Truth, like a girdle, let us wear, And always keep it clean and fair; And never let it once be told, That truth by us was ever sold.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

79 The power of God unto solvation. Rom. 1: 16. L. M. GOD, in the gospel of his Son, Makes his eternal counsels known; 'Tis here his richest mercy shines, And truth is drawn in fairest lines.

- 2 Wisdom its dictates here imparts, To form our minds, to cheer our hearts; Its influ'nce makes the sinner live; It bids the drooping saint revive.
- 3 Our raging passions it controls, And comfort yields to contrite souls; It brings a better world in view, And guides us all our journey through. May this blest volume ever lie Close to my heart, and near my eye, Till life's last hour my soul engage, And be my chosen heritage.
- 80 The law and gospel compared. 2 Cor. 3: 7-11. L. M. THE law commands and makes us know What duties to our God we owe; But 't is the gospel must reveal
 - Where lies our strength to do his will.
- 2 The law discovers guilt and sin, And shows how vile our hearts have been; Only the gospel can express Forgiving love and cleansing grace.
- 3 What curses doth the law denounce Against the man that fails but once! But in the gospel Christ appears, Pard'ning the guilt of num'rous years.
- 4 My soul, no more attempt to draw Thy life and comfort from the law; Fly to the hope the gospel gives; The man that trusts the promise, lives.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

O, how I love thy law! Psalm 119: 97. 8s & 7s.

BLESSED Bible, how I love it! How it doth my bosom cheer! What hath earth like this to covet? O, what stores of wealth are here! Man was lost and doomed to sorrow: Not one ray of light or bliss Could he from earth's treasure borrow, Till his way was cheered by this!

2 Yes, I'll to my bosom press thee, Precious word! I'll hide thee here!
Sure my very heart will bless thee, For thou ever say'st, "Good cheer!"
Speak, my heart, and tell thy pond'rings; Tell how far thy rovings led,
When this book bro't back thy wand'rings, Speaking life as from the dead.

3 Yes, sweet Bible! I will hide thee Deep, yes, deeper in this heart; Thou through all my life will guide me, And in death we will not part! Part in death? no, never, never! Through death's vale I'll lean on thee; Then, in brighter worlds, for ever, Sweeter far thy truths shall be.

82 The inspiration of the Scriptures. L. M. ² Peter 1:21. L. M. ³ WAS by an order from the Lord, The ancient prophets spoke his word; His spirit did their tongues inspire, And warm'd their hearts with heav'nly fire. 2 The works and wonders which they wro't

Confirm'd the messages they brought; The prophet's pen succeeds his breath, To save the holy words from death.

JOHN'S MINISTRY AND BAPTISM.

- 3 Great God! mine eyes with pleasure look On the dear volume of thy book; There my Redeemer's face I see, And read his name who died for me.
- 4 Let the false raptures of the mind Be lost, and vanish in the wind; Here I can fix my hopes secure— This is thy word, and must endure.

83 Safety in keeping God's precepts.

S. M.

HOW perfect is thy word! Thy judgments all are just; And ever in thy promise, Lord, Man may securely trust.

- 2 I hear thy word in love; In faith thy word obey;
 0, send thy spirit from above, To teach me, Lord, thy way.
- 3 Thy counsels are all plain, Thy precepts all are pure;
 And long as heaven and earth remain, Thy truth shall still endure.
- 4 O, may my soul, with joy, Trust in thy faithful word:
 Be it through life my glad employ, To keep thy precepts, Lord.

John's ministry and baptism.

C. M.

UPON the banks of Jordan stood, The great forerunner John, And pointed to the Lamb of God, The long expected One. JOHN'S MINISTRY AND BAPTISM.

2 He loud proclaim'd the coming reign, And told them to reform, If they God's favor would obtain, And shun the gath'ring storm.

3 "Forsake your sins," the Baptist said, That you may be forgiv'n;
Forsake them now, and be baptiz'd, For near's the reign of heav'n."

4 Thus did the man of God prepare A people for the Lord; To him did all the Jews repair

Who trusted in his word. 5 But now the reign of God has come,

That reign of grace below, And Jesus reigns upon God's throne, Remission to bestow.

6 He bids all nations look to him, As Prince of life and peace; And offers pardon to all them Who now accept his grace.

85

John's ministry.

C. M.

JOHN was the prophet of the Lord, To go before his face; The herald which the Prince of peace Sent to prepare his ways.

- 2 He makes the great salvation known, He speaks of pardon'd sins; While grace divine, and heavenly love. In its own glory shines.
- 3 "Behold the Lamb of God," he cries, "That takes our guilt away:

I saw the Spirit o'er his head On his baptizing day.

CHRIST, THE INCARNATION

4 "The heathen realms with Israel's land Shall join in sweet accord; And all that's born of man shall see The glory of the Lord.

5 "Behold the Morning Star arise, Ye that in darkness sit;
He marks the path that leads to peace, And guides our doubtful feet."

CHRIST-THE INCARNATION.

Hail the blest morn.

11s & 10s.

H AIL the blest morn ! when the great Mediator Down from the regions of glory descends ! Shepherds, go worship the babe in the manger ; Lo ! for your guide the bright angel attends !

CHORUS.

Brighest and best of the sons of the morning, Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thy ald; Star of the East, the horizon adorning, Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

- 2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining, Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall;
- Angels adore him in slumbers reclining, Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all!
- 3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion, Odors of Eden, and off'rings divine;
- Gems from the mountain, and pearls from the ocean, Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?
- 4 Vainly we offer earth's richest oblation, Vainly with gold would his favor secure; Richer, by far, is the heart's adoration, Dearer to God are the pray'rs of the poor.

87 The angel's announcement of his birth. C. M. Luke 2: 14.

W HILE shepherds watch'd their flocks All seated on the ground, [by night, The angel of the Lord came down, And glory shone around.

 2 "Fear not," said he, for mighty dread Had seiz'd their troubled mind;
 "Glad tidings of great joy I bring To you, and all mankind.
 3 "To you, in David's town, this day Is born, of David's line,

The Saviour, who is Christ, the Lord, And this shall be the sign:

- 4 "The heav'nly babe you there shall find, To human view display'd, All meanly wrapped in swathing bands, And in a manger laid."
- 5 Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith Appear'd a shining throng Of angels, praising God, who thus Address'd their joyful song:
- 6 "All glory be to God on high, And to the earth be peace;Good will, henceforth, from heav'n to men, Begin, and never cease !"

The prophet foretells his birth. Isaiah 9: 6. C. M.

To us a child of hope is born, To us a Son is giv'n; Him shall the tribes of earth obey— Him all the hosts of heav'n.

2 His name shall be the Prince of Peace, For ever more ador'd—
The Wonderful, the Counsellor, The great and mighty Lord.

 3 His pow'r, increasing, still shall spread; His reign no end shall know;
 Justice shall guard his throne above, And peace abound below.

HARK!—the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King! Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!"

- 2 Joyful, all ye nations, rise, Join the triumph of the skies; With th' angelic host proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
- 3 See, he lays his glory by, Born, that man no more may die, Born, to raise the sons of earth, Born, to give them second birth.
- 4 Hail the heav'nly Prince of peace! Hail the Sun of righteousness! Light and life to all he brings, Ris'n with healing in his wings.
- 5 Let us then with angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King: Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!"

The Star of Bethlehem.

L. M.

C. M.

W HEN marshall'd on the nightly plain, The glittering host bestud the sky; One star alone, of all the train, Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.

- 2 Hark, hark! to God the chorus breaks, From every host, from every gen; But one alone the Saviour speaks, It is the Star of Bethlehem.
- 3 Once on the raging seas I rode, The storm was loud—the night was dark, The ocean yawn'd—and rudely blow'd The wind that toss'd my found'ring bark.
- 4 Deep horror then my vitals froze, Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem; When suddenly a star arose— It was the Star of Bethlehem!
- 5 It was my guide, my light, my all; It bade my dark forebodings cease; And through the storm and danger's thrall, It led me to the port of peace.
- 6 Now, safely moor'd—my perils o'er— I'll sing, first in night's diadem, For ever, and for evermore, The Star—the Star of Bethlehem!

HIS LIFE AND MISSION.

92

His baptism of suffering. Luke 12:50. THE Saviour, what a noble flame Was kindled in his breast, When, hasting to Jerusalem, He marched before the rest! 58

HIS LIFE AND MISSION.

2 Good-will to men, and zeal for God, His every thought engross;
He longs to be baptiz'd with blood, He pants to reach the cross.

3 With all his suff'rings full in view, And woes to us unknown, Forth to the task his spirit flew; 'T was love that urged him on.

4 Lord, we return thee what we can; Our hearts shall sound abroad Salvation to the dying man, And to the rising God.

5 And while thy bleeding glories here Engage our wondering eyes,

We learn our lighter cross to bear, And hasten to the skies.

He beheld the city, and wept over it. Luke 19:41. S. M.

DID Christ o'er sinners weep, And shall our cheeks be dry? Let tears of penitential grief Flow forth from ev'ry eye.

2 The Son of God in tears, The wond'ring angels see; Be thou astonish'd; O my soul, He shed those tears for thee.

 3 He wept that we might weep, Each sin demands a tear;
 In heav'n alone no sin is found And there's no weeping there.

93

The law and gospel contrasted.

S. M.

THE law by Moses came, But peace and truth and love Were brought by Christ, a nobler name, Descending from above.

2 Amidst the house of God, Their different works were done; Moses a faithful servant stood, But Christ a faithful Son.

- 3 Then to his new commands Be strict obedience paid;
 O'er all his Father's house he stands, The sov'reign and the head.
- 4 The man that durst despise The law that Moses brought, Behold, how terribly he dies, For his presumptuous thought.
- 5 But sorer vengeance falls
 On that rebellious race,
 Who hate to hear when Jesus calls
 And dare resist his grace.

95

Grace is poured into thy lips. Psalm 45: 2. I. M.

HOW sweetly flow'd the gospel sound From lips of gentleness and grace, When list'ning thousands gather'd round, And joy and gladness filled the place!

2 Christ came from heav'n; of heav'n he spoke; To heav'n he led his followers' way;

Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke, Unvailing an immortal day.

- 3 "Come, wand'rers, to my father's home; Come, all ye weary ones, and rest;"
- Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come, Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.
- 4 Decay, then, tenements of dust; Plllars of earthly pride, decay;
- A nobler mansion waits the just, And Jesus has prepar'd the way.

HIS LIFE AND MISSION.

The chief among ten thousand. C. M. 96 Cant. 5: 10. AJESTIC sweetness sits enthron'd Upon the Saviour's brow; His head with radiant glories crown'd, His lips with grace o'erflow. 2 No mortal can with him compare Among the sons of men; Fairer is he than all the fair Who fill the heav'nly train. 3 He saw me plung'd in deep distress, And came to my relief: For me he bore the shameful cross, And carried all my grief. 4 To him I owe my life and breath, And all the joys I have; He makes me triumph over death, And saves me from the grave.

Salvation by grace.

G RACE! 'tis a charming sound, Harmonious to the ear! Heaven with the echo shall resound And all the earth shall hear.

S. M

2 Grace first contrived the way To save rebellious man; And all the steps that grace display Which drew the wondrous plan.

3 Grace led my roving feet
 To tread the heavenly road;
 And new supplies each hour I meet
 While pressing on to God.

4 Grace all the work shall crown, Through everlasting days;

It lays in heaven the topmost stone, And well deserves the praise.

O^{NE} there is above all others, Well deserves the name of friend; His is love beyond a brother's, Costly, free, and knows no end.

2 Which, of all our friends, to save us, Could or would have shed his blood? But this Saviour died to have us Reconcil'd in him to God.

3 When he liv'd on earth abased, Friend of sinners was his name; Now above all glory raised, He rejoices in the same.

And that rock was Christ. 1 Cor. 10: 4.

7s.

R OCK of ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in thee, Let the water and the blood, From thy riven side which flowed, Be of sin the double cure; Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

- 2 Not the labor of my hands Can fulfill the law's demands; Could my zeal no respite know, Could my tears for ever flow, All for sin could not atone; Thou must save, and thou alone.
- 3 Nothing in my hand I bring, Simply to thy cross I cling; Naked, come to thee for dress; Helpless, look to thee for grace; Foul, I to the fountain fly, Wash me, Saviour, or I die.
- 4 While I draw this fleeting breath, When my heart-strings break in death, When I soar to worlds unknown, See thee on thy judgment-throne, Rock of ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in thee.

Remember me. C. M. 104 Luke 23: 42. ESUS! thou art the sinner's friend, As such I look to thee: Now in the bowels of thy love O Lord! remember me. (5)65

2 Remember thy pure word of grace, Remember Calvary; Remember all thy dying groans, And then remember me.

3 Thou wondrous Advocate with God, I yield myself to thee:

While thou art sitting on thy throne, O, Lord! remember me.

4 I own I'm guilty, own I'm vile, Yet thy salvation's free; Then, in thy all-abounding grace, O, Lord! remember me.

2 Yes, o'er me, o'er me he watcheth, Ceaseless watcheth, night and day; Yes, e'en me, e'en me he snatcheth From the perils of the way.

3 Yes, for me he standeth pleading, At the mercy seat above; Ever for me interceding, Constant in untiring love.

4 Yes, in me abroad he sheddeth Joys unearthly, love and light; And to cover me he spreadeth His paternal wing of night.

5 Yes, in me, in me he dwelleth; I in him, and he in me! And my empty soul he filleth, Here and through eternity.

HIS NAMES AND CHARACTERS.

- 2 I am, saith Christ, the truth; Then all that lacks this test, Proceed it from an angel's mouth, Is but a lie at best.
- 3 I am, saith Christ, the life: Let this be seen by faith, It follows without further strife, That all besides is death.
- 4 If what those words aver, The Holy Ghost apply, The simplest Christian shall not err, Nor be deceiv'd, nor die.

What think ye of Christ? P. M. 8 & 8. 112'HAT think ye of Christ? is the test, To try both your state and your How can you be right in the rest, [scheme; Unless you think rightly of him? As Jesus appears in your view, As he is beloved or not, So God is disposed to you, And mercy or wrath is your lot. 2 Some take him a creature to be, A man or an angel at most. Sure these have not feelings like me, Nor know themselves wretched and lost; So guilty, so helpless am I. I could not confide in his word. Nor on his protection rely, Unless I could call him my Lord. 3 Some call him a Saviour in word. But place their own work in the van, And hope he his help will afford, When they have done all that they can; If doings prove rather too light, A little they own they may fail, They purpose to make up full weight, By casting his name in the scale.

CHRIST,

4 Some style him the pearl of great price, And say he's the fountain of joys : Yet feed upon folly and vice, And cleave to the world and its toys: Like Judas, the Saviour they kiss, And while they salute him, betray ; Ah! what will profession like this Avail in that terrible day? 5 If ask'd what of Jesus I think, Tho' still my best thoughts are but poor, I say he's my meat and my drink, My life, and my strength, and my store; My shepherd, my husband, my friend, My Saviour from sin and from thrall; My hope from beginning to end, My portion, my Lord, and my all. 113Compassionate High Priest. C. M. 7 ITH joy we meditate the grace Of our High Priest above : His heart is made of tenderness, His bosom glows with love. 2 Touched with a sympathy within, He knows our feeble frame : He knows what sore temptations mean, For he hath felt the same. 3 He in the days of feeble flesh, Poured out his cries and tears: And in his measure feels afresh What every member bears. 4 He'll never quench the smoking flax, But raise it to a flame; The bruised reed he never breaks. Nor scorns the meanest name. 5 Then let our humble faith address His mercy and his power; We shall obtain deliv'ring grace In every trying hour. 72

HIS SUFFERINGS AND DEATH.

HIS SUFFERINGS AND DEATH.

114 He suffered, the Just for the unjust. 1 Pet. 3: 18. C. M.

A LAS! and did my Saviour bleed? And did my Sov'reign die? Would he devote that sacred head For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I have done He groaned upon the tree? Amazing pity! grace unknown! And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide, And shut his glories in, When God's own Son was crucified For man the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face While his dear cross appears, Dissolve my heart in thankfulness, And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay The debt of love I owe:

Here, Lord, I give myself away; "Tis all that I can do.

Christ on the cross.

C. M.

BEHOLD the Saviour of mankind Nail'd to the shameful tree! How vast the love that him inclin'd To bleed and die for thee!

2 Hark, how he groans ! while nature shakes, And earth's strong pillars bend; The temple's vail in sunder breaks, The solid marbles rend.

3 'T is done! the precious ransom's paid, Receive my soul! he cries: See where he bows his sacred head, He bows his head and dies!

CHRIST,

 4 But soon he'll break death's powerful chain, And in full glory shine !
 O Lamb of God ! was ever pain,

L. M.

STRETCH'D on the cross, the Saviour dies, Hark! his expiring groans arise : See, from his hands, his feet, his side, Runs down the sacred crimson tide.

- 2 But life attends the deathful sound, And flows from every bleeding wound; The vital stream, how free it flows, To cleanse and save his rebel foes!
- 3 Can I survey this scene of woe, Where mingling grief and wonder flow, And yet my heart unmoved remain, Insensible to love or pain?
- 4 Come, dearest Lord, thy grace impart, To warm this cold, this stupid heart, Till all its powers and passions move In melting grief and ardent love.

117 The Saviour on the cross. P. M. 10, 7s & 9.

SAW ye my Saviour, saw ye my Saviour, Saw ye my Saviour and God? O! he died on Calvary, To atone for you and me, And to purchase our pardon with blood.

2 He was extended, he was extended, Painfully nailed to the cross; Here he bowed his head and died, Thus my Lord was crucified, To atone for a world that was lost. 3 Darkness prevailed, darkness prevailed, Darkness prevail'd o'er the land, And the sun refus'd to shine When his Majesty divine Was derided, insulted, and slaiu.

4 Hail mighty Saviour! Hail mighty Saviour! Prince, and the author of peace! O! he burst the bars of death, And, triumphant from the earth, He ascended to mansions of bliss.

5 There interceding, there interceding, Pleading that sinners may live, Crying, "Father, I have died, O, behold my hands and side, O, forgive them, I pray thee, forgive."

6 "I will forgive them—I will forgive them When they repent and believe; Let them now return to thee, And be reconcil'd to me, And salvation they all shall receive."

Surely he hath borne our griefs. 7s & 6s. Isaiah 53:4.

O SACRED head, now wounded, With grief and shame weighed down; O sacred brow, surrounded With thorns, thine only crown: Once on a throne of glory, Adorn'd with light divine, Now all despis'd and gory, I joy to call thee mine.

2 On me, as thou art dying,
O, turn thy pitying eye;
To thee for mercy crying, Before thy cross I lie.

CHRIST,

Thine, thine the bitter passion; Thy pain is all for me; Mine, mine the deep transgression; My sins are all in thee.

3 What language can I borrow To praise thee, heav'nly Friend, For all this dying sorrow, Of all my woes the end?
O, can I leave thee ever? Then do not thou leave me; Lord, let me never, never Outlive my love to thee.

4 Be near when I am dying; Then close beside me stand; Let me, while faint and sighing, Lean calmly on thy I, and: These eyes, new faith receiving, From thee shall never move, For he who dies believing, Dies safely—in thy love.

Glorying in the cross. Gal. 6: 14. 8s & 7s.

SWEET the moments, rich in blessing, Which before the cross I spend; Life, and health, and peace possessing, From the sinner's dying Friend.

2 Here I'll sit, forever viewing Mercy's streams, in streams of blood, Precious drops, my soul bedewing, Plead and claim my peace with God.

3 Truly blessed is this station, Low before his cross to lie; While I see divine compassion Floating in his languid eye. 4 Here it is I find my heaven, While upon the cross I gaze; Love I much? I'm more forgiven— I'm a miracle of grace.

5 Love and grief my heart dividing, With my tears his feet I'll bathe, Constant still in faith abiding, Life deriving from his death.

6 May I still enjoy this feeling, In all need to Jesus go; Prove his wounds each day more healing, And himself more fully know.

120 Christ's triumph over death. L. M.

HE dies, the friend of sinners dies! Lo! Salem's daughters weep around! A solemn darkness vails the skies, A sudden trembling shakes the ground.

2 A conflict with the pow'rs of hell, Your Saviour did for you sustain : He nobly fought, but ah ! he fell ! Break, heart of flint ! the Lamb is slain.

3 Here's love and grief beyond degree; The Lord of glory dies for men! But, lo! what sudden joys we see! Jesus the dead revives again!

4 The rising Lord forsakes the tomb! (The tomb in vain forbids his rise!) Cherubic legions guard him home, And shout him welcome to the skies!

5 Break off your tears, you saints, and tell How high our great deliv'rer reigns; Sing how he spoil'd the hosts of hell, And led the monster Death in chains.

CHRIST,

6 Say, "Live forever, wondrous King! Born to redeem, and strong to save!" Then ask the mouster, "Where's thy sting? And where's thy vict'ry, boasting Grave?"

The Crucifixion.

8 & 6

THE Son of man they did betray, He was condemned and led away! Think! O my soul, on that dread day,

Look on Mount Calvary; Behold him lamb-like led along, Surrounded by a wicked throng; Accused by each lying tongue, And then the Lamb of God they hung Upon a shameful tree.

2 'T was thus the glorious suff'rer stood, With hands and feet nail'd to the wood, From ev'ry wound a stream of blood,

Came flowing down amain. His bitter groans all nature shook, And at his voice the rocks were broke, And sleeping saints their graves forsook, While spiteful Jews around him mock, And laughed at his pain.

3 Now hung between the earth and skies, Behold, in agonies he dies! O sinners, hear his mournful cries,

See his tormenting pains; The morning sun withdrew his light, Blush'd and refus'd to view the sight; The azure cloth'd in robes of night, All nature mourn'd in dread affright, When Christ the Lord was slain.

4 Hark! men and angels, hear the Son! He cries for help; but oh! there's none! He treads the wine-press all alone, His garments stain'd with blood. In lamentation hear him cry, Eloi lama sabacthani; Tho' death may close these languid eyes, He soon will mount the upper skies, The conquering Son of God.

5 The Jews and Romans in a band, With hearts like steel around him stand, Mocking they say, "Come, save the land, Come, try thyself to free." A soldier pierced him when he died, Then healing streams flowed from his side, And thus my Lord was crucified, And justice then was satisfied, Sinners, for you and me.

Gethsemane.

P. M. 8, 8, 6, 8, 8.

122

BEYOND where Kedron's waters flow; Behold the suffering Saviour go, To sad Gethsemane! His countenance is all divine, Yet grief appears in every line. 2 He bows beneath the sins of men, He cries to God, and cries again, In sad Gethsemane; He lifts his mournful eyes above-"My Father! can this cup remove?" 3 With gentle resignation still, He vielded to his Father's will, In sad Gethsemane :-"Behold me here, thine only Son, And, Father! let thy will be done." 4 The Father heard,—and angels there Sustained the Son of God in prayer, In sad Gethsemane; He drank the dreadful cup of pain ;--Then rose to life and joy again.

CHRIST,

125 The Burial of Christ.

SOLEMNLY, sadly, the mourners draw near, Jesus, the Saviour, to lay on the bier; Heart-broken, weeping, all shrouded in gloom, Gently they bear him away to the tomb.

M. 10s.

2 Mournfully, carefully, solemn and slow, Down from the mountain so sadly they go; Tears of deep anguish in torrents are shed, While he is borne to the home of the dead.

3 Mournfully, tenderly, o'er him they bow, Once more to gaze on that beautiful brow, Sorrow more deeply now pierces each breast, Gently, so gently they lay him to rest.

4 So have they buried him; now they depart; Homeward they move with a sad, broken heart; Fear not, poor mourners; for angels will keep Him ye have laid in the dark grave to sleep.

126 Christ's suffering and majestic M. 8, 8 & 6.

COME, O my soul, to Calvary, And see the man who died for thee, Upon the accursed tree. Behold the Saviour's agony, While groaning in Gethsemane, Beneath the sins of men. (6) 81

CHRIST.

2 With purple robe and thorny crown, And mocking soldiers bowing down, The Saviour bears my shame. Behold, they shed his precious blood, O! hear him cry, "My God, my God, Hast thou forsaken me?"

3 Now he who died on Calvary Still lives to plead for you and me. And bids us look and live. He sits upon the throne of grace, And bids the helpless seek his face, Oh! sinner, come to-day.

4 Soon he who once was scourged and bound, Shall come again with glory crowned, And reign forevermore.
His saints shall crown him Lord of all; Before him every foe shall fall, And every knee shall bow.

127 He was as a lamb dumb before his shearer. L. M. Isa. 53: 7.

A ND why, dear Saviour, tell me why? That thou would'st suffer, bleed and die? What mighty motives could thee move? The motive's plain—'t was all for love.

- 2 For love of whom? of sinners base, A hardened herd, a rebel race, That mocked and trampled on thy blood, And wantoned with the wounds of God.
 - 3 With thorns his sacred head was crowned, And lashed him when his hands were bound, And thorns, and knotted whips and bands, By us were furnished to their hands.
- 4 Then stood the wretch of human race, And raised his head and showed his face, Gazed unconcerned, when nature failed, And scoffers sneered, and cursed and railed.

- 5 Such was that race of sinful men, That gained that great Salvation then; Such, and such only, still we see; Such they were all, and such are we.

HIS RESURRECTION AND GLORY.

128 Joy arising from the Resurrection. S. M.

"THE Lord is ris'n indeed!" He lives to die no more; He lives the sinner's cause to plead, Whose curse and shame he bore.

- 2 "The Lord is ris'n indeed;" The grave has lost its prey;
 With him is ris'n the ransom'd seed, To reign in endless day.
- 3 "The Lord is ris'n indeed;" Attending angels hear: Up to the courts of heaven with speed, The joyful tidings bear.

4 Then wake your golden lyres, And strike each cheerful chord; Join, all ye bright celestial choirs, To sing our risen Lord.

The Happy Morn. H. M. 6s & 8s.

THE happy morn is come: Triumphant o'er the grave, The Saviour leaves the tomb, Omnipotent to save; Captivity is captive led; For Jesus liveth, who was dead.

CHRIST,

2 Who now accuse them, For whom their Ransom died? Who now shall those condemn, Whom God hath justified? Captivity is captive led; For Jesus liveth, who was dead.

3 Christ hath the ransom paid; The glorious work is done; On him our help is laid, By him our vict'ry won: Captivity is captive led; For Jesus liveth, who was dead.

130

Coronation of Christ.

C. M.

A LL hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal diadem, And crown him—Lord of all.

 Crown him, ye martyrs of our God, Who from his altar call;
 Extol the stem of Jesse's rod, And crown him—Lord of all.

3 Hail him, ye heirs of David's line, Whom David Lord did call: The God incarnate! Man Divine! And crown him—Lord of all.

 4 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race, Ye ransom'd from the fall, Hail him who saves you by his grace, And crown him—Lord of all.

5 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet, And crown him—Lord of all.

HIS RESURRECTION AND GLCRY. 6 Let every kindred, every tribe, On this terrestrial ball, To him all majesty ascribe, And crown him-Lord of all. M. 8s & 7s. 131 Glory to Jesus. AIL, thou once despised Jesus! Hail, thou everlasting King! Thou didst suffer to release us; Thou didst free salvation bring. Hail, thou agonizing Saviour, Bearer of our sin and shame! By thy merits we find favor; Life is given through thy name. 2 Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory, There forever to abide: All the heavenly host adore thee. Seated at thy Father's side:

There for sinners thou art pleading, There thou dost our place prepare; Ever for us interceding, Till in glory we appear.

3 Worship, honor, pow'r and blessing, Thou art worthy to receive; Loudest praises, without ceasing,

Meet it is for us to give:

Help, ye bright angelic spirits! Bring your sweetest, noblest lays; Help to sing our Saviour's merits, Help to chant Immanuel's praise!

CHRIST,

Trembling, while a crystal flood Issued from her weeping eyes.

2 But her sorrows quickly fled, When she heard his welcome voice:
Christ has risen from the dead; Now he bids her heart rejoice;
What a change his word can make, Turning darkness into day,
Ye who weep for Jesus' sake, He will wipe your tears away.

Christ's Victory. Isa. 63: 1.

8,7,8,7,7,7.

:0

WHO is this that comes from Edom? All his raiment stain'd with blood? To the captive speaking freedom, Bringing and bestowing good; Glorious in the garb he wears, Glorious in the spoil he bears.

2 'T is the Saviour, now victorious, Trav'ling onward in his might;
'T is the Saviour, O, how glorious To his people is the sight! Satan conquer'd, and the grave, Jesus now is strong to save.

3 Why that blood his raiment staining? 'T is the blood of many slain; Of his foes, there's none remaining, Now the contest to maintain: Fall'n are they, no more to rise; All their glory prostrate lies.

4 Mighty Victor, reign forever! Wear the crown so dearly won! Never shall thy people, never, Cease to sing what thou hast done! Thou hast fought thy people's foes; Thou hast heal'd thy people's woes! 86 Christ enthroned.

8,7,8,7,7,7.

HARK! ten thousand harps and voices Sound the note of praise above; Jesus reigns, and heaven rejoices, Jesus reigns the God of love: See, he sits on yonder throne— Jesus rules the world alone.

2 Jesus, hail! whose glory brightens All above, and gives it worth;
Lord of life, thy smile enlightens, Cheers, and charms thy saints on earth.
When we think of love like thine, Lord, we own it love divine.

3 King of glory, reign forever; Thine an everlasting crown; Nothing from thy love shall sever
Those whom thou hast made thine own. Happy objects of thy grace, Destined to behold thy face.

4 Saviour, hasten thine appearing; Bring, O, bring the glorious day, When, the awful summons hearing, Heav'n and earth shall pass away; Then with golden harps we'll sing, "Glory, glory to our King."

HIS SECOND ADVENT AND REIGN. 135 The Bridegroom cometh. H. M. 6s & 8s. Matt. 25. YE virgin souls, arise; With all the dead awake; Unto salvation wise, Oil in your vessels take: Upstarting at the midnight cry-Behold the heav'nly Bridegroom nigh! 2 He comes! he comes, to call The nations to his bar, 87

CHRIST.

And take to glory all Who meet for glory are: Make ready for your full reward; Go forth with joy to meet your Lord. 3 Go, meet him in the sky. Your everlasting Friend-Your head to glorify, With all his saints ascend: Ye pure in heart, obtain the grace, To see, without a vail, his face. He shall reign for ever and ever. 136 L. M. Rev. 11: 15. LET the seventh angel sound on high, Let shouts be heard thro' all the sky; Kings of the earth, with glad accord, Give up your kingdoms to the Lord. 2 Almighty God, thy pow'r assume. Who wast, and art, and art to come: Jesus, the Lamb, who once was slain. . For ever live, for ever reign! 4 Now must the rising dead appear; Now the decisive sentence hear: Now the dear martyrs of the Lord Receive an infinite reward. The day is at hand. 11s.137Rom. 13:12. THE night is far spent, and the day is at hand : Already the dawn may be seen in the sky: Rejoice then, ye saints, 't is your Lord's own command; Rejoice, for the coming of Jesus draws nigh. 2 What a day will that be when the Saviour appears! How welcome to those who have shared in his cross ! A crown incorruptible then will be theirs. A rich compensation for suff'ring and loss. 3 What is loss in this world when compar'd with that day. To the glory that then will from heav'n be reveal'd? "The Saviour is coming," his people may say ; "The Lord whom we look for, our Sun and our Shield." 4 O pardon us, Lord, that our love to thy name Is so faint, with so much our affections to move ! Our deadness should fill us with grief and with shame;

So much to be loved, and so little to love.

THE FALL.

THE FALL.

Corrupt nature from Adam. C. M. 138 Rom. 5: 17. LESS'D with the joys of innocence, Adam, our father, stood, Till he debas'd his soul to sense, And ate th' unlawful food. 2 Now we are born a sensual race. To sinful joys inclin'd ; Reason hath lost its native place, And flesh enslaves the mind. 3 While flesh, and sense, and passion reign Sin is the sweetest good; We fancy music in our chains. And so forget the load. 4 Great God! renew our ruin'd frame, Our broken pow'rs restore ; Inspire us with a heav'nly flame, And flesh shall reign no more. 5 Eternal Spirit! write thy law Upon our inward parts, And let the second Adam draw His image on our hearts. C. M. 139Sin Hereditary. THEN Adam sinned, through all his race The dire contagion spread; Sickness and death, and deep disgrace Sprang from our fallen head. 2 Satan in strong and heavy chains Binds the deluded soul. And every furious passion reigns Without the least control 3 From God and happiness we fly, To earth and sense confined, Lost in a maze of misery. Yet to our misery blind.

THE FALL.

- 2 And can these moldering corpses live? And can these perish'd bones revive? That, mighty God, to thee is known, That wondrous work is all thy own.
- 3 Thy ministers are sent in vain To prophesy upon the slain: In vain they call, in vain they cry, Till thy Almighty aid is nigh.
- 4 But if thy Spirit deign to breathe, Life spreads thro' all the realms of death, Dry bones obey thy pow'rful voice, They move, they waken, they rejoice:
- 5 So when the trumpet's awful sound Shall shake the heav'ns and rend the ground, Dead saints shall from their tombs arise, And spring to life beyond the skies.

Original and actual sin.

L. M.

ORD, we are vile, conceiv'd in sin, And born unholy and unclean; Sprung from the man whose guilty fall Corrupts his race, and taints us all.

- 2 Soon as we draw our infant breath The seeds of sin grow up for death; Thy law demands a perfect heart, But we're defiled in every part.
- 3 Behold, we fall before thy face; Our only refuge is thy grace: No outward forms can make us clean; The leprosy lies deep within.
- 4 Nor bleeding bird, nor bleeding beast, Nor hyssop branch, nor sprinkling priest, Nor running brook, nor flood, nor sea, Can wash the dismal stain away.

THE GOSPEL.

- 5 Jesus, thy blood, thy blood alone, Hath power sufficient to atone ; Thy blood can make us white as snow; No Jewish types could cleanse us so.
- 6 While guilt disturbs and breaks our peace, No flesh nor soul hath rest or ease : Lord, let us hear thy pard'ning voice, And make these broken hearts rejoice.

And there is room.

THE GOSPEL-INVITATION AND WARNING. H. M. 6s & 8s.

143Luke 14: 22. Y^E dying sons of men, Immerg'd in sin and woe, The gospel's voice attend. Which Jesus sent to you; Ye perishing and guilty, come, In Jesus' arms there yet is room. 2 No longer now delay, Nor vain excuses frame; He bids you come to-day, Though poor, and blind, and lame; All things are ready; sinner, come; For ev'ry trembling soul there's room. 3 Believe the heav'nly word His messengers proclaim; He is a gracious Lord, And faithful is his name : Backsliding souls, return and come, Cast off despair, there yet is room. 4 Compell'd by bleeding love, Ye wand'ring sheep, draw near. Christ calls you from above, His charming accents hear! Let whosoever will, now come; In mercy's breast there still is room. 92

INVITATION AND WARNING.

Glad tidings. 8s, 7s & 4. 144 Acts 13: 32. CINNERS, will you scorn the message Sent in mercy from above? Every sentence-0 how tender! Every line is full of love; Listen to it, Every line is full of love. 2 Hear the heralds of the gospel, News from Zion's King proclaim, To each rebel sinner-" Pardon, Free forgiveness in his name :" How important! Free forgiveness in his name! 3 Tempted souls, they bring you succor: Fearful hearts, they quell your fears, And with news of consolation, Chase away the falling tears. Tender heralds-Chase away the falling tears. 4 False professors, grov'ling worldlings, Callous hearers of the word, While the messengers address you, Take the warnings they afford; We entreat you. Take the warnings they afford. The night cometh, etc. John 9: 4. L. Life, the time to tabor. Eccl. 9: 10. L. M.

LIFE is the time to serve the Lord, The time t' insure the great reward, And while the lamp holds out to burn, O hasten, sinner, to return!

- 2 Life is the hour that God has giv'n To 'scape from hell and fly to heav'n; The day of grace, when mortals may Secure the blessings of the day.
- 3 The living know that they must die, Beneath the clods their dust must lie; Then have no share in all that's done Beneath the circle of the sun.
- 4 Then what my thoughts design to do, My hands, with all your might, pursue: Since no device nor work is found, Nor faith nor hope, beneath the ground.
- 5 There are no acts of pardon pass'd In the cold grave to which we haste; O may we all receive thy grace, And see with joy thy smiling face.

152 The Invitation Hymn. M. 8s, 7s, & 4. OME, ye sinners, poor and needy, Weak and mounded Weak and wounded, sick and sore; Jesus ready stands to save you, Full of pity, love, and power: He is able, He is willing: doubt no more. 2 Now, ye needy, come and welcome; God's free bounty glorify; True belief and true repentance,-Every grace that brings you nigh,-Without money. Come to Jesus Christ and buy. 3 Let not conscience make you linger: Nor of fitness fondly dream: All the fitness he require th Is to feel your need of him; This he gives you,-'T is the Spirit's glimm'ring beam. 4 Come, ye weary, heavy-laden, Bruis'd and mangled by the fall; If you tarry till you're better, You will never come at all; Not the righteous, Sinners, Jesus came to call. 5 Agonizing in the garden, Lo! your Maker prostrate lies! On the bloody tree behold him! . Hear him cry before he dies, "It is finished !" Sinners, will not this suffice? 98

THE GOSPEL.

3 Eternal wisdom has prepared A soul-reviving feast, And bids your longing appetites The rich provision taste.

4 Ho! ye that pant for living streams, And pine away and die! Here you may quench your raging thirst With springs that never dry.

5 Rivers of love and mercy, here, In a rich ocean join; Salvation in abundance flows, Like floods of milk and wine.

6 The happy gates of gospel grace Stand open night and day; Lord, we are come to seek supplies, And drive our wants away.

156 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. L. M. DEHOLD the Saviour at thy door; He gently knocks, has knock'd before; Has waited long, is waiting still, You treat no other friend so ill.

- 2 O! lovely attitude! he stands, With melting heart and outstretch'd hands! O! matchless kindness! and he shows This matchless kindness to his foes.
- 3 Admit him—for the human breast Ne'er entertain'd so kind a guest; Admit him—or the hour's at hand, When, at his bar, denied you'll stand.

4 Open my heart, Lord, enter in— Slay every foe, and conquer sin; I now to thee my all resign— My body, soul, shall all be thine.

INVITATION AND WARNING.

| 157 Prepare to meet thy God. C. M. |
|--|
| VAIN man, thy fond pursuits forbear; Repent, thy end is nigh; Death at the farthest can't be far; O, think before thou die! |
| 2 Reflect, thou hast a soul to save, Thy sins how high they mount! What are thy hopes beyond the grave? How stands that dark account? |
| 3 Death enters, and there's no defense; His time there's none can tell; He'll in a moment call thee hence, To heaven or to hell. |
| 4 Thy flesh, perhaps thy chiefest care, Shall crawling worms consume; But ah! destruction stops not there; Sin kills beyond the tomb. |
| 5 To-day, the gospel calls to-day, Sinners, it speaks to you; Let ev'ry one forsake his way, And mercy will ensue. |
| 6 Rich mercy, dearly bought with blood, How vile soe'er he be, Abundant pardon, peace with God, All giv'n entirely free. |
| 158 The close of the day of grace. Gen. 6:3. C. M. |
| THERE is a time, we know not when, A point, we know not where, That marks the destiny of men, To glory or despair. |
| 2 There is a line, by us unseen, That crosses ev'ry path; The hidden boundary between God's patience and his wrath. 101 |

 3 O! where is this mysterious bourne, By which our path is cross'd;
 Beyond which, God himself hath sworn, That he who goes is lost?

4 How far may we go on in sin? How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end? and where begin The confines of despair?

5 An answer from the skies is sent: "Ye that from God depart! While it is call'd to-day, repent! And harden not your heart."

2 All things are now ready, he invites us to come, The supper is made by the Father and Son; Rich bounties, rich dainties here we may receive, A living forever, if we will believe.

3 The guests which were bidden refused the call, For they are not ready, nor willing at all, [store, To be stripp'd of their honor, and part with their For a feast that was given and made for the poor.

4 If they are not ready, and wish to delay, My house shall be filled, the Father doth säy; The highways and hedges, the halt and the blind, Shall come and be welcome, the supper is mine.

160

Free Grace proclaimed.

OME, trembling soul, forget your fear, For your eternal Friend is near; O bow your souls before his face, And share in his redeeming grace.

2 Long time he's call'd your souls in vain, And yet, behold! he calls again; Once more in love he's come to try; Say, sinners, will you live or die?

INVITATION AND WARNING.

- 3 Though long you have his grace abus'd, And all his calls of love refus'd; Yet even now he will forgive, O sinners, hear his voice and live.
- 4 Or will you crowd him from your door, That he may never call you more? Then think, O souls, how can you bear To sink in death and long despair?
- 5 O sinners, hear, he calls again, And do not linger on the plain; Leave all and fly to Jesus' arms, And taste, O taste his heav'nly charms.

161 Sinners warned. Eze. 3: 17. S. M. Eze. 3: 17. S. M. DESTRUCTION'S dang'rous road, What multitudes pursue! While that which leads the soul to God, Is known or sought by few.
2 Believers enter in By Christ, the living door; But they who will not leave their sin, Must perish evermore.
3 If self must be denied, And sin forsaken quite, They rather choose the way that's wide, And strive to think it right.

 4 Encompass'd by a throng, On numbers they depend;
 They think so many can't be wrong, And miss a happy end.

5 But numbers are no mark That men will right be found; A few were sav'd in Noah's ark, For many millions drown'd. 103

THE GOSPEL.

 6 Obey the gospel call, And enter while you may; The flock of Christ remains still small, And none are safe but they.

162

L. M.

THAT name to me sounds ever sweet, Where grace and truth do always meet, Where righteousness doth peace embrace, And opens wide a store of grace.

- 2 A meeting place it is indeed, Where mercy meets a sinner's need, And opens wide a gracious store, Sufficient to relieve the poor.
- 3 Hark! don't you hear the heav'nly call? It soundeth loud, it is to all— To high and low, to bond and free, That none may say, "'T is not for me."
- 4 "Ho! ev'ry one that thirsts," he cries, "Here's wine and milk, in large supplies, Come now to me, and drink your till, 'T is free for whomsoever will.
- 5 "Come, now receive, I ask no pay, But freely give it all away; And all that do my word believe, Shall freely now my grace receive
- 163 Christ inviting sinners to his grace. C. M. A MAZING sight! the Saviour stands. And knocks at ev'ry door; Ten thousand blessings in his hands, For to supply the poor.

 2 "Behold, he saith, I bleed and die, To bring poor souls to rest; Hear, sinners, while I'm passing by; And be forever blest.

INVITATION AND WARNING.

3 "Will you despise such bleeding love, And choose the way to hell? Or in the glorious realms above, With me forever dwell?

4 "Say, will you hear my gracious voice, And have your sins forgiv'n?
Or will you make a wretched choice, And bar yourself from heav'n?

 Will you go down to endless night. And be forever slain ?
 Or dwell in everlasting light, Where I in glory reign ?

6 "Come now, dear soul, before I go, While I am passing by; Say, will you bow to me or no? Say, will you live or die?"

A deathbed lamentation.

164

"(0, bring me," said the dying fair, With anguish in her tone, "My costly robes, and jewels rare, Go! bring them every one."

C. M.

2 They strew'd them on her dying bed, Those robes of princely cost! "Father!" with bitterness she said, "For these my soul was lost!

3 "With glorious hope I once was blest, Nor fear'd the gaping tomb;
With heav'n already in my breast, I look'd for heav'n to come.

 4 "I heard a Saviour's pard'ning voice, My soul was filled with peace;
 Father! you bought me with these toys; I barter'd heav'n for these. 5 "Take them! they are the price of blood! For these I lost my soul: For these, must bear the wrath of God, While ceaseless ages roll.
6 "Remember, when you look on these,

Your daughter's fearful doom! That she, her pride and thine to please, Went quaking to the tomb.

7 "Go! bear them from my sight and touch! Yon gifts I here restore; Keep them with care: they cost you much— They cost your daughter more!

8 "Look at them, every rolling year Upon my dying day; And drop for me the burning tear," She said, and sunk away.

165

Whoever will, let him come.

C. M.

O WHAT amazing words of grace Are in the gospel found ! Suited to every sinner's case, Who knows the joyful sound.

- 2 Poor, sinful, thirsty, fainting souls Are freely welcome here; Salvation, like a river, rolls Abundant, free and clear.
- Come then, with all your wants and wounds, Your every burden bring;
 Here love, unchanging love abounds, A deep, celestial spring.

4 Whoever will (O gracious word!) Shall of this stream partake; Come, thirsty souls, and bless the Lord, And drink for Jesus' sake. 106 INVITATION AND WARNING.

Exhortation to Old and Young. C. M.

DEAR people, all attention give, And hear what I do say:— I long your precious souls should live In everlassing day.

166

 Remember, you are hast'ning on To death's dark, gloomy shade; Your joys on earth will soon be gone, Your flesh in dust be laid.

3 Death's iron gate you must pass through, Ere long, my precious friend; Where do you then expect to go? O! what will be your end?

4 Pray, meditate, before too late, While in a gospel land Behold, King Jesus at the gate Most lovingly doth stand.

5 Young men, how can you turn your face From such a glorious friend? Will you pursue the dangerous race, Regardless of the end?

6 Young women, too, what will you do, If out of Christ you die? From all God's people you must go, To weep, lament and cry.

7 Come old, come young, who feel your guilt, The fountain 's open'd wide; For you that precious blood was spilt, That flow'd from Jesus' side.

8 Here you may drink in endless joy, And sing redeeming love, Till golden harps your souls employ, In praising Christ above. 167

L. M.

COME youth and people, one and all, And hear the Lord in friendship call; I love your souls extremely dear, Therefore incline your ears and hear.

- 2 His heart is full of tenderness, His house the blessed house of peace, His servants shining agents are. Who shall attend you everywhere.
- 3 And if you truly willing be To follow Jesus, come with me, And march along the gospel road; It is the only way to God.
- 4 Why, then, if I to this agree, What will my brave companions say? This world will soon upon me frown, 'T will mow my flow'ry honors down.
- 5 Besides all this, I see no need Why I to Christ should make such speed; Because I am both well and young, And do expect my life is long.
- 6 Have me excused a few years more, Till I take ease in earthly store, And then I will with this comply, And fly to Jesus by and by.
- 7 O lovely youth, don't me deny, Nor put me off, for by and by Your soul and body both shall lie In ruin; then for refuge fly.
- 8 The Master's Son's call is to-day, Come, answer me without delay; It fills my heart with grief and woe To see kind Jesus slighted so.

INVITATION AND WARNING.

168

Expostulation.

M. 7s, Double.

SINNERS, turn; why will ye die? God, your Maker, asks you why; God, who did your being give, Made you with himself to live. He the fatal cause demands, Asks the work of his own hands;— Why, ye thankless creatures, why Will ye cross his love and die?

- 2 Sinners, turn; why will ye die? God, your Saviour, asks you why; He who did your souls retrieve, Died himself, that you might live. Will ye let him die in vain?— Crucify your Lord again? Why, ye ransom'd sinners, why Will ye slight his grace and die?
- 3 Sinners, turn; why will ye die? God the Spirit asks you why; He who all your lives hath strove, Woo'd you to embrace his love. Will ye not his grace receive? Will ye still refuse to live? Why, ye long-sought sinners, why Will ye grieve your God and die?
- 4 What could your Redeemer do, More than he has done for you? To procure your peace with God, Could he more than shed his blood? After all his flow of love,— All his drawings from above,— Why will ye your Lord deny? Why will ye resolve to die? 109

5 In vain you'll mourn your days are past, Alas! those days are gone;
Your golden hours are spent at last; And never to return.

6 Oh come just now, dear friends, begin While life's sweet moments last; Turn to the Lord, forsake your sin, And he'll forgive what's past.

The incorrigible warned.

S. M.

SINNER! awake, to think On what may be thy doom; Awake and tremble, ere thou sink Below the silent tomb.

2 Sure there is nought on earth Has half the Saviour's charms; And wilt thou then, with scornful mirth, Repel him from thy arms?

 See how he interpos'd Between the curse and thee;
 What wondrous words of grace compos'd, To set thy spirit free.

4 How bitter was his pain, What heart can e'er conceive? And wilt thou see him die in vain? And not his mercy crave?

5 How stupid and deprav'd Must be that wretched soul That still refuses to be sav'd, And yield to his control.

6 Where can ye hope to dwell, When from this world ye go? Why choose the road that leads to hell And everlasting woe?

Sinners Counseled.

Y E unconverted, careless souls, Wake up, and turn to God: Or else you'll surely be condemn'd, And fall beneath his rod.

2 For in the Bible it is said, By him who cannot lie,

"Repent, believe, be born again-The soul that sins shall die."

3 Now, sinners, lay this well to heart, And turn without delay;

O, hasten to the Saviour's arms, Whilst it is call'd to-day.

4 It is your wisdom so to do, 'T will be your int'rest too; Then be entreated now to come 'To Christ, who died for you.

The Gospel Feast.

(10ME, sinners, to the gospel feast, Let every soul be Jesus' guest; There needs not one be left behind, For God hath bidden all mankind.

- 2 The Lord hath sent to you the call ;-The invitation is to all: Come all the world, come sinner, thou, All things in Christ are ready now.
- 3 Come all ye souls by sins opprest, Ye restless wand'rers after rest: Ye poor, and maim'd, and halt, and blind, In Christ a hearty welcome find.
- 4 The message as from God receive; You all may come to Christ and live, O! let his love your souls constrain, Nor suffer him to die in vain.

C. M. 5-WME-France

L. M.

INVITATION AND WARNING.

5 This is the time, no more delay, The invitation is to-day; Come in this moment at his call, And live for him who died for all.

174

The Alarm.

7,6,7,6.7,7,7,6

STOP, poor sinners! stop and think, Before you further go! Will you sport upon the brink Of everlasting woe? On the verge of ruin stop, Now the friendly warning take; Stay your footsteps, ere you drop Into the burning lake.

2 Say, have you an arm like God, That you his will oppose?
Fear ye not that iron rod, With which he breaks his foes?
Can you stand in that dread day, Which his justice shall proclaim, When the earth shall melt away Like wax before the flame?

3 Ghastly death will quickly come, And drag you to his bar:
Then to hear your awful doom Will fill you with despair!
All your sins will round you crowd; You shall mark their crimson dye; Each for vengeance crying loud; And what can you reply?

4 Though your heart were made of steel, Your forehead lined with brass, God at length will make you feel— He will not let you pass; (8) 113

Sinners then in vain will call,— Those who now despise his grace,— "Rocks and mountains on us fall, And hide us from thy face."

175

The Happy Choice.

L. M.

TO-DAY-if ye will hear his voice, Now is the time to make your choice; Say-will you to Mount Zion go? Say-will you have this Christ or no?

- 2 Ye wandering souls, who find no rest! Say—will you be forever blest? Will you be saved from sin and hell? Will you with Christ in glory dwell?
- 3 Come now, dear friends, for ruin bound, Obey the gospel's joyful sound; Come, go with us, and you shall prove The joy of Christ's redeeming love.
- 4 Once more we ask you in his name,— For yet his love remains the same,— Say—will you to Mount Zion go? Say—will you have this Christ or no?
- 5 Leave all your sports and glitt'ring toys, Come, share with us eternal joys; Or must we leave you bound to hell? Then O! dear friends, a long farewell.

176 And yet there is room. C. M. X E wretched, hungry, starving poor, Behold a royal feast;

Where mercy spreads her bounteous store, For every humble guest.

2 See, Jesus stands with open arms; He calls, he bids you come; Guilt holds you back, and fear alarms, But see, there yet is room!

REPENTANCE AND FAITH.

3 Room in the Saviour's bleeding heart: There love and pity meet; Nor will he bid the soul depart, That trembles at his feet.

4 In him the Father reconcil'd, Invites your souls to come; The rebel shall be call'd a child, And kindly welcom'd home.

5 O come, and with his children taste The blessings of his love :

While hope attends the sweet repast Of nobler joys above.

6 There, with united heart and voice, Before th' eternal throne,

Ten thousand thousand souls rejoice In extacies unknown.

7 And yet ten thousand thousand more Are welcome still to come;

Ye longing souls, the grace adore ; Approach—there yet is room !

REPENTANCE AND FAITH.

177

Godly Sorrow.

C. M.

PROSTRATE, dear Jesus, at thy feet, A guilty rebel lies; And upward to thy mercy-seat Presumes to lift his eyes.

 2 Oh, let not justice frown me hence; Stay, stay the vengeful storm !
 Forbid it that Omnipotence Should crush a feeble worm.

 If tears of sorrow would suffice To pay the debt I owe, Tears should from both my weeping eyes In ceaseless torrents flow.

| 4 | But no such sacrifice I plead, |
|-----|---|
| | To expiate my guilt; No tears but those which thou hast shed; No blood but thou hast spilt. |
| 5 | Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord ! And all my sins forgive : |
| | Justice will well approve the word That bids the sinner live. |
| 178 | Rend your heart. Joel 2: 13. C. M. |
| | O SINNER, bring not tears alone, Or outward form of pray'r, But let it in thy heart be known That penitence is there. |
| 2 | To smite the breast, the clothes to rend, God asketh not of thee; Thy secret soul he bids thee bend In true humility. |
| 3 | O let us, then, with heartfelt grief, Draw near unto our God, And pray to him to grant relief, And stay the lifted rod. |
| 4 | O righteous Judge, if thou wilt deign To grant us what we need, We pray for time to turn again, And grace to turn indeed. |
| 179 | The prayer of the heavy laden. L. M. Matt. 11: 28. |
| 1 | O THAT my load of sin were gone! O that I could at last submit At Jesus' feet to lay it down! To lay my soul at Jesus' feet! |
| 2 | Rest for my soul I long to find, Saviour of all, if mine thou art, |
| | Give me thy meek and lowly mind, And stamp thine image on my heart. 116 |

REPENTANCE AND FAITH.

3 Break off the yoke of inbred sin, And fully set my spirit free; I cannot rest till pure within,

Till I am wholly lost in thee.

4 Fain would I learn of thee, my Lord, Thy light and easy burden prove;
The cross, all stain'd with hallow'd blood, The labor of thy dying love.

5 I would, but thou must give the pow'r; My heart from ev'ry sin release; Bring near, bring near the joyful hour, And fill me with thy perfect peace.

180 Take not thy Holy Spirit from me. Psalm 51:11, STAY! thou insulted Spirit, stay! Though I have done thee such despite; Cast not the sinner quite away, Nor take thine everlasting flight.

2 Though I have most unfaithful been Of all who e'er thy grace receiv'd— Ten thousand times thy goodness seen, Ten thousand times thy goodness griev'd,

3 Yet O, the chief of sinners spare! In honor of my great High Priest; Nor in thy righteous anger swear, I shall not see thy people's rest.

4 Yet if thou canst my sin forgive, E'en now, O Lord! relieve my woes, Into thy rest of love receive, And bless me with a calm repose.

5 E'en now my weary soul release, And raise me by thy gracious hand, Guide me into thy perfect peace, And bring me to the promis'd land.

| 181 | The pool of Bethesda. John 5; 2. S. M. |
|-----|--|
| | BESIDE the gospel pool, Appointed for the poor, From year to year my longing soul Has waited for a cure. |
| 2 | How often have I seen The healing waters move, And others round me stepping in, Their efficacy prove. |
| 3 | But I do still remain – I feel the very same; As full of guilt, and fear, and shame, As when at first I came. |
| 4 | How often have I thought, Why should I longer lie? Surely the mercy I have sought Is not for such as I? |
| 5 | But whither shall I go? There is no other pool, Where streams of sov'reign virtue flow, To make a sinner whole. |
| 182 | Mercy for the chief of sinners. 1 Tim. 1: 15. 7s. DEPTH of mercy!—can there be Mercy still reserved for me? |

Can my God his wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare?

- 2 I have long withstood his grace; Long provoked him to his face; Would not hear his gracious calls; Grieved him by a thousand falls.
- 3 Jesus, answer from above: Is not all thy nature love? Wilt thou not the wrong forget? Lo, I fall before thy feet.

| 4 | Now incline me to repent; |
|---|---------------------------------|
| | Let me now my fall lament, |
| | Deeply my revolt deplore, |
| | Weep, believe, and sin no more. |

183

C. M.

PATHER, I stretch my hands to thee, No other help I know; If thou withdraw thyself from me, Ah! whither shall I go?

- 2 What did thine only Son endure, Before I drew my breath? What pain, what labor, to secure My soul from second death?
- 3 O Jesus, could I this believe, I now should feel thy power; Now my poor soul thou wouldst retrieve, Nor let me wait one hour!
- 4 Author of faith, to thee I lift My weary, longing eyes;

O, let me now receive that gift! My soul, without it, dies.

The Pharisee and publican. Luke 18: 9-14.

L. M.

BEHOLD how sinners disagree-The publican and Pharisee; One doth his righteousness proclaim, The other owns his guilt and shame.

2 This man at humble distance stands, And cries for grace with lifted hands; That boldly rises near the throne, And talks of duties he has done.

3 The Lord their diff'rent language knows, And diff'rent answers he bestows: The humble soul with grace he crowns, Whilst on the proud his anger frowns.

4 Dear Father, let me never be Join'd with the boasting Pharisee; I have no merit of my own, But plead the suff'rings of thy Son.

S. M.

IF Jesus Christ was sent To save us from our sin, And kindly teach us to repent, We should at once begin.

2 He says he loves to see
A broken-hearted one;
He loves that sinners, such as we, Should mourn for what we've done.

3 'T is not enough to say, "We're sorry, and repent," Yet still go on from day to day, Just as we always went.

4 Repentance is to leave The sins we lov'd before, And show that we in earnest grieve, By doing so no more.

5 Lord, make us thus sincere, To watch as well as pray; However small, however dear, Take all our sins away.

6 And since the Saviour came, To make us turn from sin, With holy grief and humble shame We would at once begin.

186

Indwelling sin lamented.

C. M.

WITH tears of anguish, I lament, Here at thy feet, my God, My passion, pride and discontent, And vile ingratitude. 120

REPENTANCE AND FAITH.

- 2 Sure, there was ne'er a heart so base, So false as mine has been; So faithless to its promises, So prone to every sin.
- 3 How long, dear Saviour, shall I feel These struggles in my breast? When wilt thou bow my stubborn will, And give my conscience rest?
- 4 Break, sov'reign grace, O, break the charm, And set the captive free; Reveal, almighty God, thine arm, And haste to rescue me.

The stubborn heart.

L. M.

- O FOR a glance of heavenly day, To melt this stubborn stone away! And thaw, with beams of love divine, This heart, this frozen heart of mine!
- 2 The rocks can rend; the earth can quake; The seas can roar; the mountains shake: Of feeling all things show some sign, But this unfeeling heart of mine.
- 3 To hear the sorrows thou hast felt, Dear Lord, an adamant would melt! But I can read each moving line, And nothing moves this heart of mine.
- 4 Eternal Spirit, mighty God, Apply within the Saviour's blood: 'T is his rich blood, and his alone, Can move and melt this heart of stone.

188

Sin lamented.

S. M.

A H! whither should I go, Burden'd, and sick, and faint? To whom should I my trouble show, And pour out my complaint? 121

2 My Saviour bids me come; Oh! why do I delay? He calls the weary sinner home, And yet from him I stay.

3 What is it keeps me back. From which I cannot part, Which will not let the Saviour take Possession of my heart?

4 Jesus, the hind'rance show, Which I have fear'd to see; And let me now consent to know What keeps me back from thee.

5 Some cursed thing unknown Must surely lurk within, Some idol which I'll not disown, Some secret bosom sin.

6 My God, now search me through, My inmost heart now try; Oh, break my will, thy will to do, And save me, lest I die.

Pleading the promise.

ORD, I approach the mercy-seat, Where thou dost answer prayer; There humbly fall before thy feet, For none can perish there.

C. M.

2 Thy promise is my only plea, With this I venture nigh: Thou callest burdened souls to thee, And such, O Lord! am I.

3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin, By Satan sorely press'd, By foes without and fears within, I come to thee for rest.

REPENTANCE AND FAITH.

4 Be thou my shield and hiding-place. That, sheltered near thy side, I may my fierce accuser face, And tell him, thou hast died. 5 O! wondrous love, to bleed and die, To bear the cross and shame, That guilty sinners, such as I, Might plead thy gracious name! 190 L. M. Imploring mercy. CHOW pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive ! Let a repenting rebel live : Are not thy mercies large and free? May not a sinner trust in thee? 2 My crimes are great, but can't surpass The power and glory of thy grace; Great God, thy nature hath no bound, So let thy pard'ning love be found.

- 3 O! wash my soul from every sin, And make my guilty conscience clean; Here on my heart the burden lies, And past offences pain my eyes.
- 4 My lips with shame my sins confess, Against thy law, against thy grace; Lord, should thy judgment grow severe, I am condemn'd, but thou art clear.
- 5 Should sudden vengeance seize my breath, I must pronounce thee just, in death: And if my soul were sent to hell, Thy righteous law approves it well.
- 6 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord, Whose hope, still hov'ring round thy word, Would light on some sweet promise there, Some sure support against despair.

Blind Bartimeus.

M. 8s & 7s.

"MERCY! O thou Son of David!" Thus blind Bartimeus cried. "Others by thy grace are saved, Let it be to me applied." For his crying many chid him; But he cried the louder still: Till his gracious Saviour bade him, "Come and ask me what you will."

2 Money was not what he wanted, Though by begging he did live;
Yet he ask'd, and Jesus granted Alms that none but he can give.
"Lord, remove this grievous blindness, Let my eyes behold the day:"
Straight he saw, and won by kindness, Follow'd Jesus in the way.

- 3 Now methinks I hear him praising, Publishing to all around:
 - "Friends, is not my case amazing? What a Saviour I have found!
 - O that all the blind but knew him! Or would be advis'd by me;
 - Sure, if they would come unto him, He would cause them all to see !"

Prayer and supplication.

L. M.

O THOU, who hear'st when sinners cry! Though all my crimes before thee lie, Behold them not with angry look, But blot their mem'ry from thy book.

2 Create my nature pure within, And form my soul averse to sin: Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart, Nor hide thy presence from my heart. 124

- 3 Though I have griev'd thy spirit, Lord, Thy help and comfort still afford; And let a wretch come near thy throne, To plead the merits of thy Son.
- 4 A broken heart, my God, my King, Is all the sacrifice I bring: The God of grace will ne'er despise A broken heart for sacrifice.

193

A living faith.

C. M.

MISTAKEN souls, that dream of heaven, And make their empty boast Of inward joys, and sins forgiven, While they are slaves to lust.

- 2 How vain are fancy's airy flights, If faith be cold and dead; None but a living pow'r unites To Christ, the living Head.
- 3 'T is faith that purifies the heart; 'T is faith that works by love; That bids all sinful joys depart, And lifts the thoughts above.
- 4 This faith shall every fear control By its celestial pow'r, With holy triumph fill the soul, In death's approaching hour.

194

".Just as I am. "

L. M.

UST as I am-without one plea, J Save that thy blood was shed for me, And that thou bidst me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

2 Just as I am-and waiting not To rid my soul of one dark blot, To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

- 3 Just as I am—poor, wretched, blind; Life, riches, healing of the mind, Yea, all I want in thee to find, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!
- 4 Just as I am—thou wilt receive, Wilt pardon, comfort, cleanse, relieve; Because thy promise I believe, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!
- 5 Just as I am—for love unknown Has broken every barrier down; Now to be thine, and thine alone, O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

195

The way to heaven.

L. M.

JESUS, my all, to heaven is gone,— He, whom I fix my hopes upon;— His track I see, and I'll pursue The narrow way, till him I view.

- 2 The way the holy prophets went, The road that leads from banishment, The King's high-way of holiness, I'll go, for all his paths are peace.
- 3 This is the way I long have sought, And mourn'd because I found it not; My grief a burden long had been, Because I was not saved from sin.
- 4 The more I strove against its pow'r, I felt its weight, and guilt the more, Till late I heard my Saviour say, "Come hither, soul, I am the way."
- 5 Lo! glad I come, and thou blest Lamb Shalt take me to thee, whose I am: Nothing but self have I to give, Nothing but love shall I receive. 126

JUSTIFICATION AND ADOPTION.

6 Then will I tell to sinners round, What a dear Saviour I have found; I'll point to thy redeeming blood, And say, "Behold the way to God!"

JUSTIFICATION AND ADOPTION. C. M. 196 Man's recovery from ruin. TOW sad our state by nature is! Our sin, how deep it stains! And Satan binds our captive minds Fast in his slavish chains. 2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace Sounds from the sacred word: "Ho! ye despairing sinners, come, And trust upon the Lord." 3 My soul obeys th' almighty call, And runs to this relief: I would believe thy promise, Lord, O, help my unbelief. 4 To the dear fountain of thy blood. Incarnate God, I fly; Here let me wash my spotted soul, From crimes of deepest dye. 5 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm, On thy kind arms I fall; Be thou my strength and righteousness, My Jesus, and my all. My grace is sufficient for thee. L. M. 197 2 Cor. 12: 9. RACE, 't is a most delightful theme ; T is grace that rescues guilty man, 'T is grace divine, all conqu'ring, free, Or it had never rescu'd me. 2 'T was grace that quicken'd me when dead, And grace my soul to Jesus led; Grace brought me pardon for my sin, And grace subdues my lust within. $12\check{7}$

- ³ 'T is grace that sweetens ev'ry cross, And grace supports in ev'ry loss; In Jesus' grace my soul is strong; Grace is my shield, and grace my song.
- 4 'T is grace defends when danger's near, By grace alone I persevere; 'T is grace constrains my soul to love, And grace will bear me safe above.
- 5 Of grace, free grace, alone I boast, And 't is in grace alone I trust; And when I rise to heav'n, my home, I'll shout free grace, free grace alone!
- 198 Salvation only in Christ. Acts 4: 12. C. M. WHEN wounded sore, the stricken soul Lies bleeding and unbound, One only hand, a pierced hand, Can heal the signer's wound.
- 2 When sorrow swells the laden breast, And tears of anguish flow, One only heart, a broken heart, Can feel the sinner's woe.
- 3 When penitence has wept in vain Because of some dark spot, One only stream, a stream of blood, Can wash away the blot.
- 4 'T is Jesus' blood that washes white, This hand that brings relief,
 This heart that's touched with all our joys, And feeleth for our grief.
- 5 Lift up thy bleeding hand, O Lord, Unseal that cleansing tide;
 We have no shelter from our sin But in thy wounded side.

JUSTIFICATION AND ADOPTION.

199 C. M. Efficacy of the Atoning Blood. THERE is a fountain fill'd with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins; And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains. 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see That fountain in his day; And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins away. 3 Thou dying Lamb! thy precious blood Shall never lose its power, Till all the ransom'd Church of God Are saved, to sin no more. 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream Thy flowing wounds supply, Redeeming love has been my theme, And shall be, till I die. 5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song, I'll sing thy power to save, When this poor lisping, stam'ring tongue Lies silent in the grave. My soul shall rejoice in his salvation. C. M. 200Psalm 35: 9. CALVATION ! O, the joyful sound! 'T is pleasure to our ears; A sov'reign balm for ev'ry wound, A cordial for our fears. 2 Buried in sorrow and in sin, At hell's dark door we lay; But we arise by grace divine To see a heav'nly day. 3 Salvation! let the echo fly The spacious earth around, While all the armies of the sky Conspire to raise the sound. (9)129

4 Salvation! O, thou bleeding Lamb, To thee the praise belongs! Salvation shall inspire our hearts, And dwell upon our tongues.

201 Ilooked, and there was none to help. C. M. Isaiah 63: 5.

PLUNG'D in a gulf of dark despair, We wretched sinners lay, Without one cheering beam of hope, Or spark of glimm'ring day.

 With pitying eyes the Prince of peace Beheld our helpless grief;
 He saw, and (O amazing love!)
 He came to our relief.

3 Down from the shining seats above, With joyful haste he fled; Entered the grave in mortal flesh, And dwelt among the dead.

4 O, for this love let rocks and hills Their lasting silence break,

And all harmonious human tongues The Saviour's praises speak.

 5 Angels, assist our mighty joys;
 Strike all your harps of gold;
 But when you raise your highest notes, His love can ne'er be told.

202 The divine attributes harmonized, etc. L. M. Psalm 85: 10.

O LOVE, beyond conception great, That form'd the vast and wondrous plan, Where all divine perfections meet To reconcile rebellious man.

 5 There wisdom shines in fullest blaze, And justice all her right maintains— Astonish'd angels stoop to gaze, While mercy o'er the guilty reigns.

JUSTIFICATION AND ADOPTION. 3 Yes, mercy reigns, and justice too; In Christ they both harmonious meet; He paid to justice all her due; And now he fills the mercy-seat. A song of deliverance. C. M. 203 Psalm 40: 1-5. WAITED patient for the Lord, He bow'd to hear my cry; He saw me resting on his word, And brought salvation nigh. 2 He rais'd me from a horrid pit, Where mourning long I lay, And from the bonds released my feet, Deep bonds of miry clay. 3 Firm on a rock he made me stand, And taught my cheerful tongue To praise the wonders of his hand. In a new thankful song. 4 I'll spread his works of grace abroad, The saints with joy shall hear, And sinners learn to make my God, Their only hope and fear. 5 When I'm afflicted, poor and low, And light and peace depart, My God beholds my heavy woe, And bears me on his heart. Lovest thou me? 204 Ts. John 21: 16. TARK, my soul! it is the Lord, 'T is thy Saviour, hear his word! Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee; "Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me? 2 "I deliver'd thee when bound, And when wounded, heal'd thy wound;

And when wounded, heal'd thy wound; Sought thee wand'ring, set thee right, Turn'd thy darkness into light.

- 3 "Can a woman's tender care Cease toward the child she bare? Yes, she may forgetful be, Yet will I remember thee.
- 4 "Mine is an unchanging love, Higher than the heights above;
 Deeper than the depths beneath— Free and faithful—strong as death.
- 5 "Thou shalt see my glory soon, When the work of grace is done: Partner of my throne shalt be; Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?"
- 6 Lord! it is my chief complaint, That my love is weak and faint; Yet I love thee and adore, O for grace to love thee more!

205

Rejoicing in hope. Rom. 12: 12.

C. M.

- HOW happy ev'ry child of grace, Who knows his sins forgiv'n! This earth, he cries, is not my place; I seek my place in heav'n;
- 2 A country far from mortal sight; Yet, O, by faith I see The land of rest, the saints' delight, The heav'n prepar'd for me.
- 3 O, what a blessed hope is ours! While here on earth we stay, We more than taste the heav'nly pow'rs, And antedate that day.

4 We feel the resurrection near, Our life in Christ conceal'd, And with his glorious presence here, Our earthen vessels fill'd.

Rejoicing in the Lord. L. M. 206Phil. 3: 1. HAPPY day, that fix'd my choice, On thee, my Saviour and my God; Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad. Happy day, happy day, When Jesus wash'd my sins away! He taught me how to watch and pray, And live rejoicing ev'ry day. 2 O, happy bond that seals my vows To him who merits all my love! Let cheerful anthems fill the house, While to his altar now I move. 3 'T is done-the great transaction's done; I am my Lord's and he is mine; He drew me, and I followed on, Charmed to confess the voice divine. 4 Now rest, my long-divided heart! Fixed on this blissful center, rest; Here have I found a nobler part, Here heav'nly pleasures fill my breast. 5 High heav'n, that hears the solemn vow, That yow renew'd shall daily hear, Till, in life's latest hour, I bow, And bless in death a bond so dear. S. M. 207 Filial obedience. DEHOLD, what wondrous grace The Father has bestow'd, On sinners of a mortal race. To call them sons of God ! 2 'T is no surprising thing, That we should be unknown ; The Jewish world knew not their King, God's everlasting Son.

3 Nor doth it yet appear How great we must be made: But when we see our Saviour here. We shall be like our Head. 4 A hope, so much divine, May trials well endure; May purge our souls from sense and sin, As Christ, the Lord. is pure. 5 If in my Father's love I share a filial part, Send down thy Spirit, like a dove, To fill and warm my heart. 6 Children no longer lie. Like slaves, beneath the throne; Their faith shall Abba-Father-cry, And thou the kindred own. 208 Joy of the Convert. P. M. 6, 6, 9, 6, 6, 9. HOW happy are they Who their Saviour obey, And have laid up their treasures above! Tongue can never express The sweet comfort and peace Of a soul in its earliest love. 2 That sweet comfort was mine, When the favor divine I first found in the blood of the Lamb: When my heart it believ'd, What a joy I receiv'd-What a heaven in Jesus' name! 3 'T was a heaven below. My Redeemer to know; And the angels could do nothing more Than to fall at his feet. And the story repeat, And the Lover of sinners adore. 134

- I did disdain being born again, I call'd it a delusion.
- I fought the saints without restraint, Too proud to cry for mercy:

Conviction strong did come along; O how these things did pierce me!

3 I did not know which way to go, My sins were like a mountain; And fill'd with woe, the tears did flow; My head was like a fountain.

I thought I'd been so long in sin, I could not be forgiven ;

Then Jesus came, O bless his name! And fill'd my soul with heaven.

4 I raised my voice, and did rejoice, Sang glory, glory, glory;
Then I did learn Jesus was mine;
O what a pleasing story!
I love the Lord, I love his word,
I love all those around me;
Then, brethren dear, don't it appear,
That Jesus Christ has found me !

Christ our Advocate. P. M. 8 & 7.

SAVIOUR, I do feel thy merit, Sprinkled with redeeming blood; And my troubled, weary spirit, Now finds rest, in thee, my God.

2 I am safe, and I am happy, While in thy dear arms I lie, Sin and Satan cannot harm me, While my Saviour is so nigh.

 Now I'll sing of Jesus' merit, Tell the world of his dear name, That if any want his Spirit, He is still the very same. 136

JUSTIFICATION AND ADOPTION.

4 He that asketh soon receiveth, He that seeks is sure to find, Whosoe'er on him believeth, He will never cast behind.

5 Now our Advocate is pleading, With his Father and our God: Now for us he's interceding, As the purchase of his blood.

5 Now methinks I hear him praying, "Father, spare them; I have died;" And the Father answers, saying, "They are freely justified."

Knowledge of forgiveness.

S. M.

HOW can a sinner know His sins on earth forgiv'n? How can my gracious Saviour show My name inscribed in heaven?

2 What we have felt and seen, With confidence we tell; And publish to the sons of men, The signs infallible.

3 We who in Christ believe, That he for us hath died, We all his unknown peace receive, And feel his blood applied.

 5 His love surpassing far The love of all beneath,
 We find within our hearts to dare The pointed darts of death.

6 Stronger than death or hell, The sacred pow'r we prove: And, conqu'rors of the world, we dwell In heav'n, who dwell in love. 137

8, 8, 6, 8, 8, 6. 212Regeneration. WAK'D by the gospel's powerful sound, My soul in sin and thrall I found, Expos'd to dreadful woe; Eternal truth did loud proclaim, The sinner must be born again, Or down to ruin go. 2 Surpris'd indeed, I could not tell Which way to shun the gates of hell, To which I then drew near! I strove, alas! but all in vain! The sinner must be born again, Still sounded in my ear. 3 I to the law then ran for help, But still I felt the weight of guilt, And no relief I found: While sin my burthen'd soul did pain, The sinner must be born again, Did loud as thunder sound. 4 God's justice then I did behold. And guilt lay heavy on my soul, It was a heavy load; This solemn truth did still remain, The sinner must be born again, Or feel the wrath of God. 5 I heard some tell how Christ did give His life to let the sinner live; But him I could not see: I read my Bible, it was plain, The sinner must be born again, Or die eternally. 6 But as my soul, with dying breath, Lay gasping near the second death, Christ Jesus I did see; Free grace and pardon he proclaim'd, I trust I then was born again, In gospel liberty.

 Although he no relentings felt 'Till he had spent his store;
 His stubborn heart began to melt, When famine pinch'd him sore.

3 "What have I gain'd by sin," he said,
"But hunger, shame and fear?
My father's house abounds with bread While I am starving here.

4 "I'll go and tell him all I've done, Fall down before his face: Unworthy to be call'd his son, I'll seek a servant's place."

 5 His father saw him coming back, He saw, and ran, and smil'd;
 Then threw his arms around the neck Of his rebellious child.

6 "Father, I've sinn'd, but, O, forgive!" – "Enough," the father said,
"Rejoice, my house, my son's alive, For whom I mourn'd as dead.

7 "Now let the fatted calf be slain, Go spread the news around, My son was dead, but lives again, Was lost, but now is found."

 8 'T is thus the Lord his love reveals, To call poor sinners home: More than a father's love he feels, And welcomes all that come.

2 Whate'er might be your birth or blood, The sinner's boast is vain:Thus saith the glorious Son of God, "Ye must be born again."

3 Our nature's totally depraved, The heart a sink of sin : Without a change we can't be saved, "Ye must be born again."

4 That which is born of flesh is flesh, And flesh it will remain : Then marvel not that Jesus saith, "Ye must be born again."

5 Spirit of life, thy grace impart, And breathe on sinners slain; Bear witness, Lord, with every heart,
That we are born again.

6 Dear Saviour, we will now begin To trust and love thy word; And by forsaking every sin, Prove we are born of God.

216 Convert not ashamed of the Gospel. C. M.

- 3 And when to that bright world I come, And join my everlasting home, My soul shall there forever bloom, Until my body leaves the tomb.

THE PROMISES.

It is well with the righteous. S. M. 222Isaiah 3: 10. HAT cheering words are these! Their sweetness who can tell? In time, and in eternity, 'T is with the righteous well. 2 In ev'ry state secure, Kept by Jehovah's eve, 'T is well with them while life endures, And well when call'd to die. 3 'T is well when joys arise, 'T is well when sorrows flow: 'T is well when darkness vails the skies, And strong temptations blow. 4 'T is well when on the mount They feast on dving love: And 't is as well, in God's account, When they the furnace prove. 5 'T is well when, at his throne, They wrestle, weep and pray; 'T is well when at his feet they groan, Yet bring their wants away. (10)145

THE GOSPEL. 6 'T is well when Jesus calls: "From earth and sin arise; Join with the host of virgin souls Made to salvation wise." As thy days, so shall thy strength be. Deut. 33: 25. 223AIT, my soul, upon the Lord; To his gracious promise flee, Laying hold upon his word, "As thy days, thy strength shall be." 2 If the sorrows of thy case Seem peculiar still to thee, God has promis'd needful grace : "As thy days, thy strength shall be." 3 Days of trial, days of grief, In succession thou may'st see; This is still thy sweet relief, "As thy days, thy strength shall be." 4 Rock of Ages, I'm secure, With thy promise full and free, Faithful, positive, and sure-"As thy days, thy strength shall be." C. M. 224Religion's paths are peace.

7s.

OW happy is the man who hears Instruction's warning voice! And who celestial wisdom makes His early, only choice.

2 For she has treasure greater far Than east or west unfold. And her reward is more secure Than all the gain of gold.

3 In her right hand she holds to view A length of happy years; And in her left the prize of fame And honor bright appears.

THE PROMISES.

 4 She guides our youth with innocence In pleasure's path to tread;
 A crown of glory she bestows

Upon the hoary head.

 5 According as her labors rise, So her rewards increase;
 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are peace.

225

The beatitudes. Matt. 5: 1-12.

L. M.

BLESS'D are the humble souls that see Their emptiness and poverty; Treasures of grace to them are giv'n, And crowns of joy laid up in heav'n.

- 2 Bless'd are the men of broken heart, Who mourn for sin with inward smart; The blood of Christ divinely flows— A healing balm for all their woes.
- 3 Bless'd are the souls who thirst for grace, Hunger and thirst for righteousness; They shall be well supplied, and fed With living streams and living bread.
- 4 Bless'd are the men of peaceful life, Who quench the glowing coals of strife; They shall be call'd the heirs of bliss, The sons of God, the God of peace.
- 5 Bless'd are the suff'rers who partake Of pain and shame for Jesus' sake; Their souls shall triumph in the Lord: Glory and joy are their reward.

226

The firm foundation.

11s.

HOW firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, I Is laid for your faith in his excellent word! What more can he say than to you he hath said— You who unto Jesus for refuge have fied?

THE GOSPEL.

- 2 In ev'ry condition-in sickness, in health, In poverty's vale, or abounding in wealth, At home and abroad, on the land, on the sea-As thy day may demand, shall thy strength ever be.
- 3 E'en down to old age, all my people shall prove My sov'reign, eternal, unchangeable love ; And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn, Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.
- 4 The soul that on Jesus hath lean'd for repose. I will not, I will not, desert to its foes; That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake, I'll never, no, never, no, never forsake!

THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Pentecost. Acts 2.

L. M.

G REAT was the day, the joy was great, When the divine disciples met; While on their heads the Spirit came, And sat like tongues of cloven flame.

227

- 2 What gifts, what miracles he gave! And pow'r to kill, and pow'r to save! [words Furnished their tongues with wondrous Instead of shields, and spears, and swords.
- 3 Thus armed, he sent the champions forth, From east to west, from south to north; Go, and assert your Saviour's cause, Go, spread the mystery of his cross.
- 4 These weapons of the holy war, Of what almighty force they are, To make our stubborn passions bow, And lay the proudest rebel low!
- 5 Nations, the learned and the rude, Are by these heav'nly arms subdued ; While Satan rages at his loss, And hates the doctrine of the cross. 148

THE HOLY SPIRIT.

6 Great King of grace, my heart subdue:I would be led in triumph too,A willing capitve to my Lord,And sing the victories of his word.

228 God's Spirit will not always strice. C. M. QUENCH not the Spirit of the Lord, The Holy One from heaven; The Comforter, beloved, adored, To man in mercy given.

- 2 Quench not the Spirit of the Lord; "He will not always strive:" Oh, tremble at that awful word; Sinner! awake and live.
- 3 Quench not the Spirit of the Lord, It is thy only hope;
 - Oh, let his aid be now implored, Let prayer be lifted up.
- 4 Grieve not the Spirit of the Lord, Heirs of redeeming grace;
 With grateful hearts his love record, Whose presence fills the place.

229

Prayer to the Spirit.

M. 7s.

G RACIOUS Spirit, Love divine, Let thy light within me shine; All my guilty fears remove, Fill me full of heaven and love.

- 2 Speak thy pard'ning grace to me, Set the burdened sinner free; Lead me to the Lamb of God, Wash me in his precious blood.
- 3 Life and peace to me impart. Seal salvation on my heart; Breathe thyself into my breast, Earnest of immortal rest.

4 Let me never from thee stray, Keep me in the narrow way; Fill my soul with joy divine, Keep me, Lord, forever thine.

230

Breathing after the Spirit.

COME, Holy Spirit, heav'nly Dove, With all thy quick'ning pow'rs; Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look, how we grovel here below, Fond of these trifling toys; Our souls can neither fly nor go To reach eternal joys.

- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs; In vain we strive to rise; Hosannas languish on our tongues, And our devotion dies.
- 4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live At this poor, dying rate— Our love so faint, so cold to thee, And thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heav'nly Dove, With all thy quick'ning pow'rs; Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love, And that shall kindle ours.

THE CHURCH—ITS CHARACTER AND PRIVILEGES.

23] God the defense of Zion. 8s, 7s & A ZION stands with hills surrounded— Zion, kept by pow'r divine: All her foes shall be confounded, Though the world in arms combine. Happy Zion, What a favor'd lot is thine ! 150

C. M.

2 Every human tie may perish, Friend to friend unfaithful prove; Mothers cease their own to cherish, Heav'n and earth at last remove; But no changes Can attend Jehovah's love. 3 In the furnace God may prove thee, Thence to bring thee forth more bright, But can never cease to love thee; Thou art precious in his sight: God is with thee-God, thine everlasting light. Fear not, little flock. C. M. 232 Luke 12: 32. 'E little flock, whom Jesus feeds, Dismiss your anxious cares: Look to the Shepherd of your souls. And smile away your fears. 2 Though wolves and lions prowl around, His staff is your defense: [voice 'Midst sands and rocks your Shepherd's Calls streams and pastures thence. 3 Your Father will a kingdom give, And give it with delight; His feeblest child his love shall call To triumph in his sight. 4 Ten thousand praises, Lord, we bring For sure supports like these: And o'er the pious dead we sing Thy living promises. C. P. M. 233 The gracious visil. The spices yield their rich part The spices yield their rich perfumes, The lilies grow and thrive; Refreshing showers of grace divine From Jesus flow to every vine, Which make the dead revive. 151

2 O, that this dry and barren ground, In springs of water may abound, A fruitful soil become: The desert blossoms as the rose. While Jesus conquers all his foes, And makes his people one.

3 Come, brethren, you that love the Lord, Who taste the sweetness of his word, In Jesus' ways go on; Our troubles and our trials here Will only make us richer there, When we arrive at home.

4 The glorious time is rolling on, The gracious work is now begun, My soul a witness is:
I taste and see the pardon free For all mankind as well as me; Who come to Christ may live.

5 Amen, amen, my soul replies, I hope to meet you in the skies, And find a mansion there; Now here's my heart, and here's my hand, To meet you in that heav'nly land, Where we shall part no more.

234 A prayer for a church newly organized. L. M. CORD, bless thy saints assembled here, In solemn cov'nant now to join; Unite them in thy holy fear, And in thy love their hearts combine.

 2 O give this church a large increase Of such as thou wilt own and bless; Lord, fill their hearts with joy and peace, And clothe them with thy righteousness. 152

ITS CHARACTER AND PRIVILEGES.

3 Make her a garden wall'd with grace, A temple built for God below,
Where thy blest saints may see thy face, And fruits of thy bless'd Spirit grow.

The sure foundation. C. M. 235Isajah 28: 16. EHOLD the sure foundation stone, Which God in Zion lays, To build our heav'nly hopes upon, And his eternal praise. 2 Chosen of God, to sinners dear, Let saints adore thy name: They trust their whole salvation here, Nor shall they suffer shame. 3 The foolish builders, scribe and priest, Reject it with disdain; Yet on this rock the church shall rest, And envy rage in vain. 4 What though the gates of hell withstood, Yet must this building rise; 'T is thine own work, almighty God, And wondrous in our eyes. The church still in conflict with foes. 2 Tim, 3: 12. S.M. 236AR down the ages now, Much of her journey done, The pilgrim church pursues her way, Until her crown be won. 2 No wider is the gate. No broader is the way, No smoother is the ancient path, That leads to life and day. 3 No sweeter is the cup, Nor less our lot of ill; "T was tribulation ages since. 'T is tribulation still.

4 No slacker grows the fight, No feebler is the foe, Nor less the need of armor tried, Of shield, and spear, and bow.

5 Thus onward still we press, Through evil and through good— Through pain, and poverty, and want, Through peril and through blood.

6 Still faithful to our God, And to our Captain true,
We follow where he leads the way, The kingdom in our view.

237 The wheat and the tares. Matt. 13: 24-30. L. M. THOUGH, in the earthly church below, The wheat and tares together grow, Jesus ere long will weed the crop, And pluck the tares in anger up.

- 2 Will it relieve their horrors there, To recollect their stations here? [knew, How much they heard, how much they How long among the wheat they grew?
- 3 O! this will aggravate their case! They perish under means of grace: To them the word of life and faith Became an instrument of death.
- 4 We seem alike when thus we meet— Strangers might think we all were wheat; But to the Lord's all-searching eyes Each heart appears without disguise.

5 But though they grow so tall and strong, His plan will not require them long; In harvest, when he saves his own, The tares shall into hell be thrown.

| 238 | Attachment to the church. Psalm 137:6. S. | М. |
|-----|--|----|
| | LOVE thy kingdom, Lord, The house of thine abode— The church our blest Redeemer sav'd With his own precious blood. | |
| 2 | I love thy church, O God: Her walls before thee stand, Dear as the apple of thine eye, And graven on thy hand. | |
| 3 | For her my tears shall fall; For her my pray'rs ascend; To her my cares and toils be giv'n, Till toils and cares shall end. | |
| 4 | Beyond my highest joy I prize her heav'nly ways, Her sweet communion, solemn vows, Her hymns of love and praise. | |
| | Jesus, thou Friend divine, Our Saviour and our King, Thy hand from ev'ry snare and foe Shall great deliv'rance bring. | |
| | Sure as thy truth shall last, To Zion shall be giv'n The brightest glories earth can yield, And brighter bliss of heav'n. | |
| 239 | The church admonished. S. | М. |
| | A LL you who have confess'd That Jesus is the Lord, And to his people join'd yourselves, According to his word: | |
| : | 2 In Zion you must dwell, Her altar ne'er forsake; Must come to all her solemn feasts, Of all her joys partake. 155 | |

3 She must employ your thoughts, And your unceasing care; Her welfare be your constant wish, And her increase your pray'r.

- 4 With humbleness of mind, Among her sons rejoice;
 - A meek and quiet spirit is With God of highest price.
- 5 Never offend nor grieve Your brethren by the way; But shun the dark abodes of strife, Like children of the day.

6 In all your Saviour's ways, With willing footsteps move; Be faithful unto death, and then You'll reign with him above.

H. M. 6 & 8. 240The Christian Church. LTHOUGH despis'd by men, A little feeble band. Protection we obtain From the Redeemer's hand. Though oft our foes would us devour. We stand upheld by Jesus' pow'r. 2 While on him we depend, And truly fear his name. He'll prove a faithful friend, And ne'er put us to sname; He'll guard us safe thro' all the way, To the fair climes of endless day. 3 Our Shepherd leads us on, While we obey his voice ; He guides us to his throne,

And in him we'll rejoice: Though strait the way, we need not fear, If to the end we persevere. 156 4 Ourselves we must deny, And daily take our cross;
From ev'ry evil fly, Or we shall suffer loss.
Till victory we completely win, We will maintain the war with sin.

5 Lord, when our hearts shall fail, And earthly comforts die, May thy rich grace prevail, And bear our souls on high. There, while our glowing love shall flame, Our deathless tongues shall praise thy name.

241

Organizing a church.

PLANTED in Christ, the living vine, This day, with one accord, Ourselves, with humble faith and joy, We yield to thee, O Lord.

C. M.

2 Join'd in one body may we be; One inward life partake;
One be our heart; one heavenly hope In ev'ry bosom wake.

 In pray'r, in effort, tears, and toils, One wisdom be our guide;
 Taught by one Spirit from above, In thee may we abide.

- 4 Complete in us, whom grace hath call'd, Thy glorious work begun,
 - O thou, in whom the church on earth And church in heav'n are one.

5 Then, when, among the saints in light, Our joyful spirits shine, Shall anthems of immortal praise, O Lamb of God, be thine. 157

THE MINISTRY.

244 Bold to speak the word without fear. L. M. Phil. 1: 14.

SHALL I, for fear of feeble man, The Spirit's course in me restrain? Or, undismay'd in deed and word, Be a true witness of my Lord?

- 2 Awed by a mortal's frown, shall I Conceal the word of God Most High? How then before thee shall I dare To stand, or how thine anger bear?
- 3 Shall I, to soothe th' unholy throng, Soften thy truth, or smooth my tongue, To gain earth's gilded toys—or flee The cross endur'd, my Lord, by thee?
- 4 What then is he whose scorn I dread? Whose wrath or hate makes me afraid? A man! an heir of death! a slave To sin! a bubble on the wave! .
- 5 Yea, let men rage; since thou wilt spread Thy shadowing wings around my head: Since in all pain thy tender love Will still my sure refreshment prove.
- 6 Give me thy strength, O God of pow'r, Then let winds blow, or thunder roar, Thy faithful witness will I be; 'T is fix'd !—I can do all through thee.
- 245 Prayer for the success of ministers. L. M.

TATHER of mercies, bow thine ear, Attentive to our earnest pray'r: We plead for those who plead for thee; Successful pleaders may they be.

2 How great their work, how vast their charge! Do thou their anxious souls enlarge; Their best endowments are our gain; We share the blessings they obtain.

- 3 O, clothe with energy divine Their words; and let those words be thine; To them thy sacred truth reveal; Suppress their fear, inflame their zeal.
- 4 Teach them to sow the precious seed; Teach them thy chosen flock to feed; Teach them immortal souls to gain, And thus reward their toil and pain.
- 5 Let thronging multitudes around Hear from their lips the joyful sound, In humble strains thy grace implore, And feel thy Spirit's living power.

246 How beautiful are the feet, etc. Rom. 10: 15. S. M.

Who stand on Zion's hill! Who bring salvation on their tongues, And words of peace reveal.

- How charming is their voice! How sweet the tidings are!
 "Zion, behold thy Saviour King; He reigns and triumphs here."
- 3 How happy are our ears That hear this joyful sound, Which kings and prophets waited for, And sought, but never found!
- 4 How blessed are our eyes That see this heav'nly light!
 Prophets and kings desir'd it long, But died without the sight.

5 The watchmen join their voice, And tuneful notes employ; Jerusalem breaks forth in songs, And deserts learn the joy. 160

THE MINISTRY.

6[.] The Lord makes bare his arm Through all the earth abroad : Let all the nations now behold Their Saviour and their God.

247

A prayer for a minister. 1 Thess. 5: 25.

S. M.

G with thy servant, Lord, His ev'ry step attend; All needful help to him afford, And bless him to the end.

- Preserve him from all wrong;
 Stand thou at his right hand:
 And keep him from the sland'rous tongue
 And persecuting band.
- 3 May he proclaim aloud The wonders of thy grace;
 And do thou, to the list'ning crowd, His faithful labors bless.

4 Farewell, dear lab'rer, go; We part with thee in love; And if we meet no more below, O may we meet above.

248 They spake the word of God, etc. 8s & 7s. Acts 4: 31. 8s & 7s. BOLD in speech and bold in action, Be for ever! Time will test, Of the free-soul'd and the slavish, Which fulfils life's mission best.

2 Be thou like the noble ancients— Scorn the threat that bids thee fear; Speak! no matter what betide thee; Let them strike, but make them hear!

3 Be thou like the great apostle— Be thou like heroic Paul; If a true thought seek expression, Speak it boldly! speak it all! (11) 161

 4 And duly shall appear, In verdure, beauty, strength, The tender blade, the stock, the ear, And the full corn at length.

Winning souls to Christ.

M. 7s.

WOULD you win a soul to God? Tell him of a Saviour's blood, Once for dying sinners spilt, To atone for all their guilt.

- 2 Tell him how the streams did glide From his hands, his feet, his side; How his head with thorns was crowned, And his heart in sorrow drowned;—
- 3 How he yielded up his breath; How he agonized in death; How he lives to intercede— Christ, our Advocate and Head.
- 4 Tell him, it was sovereign grace Led thee first to seek his face— Made thee choose the better part, Wrought salvation in thy heart.
- 5 Tell him of that liberty Wherewith Jesus makes us free; Sweetly speak of sins forgiven— Earnest of the joys of heaven,

Trials of the ministry. 252 H. M. 2 Cor. 2: 16. HAT contradictions meet In ministers' employ! It is a bitter sweet, A sorrow full of joy; 163

No other post affords a place For equal honor or disgrace.

2 Who can describe the pain Which faithful preachers feel, Constrain'd to speak in vain To hearts as hard as steel?
Or who can tell the pleasures felt When stubborn hearts begin to melt?

3 If some small hope appear, They still are not content; But with a jealous fear, They watch for the event:

Too off they find their hopes deceiv'd; Then how their inmost souls are griev'd!

4 But when their pains succeed, And from the tender blade The ripening ears proceed, Their toils are overpaid: No harvest joy can equal theirs, To find the fruit of all their cares.

COUNCIL AND CONFERENCE MEETINGS.

253

A prayer for union in council.

L.M

NDULGENT God of love and pow'r, Be with us at this place and hour! Smile on our souls; our plans approve, By which we seek to spread thy love.

2 Let each discordant thought be gone, And love unite our hearts in one: Let all we have and are, combine To forward objects so divine.

3 O, may we feel the worth of souls, Be men of God, whom grace controls, Fight the good fight, and win the crown, And by our Father's side sit down.

BAPTISM. Meeting for council.

254 Meeting for council. Acts 15: 6. C. M. CRD, in thy presence here we meet May we in thee be found! O, make the place divinely sweet, And let thy grace abound.

2 With harmony thy servants bless, That we may own to thee How good, how sweet, how pleasant 't is, When brethren all agree.

3 May Zion's good be kept in view, And bless our feeble aim, That all we undertake to do, May glorify thy name.

BAPTISM.

255 We are buried with him by baptism. C. M. Rom. 6:4. BURIED beneath the yielding wave Faith views him in the wat'ry grave, And thence beholds him rise.

2 Thus do his willing saints, to-day, Their ardent zeal express, And, in the Lord's appointed way, Fulfil all righteousness.

3 With joy we in his footsteps tread, And would his cause maintain— Like him be number'd with the dead, And with him rise and reign.

256 The baptism of Christ. Matt. 3: 13-17. 8s, 7s & 4. TO the flowing stream of Jordan Lo! the King of Zion came; There the ancient Baptist waited, 165

To immerse the spotless Lamb: They descended To the Saviour's wat'ry tomb.

2 Thus baptiz'd, the great Redeemer Show'd the way his saints should tread, And, when rising from the water, God approv'd and blest the deed, And the Spirit Rested on his sacred head!

3 Come, then, ye who love the Saviour, Fear not now to own your Lord, Joyful though the world should scorn you, Follow Christ, obey his word: He'll defend vou--Fear ve not to follow him!

4 Hear the Saviour saving to you, From his glorious throne above-Ye who trust in me for pardon, By obedience show your love: Be baptized, My example shows the way.

5 Lord, our hearts incline to follow In the way which thou didst tread; We will turn from ev'ry other, While thy sacred word we read: O. Redeemer! Gladly now we'll follow thee!

Salem's bright King.

C. P. M.

CALEM'S bright King, Jesus by name, In former time to Jordan came, All righteousness to fill; 'T was there the ancient Baptist stood, Whose name was John, a man of God, To do his Master's will. 166

BAPTISM.

2 Down in old Jordan's rolling stream, The Baptist led the holy Lamb, And there did him baptize; Jehovah saw his darling Son, And was well pleas'd with what he'd done, And owned him from the skies.

- 3 Come, converts, come, his voice obey,— Salem's great King has mark'd the way, And has a crown prepar'd;
 0 then arise, and give consent, Walk in the way that Jesus went, And have a great reward.
- 4 Believers, come, now gather 'round, And let your joyful songs abound, With cheerful hearts arise; See—here is water, here is room, A loving Saviour calling, Come, Ye converts, be baptized.

5 Behold, his servant waiting stands, With willing heart and ready hands, To wait upon the bride;
Ye candidates, your hearts prepare, And let us join in solemn pray'r, Down by the water side.

Christ our Exemplar.

C. M.

JESUS the cross for me endur'd, And all its shame despised :--And shall I be ashamed, O Lord, With thee to be baptized?

2 Didst thou the great example lead, In Jordan's swelling flood? And shall my pride disdain the deed, That's worthy of my God? 167

3 O Lord, the ardor of thy love Reproves my cold delays; And now my willing footsteps move In thy delightful ways.

259 His commandments are not grievous. C. M.

T is a very pleasant thing To follow Christ our Lord; And thus obey our heav'nly King, According to his word.

2 Down to the water-side we go, By Christ's example led; Into the same we come also, As did our glorious Head.

3 Saviour, we bless thy wondrous name, For thy example bright;
We love to imitate the same, As thou dost us invite.

A prayer for the baptized.

C. M.

ET plenteous grace descend on those Who, hoping in thy word, This day have solemnly declar'd That Jesus is their Lord.

2 With cheerful feet may they advance, And run the Christian race, And, through the troubles of the way, Find all-sufficient grace.

3 Lord, plant us all into thy death, That we thy life may prove— Partakers of thy cross beneath, And of thy crown above. 168

After baptism.

C. M.

PROCLAIM, saith Christ, my wondrous To all the sons of men; [grace He that believes and is baptiz'd, Salvation shall obtain.

2 Let plenteous grace descend on those, Who, hoping in thy word, This day have publicly declar'd, That Jesus is their Lord.

3 With cheerful feet may they advance, And run the Christian race; And, through the troubles of the way, Find all-sufficient grace.

262

Buried by baptism.

8s, 7s & 4.

THOU hast said, exalted Jesus, "Take thy cross and follow me;" Shall the word with terror seize us? Shall we from the burden flee? Lord, I'll take it, And, rejoicing, follow thee.

2 While this liquid tomb surveying, Emblem of my Saviour's grave, Shall I shun its brink, betraying Feelings worthy of a slave? No! I'll enter: Jesus entered Jordan's wave.

 Blessed sign which thus reminds me, Saviour, of thy love for me!
 But more blest the love that binds me, In its deathless bonds to thee: O what pleasure, Buried with my Lord to be! 169

4 Should it rend some fond connection, Should I suffer shame or loss,
Still the fragrant, blest reflection,
I have been where Jesus was,
Will revive me,
When I faint beneath the cross.

263

Baptism is not regeneration.

C. M.

THE sacraments are holy signs And precious gospel seals; They 'xhibit what the Lord designs, And what his word reveals.

2 But these are not themselves the grace Which signs and seals set forth; The supper's not the sacrifice, Nor water the new birth.

3 The sacraments were never meant A substitute for grace, They 're not the truths they represent, Nor must they take their place.

4 Sinners may publicly profess, And signs and seals receive, Of what they never did possess, Of what they don't believe.

 5 But Christ, by his own pow'rful blood, . Ascends above the skies;
 And, in the presence of our God, Shows his own sacrifice.

264

The mode defined.

L. M.

E TERNAL Spirit, heavenly dove, On these baptismal subjects move; That they, through love and grace divine, May have the substance with the sign. 170

BAPTISM.

- 2 We to this place are come to show What we to boundless mercy owe; The Saviour's footsteps to explore, And tread the path he trod before.
- 3 When Christ his offering was to make, He often of a baptism spake. And O! how straitened was he, till He had fulfilled his Father's will.
- 4 A double baptism he displayed, Ere all the mighty debt was paid. He was immersed in Jordan's flood, And then baptized in sweat and blood.
- 5 When wrestling in Gethsemane, He showed baptism how to be: He forward went a little space, Fell three times down upon his face.
- 6 Thus was foreshowed the mode and plan, The Son of God laid down for man; Thus trine immersion was portrayed, When in his sweat and blood he laid.
- 7 Dear converts, then your Lord pursue, And walk the path he trod for you; Take up your cross with willing heart, That you may have with him a part.

C. M

O LAMB of God, for sinners slain, I yield myself to thee; For thou hast borne my every pain, And sin wast made for me; For thou hast worn this feeble flesh And felt this aching heart, And tasted all the bitterness Life's anguish can impart. 171 2 O Lamb of God, for sinners slain, This day I put thee on;

For thou hast purged my guilty stain, And made me all thine own;

I dedicate, O, Lord, to thee, My every part and power;

And pray that thou wilt ever be My stronghold and my tower.

3 O Lamb of God, for sinners slain, That all through thee might live;

Some sinful hearts this day constrain Thy mercy to receive.

Look down, look down upon thy church, In faith assembled here;

And let thy Spirit move all hearts To sympathy and prayer.

FEET-WASHING.

266

Ordinance of washing feet.

L. M.

W HEN Jesus Christ was here below He taught his people what to do: And would we yield obedience meet, We must descend to washing feet.

- 2 For on the night he was betray'd, He for us all a pattern laid : When supper ends, he from his seat Arose and washed his brethren's feet.
- 3 The Lord, who made the earth and sky, Arose, and laid his garments by, And washed their feet—to show that we Should always kind and humble be.

4 He washed their feet, tho' they were clean; Nor did he mean to cleanse from sin;— But Peter said, "It shall not be; Thou shalt not stoop to washing me."

- 5 Then Jesus said, "If you refuse, And will not my instructions choose, Thou hast no part or lot with me:" Then Peter yielded willingly.
- 6 Like Peter—some still disobey: "'T is not essential," they will say; But such a pretext will not stand Before our Saviour's plain command :—
- 7 "You call me Lord, and Master too; Then do as I have done to you: Keep all my words and laws, complete, And prove your love, by washing feet.
- 8 "Ye shall be happy, if ye know And do these things, by faith, below; And I will guide you, till you die, And then receive your souls on high."

267 Feet-washing a church ordinance. C. M.

Ye ought to wash each other's feet, As I the way have led.

- 2 Then come, like loving brethren, bound To tread the paths he trod; Come, do his will, and walk the ground,
 - Which leads to heav'n and God.
- 3 Shall we forget the sacred rite Our dying Lord ordain'd, Upon that dark and solemn night, When he our woe-cup drain'd?
- 4 With words of love, sublime and sweet, He cheer'd each fainting heart, [feet, And wash'd, and wip'd those loved ones' From whom he soon must part.

 5 Girded to serve, the Lord of all, Thus taught humility;
 And still his voice doth on us call, "Fear not, but follow me.

6 "If I, your Lord and Master, thought, A servant's office meet, Be not ashamed, but know ye ought To wash each other's feet."

7 Yea, Lord, we will remember Thee, And keep this plain command; O, may our hearts obedient be, In one united band.

Christ our Example.

L. M.

Wike THE Church of God believes it right, To think and do as Jesus bade, When on that dark and doleful night He gave his law, and plainly said :-

268

2 Mark the example which I give; Keep it, and show your mutual love: My precepts do, and you shall live In bliss below, and heaven above.

 3 My brethren, do we love the Lord? And are we bound in union yet? If so, like Jesus, let us bow, And let us wash each other's feet.

4 Now, Lord, we'll wash thy people's feet. And here enjoy their fond embrace; Each with a kiss of friendship greet; And hope in love to see thy face.

5 And then we'll feast on heavenly love, And find our joys to be complete:
Yes, then we'll sing thy praise above, And bow, with angels, at thy feet.
174

FEET-WASHING

Feet-washing enjoined.

269

S. M.

BEHOLD!-Our blessed Lord Met with his chosen band, And said to them, in act and word, "Keep this, my plain command."

2 He laid his garments by, Upon that doleful night, When earth and hell combined, to try Man's only hope to blight.

3 Then did our humble Lord With towel girded stand, A basin, full of water pour'd,

Held in his sacred hand;

4 And lo!—he washed their feet! And then he wiped them dry! And taught them, thus, a lesson meet, Of deep humility.

5 "Know ye what I have done?" Said he to one and all:

6 "As I have washed your feet, To show my love for you:

Ye ought to wash each other's feet, And show your love is true.

7 "The servant must not claim To be above his Lord;"—
Then, Lord, be this my constant aim, To keep thy sacred word.

THE LOVE-FEAST.

270

Love is the fulfilling of the law. Rom. 13: 10. C. M.

Y^E follow'rs of the Prince of Peace, Who round his table draw, Remember what his spirit was, Fulfilling all God's law.

2 'The love which all his bosom filled Did all his actions guide; Inspir'd by love, he liv'd and taught, Inspir'd by love, he died.

 Let each the sacred law fulfill; Like his be ev'ry mind;
 Be ev'ry temper form'd by love, And ev'ry action kind.

4 Let none who call themselves his friends Disgrace the honor'd name, But by a near resemblance prove The title which they claim.

271 All things are ready; come. Matt. 22: 4. C. M.

N memory of the Saviour's blood, We hold this feast of love; Rejoicing in the love of God, Who calls us from above.

2 Here let us all his love adore, And praise his gracious name; Let grateful joy fill every heart, Let all his love proclaim.

3 As we are all invited here, These blessings to receive; So God is calling far and near, For all to come and live. 176

- 4 O who will not obey his call; O who can still delay; While free salvation yet proclaims The mercy of to-day.
- 5 O happy day, when all shall meet
 That here his call obey;
 O happy day—the joy, how sweet, Of that celestial day.

SALUTATION.

272

Let brotherly love continue. Heb. 13: 1. L. M

How swift the heav'nly course they run, And strive the crown of life to win!

Come let us join our hearts and hands, All in one band completely; We're marching thro' Immanuel's land, Where the waters flow so sweetly.

- 2 To each, the soul of each how dear! What watchful love, what holy fear! How doth the gen'rous flame within Refine from earth and cleanse from sin!
- 3 Their streaming eyes together flow For human guilt and mortal woe; Their ardent pray'rs together rise, Like mingling flames in sacrifice.
- 4 They're one in life and one in death— One in their joy, their trust, their faith; One in their hope of rest above, One in each other's faithful love.
- 5 Nor shall the glowing flame expire When dimly burns frail nature's fire; In heav'n it will the brighter burn, Since there the graces are matur'd. (12) 177

THE LORD'S SUPPER—THE COMMUNION.

273

"It is finished." 8s, 7s & 4.

HARK! the voice of love and mercy Sounds aloud from Calvary; See, it rends the rocks asunder, Shakes the earth and vails the sky! It is finish'd! Hear the dying Saviour cry.

2 It is finish'd! O what pleasure Do these charming words afford; Heav'nly blessings without measure Flow to us from Christ the Lord. It is finish'd! Saints, the dying words record.

3 Finish'd all the types and shadows Of the ceremonial law; Finish'd all that God had promis'd, Death and hell no more shall awe. It is finish'd!

Saints, from hence your comfort draw.

4 Happy souls, approach the table, Taste the soul-reviving food; Nothing half so sweet and pleasant As the Saviour's flesh and blood. It is finish'd! Christ has borne the heavy load.

5 Tune your hearts anew, ye seraphs, Join to sing the pleasing theme; All on earth, and all in heaven, Join to praise Immanuel's name-Hallelujah! Glory to the bleeding Lamb! 178

THE CHURCH.

5 The nails, the spear can we forget, The agonizing cry :--

"My God! my Father! wilt thou let Thy Son forsaken die?"

6 Life's highest joys we may forget— Our kindred cease to love;

- But he that paid our hopeless debt, Our constancy shall prove.

276 And when they had sung a hymn, etc. S. M. Matt. 26: 30.

A PARTING hymn we sing, Around thy table, Lord; Again our grateful tribute bring, Our solemn vows record.

2 Here have we seen thy face, And felt thy presence here; So may the savor of thy grace In word and life appear.

 The purchase of thy blood— By sin no longer led— The path our dear Redeemer trod May we rejoicing tread.

4 In self-forgetting love Be Christian union shown, Until we join the Church above, And know as we are known.

S. M.

GLORY to God on high! Our peace is made with heaven; The Son of God came down to die, That we might be forgiven.

- 5 With humble faith and bleeding heart, Lord, we accept thy love;
 - 'T is a rich banquet we have had, What will it be above?

FELLOWSHIP AND UNITY.

280

The danger of divisions. Acis 20: 29. C. M.

JESUS, great Shepherd of the sheep, To thee for help we fly; Thy little flock in safety keep, For O, the wolf is nigh.

 He comes, of hellish malice full, To scatter, tear, and slay;
 He seizes ev'ry straggling soul As his own lawful prey.

3 Us into thy protection take, And gather with thine arm; Unless the fold we first forsake, The wolf can never harm.

4 We laugh to scorn his cruel pow'r, While by our Shepherd's side; The sheep he never can devour, Unless he first divide.

FELLOWSHIP AND UNITY.

5 O do not suffer him to part The souls that here agree; But make us of one mind and heart, And keep us one in thee. 6 Together let us sweetly live, Together let us die ; And each a starry crown receive, And reign above the sky. The saints but one family. C. M. 281Eph. 1: 10. THE saints on earth, and those above, But one communion make; Join'd to their Lord, in bonds of love, All of his grace partake. 2 One family, we dwell in him, One church above, beneath, Though now divided by the stream, The narrow stream of death. 3 One army of the living God, To his commands we bow ; Part of the host have cross'd the flood, And part are crossing now. 4 Lo! thousands to their endless home Are swiftly borne away; And we are to the margin come, And soon must launch as they. 5 Lord Jesus! be our constant guide! Then, when the word is giv'n, Bid death's cold flood its waves divide. And land us safe in heav'n. The union of brethren pleasant. Psalm 133. C. Gal. 6: 2. C. M. search the ground

TRY us, O God, and search the ground Of ev'ry sinful heart; Whate'er of sin in us is found, O, bid it all depart!

2 When to the right or left we stray, Leave us not comfortless; But guide our feet into the way Of everlasting peace.

3 Help us to help each other, Lord, Each other's cross to bear; Let each his friendly aid afford, And feel his brother's care.

4 Help us to build each other up, Our little stock improve; Increase our faith, confirm our hope, And perfect us in love.

Joy in unity.

L. M.

HOW would my heart rejoice, to see The friends in Jesus all agree; And all to one another say, We'll tread along the good old way.

- 2 How sweet the place where union dwells, When love divine each bosom swells; When ties of grace together bind And ev'ry action proves them kind.
- 3 How bright the light when love adorns, 'T is like a lamp when bright it burns; By this beholders still may see, Who Jesus' true disciples be.
- 4 It is a mark by Jesus given. And shews us who can get to heaven; This mark, tho' ancient, yet is true, And shines when worn, as always new.
- 5 O may the church this image bear, The pledge of love forever wear; Perfection's bonds unite in one, Like God the Father and the Son.

285 Looking for that blessed hope. Titus 2: 13. C. P. M.

COME on, my partners in distress, My comrades in the wilderness, Who feel your sorrows still; Awhile forget your griefs and fears, And look beyond this vale of tears, To that celestial hill.

THE CHURCH.

 Beyond the bounds of time and space, Look forward to that heav'nly place, The saint's secure abode; On faith's strong eagle pinions rise, And force your passage to the skies, And scale the mount of God.
 Who suffer with our Master here, Shall there before his face appear, And by his side sit down: To patient faith the prize is sure; And all that to the end endure

The cross, shall wear the crown.

A prayer in affliction.

8s.

O THOU whose compassionate care Does all of thy creatures sustain, Now graciously teach me to bear The weight of affliction and pain.

2 Though cheerless my days seem to flow, Though weary and wakeful my nights, What comfort it gives me to know 'T is the hand of a Father that smites!

3 A tender Physician thou art, Who woundest in order to heal, Aud comfort divine dost impart To soften the anguish we feel.

4.0, let this affliction be blest, And answer thy gracious design;
Then grant that my soul may find rest In comforts so healing as thine.

287 Call for the elders of the church. James 5: 14. L. M. W HEN struggling on the bed of pain, And earth and all its joys are vain, How sweet, my God, to know thy pow'r Sustains me in this trying hour.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

- 2 I would thy holy word obey E'en while upon my bed I lie: I call the elders here, O Lord, To do according to thy word.
- 3 And while the oil's by faith applied,
 O may my soul be sanctified
 By the blest unction from above,
 And then be fill'd with heav'nly love.
- 4 Then shall my cheerful, grateful tongue, In rapt'rous strains thy praise prolong; My ransom'd soul adore thy grace, And swifter run the heav'nly race.
- 5 Or, should my days be near their end, And I through death my steps must wend, Then, O my Lord, receive me home, To mingle with the blood-wash'd throng.

Belhel-the house of God. Gen. 28: 19. L. M.

O BOW thine ear, eternal One; On thee our heart adoring calls; To thee the follow'rs of thy Son Have rais'd and now devote these walls.

2 Here let thy holy days be kept; And be this place to worship giv'n, Like that bright spot where Jacob slept, The house of God, the gate of heav'n.

3 Here may thine honor dwell; and here, As incense, let thy children's pray'r, From contrite hearts and lips sincere, Rise on the still and holy air.

 4 Here be thy praise devoutly sung; Here let thy truth beam forth to save, As when, of old, thy Spirit hung, On wings of light, o'er Jordan's wave.

5 And when the lips, that with thy name Are vocal now, to dust shall turn, On others' may devotion's flame Be kindled here, and purely burn.

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND EXPERIENCE— AFFLICTIONS AND TRIALS.

290 The rivers shall not overflow thee. C. M. Isaiah 43:2. A FFLICTION is a stormy deep, Where wave resounds to wave; Though o'er our heads the billows roll, We know the Lord can save.

2 When darkness, and when sorrows rose, And press'd on ev'ry side, The Lord hath still sustain'd our steps, And still hath been our guide.

AFFLICTIONS AND TRIALS.

 Berhaps, before the morning dawn, He will restore our peace;
 For he who bade the tempest roar, Can bid the tempest cease.

4 Here we will rest, here build our hopes— Nor murmur at his rod;
He's more to us than all the world— Our Health, our Life, our God.

Live to die in Christ.

L. M.

IVE, while you live, in mortal days, To seek God's honor, and his praise; Live, while in life, to do his will, And ne'er submit to doing ill.

- 2 Let Christ be all your theme below, While traveling through this world of woe, Keep near his side in transient days, And follow him in all his ways.
- 3 Then, when your closing scenes prevail, When all you have on earth shall fail, And all a foolish world admires, Or passion craves, or pride desires,
- 4 At that important hour of need, Jesus shall prove a friend indeed; His hand shall smooth thy dying bed, His arm sustain thy drooping head
- 5 And when the painful struggle's o'er, And this vain world shall be no more, He'll bear his faithful child away, To rapture and eternal day.
- 6 Come, then, be his in every part;
 Give him not less than all thy heart;
 Then shalt thou, with that heav'nly throng,
 His everlasting praise prolong.

Jesus, Jesus will go with you, Ile will lead you to his throne, He who dyed his garments for you, And the wine-press trod alone.

3 He whose thunders shake creation, He who bid the planets roll, He who rides upon the tempest, And whose sceptre sways the whole. Round him are ten thousand angels, Ready to obey command; They are always hov'ring round you, Till you reach the heavenly land.

295 Thou hast delivered my soul, etc. Psalm 116: 8. C. M MY God, thy service well demands The remnant of my days: Why was this fleeting breath renew'd, But to renew thy praise?

2 Thine arms of everlasting love Did this weak frame sustain, When life was hov'ring o'er the grave, And nature sunk with pain.

- 5 Calmly I bow'd my fainting head On thy dear, faithful breast; Pleas'd to obey my Father's call To his eternal rest.
- 5 Into thy hands, my Saviour God, Did I my soul resign,
 In firm dependence on that truth Which made salvation mine.

6 Back from the borders of the grave, At thy command I come; Nor will I urge a speedier flight To my celestial home.

297 Christ sympathizes with us. L. M. 6 lines.

W HEN gath'ring clouds around I view, And days are dark, and friends are few, On him I lean, who not in vain Experienced every human pain; He feels my griefs, he sees my fears, And counts and treasures up my tears.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray From heav'nly wisdom's narrow way, Io fly the good I would pursue, Or do the ill I would not do; Still he who felt temptation's pow'r, Shall guard me in that dang'rous hour.

3 And O! when I have safely pass'd Through every conflict but the last; Still, still unchanging watch beside My bed of death; for thou hast died: Then point to realms of endless day, And wipe the latest tear away.

298The best protection. 8s, 7s & 4. 7HY those fears? Behold, 't is Jesus Holds the helm and guides the ship; Spread the sails, and catch the breezes Sent to waft us through the deep. To the regions Where the mourners cease to weep. 2 Rendered safe by his protection, We shall pass the watery waste; Trusting to his wise direction, We shall gain the port at last, And with wonder Think on toils and dangers past. 3 Oh, what pleasures there await us! There the tempests cease to roar; (13)193

There it is that those who hate us Shall molest our peace no more: Trouble ceases

On that tranquil, happy shore!

299 As thy days, so shall thy strength be. L. M. Deut. 33: 25.

A FFLICTED saints, to Christ draw near, Thy Saviour's gracious promise hear; His faithful word declares to thee, That as thy days, thy strength shall be.

- 2 Let not my heart despond and say, How shall I stand the trying day? He has engaged, by firm decree, That as thy days, thy strength shall be.
- 3 Thy faith is weak, thy foes are strong; And if the conflict should be long, Thy Lord will make the tempter flee; For as thy days, thy strength shall be.
- 4 Should persecution rage and flame,
 Still trust in thy Redeemer's name;
 In fiery trials thou shalt see,
 That as thy days, thy strength shall be.
- 5 When called to bear thy weighty cross, Or sore affliction, pain or loss, Or deep distress, or poverty,— Still as thy days, thy strength shall be.
- 6 When ghastly death appears in view, Christ's presence shall thy fears subdue; He comes to set thy spirit free, And as thy days, thy strength shall be.

300

BE still, my heart! these anxious cares To thee are burdens, thorns, and snares; They cast dishonor on thy Lord, And contradict his gracious word!

Why art thou cast down? L. M. Ps. 43:5.

AFFLICTIONS AND TRIALS.

- 2 Brought safely by his hand thus far, Why wilt thou now give place to fear? How canst thou want if he provide, Or lose thy way with such a guide?
- 3 When first before his mercy seat, Thou didst to him thy all commit; He gave thee warrant, from that hour, To trust his wisdom, love, and power.
- 4 Did ever trouble yet befall And he refuse to hear thy call? And has he not his promise passed, That thou shalt overcome at last?
- 5 He who has help'd me hitherto, Will help me all my journey through; And give me daily cause to raise New Ebenezers to his praise.
- 6 Though rough and thorny be the road, It leads thee home, apace, to God, Then count thy present trials small, For heaven will make amends for all.
- 301We have here no abiding city. M. 7s. & 4s. T'M a lonely trav'ler here, Weary, oppressed; But my journey's end is near, Soon shall I rest: Dark and dreary is the way, Toiling I've come; Ask me not with you to stay, Yonder's my home. 2 I'm a trav'ler to a land Where all is fair; Where are seen no broken bands, All, all are there: Where no tears shall ever fall, No heart be sad; Where the glory is for all, And all are glad. 195

3 I'm a trav'ler, and I go Where all is fair: Farewell all I've loved below: I must be there. Worldly honors, hopes and gain, All I resign; Welcome sorrow, grief and pain, If heaven be mine. 4 I'm a trav'ler; call me not; Upward's my way; Yonder is my rest and lot; I cannot stay. Farewell earthly pleasures all; Pilgrim I'll roam; Hail me not; in vain you call; Yonder's my home. 302 Presence of Christ desired. P. M. 11s & 8s. OTHOU in whose presence my soul takes delight. On whom in affliction I call: My comfort by day, and my song in the night, My hope, my salvation, my all. 2 Where dost thou at noon-tide resort with thy sheep To feed on the pastures of love? Say, why in the valley of death should I weep, Or alone in the wilderness rove? 3 O why should I wander an alien from thee, And cry in the desert for bread? Thy foes will rejoice when my sorrows they see, And smile at the tears I have shed. 4 Ye daughters of Zion, declare have you seen The star that on Israel shone? Say, if in your tents my beloved has been, And where with his flock he is gone? 5 This is my Beloved, his form is divine. His vestments shed odors around: The locks on his head are as grapes on the vine, When autumn with plenty is crown'd. 6 His lips as a fountain of righteousness flow, That waters the garden of grace, From which their salvation the Gentiles shall And bask in the smiles of his face. 7 Such is my Beloved, in excellence bright, When pleas'd he looks down from above, [of light, Like the morn, when he breathes from the chambers And comforts his people with love.

M. 7s & 6s. 303 The doubting Christian. COME, my friend, and let us try, For a little season, Every burden to lay by; Come, and let us reason. 2 What is this that casts you down? O, what can thus grieve you? Speak, and let the worst be known: Speaking may relieve you. 3 Christ, at times, by faith I view. And it doth relieve me; But my doubts return anew: They are those that grieve me. 4 Troubled like the restless seas, Feeble, faint and fearful: Plagued with every sore disease, How can I be cheerful? 5 Think on what your Saviour bore In the gloomy garden ; Sweating blood at every pore, To procure thy pardon. 6 View him nail'd upon the tree. Bleeding, groaning, dying; O that thou couldst to him flee, On his grace relying! M. 7s. 304Refuge for the tempted. TESUS, lover of my soul, Let me to thy bosom fly; While the billows near me roll, While the tempest still is nigh.

2 Hide me, O my Saviour, hide, Till the storm of life is past; Safe into the haven guide, O receive my soul at last!

3 Other refuge have I none; Hangs my helpless soul on thee: Leave, ah, leave me not alone! Still support and comfort me.

4 All my trust on thee is stay'd, All my help from thee I bring; Cover my defenseless head With the shadow of thy wing.

5 Thou of life the fountain art, Freely let me take of thee; Spring thou up within my heart, Rise to all eternity!

The soul's only refuge.

S. M.

THOU refuge of my soul, On thee, when sorrows rise, On thee, when waves of trouble roll, My fainting hope relies.

2 To thee I tell my grief, For thou alone canst heal; Thy word can bring a sweet relief For every pain I feel.

 But O, when doubts prevail, I fear to call thee mine;
 The spring of comfort seems to fail, And all my hopes decline.

4 Yet, Lord, where shall I flee? Thou art my only trust: And still my soul would cleave to thee, Though prostrate in the dust. 198

Sighing for home.

Psalm 55: 5. LAND of rest, for thee I sigh! When will the moment come When I shall lay my armor by, And dwell with Christ at home? 2 No tranguil joys on earth I know, No peaceful shelt'ring dome; This world's a wilderness of woe: This world is not my home. 3 To Jesus Christ I sought for rest; He bade me cease to roam, And fly for succor to his breast, And he'd conduct me home. 4 I would at once have guit this place, Where foes in fury roam, But, ah! my passport was not seal'd-I could not yet go home. 5 Weary of wand'ring round and round This vale of sin and gloom, I long to leave th' unhallow'd ground, And dwell with Christ at home. Communion with Christ in worship. John 6: 48. L. M. 307 FAR from my tho'ts, vain world, begone, Let my religious hours alone; Fain would my eyes my Saviour see; I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire, And kindles with a pure desire: Come, my dear Jesus, from above, And feed my soul with heav'nly love.

3 Haste then, but with a smiling face, And spread the table of thy grace; Bring down a taste of truth divine, And cheer my heart with sacred wine. 199

C. M.

4 Bless'd Jesus, what delicious fare! How sweet thy entertainments are! Never did angels taste above Redeeming grace, and dying love. Give us this day our daily bread. Matt. 6: 11. 308 L. M. HILE others pray for grace to die, O Lord, I pray for grace to live! For ev'ry hour a fresh supply-O see my need, and freely give. 2 I do not dread the hour of death-If I am thine, no fears remain,— I know that with my parting breath I leave for ever mortal pain. 3 And if it should be then thy will A cloud should on the future be, The bow of promise spans it still, I will believe-I need not see! 4 E'en if the darkness should appear Too deep for faith as well as sight; If I am thine, thou wilt be near, And take me to thy heav'nly light. 5 But oh, my Lord! in life's highway I crave the sunshine of thy face! And every moment of the day I need thy strong supporting grace. 6 My weary spirit can not drink At springs which rise from earth alone; When I can do no more, I think Of living waters from thy throne. The fear of the Lord is to hate evil. H. M. 309Prov. 8: 12. TOW whilst I try my heart, By this unerring word, My conscience can assert, I truly fear the Lord. I cannot tread the paths of sin, I long for holiness within. 200

ASPIRATIONS.

2 Yes, holiness of heart, I would more largely share; I mourn with inward smart. The evils that are there. I hate my thoughts whenever vain, I would from ev'ry sin abstain. 3 I hate this wretched pride, These covetous desires; I'd have them crucified, For Christ my heart requires. Jesus, do thou these foes subdue, O make me more sincere and true. The soul longing for God. 3106s. Psalm 119: 20. Y spirit longs for thee To dwell within my breast; Although I'm unworthy Of so divine a Guest! 2 Of so divine a Guest-Unworthy though I be, Yet hath my heart no rest Until it come to thee! 3 Until it come to thee; In vain I look around; In all that I can see, No rest is to be found! 4 No rest is to be found But in thy bleeding love; O, let my wish be crown'd. And send it from above! The importance of religion. Phil. 3: 8. 311 C. M ELIGION is the chief concern) Of mortals here below; May I its great importance learn. Its sov'reign virtue know. 201

- 2 More needful this than glitt'ring wealth, Or aught the world bestows; Not reputation, food or health, Can give us such repose.
- Religion should our thoughts engage Amidst our youthful bloom;
 'T will fit us for declining age, And for the awful tomb.
- 4 O, may my heart, by grace renew'd, Be my Redeemer's throne, And be my stubborn will subdued, His government to own !
- 5 Let deep repentance, faith and love, Be join'd with godly fear;
 And all my conversation prove My heart to be sincere.
- 6 Let lively hope my soul inspire; Let warm affections rise: And may I wait with strong desire To mount above the skies.

312 Perfect heart the Redeemer's throne. C. M.

- O FOR a heart to praise my God!
 A heart from sin set free;—
 A heart that always feels thy blood, So freely spilt for me;—
- 2 A heart resign'd, submissive, meek, My great Redeemer's throne; Where only Christ is heard to speak, Where Jesus reigns alone.
- O for a lowly, contrite heart, Believing, true, and clean;
 Which neither life nor death can part From him who dwells within;— 202

 4 A heart in every thought renew'd, And full of love divine;
 Perfect, and right, and pure, and good, A copy, Lord, of thine.

5 Thy holy nature, Lord, impart; Come quickly from above, Write thy new name upon my heart, Thy new, best name of love.

.313 Desiring to be weaned from earth. Psalm 131:2. L. M. OTHAT I could for ever dwell With Mary at my Saviour's feet, And view the form I love so well,

And all his tender words repeat!

2 The world shut out from all my soul, And heav'n brought in with all its bliss; O, is there aught from pole to pole, One moment to compare with this?

3 This is the hidden life I prize— A life of pure and filial love, When most my follies I despise, And raise the highest thoughts above.

4 Thus would I live, till nature fail, And all my former sins forsake; Then rise to God within the vail, And of eternal joys partake.

314

Nearer to thee. James 4: 8. 6s & 4s. NEARER, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee! E'en though it be a cross That raiseth me; Still all my song shall be-Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee! 203

2 Though, like the wanderer— Daylight all gone, Darkness be over me, My rest a stone: Yet in my dreams I'd be Nearer, my God, to thee— Nearer to thee!

3 There let the way appear, Steps unto heav'n; All that thou sendest me, In mercy giv'n; Angels to beckon me Nearer, my God, to thee-Nearer to thee!

4 Then with my waking thoughts, Bright with thy praise, Out of my stony griefs, Bethel I'll raise; So by my woes to be Nearer, my God, to thee— Nearer to thee!

5 Or, if on joyful wing, Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot, Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be— Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee.

2 O send thy Spirit down to write Thy law upon my heart! 204

ASPIRATIONS.

Nor let my tongue indulge deceit, Nor act the liar's part.

3 From vanity turn off my eyes; Let no corrupt design

Nor covetous desires arise, Within this soul of mine.

4 Order my footsteps by thy word, And make my heart sincere;

Let sin have no dominion, Lord, But keep my conscience clear.

5 My soul has gone too far astray, My feet too often slip: Yet since I've not forgot thy way,

Restore thy wand'ring sheep.

6 Make me to walk in thy commands, 'T is a delightful road; Nor let my head, or heart, or hands, Offend against my God.

Walking with God.

C. M

O FOR a closer walk with God! A calm and heavenly frame! A light to shine upon the road That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Where is the blessedness I knew When first I saw the Lord? Where is the soul-refreshing view Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I then enjoyed! How sweet their memory still! But now I find an aching void The world can never fill.

4 Return, O holy Dove !--return, Sweet messenger of rest;

I hate the sins that made thee mourn, And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known, Whate'er that idol be, Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship only thee.
6 So shall my walk be close with God, Calm and serene my frame; So purer light shall mark the road That leads me to the Lamb.

Longing to see Jesus.

7s & 6s.

WHEN shall I see Jesus, And dwell with him above? To drink the flowing fountains Of everlasting love? When shall I be deliver'd From this vain world of sin, And with my blessed Jesus, Drink endless pleasures in? 2 But now I am a soldier, My Captain's gone before; He's given me my orders, And tells me not to fear. And if I hold out faithful, A crown of life he'll give, And all his valiant soldiers Eternal life shall have. 3 Through grace I am determin'd To conquer, though I die; And then away to Jesus On wings of love I'll fly. Farewell to sin and sorrow. I bid them both adieu: And you, my friends, prove faithful, And on your way pursue. 4 And if you meet with trouble, And trials on the way, Then cast your care on Jesus, And don't forget to pray.

Gird on the heav'nly armor, Of faith, and hope, and love, And when your warfare's ended, You'll reign with him above. 5 O do not be discourag'd, For Jesus is your friend, And if you long for knowledge, On him you may depend; Neither will he upbraid you, Though often you request; He'll give you grace to conquer And take you home to rest. 318 C. M. Zeal, true and false. 7EAL is that pure and heavenly flame The fire of love supplies; While that which often bears the name Is self in a disguise. 2 True zeal is merciful and mild, Can pity and forbear; The false is headstrong, fierce, and wild, And breathes revenge and war. 3 While zeal for truth the Christian warms. He knows the worth of peace; But self contends for names and forms. Its party to increase. 4 Yes, self, however well employed, Has its own ends in view; And says, as boasting Jehu cried, "Come, see what I can do." 5 Self may its poor reward obtain, And be applauded here; But zeal the best applause will gain When Jesus shall appear. 6 O Lord, the idol self dethrone, And from our hearts remove; And let no zeal by us be shown, But that which springs from love.

Preparation for death.

F I must die, O let me die With hope in Jesus' blood— The blood that saves from sin and guilt, And reconciles to God.

C. M.

2 If I must die, O let me die In peace with all mankind; And change these fleeting joys below For pleasures more refined.

- 3 If I must die—and die I must— Let some kind seraph come, And bear me on his friendly wing
 - To my celestial home.

Because I live, ye shall live also. John 14: 19. I KNOW that my Redeemer lives ! What comfort this sweet sentence gives ! He lives, he lives, who once was dead; He lives—my ever-living Head.

- 2 He lives, to bless me with his love; He lives, to plead for me above; He lives, my hungry soul to feed; He lives, to help in time of need.
- 3 He lives, and grants me daily breath; He lives, and I shall conquer death; He lives, my mansion to prepare— He lives, to bring me safely there.
- 4 He lives—all glory to his name ! He lives—my Jesus, still the same; O, the sweet joy this sentence gives, "I know that my Redeemer lives !"

BACKSLIDING.

Full assurance. 1 Thess. 1: 5. 8s & 7s 321 K NOW, my soul, thy full salvation, Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care; Joy to find in ev'ry station Something still to do or bear. 2 Think what Spirit dwells within thee; Think what Father's smiles are thine : Think what Jesus did to win thee: Child of heav'n, canst thou repine? 3 God will give thee grace to conquer; Fight thy way, and get thy crown; Canaan's land lies just before thee-There you'll lay your armor down. 4 Soon you'll close your earthly mission, Soon you'll pass your pilgrim days; Hope shall change to glad fruition-Faith to sight, and pray'r to praise.

Job 29: 2. NCE, O Lord, thy garden flourish'd, Ev'ry part look'd gay and green; Then thy word our spirits nourish'd, Happy seasons we have seen ! 2 But a drought has since succeeded. And a sad decline we see: Lord, thy help is greatly needed. Help can only come from thee. 3 Some, in whom we once delighted. We shall see no more below; Some, alas, we fear are blighted,-Scarce a single leaf they show. 4 Dearest Saviour, hasten hither: Thou canst make them bloom again; O, permit them not to wither, Let not all our hopes be vain ! 209 (14)

I ONCE enjoyed my Lord, Lived happy in his love, Delighted in his holy word, And sought my rest above.

- 2 But O, alas, my soul, Where is my comfort now; Why did I let my love grow cold, Or why to idols bow?
- How little did I think
 When I did first begin,
 To join a little with the world
 It was so great a sin.
- 4 I thought I might conform, Nor singular appear, Converse and dress as others did, But now I feel the snare.
- 5 My confidence is gone, I find no words to say, Barren and lifeless is my soul When I attempt to pray.
- 6 My soul, this will not do, Thy day is almost past
 I must repent and turn to God, Or sink to hell at last.
- 7 Trembling, to Christ I'll fly, And all my sins confess; At Jesus' cross I'll humbly bow, And ask restoring grace.

324 Why does the cause of Christ run so low? L. M.

A LAS! alas! why is it so, That Jesus' cause should run so low? Is love so cold and faith so weak, That few for Jesus now can speak? 210

BACKSLIDING.

- 2 Where is the love and heavenly zeal, That Christians formerly did feel, When they did meet and joyfully tell The love of their Emmanuel?
- 3 Once Zion's gates did much rejoice, When many met with heart and voice, And fill'd her courts with songs of praise And glory crown'd the heavenly lays.
- 4 Young converts then did praise the Lord, They sung his praise with one accord; While older Christians caught the flame, And spake the glory of his name.
- 5 Once Christians did religion feel, Abroad, at home, or in the field, And when they saw each other's face, Their theme was all redeeming grace.
- 6 But now so worldly grown that they But seldom find a heart to pray; The Christian is but here and there, That daily seeks the Lord by pray'r.
- 7 Cut short these days, O Lord, and come And bring us humble round thy throne, And we again shall love thy laws, Again espouse thy bleeding cause.

COMMUNION WITH GOD.

2 God pities all our griefs: He pardons ev'ry day; Almighty to protect our souls, And wise to guide our way.

3 How large his bounties are!
 What various stores of good,
 Diffus'd from our Redeemer's hand,
 And purchas'd with his blood!

4 Jesus, our living Head, We bless thy faithful care; Our Advocate before the throne, And our forerunner there.

5 Here fix, my roving heart! Here wait, my warmest love! Till the communion be complete, In nobler scenes above.

328 The safety of believers. Acts 27. C. M. I F Paul in Cæsar's court must stand, He need not fear the sea; Secured from harm on ev'ry hand By the divine decree.

2 Though neither sun nor stars were seen, Paul knew the Lord was near, And faith preserv'd his soul serene, When others shook with fear.

 Believers thus are toss'd about On life's tempestuous main, But grace assures beyond a doubt, They shall their port attain.

4 They must, they shall appear one day, Before their Saviour's throne; The storms they meet with by the way But make his power known. 213 5 Their passage lies across the brink Of many a threat'ning wave; The world expects to see them sink, But Jesus lives to save.

6 Lord, though we are but feeble worms, Yet, since thy word is past,
We'll venture through a thousand storms, To see thy face at last.

Fellowship with God. 1 John 1: 3. C. M.

FROM all that's mortal, all that's vain, And from this earthly clod, Arise, my soul, and strive to gain Sweet fellowship with God.

2 Not life or all the toys of art, Nor pleasure's flow'ry road, Can to my soul such bliss impart, As fellowship with God.

3 When I am made in love to bear Affliction's needful rod, Light, sweet and kind the strokes appear, Through fellowship with God.

4 In fierce temptation's fi'ry blasts, Or dark desertion's road, I'm happy if I can but taste Some fellowship with God.

5 So when the icy hand of death Shall chill my flowing blood, With joy I'll yield my latest breath, In fellowship with God.

6 When I at last to heav'n ascend, And gain my blest abode, There an eternity I'll spend In fellowship with God. 214

The safety of the righteous. Psalm 91: 4-7. 8s & 7s. 330 CALL Jehovah thy salvation, Rest beneath th' Almighty's shade; In his secret habitation Dwell, nor ever be dismay'd; There no tumult can alarm thee-Thou shalt dread no hidden snare, Guile nor violence can harm thee, In eternal safety there. 2 From the sword, at noonday wasting, From the noisome pestilence, In the depth of midnight blasting, God shall be thy sure defense: Fear not thou the deadly guiver. When a thousand feel the blow: Mercy shall thy soul deliver, Though ten thousand be laid low. 3 Since with pure and firm affection, Thou on God hast set thy love, With the wings of his protection He will shield thee from above: Thou shalt call on him in trouble. Love not the world. 1 John 2: 15. L. M.

REDEEMED ones, the heirs of God, So dearly bought with Jesus' blood Are they not born to heav'nly joys, And shall they stoop to earthly toys?

2 Can laughter feed th' immortal mind? Were spirits of celestial kind Made for a jest, for sport and play, To wear out time and waste the day?

- 3 Doth vain discourse, or empty mirth, Well suit the honors of their birth? Shall they be fond of gay attire, What children love and fools admire?
- 4 Lord, raise our hearts and passions higher; Touch our vain souls with sacred fire; Then, with a heav'n-directed eye, We'll pass these glitt'ring trifles by.
- 5 We'll look on all the toys below With such disdain as angels do; And wait the call that bids us rise To mansions promis'd in the skies.

332 Ashamed of Jesus ! L. M. JESUS, and shall it ever be, A mortal man ashamed of thee:

Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise, Whose glory shines through endless days?

- 2 Ashamed of Jesus! Sooner far Let ev'ning blush to own a star! He sheds the beams of light divine O'er this benighted soul of mine.
- 3 Ashamed of Jesus! Just as soon Let morning be ashamed of noon 'T is midnight with my soul, till he, Bright Morning Star, bid darkness flee.
- 4 Ashamed of Jesus!—that dear friend, On whom my hopes of heav'n depend! No! when I blush, be this my shame, That I no more revere his name.
- 5 Ashamed of Jesus! Yes, I may, When I've no guilt to wash away, No tear to wipe, no good to crave, No fears to quell, no soul to save. 216

CONSISTENCY.

- 6 Till then—nor is my boasting vain— Till then I'll boast a Savieur slain! And O! may this my glory be, That Christ is not ashamed of me!
- 7 His institutions would I prize, Take up my cross, the shame despise— Dare to defend his noble cause, And yield obedience to his laws.

333

What do ye more than others? L. M. Matt. 5: 47.

A ND do we hope to be with him, Who on the cross resigned his breath? Who died a victim, to redeem His people from eternal death?

- 2 Then should the question oft recur-What do we more than others do? How do we show that we prefer The things above to things below?
- 3 Where is the holy walk that suits The name and character we bear? And where are seen those heav'nly fruits That show we're not what once we were?

4 Allied to him who bore the cross, And call'd the people of the Lord, The world to us should seem but loss, And little all it can afford.

334 A conversation becoming the gospel. L. M. Phil. 1: 27. L. M. Phil. 1: 27. To teach us in his Father's name, In ev'ry act, in ev'ry thought, He lived the precepts which he taught.
2 So let our lips and lives express The holy gospel we profess; So let our works and virtues shine.

To prove the doctrine all divine.

- 3 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad The honors of our Saviour, God, When his salvation reigns within, And grace subdues the power of sin.
- 4 Our flesh and sense must be denied, Ambition, envy, lust and pride; While justice, temp'rance, truth, and love, Our inward piety approve.

5 Religion bears our spirits up, While we expect that blessed hope, The bright appearance of the Lord, And faith stands leaning on his word.

CONSECRATION-CONTENTMENT.

Present your bodies. Rom. 12: 1. L. M. 335TOW I resolve with all my heart, With all my pow'rs to serve the Lord; Nor from his precepts e'er depart, Whose service is a rich reward. 2 O be his service all my joy! Around let my example shine, Till others love the blest employ. And join in labors so divine. 3 Be this the purpose of my soul, My solemn, my determin'd choice, To yield to his supreme control, And in his kind commands rejoice. 4 O may I never faint nor tire, Nor, wand'ring, leave his sacred ways; Great God, accept my soul's desire, And give me strength to live thy praise. Contentment. 336 L. M. Phil. 4: 11. LORD, how full of sweet content Where'er I dwell, I dwell with thee, In heav'n, on earth, or in the sea. 218

THE CROSS.

2 To me remains no place nor time, My country is in ev'ry clime; I can be calm and free from care On any shore, since God is there. 3 While place I seek, or place I shun, The soul finds happiness in none; But with my God to guide my way, 'T is equal joy to go or stay. 7s & 6. 337 WHO'LL stand up for Jesus, The lowly Nazarene? And raise the blood-stained banner Amid the hosts of sin? The cross of Christ I'll cherish Its crucifixion bear: All hail! reproach or sorrow, If Jesus leads me there. 2 O who will follow Jesus Amid reproach and shame? Where others shrink or falter, Who'll glory in his name ?- The cross, &c. 3 Though fierce may rage the battle, And wild the storm may blow,-Though friends may go forever, Who will with Jesus go?-The cross, &c. 4 Though foes shall madly gather And Satan rage and roar, Who'll choose the fiery furnace, With Jesus evermore ?- The cross, &c. THE CROSS. Take up thy cross. Matt. 16: 24. L. M. 338 PAKE up thy cross! the Saviour said, If thou wouldst my disciple be; Take up thy cross with willing heart, And humbly follow after me. 219

2 Take up thy cross! let not its weight Fill thy weak spirit with alarm; My strength shall bear thy spirit up, And brace thy heart and nerve thy arm.

 Take up thy cross! nor heed the shame, And let thy foolish pride be still;
 Thy Lord did not refuse to die Upon the cross on Calvary's hill.

4 Take up thy cross, then, in his strength, And calmly sin's wild deluge brave;
"T will guide thee to a better home; It points to bliss beyond the grave.

5 Take up thy cross, and follow me, Nor think till death to lay it down; For only he who bears the cross, May hope to wear the glorious crown.

339 It is good that I have been afflicted. Psalm 119: 71. C. M.

IN trouble and in grief, O Lord, Thy smile hath cheer'd my way; And joy hath budded from each thorn That round my footsteps lay.

2 The hours of pain have yielded good, Which prosp'rous days refused;

As herbs, though scentless when entire, Spread fragrance when they're bruised.

3 The oak strikes deeper, as its boughs By furious blasts are driv'n;
So life's tempestuous storms the more Have fix'd my heart in heav'n.

4 All-gracious Lord, whate'er my lot In other times may be,

I'll welcome still the heaviest grief That brings me near to thee.

340

EXCEPT a man nimself deny, His lust and pride doth mortify, And take his cross and follow me, He cannot my disciple be."

2 This is the doctrine of our Lord, With which all Scripture doth accord; This is the axe laid at the root, Which doth not carnal nature suit.

3 This is the strait and narrow way That leads to life and endless day; Of which the Saviour of mankind Thus said that few do ever find.

- 4 The will and pride of the old man, Would fain devise another plan Than that which Jesus Christ hath given, By which to raise us up to heaven.
- 5 But Christ himself to us doth say, If he climb up another way, He must a thief and robber be, Because he enters not by me.

341

The benefit of the Cross.

C. M.

THE cross of Jesus purifies, From self and sin sets free; His cross does make us truly wise, And brings humility.

2 Reproaches, persecution, shame,— These must the Christian bear; But when sustain'd for Jesus' name, How light these burdens are!

3 Must we endure some earthly loss, Some keen distresses prove? If these are part of Jesus' cross, We'll bear them all in love.

²²¹

4 Must sharp temptations too beset, And inward conflicts seize? The faithful soul will not forget That these shall end in ease.

5 When sin is dead our spirits rest, Comfort and peace are giv'n, The inner man serenely blest, We taste the joys of heav'n.

342

The strait gate. Matt. 7: 13.

7.13 C. M.

S TRAIT is the way, the door is strait, That leads to joys on high; 'T is but a few that find the gate, While crowds mistake and die.

2 Beloved self must be denied, The mind and will renew'd, Passion supress'd, and patience tried, And vain desires subdued.

3 Flesh is a dang'rous foe to grace, Where it prevails and rules; Flesh must be humbled, pride abased, Lest they destroy our souls.

 4 The love of gold be banish'd hence, (That vile idolatry,)
 And ev'ry member, ev'ry sense, In sweet subjection lie.

 5 The tongue, that most unruly pow'r, Requires a strong restraint;
 We must be watchful ev'ry hour, And pray, but never faint.

 6 Lord! can a feeble, helpless worm, Fulfill a task so hard?
 Thy grace must all my works perform, And give the free reward.
 222

FAITH.

Cross and crown.

343

C. M.

MUST Jesus bear his cross alone, And all the world go free? No! there's a cross for every one, And there's a cross for me.

2 How happy are the saints above, Who once went mourning here; But now they taste unmingled love, And joy without a tear.

3 I' ll bear the consecrated cross, Till from the cross I'm free;
And then go home to wear the crown: For there's a crown for me.

FAITH.

344 Failh the evidence of things not seen. C. M. Heb. 11.

FAITH is the brightest evidence Of things beyond our sight; It pierces through the vail of sense, And dwells in heav'nly light.

- 2 It sets time past in present view, Brings distant prospects home, Of things a thousand years ago, Or thousand years to come.
- By faith we know the world was made By God's almighty word;
 We know the heav'ns and earth shall fade And be again restor'd.

4 Abra'am obey'd the Lord's command, From his own country driv'n;
By faith he sought a promis'd land, But found his rest in heav'n.
223

5 Thus through life's pilgrimage we stray, The promise in our eye;
By faith we walk the narrow way That leads to joy on high.

345

Desire for victorious faith.

C. M.

O FOR a faith that will not shrink, Though press'd by every foe! That will not tremble on the brink Of any earthly woe;—

2 That will not murmur or complain Beneath the chast'ning rod, But, in the hour of grief or pain, Will lean upon its God :--

3 A faith that shines more bright and clear, When tempests rage without; That when in danger knows no fear, In darkness feels no doubt:—

4 That bears, unmov'd, the world's dread Nor heeds its scornful smile; [frown, That seas of trouble cannot drown, Or Satan's arts beguile:

5 A faith that keeps the narrow way, Till life's last hour is fled,

And with a pure and heavenly ray Illumes a dying bed.

6 Lord, give us such a faith as this, And then, whate'er may come, We'll taste, e'en here, the hallow'd bliss Of an eternal home.

346

What faith is.

C. M.

FAITH is the spirit's sweet control, From which assurance springs; Faith is the pencil of the soul, That pictures heav'nly things.

FAITH.

 2 Faith is the throb of love, that makes Man rest on God alone;
 Faith is the wondrous pow'r, that shakes The tempter on his throne.

 Faith is the conqu'ring host, that storms The battlements of sin;
 Faith is the quick'ning fire, that warms The trembling soul within.

4 Faith is the smile, that plays around The dying Christian's brow:Faith was the light, by which he found The hope that fills him now.

5 Faith is the lamp, that burns to guide His bark, when tempest-driven; Faith is the key, that opens wide The distant gates of heav'n.

 6 O Rock of ages, Fount of bliss! Thy needful help afford;
 And let my constant prayer be this— "Increase my faith, O Lord."

347

Faith looking into the future. Heb. 11: 13. L. M.

T IS by the faith of joys to come We walk through deserts dark as night; Till we arrive at heav'n, our home, Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

2 The want of sight she well supplies; She makes the pearly gates appear; Far into distant worlds she pries, And brings eternal glories near.

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through, While faith inspires a heav'nly ray, Though lions roar, and tempests blow, And rocks and dangers fill the way. (15) . 225

4 So Abra'am, by divine command, Left his own house to walk with God: His faith beheld the promis'd land, And cheer'd him on his toilsome road. Triumph of faith. 1 John 5; 4. C. M 548 FOR an overcoming faith, To cheer my dying hours, To triumph o'er the monster death. And all his frightful pow'rs. 2 Joyful, with all the strength I have, My quiv'ring lips should sing, Where is thy boasted vict'ry. grave? And where the monster's sting? 3 If sin he pardon'd, I'm secure, Death hath no sting beside; The law gives sin its damning pow'r, But Christ, my ransom, died. 4 Now, to the God of victory, Immortal thanks be paid. Who makes us conqu'rors while we die, Through Christ, our living head.

HOPE.

C. M. 349Heavenly rest in anticipation. HEN I can read my title clear To mansions in the skies, I'll bid farewell to ev'ry fear, And wipe my weeping eyes. 2 Should earth against my soul engage, And fiery darts be hurl'd, Then I can smile at Satan's rage, And face a frowning world. 3 Let cares like a wild deluge come, Let storms of sorrow fall-So I but safely reach my home, My God, my heav'n, my all. 226

LOVE.

4 There I shall bathe my weary soul In seas of heav'nly rest, And not a wave of trouble roll Across my peaceful breast.

350

THEN floating on life's troubled sea, By storms and tempests driv'n, Hope, with her radiant finger, points To brighter scenes in heav'n.

2 She bids the storms of life to cease. The troubled breast be calm; And in the wounded heart she pours Religion's healing balm.

3 Her hallow'd influence cheers life's hours Of sadness and of gloom; She guides us through this vale of tears, To joys beyond the tomb.

4 And when our fleeting days are o'er, And life's last hour draws near. With still unwearied wing she hastes To wipe the falling tear.

5 She bids the anguish'd heart rejoice: Though earthly ties are riv'n, We still may hope to meet again In vonder peaceful heav'n.

LOVE.

351

L. M.

Love. 1 Cor. 13: 1-3. AD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews, And nobler speech than angels use, If love be absent, I am found, Like tinkling brass-an emrty sound.

The full assurance of hope. Heb. 6: 11. C. M.

- 2 Were I inspir'd to preach and tell All that is done in heav'n and hell, Or could my faith the world remove Still I am nothing without love.
- 3 Should I distribute all my store, To feed the bowels of the poor; Or give my body to the flame, To gain a martyr's glorious name:
- 4 If love to God and love to men Be absent, all my hopes are vain: Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fi'ry zeal, The work of love can e'er fulfill.

As I have loved you. John 13: 34. C. M. 352UR God is love; and all his saints His image bear below: The heart with love to God inspir'd. With love to man will glow. 2 None who are truly born of God Can live at enmity; Then may we love each other, Lord, As we are lov'd by thee. 3 Heirs of the same immortal bliss, Our hopes and fears the same, With bonds of love our hearts unite, With mutual love inflame. 4 So may the unbelieving world See how true Christians love; And glorify our Saviour's grace. And seek that grace to prove. Brotherly love. C. M. 353Ps. 133. OW sweet, how heav'nly is the sight, When those who love the Lord In one another's peace delight, And so fulfill his word! 228

LOVE.

2 O may we feel each brother's sigh, And with him bear a part; May sorrows flow from eye to eye, And joy from heart to heart.

 Free us from envy, scorn and pride, Our wishes fix above;
 May each his brother's failings hide, And show a brother's love.

4 Let love, in one delightful stream, Through ev'ry bosom flow; And union sweet, and dear esteem, In every action glow.

 5 Love is the golden chain that binds The happy souls above:
 And he's an heir of heav'n that finds
 His bosom glow with love.

354

Love and charity. 1 Cor. 13: 4-13.

C. M.

ET Pharisees of high esteem Their faith and zeal declare; All their religion is a dream, If love be wanting there.

- Love suffers long with patient eye, Nor is provoked in haste;
 She lets the present injury die, And long forgets the past.
- Malice and rage, those fires of hell, She quenches with her tongue;
 Hopes and believes, and thinks no ill, Though she endures the wrong.

4 She ne'er desires nor seeks to know The scandals of the time, Nor looks with pride on those below, Nor envies those that climb.

5 She lays her own advantage by, To seek her neighbor's good; So God's own Son came down to die, And bought our lives with blood.

6 Love is the grace that keeps her pow'r In all the realms above;
There faith and hope are known no more, But saints for ever love.

355

He first loved us. 1 John 4: 19.

7s.

CAVIOUR! teach me, day by day, Love's sweet lessons to obey; Sweeter lessons can not be, Loving him who first lov'd me.

- 2 With a child-like heart of love, At thy bidding may I move; Prompt to serve and follow thee, Loving him who first lov'd me.
- 3 Teach me all thy steps to trace, Strong to follow in thy grace; Learning how to love from thee— Loving him who first lov'd me.
- 4 Love in loving finds employ— In obedience all her joy; Ever new that joy will be, Loving him who first lov'd me.

356

Love and union.

11s.

FROM whence doth this love and this union arise, I That knits, and so fastens our souls in such ties, That hatred and malice are conquered by love, So that nature and distance these ties can't remove.

2 In the garden of nature it cannot be found; It grows and increases on Immanuel's ground; From the veins of the Saviour it flows ever sweet, And we drink it most plenty at Jesus' blest feet.

- 3 When in heavenly places together we sit, Where the elders, and brethren, and sisters are met, This love glows so sweetly in every heart, We feel so united we're loth for to part.
- 4 The time so unnotic'd, it passes away, We searcely can miss a whole night or a day, The union we feel and the love we enjoy Is such, that our souls can never be eloy'd.
- 5 We preach and we pray, and we talk and we sing, We tell our experience again and again; We talk about parting, but still we remain, In love so united we cannot contain.
- 6 Each brother and sister their tythes must bring in, Each one then does tell of some wonderful thing; Our love then increases to a glorious flame, And we give all the glory to God and the Lamb.

OBEDIENCE.

3 Do we, in all we sell or buy, Integrity maintain? And, knowing God is always nigh, Renounce unrighteous gain? 4 Then may we raise our modest pray'r To God, the just and kind; May humbly cast on him our care, And hope his grace to find. Charity to the poor. Psalm 41: 1-3. L. M. 364LEST is the man whose bowels move, And melt with pity to the poor: Whose soul, by sympathizing love, Feels what his fellow-saints endure. 2 His heart contrives, for their relief, More good than his own hands can do; He, in the time of sighs and grief, Shall find the Lord has bowels too. 3 His soul shall live secure on earth, With secret blessings on his head, When drought, and pestilence, and death, Around him multiply their dead. 4 Or if he languish on his couch, God will pronounce his sins forgiv'n, Will save him with a healing touch, Or take his willing soul to heav'n. OBEDIENCE. To obey is better than to sacrifice. 365 C. M. 1 Sam, 15 : 22. TH' importance of a sacred rite Depends upon the Lord; For he's a Being infinite,

And awful is his word.

The Christian character.

THE Christian knows his God aright, And worships him with strong delight; He's taught of God, and truly wise— Still sets the Lord before his eyes.

L. M.

- 2 The Christian hates his every sin-Evils external or within; And with an humble, contrite heart, From all that's sinful doth depart.
- 3 The Christian has a faith divine, And doth to faith obedience join; Believes the truth, the truth obeys, And always walks in holy ways.
- 4 The Christian is a man of God— He takes the pure, the heavenly road; All his affections rise above, And all his heart is full of love.

OBEDIENCE.

- 2 Though the sea be deep and wide, Though a passage seem denied; Fearless let us still proceed, Since the Lord vouchsafes to lead.
- 3 Though it seems the gloom of night, Though we see no ray of light; Since the Lord himself is there, 'T is not meet that we should fear.
- 4 Night with him is never night, Where he is, there all is light; When he calls us, why delay? They are happy who obey.
- 368 For entire subjection to the will of God. L. M. O THOU! who hast at thy command The hearts of all men in thy hand! Our wayward, erring hearts incline, To have no other will but thine.
 - 2 Our wishes, our desires, control; Mould every purpose of the soul; O'er all may we victorious be, That stands between ourselves and thee.
 - 3 Twice blest will all our blessings be, When we can look through them to thee. When each glad heart its tribute pays, Of love, and gratitude, and praise.
 - 4 Still make us, when temptation's near, As our worst foe ourselves to fear; And each vain-glorious throught to quell; Teach us how Peter vow'd and fell.

- 5 Yet may we, feeble, weak, and frail, Against our mightiest foes prevail; Thy word our safety from alarm, Our strength thine everlasting arm.
- 6 And while we to thy glory live, May we to thee all glory give, Until the joyful summons come, That calls thy willing servants home.

Through storms and calms, for many a day I make but very little way.

5 But when a heavenly breeze Springs up and fills my sail, My vessel goes with ease Before the pleasant gale, And runs as much an hour, or more, As in a month or two before. 6 Hid by the clouds from sight, The sun doth not appear; Nor can I in the night Behold the moon or star: Sometimes for days and weeks or more, I cannot see the sky or shore. 7 The BIBLE is my chart, By it the seas I know; I cannot with it part, It rocks and sands doth show: It is a chart and compass too, Whose needle points forever true. 8 I keep aloof from pride, Those rocks I pass with care; I studiously avoid The whirlpool of despair; Presumption's quicksands, too, I shun; Near them I do not choose to run. 9 My vessel would be lost In spite of all my care, But that the Holv Ghost Himself vouchsafes to steer: And I through all my voyage will Depend upon my steersman's skill.

10 Ere I can reach heaven's coast, I must a gulf pass through, Which dreadful proves to most, For all this passage go.

THE CHRISTIAN PILGRIMAGE.

But all death's waves can't me o'erwhelm, For God himself is at my helm.

11 When through this gulf I get, Though rough, it is but short, The pilot angels meet, To bring me into port;
And when I land on that blest shore, I shall be safe for evermore.

372 Christ our Guide. Ps. 47: 14. 8,7,8,7,4,7. O UIDE us, O thou great Jehovah, Pilgrims through this barren land; We are weak, but thou art mighty, Hold us with thy pow'rful hand;

Bread of heaven, Feed us till we want no more.

2 Open, Lord, thy crystal fountain, Whence the healing waters flow, Let thy fiery, cloudy pillar Lead us all our journey through. Strong deliv'rer, Be thou still our strength and shield.

3 Feed us with the heav'nly manna In this barren wilderness; Be our sword, and shield, and banner, Be our robe of righteousness. Fight and conquer All our foes by sov'reign grace.

4 When we tread the verge of Jordan, Bid our anxious fears subside; Foe to death, and hell's destruction, Land us safe on Canaan's side. Songs of praises, We will ever give to thee. (16) 241 373 C. M. " Hinder me not." N all my Lord's appointed ways My journey I'll pursue; "Hinder me not," ye much-loved saints, For I must-go with you. 2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus lead, I'll follow where he goes; "Hinder me not," shall be my cry, Though earth and hell oppose. 3 Through duties, and through trials too, I'll go at his command; "Hinder me not;" for I am bound To my Immanuel's land. 4 And, when my Saviour calls me home, Still this my cry shall be,— "Hinder me not;" come, welcome Lord; I'll gladly go with thee. "As unknown, and yet well known." 2 Cor. 6: 9. C. M. 374TTHAT poor, despised company Of travelers are these, Who walk in yonder narrow way, Along the rugged maze? 2 Ah! these are of a royal line. All children of a King; Heirs of immortal crowns divine, And, lo! for joy they sing. 3 Why do they, then, appear so mean, And why so much despis'd? Because of their rich robes, unseen, The world is not appris'd. 4 But some of them seem poor, distress'd, And lacking daily bread? O! they're of boundless wealth possess'd, With hidden manna fed!

PRAYER.

5 But why keep they the narrow road, That rugged, thorny maze?
Why, that's the way their Leader trod; They love and keep his ways.

6 Why must they shun that pleasant path That worldlings love so well? Because that is the way to death, The open road to hell.

7 What! is there then no other road To Salem's happy ground? Christ is the only way to God, None other can be found.

Consolation in trials.-

L. M.

O WHEN shall all these trials cease? When shall we lay these burdens down? When shall we reach that perfect peace? When shall we wear the victor's crown?

2 All sorrows, conflicts, toils, and pains, Which we in trials here endure, But fit us more for heav'nly gains,

And make our minds and hearts more pure.

- 3 When death shall end these toilsome rounds, And all our conflicts shall be o'er,
 - O may the Saviour take us home, Where we can rest forever more.
- 4 There shall all sorrows, toils, and pain, And conflicts cease, on that blest shore:
 - O! then, press onward, while 't is gain,-Our foes will soon molest no more.

The mercy-seat.

L. M.

FROM ev'ry stormy wind that blows, From ev'ry swelling tide of woes, There is a calm, a sure retreat— 'T is found beneath the mercy-seat. 243

- 2 There is a place, where Jesus sheds The oil of gladness on our heads; A place of all on earth most sweet— It is the blood bought mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a scene, where spirits blend, Where friend holds fellowship with friend; Though sunder'd far, by faith they meet, Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 Ah! whither could we flee for aid, When tempted, desolate, dismay'd? Or how the hosts of hell defeat, Had suff'ring saints no mercy-seat?
- 5 There, there on eagles' wings we soar, And sin and sense molest no more; And heav'n comes down our souls to greet, While glory crowns the mercy-seat.

377

Hindrances to prayer. 1 Peter 3: 7. L. M.

W HAT various hindrances we meet In coming to the mercy-seat; Yet who that knows the worth of pray'r, But wishes to be often there?

- 2 Pray'r makes the darken'd clouds withdraw; Pray'r climbs the ladder Jacob saw; Gives exercise to faith and love— Gives ev'ry blessing from above.
- 3 Restraining pray'r, we cease to fight; Pray'r makes the Christian's armor bright; And Satan trembles when he sees The weakest saint upon his knees.
- 4 Were half the breath that's vainly spent, To heav'n in supplication sent, Our cheerful song would oft'ner be, "Hear what the Lord has done for me."

PRAYER.

What is prayer?

C. M.

C. M.

PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire, Unutter'd or express'd; The motion of a hidden fire That trembles in the breast.

2 Pray'r is the burden of a sigh, The falling of a tear; The upward glancing of an eye When none but God is near.

3 Pray'r is the simplest form of speech That infant lips can try; Pray'r the sublimest strains that reach The Majesty on high.

4 Pray'r is the contrite sinner's voice Returning from his ways, While angels in their songs rejoice, And say—"Behold, he prays."

5 Pray'r is the Christian's vital breath, The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gate of death; He enters heav'n with pray'r.

378

Prayer in perplexity.

THOU great First Cause! least under-In ev'ry clime ador'd; [stood, We all know this—that thou art good, The universal Lord!

2 If I am right, thy grace impart, Still in the right to stay;
If I am wrong, O teach my heart To find that better way.

 Teach me to feel another's woe, To hide the fault I see;
 That mercy I to others show, That mercy show to me.

245

L. M. 380 Prayer answered by crosses. ASK'D the Lord that I might grow In faith, and love, and ev'ry grace; Might more of his salvation know, And seek more earnestly his face: 2 I hoped that in some favor'd hour At once he'd answer my request; And, by his love's constraining pow'r, Subdue my sins, and give me rest. 3 Instead of this, he made me feel The hidden evils of my heart, And let the angry pow'rs of hell Assault my soul in every part. 4 Yea more, with his own hand he seem'd Intent to aggravate my woe; Cross'd all the fair designs I schemed. Blasted my hopes, and laid me low. 5 "Lord, why is this." I trembling cried-"Wilt thou pursue thy worm to death?" "'T is in this way," the Lord replied, "I answer pray'r for grace and faith. 6 "These inward trials I employ, From self and pride to set thee free; And break thy schemes of earthly joy, That thou may'st seek thy all in me." 381 S. M. A prayer for submission. WANT a heart to pray, To pray and never cease; Never to murmur at thy stay, Or wish my suff'rings less. 2 This blessing above all, Always to pray, I want; Out of the deep on thee to call, And never, never faint. 246

 To know myself, and what thou art, And what thy perfect will.

6 I want I know not what: I want my wants to see;

I want, alas! what want I not, When thou art not in me?

382 Short and fervent prayer the best. C. M. Matt. 6: 7, 8.

ORD, in thy courts we now appear, And bow before thy throne; Before our lips begin to move, Our wants to thee are known.

2 Thou know'st the language of the heart, The meaning of a sigh; Dear Father, hear our humble pray'r,

And bring thy blessing nigh.
3 Few be our words, and short our pray'rs, While we together meet;
Short duties keep th' attention up And make devotion sweet.

383

Pray with the understanding.

S. M.

OFTEN say my prayers, But do I ever pray? And do the wishes of my heart Call forth the words I say? 247

2 I may as well kneel down To worship gods of stone. As offer to the living God A praver of words alone. 3 For words without the heart The Lord will never hear, Nor will he ever care for those Whose prayers are not sincere. 4 Lord, teach me what I want, And teach me how to pray, Nor let me e'er implore thy grace. All our help must come from thee! 3 Let our mutual love be fervent; Make us prevalent in pray'rs; Let each one, esteem'd thy servant, Shun the world's alluring snares; Lord, revive us! All our help must come from thee! 248

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND EXPERIENCE,

4 But I, with all my cares, Will lean upon the Lord;
I'll cast my burdens on his arm, And rest upon his word.

L. M. 387 Pray without ceasing. RAY'R was appointed to convey The blessings God designs to give : Long as they live must Christians pray, For only while they pray they live. 2 The Christian's heart his pray'r indites. He speaks as prompted from within ; The Spirit his petition writes, And Christ receives and gives it in. 3 If pains afflict, or wrongs oppress, If cares distract, or fears dismay, If guilt deject, or sins distress, In every case, still watch and pray. 4 Depend on Christ, thou canst not fail; Make all thy wants and wishes known: Fear not, his merits must prevail;

Ask but in faith, it must be done.

THE RACE.

 4 Lord, may I ever keep in view The patterns thou hast given, And ne'er forsake the blessed road That led them safe to heav'n.
 389 The Christian race. Heb. 12: 1, C. M.

A WAKE, my soul, stretch ev'ry nerve, And press with vigor on; A heav'nly race demands thy zeal, And an immortal crown.

- A cloud of witnesses around Hold thee in full survey;
 Forget the steps already trod, And onward urge thy way.
- 3 'T is God's all-animating voice That calls thee from on high;
 'T is his own hand presents the prize To thine uplifted eye;--

4 That prize, with peerless glories bright, Which shall new luster boast, When victors' wreaths and monarchs' gems Shall blend in common dust.

390 Prayer for help to win the prize. S. M. O LORD, help me to live, While here on earth I stay, That I the crown of life receive, When done with life's dark day.

2 Help me to win the prize That Christ has set before,
And be with him in Paradise When time shall be no more.

3 Temptations oft arise, Here in this wilderness, And Satan, in his craft, oft tries To rob our heaven of bliss. 251

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND EXPERIENCE.

 4 I put my trust below, My faith, my all in thee;
 For thou hast made a way for all, Hast made a way for me.

5 Strengthen my hope and faith To march along in love, And fit me out, in time of grace, To dwell with thee above.

REPROOF.

391

"Admonish him as a brother." C. M

SPEAK gently to the erring ones;-Ye know not all the pow'r With which the dark temptation came, In some unguarded hour.

- 2 Ye may not know how earnestly They struggled, or how well, Until the hour of weakness came, And sadly thus they fell.
- 3 Speak gently to the erring one O do not thou forget, However darkly stain'd by sin, He is thy brother yet.
- 4 Heir of the self-same heritage, Child of the self-same God, He hath but stumbled in the path Thou hast in weakness trod.
- 5 Speak gently to the erring ones: For is it not enough That innocence and peace are gone, Without our censure rough?

6 It surely is a weary lot That sin-crushed heart to bear; And they who share a happier fate Their chidings well may spare. 252

SELF EXAMINATION.

Duty to the erring. James 5: 20. L. M 392 OULDST thou an erring soul redeem, And lead a lost one back to God? Wouldst thou a guardian angel seem To one who long in guilt hath trod? 2 Go kindly to him—take his hand, With gentlest words, within thine own; And by his side a brother stand Till thou the demon, sin, dethrone. 3 Scorn not the guilty, then, but plead With him in kindest, gentlest mood, And back the lost one thou mayst lead To God, humanity and good! 4 Thou art thyself but man, and thou Art weak, perchance, to fall as he: Then mercy to the fallen show,

That mercy may be shown to thee!

394

The Christian's inquiry.

7s.

TIS a point I long to know; Oft it causes anxious thought: Do I love the Lord, or no? Am I his, or am I not? 253

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND EXPERIENCE,

- 2 If I love, why am I thus— Why this dull and lifeless frame? Hardly, sure, can they be worse, Who have never heard his name.
- 3 Could my heart so hard remain, Prayer a task and burden prove, Every trifle give me pain, If I knew a Saviour's love?
- 4 Lord, I mourn my stubborn will, Find my sin a grief and thrall; Should I grieve for what I feel, If I did not love at all?
- 5 Could I joy the saints to meet, Choose the way I once abhorr'd, Find at times the promise sweet, If I did not love the Lord?
- 6 Lord, decide the doubtful case, Thou, who art thy people's sun; Shine upon thy work of grace, If it be indeed begun.
- 7 Let me love thee more and more, If I love at all, I pray;
 If I have not loved before, Help me to begin to-day.

WATCHFULNESS.

395

Watching against evil talk. Psalm 39: 1. C. M.

THUS I resolv'd before the Lord, "Now will I watch my tongue, Lest I let slip one sinful word, Or do my neighbor wrong."

2 And if I'm e'er constrain'd to stay With men of lives profane, I'll set a double guard that day, Nor let my talk be vain.

THE WARFARE.

3 I'll scarce allow my lips to speak The pious thoughts I feel, Lest scoffers should the occasion take To mock my holy zeal. 4 Yet if some proper hour appear, I'll not be overaw'd. But let the scoffing sinners hear That I can speak for God. The watchful servant. Matt. 24: 42. S. M. 396 7E servants of the Lord, Each in his office wait, Observant of his heav'nly word, And watchful at his gate. 2 Let all your lamps be bright, And trim the golden flame; Gird up your loins, as in his sight, For awful is his name. 3 Watch! 't is your Lord's command, And while we speak, he's near; Mark the first signal of his hand, And ready all appear. 4 O happy servant he, In such a posture found! He shall his Lord with rapture see, And be with honor crown'd. 5 Christ shall the kanquet spread, With his own bounteous hand, And raise that fay'rite servant's head Amidst th' angelic band. THE WARFARE. If we suffer, we shall also reign, etc. 2 Tim. 2: 12. C. M. 397 M I a soldier of the cross? A follow'r of the Lamb? And shall I fear to own his cause, Or blush to speak his name? 255

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND EXPERIENCE,

- 2 Must I be carried to the skies On flow'ry beds of ease, Whilst others fought to win the prize, And sail'd through bloody seas?
- 3 Are their no foes for me to face? Must I not stem the flood?
 Is this vile world a friend to grace, To help me on to God?
- 4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign; Increase my courage, Lord;
 - I'll bear the toil, endure the pain, Supported by thy word.
- 5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war, Shall conquer, though they die; They view the triumph from afar, And seize it with their eye.
- 6 When that illustrious day shall rise, And all thy armies shine, In robes of victory, through the skies, The glory shall be thine.

398

C. M.

A LAS, what hourly dangers rise! What snares beset my way! To heaven O let me lift mine eyes, And hourly watch and pray.

2 How oft my mournful thoughts complain, And melt in flowing tears: My weak resistance, ah, how vain! How strong my foes and fears!

 3 O gracious God, in whom I live, My feeble efforts aid; Help me to watch, and pray, and strive, Though trembling and afraid.

THE WARFARE.

4 Increase my faith, confirm my hope, When foes and fears prevail; And bear my fainting spirit up, Or soon my strength will fail.

5 Whene'er temptations fright my heart, Or lure my feet aside, My God, thy pow'rful aid impart, My guardian and my guide.

399

The way to heaven.

7 & 6

CALLED to a sense of duty, I would obey the call; And for the sake of Jesus, I freely give up all; My former vain enjoyments, Of pleasure, pride and gain, That I in Jesus' kingdom A mansion may obtain.

How often have I struggled, But held some foolish sin; Yet, to the heavenly kingdom I meant to enter in; But now I am persuaded That nothing else will do, But Jesus for my portion, And holy joys pursue.

3 Come, who will travel with me The way that leads to heaven?
And follow none but Jesus The way which he hath given;
And take his word for counsel, His spirit for a guide;
And make a full surrender Of ev'rything beside?

4 What though the world reproach us, And say we're mean and poor; (17) 257

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND EXPERIENCE,

No matter what we suffer, If we can reach the shore; 'T will make the glory sweeter, And raise our praises higher; And we shall be completer, When purified by fire.

400

Christian watchfulness. 1 Cor. 16: 13.

S. M.

MY soul, be on thy guard; Ten thousand foes arise; And hosts of sin are pressing hard To draw thee from the skies.

2 O, watch, and fight, and pray; The battle ne'er give o'er; Renew it boldly every day, And help divine implore.

3 Ne'er think the victory won, Nor lay thine armor down; Thy arduous work will not be done Till thou obtain thy crown.

4 Fight on, my soul, till death Shall bring thee to thy God;
He'll take thee at thy parting breath, To his divine abode.

401 Thou shall remember all the way which L. M the Lord thy God led thee. Deut. 8: 2.

THUS far my God hath led me on, And made his truth and mercy known My hopes and fears alternate rise, And comforts mingle with my sighs.

2 Through this wide wilderness I roam, Far distant from my blissful home; Lord, let thy presence be my stay, And guard me in this dangerous way. 258

THE WARFARE.

- 3 Temptations everywhere annoy, And sin and snares my peace destroy; My earthly joys are from me torn, And oft an absent God I mourn.
- 4 My soul, with various tempests toss'd Her hopes o'erturn'd, her projects cross'd, Sees every day new straits attend, And wonders where the scene will end.
- 5 Is this, dear Lord, that thorny road Which leads us to the mount of God? Are these the toils thy people know, While in this wilderness below?
- 6 'T is even so, thy faithful love Doth thus thy children's graces prove; 'T is thus our pride and self must fall, That Jesus may be All in All.

402

Tribulation.

C. M.

THE souls that would to Jesus press, Must fix this firm and sure, That tribulation, more or less, They must and shall endure.

- 2 From this there can be none exempt; 'T is God's own wise decree, Satan the weakest saint will tempt, Nor is the strongest free.
- 3 The world opposes from without, And unbelief within;
 We fear, we faint, we grieve, we doubt, And feel the sting of sin.
- 4 Glad frames too often lift us up; And then how proud we grow;
 'Till sad desertion makes us droop, And down we sink as low.

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND EXPERIENCE,

- 5 Ten thousand baits the foe prepares, To catch the wand'ring heart, And seldom do we see the snares, Before we feel the smart.
- 6 But let not all this terrify, Pursue the narrow path: Look to the Lord with steadfast eye, And fight with sin by fuith.
- 7 Though we are feeble, Christ is strong, His promises are true,
 We shall be conq'rors all ere long, And more than conq'rors too.

403

Pride.

S. M.

- INNUMERABLE foes Attack the child of God;
- He feels within the weight of sin, A grievous, galling load.
- 2 Temptations too, without, Of various kinds assault;
- Sly snares beset his trav'ling feet, And make him often halt.
 - 3 From sinners and from saints, He meets with many a blow: His own bad heart creates a smart Which only God can know.
 - 4 But, though the hosts of hell Be neither weak nor small,
 One mighty foe deals dangerous woe,
 And hurts beyond them all.
 - 5 'T is pride, accursed pride, That fiend by God abhor'd; Do what we will, it haunts us still, And keeps us from the Lord.
 - 6 It blows its pois'nous breath, And bloats the soul with air; 260

THE WARFARE.

The heart uplifts with God's own gifts, And makes e'en grace a snare.

- 7 Awake, yea, while we sleep, In all we think or speak, It puffs us glad, torments us sad, Its hold we cannot break.
- 8 In other ills, we find The hand of heaven not slack: Pride only knows to interpose, And keep our comforts back.
- 9 'T is hurtful when perceiv'd, When not perceiv'd 't is worse; Unseen or seen it dwells within, And works by fraud or force.
- 10 Against its influence pray, It mingles with the prayer; Against it preach, it prompts the speech, Be silent, still 't is there.
- 11 This moment, while I write, I feel its power within;
 My heart it draws to seek applause, And mixes all with sin.
- 12 Thou meek and lowly Lamb, This haughty tyrant kill, That wounded thee, though thou wast free, And grieves thy spirit still.
- 13 Our condescending God To whom else should we go? Remove our pride whate'er betide, And lay and keep us low.

14 Thy garden is the place, Where pride cannot intrude; For should it dare to enter there, 'T would soon be drown'd in blood. 261 404 ⁹ T IS my happiness below, Not to live without the cross; But the Saviour's power to know, Sanctifying every loss. Trials must and will befall; But with humble faith to see Love inscrib'd upon them all, This is happiness to me.

2 God, in Israel, sows the seeds Of affliction, pain and toil;
These spring up and choke the weeds Which would else o'erspread the soil:
Trials make the promise sweet,
Trials give new life to pray'r,
Trials bring me to his feet,
Lay me low and keep me there.

3 Did I meet no trials here, No chastisement by the way; Might I not, with reason, fear I should prove a cast-away; Bastards may escape the rod, Sunk in earthly, vain delight; But the true-born child of God, Must not, would not, if he might.

405 A hymn for young converts. L. M. W HEN converts first begin to sing. Their happy souls are on the wing; Their theme is all redeeming love, Fain would they be with Christ above.

2 With admiration they behold The love of Christ, that can't be told; They view themselves upon the shore, And think the battle all is o'er. 262

THE WARFARE.

- 3 They feel themselves quite free from pain, And think their enemies are slain: They make no doubt but all is well, And Satan is cast down to hell.
- 4 They wonder why old saints don't sing, And make the heavenly arches ring; Ring with melodious, joyful sound, Because a prodigal is found.
- 5 But 't is not long before they feel Their feeble souls begin to reel: They think their former hopes are vain, For they are bound in Satan's chain.
- 6 The morning, that did shine so bright, Is turned to the shades of night; Their hearts that did with music sing, Are now untuned in ev'ry string.
- 7 O.! foolish child, why didst thou boast In the enlargement of thy coast? Why didst thou think to fly away, Before thou leav'st this feeble clay?
- 8 Come, take up arms, and face the field, Come, gird on harness, sword, and shield; Stand fast in faith, fight for your king, And soon the vict'ry you shall win.

One who loves us to the end; Forward then with courage go,

Long we shall not dwell below; Soon the joyful news shall come, Child, your Father calls—come home. 263

2 In the world a thousand snares Lie to take us unawares: Satan, with malicious art, Watches each unguarded heart; But from Satan's malice free, Saints shall soon victorious be; Soon the joyful news will come, Child. your Father calls-come home. 3 But of all the foes we meet, None so apt to turn our feet. None betray us into sin. Like the foes we have within: Yet let nothing spoil your peace, Christ will also conquer these: Then the joyful news will come, Child. your Father calls-come home. M. 8s & 7s 407 The Christian warfare. HRISTIAN soldiers, wake to glory! Hark, your Leader bids you rise: See the crown of life before you, March to seize the heavenly prize. 2 Let the hope of full salvation, Helmet-like, your head adorn; Be the gospel's preparation On your feet like sandals worn. 3 Let your loins around be girded By the truth your lips profess; From your breast be danger warded By the plate of righteousness. 4 Let your prayers ascend with fervor, Without ceasing to the Lord: Not an unconcerned observer, Timely succor he'll afford. 5 Faith and hope must never languish, All your cares upon him cast; He'll enable you to vanquish Every enemy at last. 264

Self-denial. THE way of life in Christ doth lead Us all beneath the cross; We must, who future life would find, Of self sustain a loss. 2 If we the Saviour would obey, We must forsake the world, And choose the straight and narrow way He showeth in his word. 3 Ourselves we always must deny Of all our lust and pride, And pluck out the offending eye, Which with the world would side. 4 'T is death to self, thus to comply; But God we ne'er can praise Unless we do ourselves deny,

From all our evil ways.

5 Then let us always earnest strive And willingly obey,

That we may gain eternal life In that amazing day.

Death and the resurrection.

S. M

ND must this body die? This mortal frame decay? And must these active limbs of mine, Lie mould'ring in the clay? 2 Corruption, earth and worms. Death of a minister in his prime. Deut. 34: 7. 10s.

- 2 Go to the grave: at noon from labor cease; Rest on thy sheaves; thy harvest task is done. Come from the heat of battle, and in peace, Soldier, go home; with thee the fight is won.
- 3 Go to the grave; for there thy Saviour lay In death's embrace, ere he arose on high; And all the ransom'd, by that narrow way, Pass to eternal life beyond the sky.
- 4 Go to the grave?—no; take thy seat above; Be thy pure spirit present with the Lord, Where thou, for faith and hope, hast perfect love, And open vision for the written word.

The bereaved husband.

L. M.

Y ES, she is gone-yet do not thou The goodness of the Lord distrust; But meekly to his wisdom bow, Who lays thy lov'd one in the dust. The form is there-but seek not there The spirit born for light and love; Look upward-free from sin and care, It rests in joy with God above.

3 Then mourn not that an heir of grace Has reach'd the goal of hope and faith;
Press onward in the Christian race;

L. M.

HARK! from the tomb a doleful sound; My ears attend the cry:

"Ye living men, come view the ground, Where you must shortly lie."

2 "Princes, this clay must be your bed, In spite of all your tow'rs!

The tall, the wise, the rev'rend head Must lie as low as ours."

3 Great God! is this our certain doom? And are we still secure? Still walking downward to our tomb, And yet prepare no more?

4 Grant us the pow'r of quick'ning grace, To fit our souls to fly;

Then, when we drop this dying flesh, We'll rise above the sky.

429 Death of a mother. L. M. Do THE time is short, the season nears, That I must leave this vale of tears; Dear friends, you need not mourn that I Am called so early for to die. I hope to rest in that abode, Where my dear Saviour and my God Together there in union are, And angels sing the happy choir.

2 I leave you in God's care below, My husband and my children too, Now try to serve your Saviour here. And travel through this vale with fear;
That, when you leave this world below, That Christ to you may mercy show, And to his Kingdom take you in, No more to be defiled by sin.

430 Sister, thou wast mild and lovely. 8s & 7s. SISTER, thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evining, When it floats among the trees.

2 Peaceful be thy silent slumber— Peaceful in the grave so low: Thou no more wilt join our number; Thou no more our songs shalt know.

3 Dearest sister, thou hast left us; Here thy loss we deeply feel; But 't is God that hath bereft us: He can all our sorrows heal.

4 Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed. 277

DEATH. Asleep in Jesus.

1 Thess. 4: 14. SLEEP in Jesus! blessed sleep A From which none ever wakes to weep; A calm and undisturb'd repose, Unbroken by the last of foes.

L. M.

C. M.

- 2 Asleep in Jesus! O, how sweet To be for such a slumber meet! With holv confidence to sing That death has lost its venom'd sting!
- 3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest, Whose waking is supremely blest: No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour That manifests the Saviour's pow'r.
- 4 Asleep in Jesus! O, for me May such a blissful refuge be: Securely shall my ashes lie, And wait the summons from on high.
- 5 Asleep in Jesus! time nor space Affects this precious hiding-place: On Indian plains or Lapland snows Believers find the same repose.

432

Ye are not your own. 1 Cor. 6: 19.

'HY should our tears in sorrow flow, When God recalls his own; And bids them leave a world of woe For an immortal crown?

- 2 Is not e'en death a gain to those Whose life to God was giv'n? Gladly to earth their eyes they close, To open them in heav'n.
- 3 Their toils are past, their work is done, And they are fully blest: They fought the fight, the vict'ry won, And enter'd into rest.

DEATU.

4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow-God has recall'd his own; And let our hearts, in ev'ry woe, Still say—" Thy will be done!"

C. M. 433 Death of a youth. THEN blooming youth is snatch'd away By death's resistless hand, Our hearts the mournful tribute pay, Which pity must demand. 2 While pity prompts the rising sigh, O may this truth, imprest With awful pow'r-I too must die-Sink deep in every breast. 3 Let this vain world engage no more; Behold the gaping tomb! It bids us seize the present hour, To-morrow death may come. 4 The voice of this alarming scene, May ev'ry heart obey; Nor be the heav'nly warning vain, Which calls to watch and pray. 5 O let us fly, to Jesus fly, Whose pow'rful arm can save; Then shall our hopes ascend on high, And triumph o'er the grave. 6 Great God, thy sov'reign grace impart, With cleansing, healing pow'r; This only can prepare the heart, For death's surprising hour. C. M. 434 Death disarmed. HY do we mourn departing friends, Or shake at death's alarms? "T is but the voice that Jesus sends, To call them to his arms.

2 Are we not tending upward, too, As fast as time can move? Nor should we wish the hours more slow. To keep us from our love.

3 Why should we tremble, to convey Their bodies to the tomb? There the dear flesh of Jesus lay, And left a long perfume.

4 The graves of all the saints he blest, And softened ev'ry bed; Where shall the dying members rest, But with their dying Head?

5 Thence he arose; ascended high, And show'd our feet the way; Up to the Lord our flesh shall fly At the great rising day.

6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound. And bid our kindred rise; Awake, ye nations under ground, Ye saints, ascend the skies.

435

Our mortality. Psalm 90: 12. C. M.

TEACH me the measure of my days, Thou Maker of my frame! I would survey life's narrow space, And learn how frail I am.

2 A span is all that we can boast, An inch or two of time; Man is but vanity and dust, In all his flow'r and prime.

3 See the vain race of mortals move. Like shadows o'er the plain, They rage and strive, desire and love. But all their noise is vain. 280

4 Some walk in honor's gaudy show;
Some dig for golden ore;
They toil for heirs they know not who, And straight are seen no more.

5 What should I wish or wait for, then, From creatures earth and dust? They make our expectations vain, And disappoint our trust.

6 Now I forbid my carnal hope, My fond desire recall;
I give my mortal int'rest up, And make my God my all.

*Eternal happiness or woe Must then my portion be.

3 I must from God be driv'n, Or with my Saviour dwell: Must come at his command to heav'n, Or else—depart to hell.

4 Show me the way to shun Thy dreadful wrath severe;

So shall I spend my life's short day Obedient to thy will.

Brevity and uncertainty of life. Psalm 39: 4-7. C. M.

THEE we adore, eternal name, And humbly own to thee, How feeble is our mortal frame, What dying worms are we!

 2 Our wasting lives grow shorter still, As days and months increase, And ev'ry beating pulse we tell, Leaves but the number less.

 The year rolls round, and steals away The breath that first it gave;
 Whate'er we do, where'er we be, We're trav'ling to the grave.

4 Dangers stand thick thro' all the ground, To push us to the tomb; And fierce diseases wait around, To hurry mortals home.

5 Infinite joy, or wretched woe, Attends on ev'ry breath; And yet how unconcern'd we go, Upon the brink of death!

6 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense, To walk this dang'rous road; And if our souls are hurried hence May they be found with God.

2 To save the darling child from woe, And guard it from all harms, From all the griefs you feel below, I call'd it to my arms.

 3 Ah, do not rashly with me strive, Nor vainly fast or weep;
 The child, though dead, is yet alive, And only fall'n asleep.

4 'T is on the Saviour's bosom laid, And feels no sorrow there; 'T is by a heavenly parent fed, And needs no more your care.

2 The world can never give The bliss for which we sigh;'T is not the whole of life, to live, Nor all of death, to die.

Beyond this vale of tears There is a life above, Unmeasured by the flight of years, And all that life is love.

4 There is a death, whose pang Outlasts the fleeting breath :---O, what eternal terrors hang Around the second death I

5 Lord, God of truth and grace, Teach us that death to shun; Lest we be banished from thy face, And evermore undone. 286

Death of a sister.

445

P. M. 8s

T IS finished! the conflict is past, The heaven-born spirit is fled; Her wish is accomplish'd at last, A sister's entomb'd with the dead. The months of affliction are o'er, The days and the nights of distress; We see her in anguish no more— She's gain'd her soul's happy release.

2 No sickness, or sorrow, or pain, Shall ever disquiet her now;
For death to her spirit was gain, Since Christ was her life, here below.
Her soul has now taken its flight To mansions of glory above,
To mingle with angels of light, And dwell in the kingdom of love.

3 The victory now is obtain'd— She's gone her dear Saviour to see, Her wishes she fully has gain'd— She's gone where she long wish'd to be.
Then let us forbear to complain, That she has now gone from our sight; We soon shall behold her again, With new and redoubled delight.

446 Let me die the death of the righteous. C. M. WITH what a fix'd and peaceful mind, The righteous man expires! Behold him breathing out his soul, In hopes and blest desires!

2 No sin or fears disturb his soul, No terror from below; Nor worldly glory stops his flight, Or makes him loth to go. 287

3 Bright hosts of angels 'round his bed. With holy ardor stand; Ready to bear aloft his soul, At Jesus' high command.

4 How this bright hope, this blessed hope My longing spirit charms!

C. M.

O let me live and die like him, Enclos'd in Jesus' arms.

447

Death of a young person. HOW short the race our friend has run, Cut down in all his bloom!— The course but yesterday begun, Now finish'd in the tomb.

2 Few are thy days, and full of woe, O man, of woman born! Thy doom is written-dust thou art. To dust thou shalt return.

3 Thou joyous youth, hence learn how soon Thy years may end their flight; Long, long before life's brilliant noon, May come death's gloomy night.

5 To serve thy God no longer wait, To-day his voice regard; To-morrow mercy's open gate May be forever barred.

5 And thus the Lord reveals his grace, Thy youthful love to gain-The soul that early seeks my face, Shall never seek in vain.

C. M. 448 Peaceful death of the righteous. LOOKED upon the righteous man, And saw his parting breath, Without a struggle or a sigh, Serenely yield to death: 288

There was no anguish on his brow, Nor terror in his eye: The spoiler aimed a fatal dart. But lost the victory. 2 I looked upon the righteous man, And heard the holy prayer Which rose above that breathless form. To soothe the mourners' care, And felt how precious was the gift He to his loved ones gave-The stainless memory of the just. The wealth beyond the grave. 3 I looked upon the righteous man; And all our earthly trust Of pleasure, vanity, or pride, Seemed lighter than the dust, Compared with his celestial gain-A home above the sky: O, grant us, Lord, his life to live, That we like him may die. 449C. M. Voice from the dead. Y youthful mates, both small and great Stand here and you shall see A solemn sight, which is a type Of what you soon must be. 2 I did appear once fresh and fair, Among the youthful crowd : But now behold me dead and cold, Wrapped in a sable shroud. 3 My cheeks, once red like roses spread. My sparkling eye so gay; But now you see how 't is with me, A lifeless lump of clay. 4 When you are dressed in all your best. In fashion so complete. You soon must be, as you see me, Wrapped in a winding-sheet. (19)289

THE RESURRECTION.

5 When you unto your frolics go, Remember that I say, In a short time, though in your prime,

You may be called away.

6 Now I am gone, I can't return, And me no more you'll see; But it is true that all of you Must shortly follow me.

7 When you unto my grave do go, The gloomy place to see;

I say to you who stand and view, Prepare to follow me.

THE RESURRECTION.

Triumph over death. 450 C. M. Job 19: 25-27. REAT God, I own thy sentence just, That nature must decay; I yield my body to the dust, To dwell with fellow clay. 2 Yet faith may triumph o'er the graves, And trample on the tombs, My Jesus, my Redeemer lives, My God, my Saviour comes. 3 The mighty conqu'ror shall appear High on a royal seat, And death, the last of all his foes, Lie vanquish'd at his feet. 4 Though greedy worms devour my skin, And gnaw my wasting flesh, When God shall build my bones again, He'll clothe them all afresh. 5 Then shall I see thy lovely face With strong, immortal eyes, And feast upon thy unknown grace With pleasure and surprise.

The last lovely morning.

THE last lovely morning, all blooming and fair, Is fast onward fleeting, and soon will appear. The Bridegroom from glory to earth shall descend, And thousands of angels around him attend.

2 The graves will be opened, the dead will arise, And with their Redeemer will meet in the skies. The saints, then immortal, in glory shall reign, The bride with the Bridegroom forever remain.

TIME AND ETERNITY.

Eph. 5: 16. L. M. Importance of time. 454 TIME! how few thy value weigh! How few will estimate a day ! Days, months and years are rolling on, The soul neglected and undone.

- 2 In painful cares, in empty joys, Our life its precious hours destroys; While death stands watching at our side, Eager to stop the living tide.
- 3 Was it for this, ye mortal race, Your Maker gave you here a place? Was it for this his thoughts design'd The frame of your immortal mind?
- 4 For nobler cares, for joys sublime, He fashion'd all the sons of time: Then let us ev'ry day give heed, That we his servants be indeed.

- 2 Moment by moment years are past, And one ere long will be our last; There is a point no eye can see, Yet on it hangs eternity.
- 3 This is that moment—who shall tell, Whether it leads to heaven or hell? This is that moment—as we choose, Th' immortal soul we save, or lose.
- 4 Time past and time to come are not-Time present is our only lot; O God! henceforth our hearts incline, To seek no other love than thine.

Boast not thyself of to-morrow. Prov. 27: 1. 460 S. M. TO-MORROW, Lord! is thine, Lodg'd in thy sov'reign hand; And if its sun arise and shine, It shines by thy command. 2 The present moment flies, And bears our life away: O, make thy servants truly wise. That they may live to-day. 3 Since on this fleeting hour Eternity is hung. Awake, by thine almighty pow'r. The aged and the young. 4 One thing demands our care; O, be it still pursued! Lest, slighted once, the season fair Should never be renew'd. C. P. M 461 Serious prospect of eternity. O! on a narrow neck of land, 'Twixt two unbounded seas I stand ; Yet how insensible! A point of time, a moment's space, Removes me to yon heavenly place, Or shuts me up in hell.

2 O God, my inmost soul convert, And deeply on my thoughtless heart Eternal things impress;
Give me to feel their solemn weight, And save me, ere it be too late: Wake me to righteousness.

3 Before me place, in bright array, The pomp of that tremendous day, When thou with clouds shalt come To judge the nations at thy bar; And tell me, Lord, shall I be there, To meet a joyful doom?

4 Be this my one great business here, With holy trembling, holy fear, To make my calling sure; Thine utmost counsel to fulfill, And suffer all thy righteous will, And to the end endure.

462

Our frailly. 1 Peter 1: 24.

C. M.

ET others boast how strong they be, Nor death nor danger fear; But we'll confess, O Lord, to thee, What feeble things we are.

2 Fresh as the grass our bodies stand, And flourish bright and gay;

A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land; And fades the grass away.

3 Our life contains a thousand springs, And dies if one be gone;

Strange! that a harp of thousand strings Should keep in tune so long!

4 But 't is our God supports our frame, The God who form'd us first; Praise be to his almighty name,

That rear'd us from the dust.

296

5 While we have breath, or life, or tongues, Our Maker we'll adore;
His Spirit moves our heaving lungs, Or they would breathe no more.

463

Here we have no abiding city.

L. M.

WE are not here for earth—no, no! We soon must leave all here below, Our labors here shall soon be done, When we must leave for worlds unknown.

- 2 How should we then our time employ, To reach the place of endless joy? How should we live, so that we may, Secure the bliss of endless day?
- 3 Come, let us then go hand in hand, All joining in a loving band, To help each other from the snares Which lie to take us unawares.
- 4 And when our warfare here shall cease, We reach the land of perfect peace: There can we all forever sing, Hosanna to our God and King.

464

Eternity.

L. M.

ETERNITY is just at hand! And shall I waste my ebbing sand? And careless view departing day? And throw my inch of time away?

- 2 Lo! an eternity there is, Of endless woe, or endless bliss: And, swift as time fulfils its round, We to eternity are bound.
- 3 What countless millions of mankind Have left this fleeting world behind! [see: They're gone! but where? ah, pause and Gone to a long eternity!

4 Sinner, canst thou forever dwell In all the fiery deeps of hell? And is death nothing, then, to thee— Death and a dread eternity?

Time is short.

"THE time is short!" the season near, When death will us remove, To leave our friends, however dear, And all we fondly love.

2 "The time is short!" sinners, beware, Nor triffe time away;

The word of your salvation hear, While it is call'd to-day.

- 3 "The time is short!" ye rebels, now To Christ, the Lord, submit; To mercy's golden sceptre bow,
 - And yield at Jesus' feet.
- 4 "The time is short!" ye saints, rejoice, The Lord will quickly come;
 - Soon shall you hear the Bridegroom's voice To call you to your home.
- 5 "The time is short!" it swiftly flies; The hour is just at hand, When we shall mount above the skies.

And reach the wished-for land.

Rejoicing in view of death.

С. М.

C. M

A ND let this feeble body fail, And let it droop and die; My soul shall quit this mournful vale. And soar to worlds on high;—

2 Shall join the disembodied saints, And find its long-sought rest— That only bliss for which it pants— In my Redeemer's breast. 298

3 In hope of that immortal crown, I now the cross sustain; And gladly wander up and down, And smile at tojl and pain.

- 4 O, what are all my sufferings here, If, Lord, thou count me meet With that enraptured host t' appear, And worship at thy feet?
- 5 Give joy or grief, give ease or pain, Take life or friends away— But let me find them all again, In that eternal day.

467

Shortness of time.

M. 7s.

SWIFT the moments fly away— First the hour, and then the day, Next the week, the month, the year, Steal away, and disappear.

- 2 Time is ever on the wing, While I speak, or think, or sing! Whether night, or whether day, Time is rolling fast away!
- 3 Think, my soul! awake and see What will soon become of thee! Whither tending, canst thou tell— Up to heaven, or down to hell?
- 4 Jesus, I would humbly pray, Guide and keep me in the way; Every gift and grace bestow; Wean my heart from things below. 299

JUDGMENT.

468 Christ coming to judgment. 8s, 7s, & 4. O! he comes, with clouds descending, Once for favored sinners slain; Thousand thousand saints attending, Swell the triumph of his train: Hallelujah! Jesus comes, and comes to reign. 2 Every eye shall now behold him, Robed in dreadful majesty; Those who set at naught, and sold him, Pierced and nailed him to the tree, Deeply wailing, That they now condemn'd must be. 3 Now the Saviour, long expected, See in solemn pomp appear: All his saints, by man rejected, Now shall meet him in the air: Hallelujah! See the day of God appear. L. M. 469Wheat and tares, or last harvest. THIS is the field, the world below, In which the sowers came to sow; Jesus the wheat, Satan the tares-For so the word of truth declares: And soon the reaping time will come, And angels take the harvest home.

3 Most awful truth! and is it so? Must all mankind the harvest know? 300

Is every one a wheat or tare? Me for the harvest, Lord, prepare: For soon the reaping time will come, &c.

4 Then all who truly righteous be, Their Father's kingdom there shall see; But tares in bundles shall be bound, And cast to hell—O, doleful sound ! For soon the reaping time will come, &c.

470 Banishment from God dreadful. C. M

THAT awful day will surely come, Th' appointed hour makes haste, When I must stand before my Judge, And pass the solemn test.

 2 Thou lovely chief of all my joys, Thou sovereign of my heart,
 How could I bear to hear thy voice Pronounce the sound, Depart?

3 The thunder of that dismal word Would so torment my ear,
'T would tear my soul asunder, Lord, With most tormenting fear.

4 What! to be banish'd from my life, And yet forbid to die! To linger in eternal pain, Yet death forever fly!

 5 O wretched state of deep despair! To see my God remove,
 And fix my doleful station, where I cannot taste his love!

6 O tell me that my worthless name Is graven on thy hands! Show me some promise in thy book, Where my salvation stands! 301

The solemn parting.

471

C. M.

BEHOLD that great and awful day Of parting soon will come, When sinners must be hurl'd away, And Christians gather'd home.

2 Perhaps the parent sees the child Sink down to endless flames,

With shrieks, and howls, and bitter cries, Never to rise again.

3 "O father! see my blazing hands, Mother! behold your child: Against you now a witness stands Amidst the flames confin'd!"

4 The child perhaps the parents view Go headlong down to hell: Gone with the rest of Satan's crew, And bid the child farewell!

5 The husband sees his piteous wife, With whom he once did dwell, Depart with groans and bitter cries My husband! fare you well!

6 But O! perhaps the wife may see The man she once did love, Sink down to endless misery, Whilst she is crown'd above.

472 Day of Judgment. 8s, 7s & 4. DAY of judgment, day of wonders! Hark! the trumpet's awful sound— Louder than a thousand thunders,— Shakes the vast creation round! How the summons Will the sinner's heart confound! 2 See the Judge, our nature wearing, Clothed in majesty divine! 302

You, who long for his appearing, Then shall say, "This God is mine :" Gracious Saviour, Own me in that day for thine!

3 At his call the dead awaken— Rise to life from earth and sea; All the pow'rs of nature, shaken By his looks, prepare to flee : Careless sinner, What will then become of thee?

4 Horrors, past imagination, Will surprise your trembling heart When you hear your condemnation, "Hence, accursed wretch, depart! And with Satan And his angels have thy part!"

5 But to those who have confessed. Lov'd and serv'd the Lord below, He will say, "Come near, ye blessed, See the kingdom I bestow : You forever Shall my love and glory know." Behold he cometh with clouds. 8,7,8,7,4,7. 473 Rev. 1:7. CEE th' Eternal Judge descending, Seated on his Father's throne; Now, poor sinner, Christ will show thee That he's with the Father one: Trumpets call thee, Stand and hear the awful doom. 2 Hear the sinner now lamenting, At the sight of fiercer pain: Cries and tears he now is venting, But he weeps and cries in vain: Greatly mourning,

That he ne'er was born again.

303

3 Yonder sits my slighted Savicur, With the marks of dying love:

O that I had sought his favor, When I felt his Spirit move! Doom'd I'm justly, For I have against him strove.

4 All his wooing I have slighted, While he daily sought my soul.

If my vows to him I plighted, Yet for sin I broke them all; Golden moments, How neglected did they roll!

 5 There I see my godly neighbors, Who were once despised by me, Now they're clad in dazzling splendor, Waiting my sad fate to see: Farewell, neighbors— Dismal gulf, I'm bound for thee.

474

Reflection on the Judgment.

A ND must I be to judgment brought, And answer, in that day, For every vain and idle thought, And every word I say?

C. M.

2 Yes, every secret of my heart Shall shortly be made known, And I receive my just desert For all that I have done.

 How careful, then, ought I to live!
 With what religious fear!
 Who such a strict account must give For my behavior here.

4 Thou awful Judge of quick and dead, The watchful power bestow; So shall I to my ways take heed, To all I speak or do.

HELL.

5 If now thou standest at the door,
 O, let me feel thee near;
 And make my peace with God, before
 I at thy bar appear.

475

C. P. M.

WHEN thou my righteous Judge shalt come, To call thy ransom'd people home, Shall 1 anong them stand? Shall such a worthless worm as I, Who sometimes am afraid to die, Be found at thy right hand?

- 2 I love to meet among them now— Before thy gracious throne to bow— Though weakest of them all.
 But can I bear the piercing thought, To have my worthless name left out, When thou for them shalt call?
- 3 Prevent, prevent it by thy grace! Be thou, dear Lord, my hiding place, In that expected day: Thy pard'ning voice 0 let me hear, To still each unbelieving fear; Nor let me fall, I pray.

 4 Let me among thy saints be found, Whene'er the archangel s trump shall sound, To see thy smiling face;
 Then loud through all the crowd I'll sing, While heaven's resounding mansions ring, With shouts of boundless grace.

HELL.

476

Hell.

L. M.

HELL! 't is a word of dreadful sound! It chills the heart and shocks the ear, It spreads a sickly damp around, And makes the guilty quake with fear.

 2 Far from the utmost verge of day, Its frightful, gloomy region lies!
 Fierce flames amidst the darkness play, And thick, sulphureous vapors rise.
 (20) 305

HELL.

3 Conscience, the never-dying worm, With constant torture gnaws the heart; And woe and wrath, in every form, Inflame the wounds, increase the smart.

4 The wretches rave, o'erwhelmed with woe, And bite their everlasting chains; And with their rage, their torments grow; Resentment but augments their pains.

5 Sad world, indeed! what heart can bear Hopeless in all those pains to lie; Rack'd with vexation, grief, despair— And ever dying—never die?

6 "Lord, save a guilty soul from hell, Who seeks thy pard'ning, cleansing blood;
0 ! let me in thy kingdom dwell, To praise my Saviour and my God."

477

Perdition.

FAR from the utmost verge of day, Hell's gloomy regions lie; Where flames amid the darkness play, The worm shall never die.

C. M.

2 The breath of God, his angry breath, Supplies and fans the fire; There sinners taste the second death, And would, but can't expire.

3 Conscience, the never-dying worm, With torture gnaws the heart; And woe and wrath, in every form, Is now the sinner's part.

4 Sad world, indeed ; ah ! who can bear Forever there to dwell,— Forever sinking to despair, In all the pains of hell? 306

HELL.

478 Where the worm dieth not. M. 8s & 7s.

SINNER, can you slight the Saviour, Press your downward way to hell, Sink your priceless soul forever, Where the lost in anguish dwell?

2 Conscience is a worm undying, Guilt an everlasting fire; Hope, its blessed beam denying, Must from that dark world retire.

3 In that prison, endless moanings, Blasphemies and madness dwell; Chains of darkness, shrieks and groanings, This, O sinner, this is hell.

4 Sinner, can you slight the Saviour, Press your downward way to hell, Sink your priceless soul forever, Where the lost in anguish dwell?

479 The rich man and Lazarus.

N what confusion earth appears— God's dearest children bathed in tears! While they who heaven itself deride, Riot in luxury and pride.

L. M.

- 2 But patient let my soul attend, And, ere I censure, view the end; That end how different! who can tell The wide extremes of heaven and hell?
- 3 See the red flames around him twine Who did in gold and purple shine; Nor can his tongue one drop obtain T' allay the scorching of his pain;
- 4 While round the saint, so poor below, Full rivers of salvation flow; On Abrah'm's breast he leans his head, And banquets on celestial bread.

Longing for Heaven.

M. 11s.

WOULD not live alway; I ask not to stay Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way; The few lucid mornings that dawn on us here Are followed by gloon, or beclouded with fear.

2 I would not live alway, if fettered by sin-Temptation without and corruption within; And th' rapture of pardon be mingled with fears, And th' cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears.

3 I would not live alway; no-welcome the tomb: Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom: There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise To hall him in triumph descending the skies.

4 Who, who would live alway, away from his God-Away from yon heaven, that blissfui abode, [plains, Where th' rivers of pleasure flow bright o'er the And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?

5 There saints of all ages in harmony meet, Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet; While anthems of rapture unceasingly roll, And th' smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

Ever with the Lord. 1 Thess. 4:17.

_{: 17.} S. M.

FOR ever with the Lord!" Amen! so let it be;

- Life from the dead is in that word— . 'T is immortality.
- 2 Here in the body pent, Absent from him, I roam,
 - Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
 - A day's march nearer home.
- 3 My Father's house on high-Home of my soul-how near,
 - At times, to faith's foreseeing eye The golden gates appear!

4 "Forever with the Lord!" Father, if 't is thy will, The promise of that faithful word E'en here to me fulfill. 808

5 So, when my latest breath Shall rend the vail in twain, In death I shall escape from death, And life eternal gain.

6 Knowing as I am known, How shall I love that word, And oft repeat before the throne, "For ever with the Lord!"

482

What must it be to be there?

8s.

W E speak of the realms of the blest— That country so bright and so fair; And oft are its glories confess'd: But what must it be to be there?

2 We speak of its pathways of gold— Its walls, deck'd with jewels so rare— Its wonders and pleasures untold: But what must it be to be there?

3 We speak of its freedom from sin, From sorrow, temptation, and care— From trials without and within: But what must it be to be there?

4 We speak of its service of love— The robes which the glorified wear— The church of the first-born above: But what must it be to be there?

 5 O Lord, amidst gladness or woe, For heaven our spirits prepare;
 And shortly we also shall know, And feel what it is to be there.

483 No tears in heaven. Rev. 21: 4. C. M. WHAT, if our bark, o'er life's rough wave, By adverse winds be driv'n, And howling tempests 'round us rave ?— There are no tears in heav'n. 309

2 What, though affliction be our lot, Our hearts with anguish riv'n! Still, let it never be forgot— There are no tears in heav'n.

3 Our sweetest joys here vanish all, And fade like hues at even; Our brightest hopes like meteors fall— There are no tears in heav'n.

4 The mourner sad, who, drown'd in grief, Hath long in sorrow striv'n,

Shall find, at last, a sweet relief-Tears wiped away in heav'n.

5 Thou, God, our joy and rest shalt be, And sorrow far be driv'n; And sin and death forever flee; There are no tears in heav'n.

6 There, from the blooming tree of life The healing fruit is giv'n;

There, there shall cease the painful strife; There are no tears in heav'n.

484

A little while. John 16: 16. S. M. D.

A FEW more years shall roll, A few more seasons come; And we shall lie with them that rest, Asleep within the tomb.

> Then, O my Lord, prepare My soul for that great day; O wash me in thy precious blood, And take my sins away.

2 A few more suns shall set
 O'er these dark hills of time,
 And we shall be where suns are not,
 A far serener clime.

3 A few more storms shall beat On this wild, rocky shore; 310

And we shall be where tempests cease, And surges swell no more.

4 A few more struggles here, A few more partings o'er,

A few more toils, a few more tears, And we shall weep no more.

 5 A few more meetings here Shall cheer us on our way;
 And we shall reach the endless rest, Th' eternal Sabbath day.

485 Termination of Christian warfare. 8,7,8,7,7,7. Rev. 2: 10. WHEN we pass through yonder river, When we reach the farther shore, There's an end of war for ever; We shall see our foes no more: All our conflicts then shall cease, Followed by eternal peace.

2 After warfare, rest is pleasant:
O, how sweet the prospect is !
Though we toil and strive at present, Let us not repine at this:
Toil, and pain, and conflict past, All endear repose at last.

3 When we gain the heav'nly regions, When we touch the heav'nly shore— Blessed thought!—no hostile legions Can alarm or trouble more : Far beyond the reach of foes, We shall dwell in sweet repose.

4 O, that hope! how bright, how glorious! 'T is his people's blest reward; In the Saviour's strength victorious, They at length behold their Lord: In his kingdom they shall rest, In his love be fully blest. 311

486 So great a cloud of witnesses. Heb. 12: 1. C. M. G 1VE me the wings of faith, to rise Within the vail, and see The saints above, how great their joys, How bright their glories be!

2 Once they were mourning here below, And wet their couch with tears; They wrestled hard, as we do now, With sins, and doubts, and fears.

- 3 I ask them whence their vic'try came; They, with united breath, Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb, Their triumph to his death.
- 4 They mark'd the footsteps that he trod. His zeal inspir'd their breast; And, following their incarnate Lord, Possess the promis'd rest.
- 5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise For his own pattern giv'n, While the long cloud of witnesses Show the same path to heav'n.

The Christian's home.

P. M.

A N alien from God and a stranger to grace, A I wander through earth, its gay pleasures to In the pathway of sin I continue to roam, [trace; Unmindful, alas! that it leads me from home. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, O Saviour, direct me to heaven, my home.

2 The pleasures of earth I have seen fade away, They bloom for a season, but soon they decay; But pleasures more lasting in Jesus are giv'n— Salvation on earth, and a mansion in heav'n. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, The saints in those mansions are ever at home,

3 Allure me no longer, ye false glowing charms, The Saviour invites me, I'll go to his arms; At the banquet of mercy, I hear there is room,

O there may I feast with his children at home! Home, home, sweet, sweet home, O Jesus, conduct me to heaven, my home!

4 Farewell, vain amusements—my follies, adieu, While Jesus, and heaven, and glory I view; I feast on the pleasures that flow from his throne, The foretaste of heaven, sweet heaven, my home. Home, home, sweet, sweet home,

O when shall I share the fruition of home?

483 My Futher's home. John 14: 2. L. M. MY heavenly home is bright and fair, No pain nor death can enter there; Its glitt'ring towers the sun outshine, That heav'nly mansion shall be mine. I'm going home, I'm going home, I'm going home, to die no more.

- 2 My Father's house is built on high, Far, far above the starry sky; When from this earthly prison free, That heav'nly mansion mine shall be.
- 3 While here, a stranger far from home, Affliction's waves may round me foam; And though, like Lazarus, sick and poor, My heav'nly mansion is secure.
- 4 Let others seek a home below, Which flames devour or waves o'erflow; Be mine the happier lot to own, -A heav'nly mansion near the throne.
- 5 Then fail this earth, let stars decline, And sun and moon refuse to shine, All nature sink and cease to be— This heav'nly mansion stands for me.

489 There remained therefore a rest to the C. M. people of God. Heb. 4: 9.

THE happy shore, on Eden's plains, The realms of endless day, Are far removed from earthly pains, Unseen by mortal clay.

- 2 O may we in that kingdom meet, There from our toils to rest;
 - O may we there each other greet, And be forever blest!
- There will our evil passions cease;
 Then is the conflict o'er;
 There we can rest with God in peace,
 Where sin will be no more.
- 4 O, then, how should we strive to be Redeemed from all our fears, And go where God himself will be, And wipe away our tears.

490 A better country. Heb. 11: 16. C. M O WHAT a lonely path were ours, Could we, O Father, see No home of rest beyond it all, No guide or help in thee!

- 2 But thou art near, and with us still, To keep us on the way That leads along this vale of tears, To the bright world of day.
- 3 There shall thy glory, O our God! Break fully on our view; And we, thy saints, rejoice to find That all thy word was true.
- 4 There Jesus, on his heav'nly throne, Our wond'ring eyes shall see;
 While we the blest associates there, Of all his joy shall be.
- 5 Sweet hope! we leave without a sigh A blighted world like this;To bear the cross, despise the shame, For all that weight of bliss.

Your redemption draweth nigh. C. M. 491 Luke 21: 28. VE weary, heavy-laden souls, Who are oppressed sore, Ye trav'lers through the wilderness, To Canaan's peaceful shore; Through chilling winds, and beating rain, And waters deep and cold, And enemies surrounding you, Take courage and be bold! 2 For Canaan's land is just before. Sweet spring is coming on; A few more beating winds and rains. And winter will be gone. Methinks I now begin to see The borders of that land: The trees of life, with heav'nly fruit, In beauteous order stand. 3 O, what a glorious sight appears To my believing eves; Methinks I see Jerusalem. A city in the skies: Bright angels whisp'ring me away-"O come, my brother, come!" And I am willing to be gone To my eternal home. 8s & 7s. 492The shining shore.

M Y days are gliding swiftly by, And I, a pilgrim stranger, Would not detain them as they fly— Those hours of toil and danger. For now we stand on Jordan's strand, Our friends are passing over, And, just before, the shining shore We may almost discover.

 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear, Our heavenly home discerning;
 Our absent Lord has left us word, Let every lamp be burning.

 Should coming days be cold and dark, We need not cease our singing;
 That perfect rest naught can molest, Where golden harps are ringing.

4 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow, Each chord on earth to sever, Our King says come, and there's our home, For ever! O, for ever!

493 They shall walk with me in white. Rev. 3: 4. L. M.

O HAPPY saints, that dwell in light, And walk with Jesus clothed in white, Safe landed on that peaceful shore, Where pilgrims meet to part no more!

- 2 Releas'd from sorrow, sin and strife, Death was the gate to endless life, And now they range the heav'nly plains, And sing his love in melting strains.
- 3 They gaze upon his beauteous face, And tell the wonders of his grace; Or, overwhelm'd with raptures sweet, Sink down, adoring, at his feet.
- 4 Ah, Lord! with falt'ring steps I creep, And sometimes sing, and sometimes weep; When shall I wake in heaven, to prove The heights and depths of Jesus' love?

- 2 There everlasting spring abides, And never-with'ring flow'rs; Death, like a narrow sea, divides That heav'nly land from ours.
- Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood, Stand dress'd in living green;
 So to the Jews old Canaan stood, While Jordan roll'd between.
- 4 But tim'rous mortals start and shrink, To cross this narrow sea;
 And linger, shiv'ring on the brink, And fear to launch away.
- 5 O, could we make our doubts remove— These gloomy doubts that rise— And see the Canaan that we love, With unbeclouded eyes;
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood, And view the landscape o'er— [flood, Not Jordan's streams, nor death's cold Could fright us from the shore.

495

Prospect of heaven.

C. M.

ON Jordan's stormy banks I stand, And cast a wishful eye To Canaan's fair and happy land, Where my possessions lie.

 2 O, the transporting, rapt'rous scene, That rises to my sight!
 Sweet fields array'd in living green, And rivers of delight.

3 There gen'rous fruits that never fail, On trees immortal grow: There rocks and hills, and brooks and vales, With milk and honey flow. 317

4 All o'er those wide extended plains Shines one eternal day: There God the Son for ever reigns And scatters night away.

5 No chilling winds, nor pois'nous breath Can reach that healthful shore: Sickness and sorrows, pain and death, Are felt and fear'd no more.

6 When shall I reach that happy place, And be for ever blest? When shall I see my Father's face, And in his bosom rest?

7 Fill'd with delight, my raptur'd soul Can here no longer stay; Though Jordan's waves around me roll, Fearless I'd launch away.

496

A rest for God's people. Heb. 4: 9.

C. M.

ORD, I believe a rest remains, To all thy people known,

A rest where pure enjoyment reigns, And thou art lov'd alone.

2 A rest where all our soul's desire Is fix'd on things above-Where fear, and sin, and grief expire. Cast out by perfect love.

3 O that I now the rest might know, Believe and enter in! Now, Saviour, now thy pow'r bestow. And let me cease from sin.

4 Remove this hardness from my heart, This unbelief remove;

To me the rest of faith impart-The Sabbath of thy love. 318

5 I would be thine, thou know'st I would, And have thee all my own:
Thee, O my all-sufficient good, I want, and thee alone.

6 Thy name to me, thy nature grant! This—only this be giv'n— Nothing beside my God I want— Nothing in earth or heav'n.

497

The heavenly Jerusalem.

C. M.

JERUSALEM, my happy home, O, how I long for thee! When will my sorrows have an end? Thy joys when shall I see?

 2 Thy walls are all of precious stones, Most glorious to behold!
 Thy gates are richly set with pearl, Thy streets are paved with gold.

3 Thy gardens and thy pleasant greens My study long have been; Such sparkling light, by human sight, Has never yet been seen.

4 If heaven be thus, O glorious Lord, Why should I stay from thence? What folly 't is, that I should dread To die, and go from hence.

498 The peace and repose of heaven. C. M. THERE is an hour of hallowed peace For those with cares opprest, When sighs and sorrowing tears shall cease And all be hushed to rest.

2 Out of great distress they came; Wash'd their robes by faith below In the blood of yonder Lamb, Blood that washes white as snow; Therefore are they next the throne, Serve their Maker day and night; God resides among his own; God doth in his saints delight.

3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown, On immortal fruits they feed;
Them the Lamb amidst the throne Shall to living fountains lead;
Joy and gladness banish sighs, Perfect love dispels their fears, And for ever from their eyes God shall wipe away their tears.

MEETING AND PARTING.

501

A better country-a heavenly.

L. M.

THERE is a heav'n above the skies, A heav'n where pleasure never dies A heav'n I some time hope to see, But fear again 't is not for me.

2 The way is difficult and strait, And narrow is the gospel gate; Ten thousand dangers are therein, Ten thousand snares to take me in.

3 I travel through a world of foes, Through conflicts sore my spirit goes; The tempter cries,—I ne'er shall stand, Nor reach fair Canaan's happy land. (21) 321

- 4 Come life, come death, come then what will, Ris footsteps I will follow still; 'Mid thickening toils, and hell's alarms, I shall be safe in his dear arms.
- 5 Then, O my soul, arise and sing, Behold thy Saviour, Friend and King, With pleasing smiles he now looks down. And cries " press on and take the crown."
- 6 Prove faithful, then, a few more days, Fight the good fight, and win the race, And then the kingdom thou shalt share; Thy head a crown of glory wear.

502 It is good to be here. Matt. 17:4. C. M. CRD, when together here we meet, And taste thy heav'nly grace, Thy smiles are so divinely sweet, We're loth to leave the place.

- 2 But, Father, since it is thy will That we must part again,
 - O, may thy special presence still With ev'ry one remain.
- 3 And let us all in Christ be one, Bound with the cords of love; Till we, before thy glorious throne, Shall joyful meet above.

4 All sin and sorrow from each heart
Shall then forever fly; Nor shall a thought that we must part Once interrupt our joy.

503

A farewell hymn.

L. M.

MY dearest friends, in bonds of love, Our hearts in sweetest union prove; Your friendship's like a drawing band, Yet we must take the parting hand.

Your presence sweet, your union dear, Your words delightful to my ear; And when I see that we must part, You draw like chords around my heart.

- 2 How sweet the hours have pass'd away, When we have met to sing and pray; How loath I've been to leave the place Where Jesus shows his smiling face! O could I stay with friends so kind, How would it cheer my struggling mind! But duty makes me understand, That we must take the parting hand.
- 3 And since it is God's holy will, We must be parted for a while, In sweet submission all in one, We'll say, our Father's will be done. Dear fellow-youth in Christian ties, Who seek for mansions in the skies; Fight on, you'll win the happy shore, Where parting hands are known no more.
- 4 How oft I've seen the flowing tears, And heard you tell your hopes and fears; Your hearts with love have seem'd to flame, Which makes me hope we'll meet again. Ye mourning souls, in sad surprise, Jesus remembers all your cries; O taste his grace!—in all that land We'll no more take the parting hand.
- 504 Upon the closing of a series of services. C. M. NOW, brethren, to your homes repair; And as you pass along, Employ your hearts in humble pray'r, And raise the cheerful song.
- 2 Praise God for what your ears have heard, For what your eyes have seen;

Praise him for what has here occurr'd— For all you feel within.

- 3 Improve the strength you here have To do God's holy will; [gain'd, Improve the knowledge here attained, To love and serve him still.
- 4 Let not the world have cause to say You've serv'd your God for nought; But grow in grace, from day to day, As you have here been taught.

5 Farewell—and to your homes repair And as you pass along, Employ your hearts in humble pray'r, And raise to God a song.

8s & 7s.

505

The parting prayer.

JESUS, grant us all a blessing, Send it down, Lord, from above; May we all go homeward praying, And rejoicing in thy love! Farewell brethren, farewell sisters, Till we all shall meet above.

 2 Jesus, pardon all our follies, While together we have been Make us humble, make us holy, Cleanse us all from ev'ry sin !
 Farewell brethren, farewell sisters, Till we all shall meet again.

3 May thy blessing, Lord, go with us, To each one's respective home, And the presence of our Jesus, Rest upon us ev'ry one! Farewell brethren, farewell sisters, Till we all shall meet at home. 224

506 Acknowledgment for preserving mercy. S. M. ND are we yet alive, And see each other's face? Glory and praise to Jesus give, For his redeeming grace: Preserv'd by power divine To full salvation here, Again in Jesus' praise we join, And in his sight appear. 2 What troubles have we seen ! What conflicts have we pass'd! Fightings without, and fears within, Since we assembled last : But out of all the Lord Hath brought us by his love; And still he doth his help afford, And hides our life above. 3 Then let us make our boast Of his redeeming pow'r, Which saves us to the uttermost, Till we can sin no more: Let us take up the cross, Till we the crown obtain, And gladly reckon all things loss, So we may Jesus gain. 507 6s & 5s. When shall we meet again. 7 HEN shall we meet again? Meet ne'er to sever? When will peace wreathe her chain Round us for ever? Our hearts will ne'er repose Safe from each blast that blows In this dark vale of woes-Never-no, never! 2 When shall love freely flow Pure as life's river? 325

When shall sweet friendship glow Changeless for ever? Where joys celestial thrill, Where bliss each heart shall fill, And fears of parting chill— Never—no, never!

3 Up to that world of light Take us, dear Saviour; May we all there unite, Happy for ever: Where kindred spirits dwell, There may our music swell, And time our joys dispel, Never—no, never!

508

Parting of ministers.

S. M.

Now, brethren, though we part, And to our homes repair— May we be true, and join'd in heart, Like friends of Jesus are.

2 O let us still proceed In Jesus' work below; And, following our triumphant Head.

To further conquests go.

- 3 The vineyard of the Lord Before his lab'rers lies; And, lo! we see the vast reward Which waits us in the skies.
- 4 O let our heart and mind With ev'ry day ascend, That haven of repose to find, Where all our labors end.

5 When all our toils are o'er, Our suff'ring and our pain : We'll meet on that celestial shore, And never part again.

The happy meeting.

L. M.

O HAPPY day! when saints shall meet To part no more; the thought is sweet; No more to feel the rending smart, Oft felt below when Christians part.

- 2 O happy place, I still must say, Where all but love is done away; All cause of parting there is past; Their social feast will ever last.
- 3 Such union here is sought in vain, As there, in ev'ry heart will reign There separation can't compel The saints to bid the sad farewell.
- 4 On earth, when friends together meet, And find the passing moments sweet, Time's rapid motions soon compel, With grief to say—dear friends, farewell.
- 5 The happy season soon will come, [home; When saints shall meet in heaven, their Eternally with Christ to dwell, Nor ever hear the sound, farewell.

510

509

Hope of meeting again.

L. M.

OME, Christian brethren, ere we part, Join every voice and every heart: One solemn hymn to God we raise, One final song of grateful praise.

2 Brethren, we here may meet no more; But there is yet a happier shore, And there, released from toil and pain, Dear brethren, we shall meet again.

3 And now, dear brethren, though we part, Which brings to us an inward smart, 'T is joy to know there is a land Where none shall take the parting hand.
327

4 Then face the trials on the way; Be zealous, while 't is called to-day; For soon the conflict will be o'er, When we shall rest for evermore.

511

At parting.

P. M. 7s.

FOR a season call'd to part, Let us now ourselves commend To the gracious eye and heart Of our ever present Friend.

2 Jesus, hear our humble pray'r! Tender Shepherd of thy sheep! Let thy mercy and thy care, All our souls in safety keep.

3 In thy strength may we be strong, Sweeten every cross and pain: Give us, if we live, ere long, In thy peace to meet again.

4 Then, if thou thy help afford, Ebenezers shall be rear'd,

And our souls shall praise the Lord, Who our poor petitions heard.

- 512 Parting, with a hope to meet again. C. M. NOW, pilgrims, let us go in peace, * While through this world we rove, Till all these parting moments cease, And we shall meet above.
 - 2 Though trials here our souls annoy, And foes beset the road, We 're hast'ning to eternal joys, Where we shall rest with God.

 Let us rejoice in God our King, While pilgrims here we rove;
 And join with heart and voice to sing The wonders of his love.
 328

 4 Soon we shall reach the heavenly land And tread the peaceful shore;
 And there unite, a glorious band, Our Jesus to adore.

513

Meeting of friends.

L. M.

7s.

ONCE more a pleasant interview The Lord doth grant us, to renew Our social friendship, kind and dear; Our hearts to warm, our souls to cheer.

- 2 While we were absent far abroad, We saw the kindness of our God; Therefore his love let us adore, That we are here alive once more.
- 3 How many souls have launch'd away To everlasting night or day; In sickness many more remain, Whilst we our life and health retain.
- 4 Into his presence let us haste, And thank him for his favors past; Down on your knees devoutly all, Before the Lord, our Maker, fall.

514

Blessed prospect of meeting again.

W HILE we sojourn here below, Toils we have, and troubles too; But the Saviour is our friend, He will help us to the end; He will guide us in the way, To the realms of endless day.

2 Let us all go hand in hand Through this bleak and barren land, Till our conflicts will be o'er, Till our trials are no more: Then on Canaan's shore we'll meet, Where the rest will be so sweet.

515 He (man) fleeth also as a shadow, 7s. Double. and continueth not. Job. 14: 2. HILE, with ceaseless course, the sun Hasted round the former year, Many souls their race have run. Nevermore to meet us here. Fixed in an eternal state. They have done with all below: We a little longer wait, But how little, none can know. 2 If to three-score years and ten, Death his fatal dart delay. Still 't is sure to come, and then We from earth must pass away. May we, then, all strive to live That our parting be in peace, And the Lord to us may give Jovs that nevermore shall cease. FAMILY WORSHIP-MORNING HYMNS. C. M. 516Morning hymn. ORD, in the morning I will send My prayer to reach thine ear; Thou art my Father and my friend, My help, forever near. 2 O lead me, keep me all this day Near thee, in perfect peace; Help me to watch-to watch and pray, To pray and never cease. 3 I know my roving feet will err. Unless thou be my guide;-Warn me of every foe and snare, And keep me near thy side. 4 Thus, while my moments smoothly run, I'll sing my hours away, Till evening shade and setting sun Conclude in endless day. 330

MORNING HYMNS.

A morning invocation.

517

L. M.

A WAKE, my soul, and with the sun Thy daily stage of duty run! Shake off dull sloth, and early rise, To pay thy morning sacrifice!

- 2 Redeem thy misspent time that's past, And live this day as't were thy last; T' improve thy talents take due care, 'Gainst the great day thyself prepare!
- 3 Let all thy converse be sincere, Thy conscience as the noonday clear! Think how th' all-seeing God thy ways And every secret thought surveys.
- 4 Glory to God, who safe hath kept, And hath refresh'd me while I slept, Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake, I may of endless life partake.

518 A morning prayer. Psalm 5:3. C. M. CRD, in the morning thou shalt hear My voice ascending high; To thee will I direct my pray'r To thee lift up mine eye.

- 2 Up to the hills where Christ is gone To plead for all his saints, Presenting at his Father's throne Our songs and our complaints.
- 3 Thou art a God before whose sight The wicked shall not stand: Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight, Nor dwell at thy right hand.

4 O may thy spirit guide my feet In ways of righteousness; Make every path of duty straight, And plain before my face. 331

THE night is past and gone, The evening shades are fled; O may each morning bring to mind Our rising from the dead!

 We put our garments on, Our labor to pursue;
 So in the resurrection morn Saints shall be clothed anew.

MORNING HYMNS.

4 My life I would anew Devote, O Lord, to thee; And in thy service I would spend A long eternity.

C. M. 525Morning hymn. 7 HEN we, with welcome slumber press'd Had clos'd our weary eyes, A pow'r unseen secur'd our rest, And made us joyful rise. 2 Numbers this night have doubtless met Their long eternal doom, And lost the joys of morning light In death's tremendous gloom. 3 But life to us its light prolongs-Let warmest thanks arise: Great God, accept our morning songs, Our willing sacrifice. C. M. 526A morning song. G OD of my life! my morning song To thee I cheerful raise: Thy acts of love 't is good to sing, And pleasant 't is to praise. 2 Preserved by thine almight care I pass'd the shades of night, Serene, and safe from every harm, To see the morning light. 3 O, let the same almighty care Through all this day attend; From every danger, every snare, My heedless steps defend. 4 Smile on my minutes as they roll. And guide my future days ; And let thy goodness fill my soul With gratitude and praise.

Morning hymn.

Now the shades of night are gone, Now the morning light is come ; Lord, we would be thine to-day; Drive the shades of sin away.

- 2 Make our souls as noon-day clear, Banish every doubt and fear; In thy vineyard, Lord, to-day, We would labor, watch and pray.
- 3 Keep our haughty passions bound, Save us from our foes around ; Going out and coming in, Keep us safe from every sin.
- 4 When our work of life is past, O, receive us then at last! Night of sin will be no more, When we reach the heav'nly shore.

528

527

Morning thanks.

GAIN, from calm and sweet repose, I rise to hail the dawn; Again my waking eyes unclose, To view the smiling morn.

2 Great God of love, thy praise I'll sing; For thou hast safely kept My soul beneath thy guardian wing,

And watched me while I slept.

3 Glory to thee, eternal God; O teach my heart to pray, And thy blest Spirit's help afford, To guide me through the day.

529

Morning thanks.

C. M.

HOU who dost my life prolong! Kindly aid my morning song; Thankful, from my couch I rise, Praising God who rules the skies.

EVENING HYMNS.

- 2 Thou hast kept me through the night,— 'T was thy hand restored the light; Lord! thy mercies still are new, Plenteous as the morning dew.
- 3 Gently, with the dawning ray, On my soul thy beams display; Sweeter than the smiling morn, Let thy cheering light return.

EVENING HYMNS.

530 Thoughts suggested by evening. S. M. THE day is past and gone, The ev'ning shades appear, O may we all remember well, The night of death draws near. 2 We lay our garments by, Upon our beds to rest; So death will soon disrobe us all Of what we here possess. 3 Lord, keep us safe this night, Secure from all our fears;

May angels guard us while we sleep, Till morning light appears.

4 And if we early rise, And view th' unwearied sun, May we set out to win the prize, And after glory run!

5 And when our days are past, And we from time remove,

O may we in thy bosom rest-The bosom of thy love!

531

Evening: numberless mercies.

C. M.

NoW from the altar of our hearts, Let warmest thanks arise; Assist us, Lord, to offer up Our evening sacrifice. (22) 337 -2 This day God was our sun and shield, Our keeper and our guide;

His care was on our weakness shown, His mercies multiplied.

3 Minutes and mercies, multiplied, Have made up all this day; Minutes came quick, but mercies were More swift and free than they.

4 New time, new favors, and new joys, Do a new song require:

Till we shall praise thee as we would, Accept our hearts' desire.

C. M.

C. M.

532

Cheerful confidence.

IN mercy, Lord, remember me, Through all the hours of night, And grant to me most graciously The safeguard of thy might.

2 With cheerful heart I close mine eyes, Since thou wilt not remove:

O, in the morning let me rise Rejoicing in thy love.

3 Or, if this night should prove my last, And end my transient days, Lord, take me to thy promis'd rest, Where I may sing thy praise.

533

An evening hymn.

ORD, thou wilt hear me when I pray, I am for ever thine;

I fear before thee all the day, M Nor would I dare to sin.

2 And while I rest my weary head, From cares and business free; 'T is sweet conversing, on my bed, With my own heart and thee. 338

EVENING HYMNS.

 3 I pay this ev'ning sacrifice, And when my work is done, Great God! my faith and hope rely Upon thy grace alone.

4 Thus, with my thoughts compos'd to peace, I'll give mine eyes to sleep; Thy hand in safety keeps my days, And will my slumbers keep.

534

Evening contemplation.

M. 7s.

SOFTLY, now, the light of day Fades upon my sight away; Free from care, from labor free, Lord, I would commune with thee.

2 Soon, for me, the light of day Shall forever pass away; Then, from sin and sorrow free, Take me, Lord, to dwell with thee.

535 Hide me under the shadow of thy wings. L. M. Psalm 17:8.

C LORY to thee, my God, this night, For all the blessings of the light; Keep me, O, keep me, King of kings, Beneath the shadow of thy wings.

- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son, The ill which I this day have done, That with the world, myself and thee, I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread The grave as little as my bed; Teach me to die, that so I may Rise glorious at thy judgment day.
- 4 O, let my soul on thee repose, And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close! Sleep which shall me more vigorous make To serve my God when I awake.

5 Lord, let my soul forever share The bliss of thy paternal care;
'T is heaven on earth, 't is heaven above, To see thy face and sing thy love.

536 A review at the close of the day. C. M. THOU sov'reign, let my ev'ning song Like holy incense rise; Assist the off'ring of my tongue To reach the lofty skies. 2 Through all the dangers of the day. Thy hand was still my guard, And still to drive my wants away Thy mercy stood prepar'd. 3 Perpetual blessings from above, Encompass me around; But, O, how few returns of love Hath my Creator found! 4 Sprinkled afresh with pard'ning blood, I lay me down to rest, As in th' embraces of my God, Or on my Saviour's breast. 537 C. M. Self-examination. NOW, O my soul! the circling sun Has all his beams withdrawn; Once more his daily race is run, And gloomy night comes on. 2 Thus, one day more of life is gone, A doubtful few remain: Come, then, review what thou hast done Eternal life to gain. 3 Dost thou get forward in thy race, As time still posts away? And die to sin, and grow in grace, With ev'ry passing day? 340

EVENING HYMNS.

 4 This day, what conquest hast thou gain'd? What sin is overcome?
 What fresh degree of grace obtain'd, To bring thee nearer home?

 5 Thus let us still our course review, Our real state to learn;
 And, with redoubled zeal, pursue Our great and chief concern.

538

One day's journey less.

L. M.

NOW one day's journey less divides Me from the world where God resides; If I have walk'd by faith, in fear, A stranger and a pilgrim here,

- 2 I've one day less my watch to keep, My foes to fear, my falls to weep; I've one day less to see within Conflict, defeat, remorse and sin.
- 3 And O, reflect, my fainting soul, Thou'rt one stage nearer to the goal, Thou'rt one stage nearer to the shore, Where thou wilt grieve for sin no more.
- 4 If the sweet presence of thy God To-day has cheered and blest thy road, Think what must be that glorious place Where he will never hide his face.

539

Evening hymn.

L. M.

THUS far the Lord has led me on, Thus far his pow'r prolongs my days, And ev'ry ev'ning shall make known Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste, And I, perhaps, am near my home! But he forgives my follies past, He gives me strength for days to come. 341

PARENTAL HYMNS.

5.5 | Parents' concern for their children. C. M.

THOU, who a tender parent art, Regard a parent's plea; My offspring, with an anxious heart, I now commend to thee.

2 My children are my greatest care— A charge which thou hast giv'n; In all thy graces let them share, And all the joys of heav'n.

3 On me thou hast bestow'd thy grace, Be to my children kind; Among thy saints give them a place, And leave not one behind.

4 Happy we then shall live below, The remnant of our days;

And when to brighter worlds we go, Shall all resound thy praise.

555

Parental solicitude.

HOW can we see the children, Lord, In love whom thou hast giv'n, Remain regardless of thy word, Without a hope of heav'n?

C. M.

2 How can we see them tread the path That leads to endless death; Thus adding to thy fearful wrath, With every moment's breath?

3 We ask not wealth, long life, or fame, Or aught the world can give; May they but glorify thy name, And to thy honor live.

4 This is the burden of our pray'r — Then from our bosoms riv'n, May they be objects of thy care, And heirs, at last, of heav'n. 346

 2 For she has treasures greater far Than east or west unfold;
 And her rewards more precious are Than all their stores of gold.

 3 She guides the young with innocence In pleasure's path to tread;
 A crown of glory she bestows Upon the aged head.

4 According as her labors rise, So her rewards increase; Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are peace.

560

Life transitory and passing.

IKE mist on the mountain, like ships on the sea, So swiftly the years of our pilgrimage flee; In the grave of our fathers how soon we shall lie! Dear children, to day to a Saviour then fly.

- 2 How sweet are the flow'rets of April and May! But often the frost makes them wither away; Like flow'rs you may fade!—are you ready to die? While yet there is room, to a Saviour then fly.
- 3 When Samuel was young he first knew the Lord-He slept in his smile and rejoic'd in his word; So most of God's chidren are early brought nigh: O, seek him in youth-to a Saviour then fly!

4 Do you ask me for pleasure? then lean on his breast For there the sin-laden and weary find rest: In the valley of death you will trimmpling ery-If this be called dying, 't is pleasant to die.

Scripture instruction. Psalm 119: 9. C. M. 561TOW shall the young secure their hearts, And guard their lives from sin? Thy word the choicest rules imparts, To keep the conscience clean. 2 When once it enters to the mind, It spreads such light abroad, The meanest souls instruction find, And raise their thoughts to God. 3 'T is like the sun, a heav'nly light, That guides us all the day; And through the dangers of the night, A lamp to lead our way. 4 Thy word is everlasting truth; How pure is ev'ry page! 571

Delay not.

C. M.

O 'T IS a folly and a crime To put religion by; For now is the accepted time, To-morrow we may die.

2 Our hearts grow harder every day, And more depraved the mind; The longer we neglect to pray, The less we feel inclined.

 3 Yet sinners trifle, young and old, Until the dying day;
 Then they would give a world of gold, To have an hour to pray.

4 O, then, lest we should perish thus, We would no longer wait; For time will soon be past with us, And death will fix our state.

572 Expostulation with the young.

Y E lovely bands of blooming youth, Warned by the voice of heav'nly truth, Now yield to Christ your youthful prime, With all your talents and your time.

- 2 Think of your end, nor thoughtless say, I'll put far off the evil day: Ah! not a moment 's in your pow'r, And death stands ready at the door.
- 3 Eternity!—how near it rolls! Count the vast value of your souls; Beware, and count the awful cost, What they have gained whose souls are lost!
- 4 Pride, sinful pleasures, lust and snares Beset your hearts, your eyes, your ears; Take the alarm—the danger fly: "Lord, save me!" be your earnest cry. 355

MARRIAGE HYMNS.

573

A wedding hymn.

C. M.

SINCE Jesus freely did appear To grace a marriage feast, Dear Lord, we ask thy presence here To make a wedding guest.

- 2 Upon the bridal pair look down, Who now have plighted hands; Their union with thy favor crown, And bless the nuptial bands.
- 3 With gifts of grace their hearts endow— Of all rich dowries best; Their substance bless; and peace bestow, To sweeten all the rest.
- 4 In purest love their hearts unite, That they, with Christian care, May make domestic burdens light, By taking mutual share.
- 5 O, may each soul assembled here Be married, Lord, to thee;
 Clad in the robes, made white and fair, To spend eternity.

574

Marriage hymn.

L. M.

WITH cheerful voices rise and sing The praises of our God and King; For he alone can minds unite In mutual love and pure delight.

2 O may this pair increasing find Substantial pleasures of the mind; Happy in all things may they be, And both united, Lord, to thee.

3 So may they live, as truly one, And, when their work on earth is done, Rise hand in hand to heaven, and share The joys of love forever there.

575 Marriage. Gen. 2: 18. L. M. Gen. 2: 18. T is not good, Jeho vah said, For man new formed to be alone; Then of his rib an help-meet made, And man and wife pronounc'd but one. 2 From near his heart this rib he took, To show the favor should be priz'd; Not from his head, to overlook, Nor from his foot, to be despis'd.

3 Beneath his arm, to signify Wives should authority disclaim, And that protection and supply Are from the husbands due to them.

4 Bless, Lord, this newly-married pair, And make the match a blessing prove; Their int'rest one, their joys, their care, Made happy in each other's love.

5 Keep them, and lead them by thy hand; Uphold them by thy mighty arm;
Till in thy courts they joyful stand, "Called to the marriage of the Lamb."

National ingratitude.

L. M.

HOW long has God bestow'd his care On this indulged, ungrateful land! How oft, in times of danger near, Preserv'd us by his sov'reign hand! 357

2 Here peace and liberty have dwelt, The glorious gospel brightly shone; And oft our mightiest foes have felt That God hath made our cause his own.

3 But, ah! both heav'n and earth have heard Our vile requital of his love; We, whom like children he has rear'd, For all his care unthankful prove.

4 See! he uplifts his chast'ning rod! O, where are now the faithful few, Who tremble for the ark of God, And know what Israel ought to do?

5 Lord, hear thy people ev'rywhere, Who meet this day to weep and pray, Our sinful land in mercy spare— In mercy turn thy wrath away!

577 Reflections at the end of the year. A ND now, my soul, another year Of thy short life is past; I cannot long continue here, And this may be my last.

- 2 Much of my hasty life is gone, Nor will return again;
 And swift my passing moments run— The few that yet remain.
- 3 Awake, my soul, with utmost care Thy true condition learn:
 What are thy hopes? how sure? how fair? What is thy great concern?

4 Behold, another year begins! Set out afresh for heav'n; Seek pardon for thy former sins, In Christ so freely given. 358

5 Devoutly yield thyself to God, And on his grace depend;
With zeal pursue the heav'nly road, Nor doubt a happy end.

578

Spring.

C. M.

W HEN brighter suns and milder skies Proclaim the op'ning year, What various sounds of joy arise! What prospects bright appear!

 Earth and her thousand voices give Their thousand notes of praise;
 And all that by his mercy live To God their off'ring raise.

3 The streams, all beautiful and bright, Reflect the morning sky; And there, with music in his flight, The wild bird soars on high.

 4 Thus, like the morning calm and clear That saw the Saviour rise,
 The spring of heaven's eternal year Shall dawn on earth and skies.

5 No winter there, no shades of night, Obscure those mansions blest, Where, in the happy fields of light, The weary are at rest.

579 Summer: a harvest hymn. Isaiah 9: 3. C. M. Isaiah 9: 3. C. M. My soul, wake all thy pow'rs: He calls—and at his voice come forth The smiling harvest hours.
2 His covenant with earth he keeps; My tongue, his goodness sing; Summer and winter know their time; His harvest crowns the spring.

3 Well pleas'd, the toiling swains behold The waving yellow crop; With joy they bear the sheaves away, And sow again in hope.

4 Thus teach me, gracious God, to sow The seeds of righteousness; Smile on my soul, and with thy beams The rip'ning harvest bless.

5 Then, in the last great harvest, I Shall reap a glorious crop; The harvest shall by far exceed What I have sow'd in hope.

580

Autumn. Eccl. 11: 9.

8s & 7s.

SEE the leaves around us falling, Dry and withered, to the ground, Thus to thoughtless mortals calling, In a sad and solemn sound—

2 "Youth, on length of days presuming, Who the paths of pleasure tread, View us, late in beauty blooming, Numbered now among the dead.

3 "What though yet no losses grieve you-Gay with health and many a grace; Let not cloudless skies deceive you; Summer gives the autumn place."

4 On the tree of life eternal Let our highest hopes be stay'd: This alone, for ever vernal, Bears a leaf that shall not fade.

581

Winter.

C. M.

STERN Winter throws his icy chains, Encircling nature round; How black, how comfortless the plains, Late with gay verdure crown'd! 360

2 The sun withholds his vital beams, And light and warmth depart; And drooping, lifeless nature seems An emblem of my heart.

3 Return, O blissful sun, and bring Thy soul-reviving ray: This mental winter shall be spring, This darkness cheerful day.

4 O happy state! divine abode, Where spring eternal reigns, And perfect day, the smile of God, Fills all the heavenly plains!

5 Great Source of light, thy beams display; My drooping joys restore, And guide me to the seats of day, Where winter frowns no more.

582.

During a pestilence.

C. M.

L ET the land mourn through all its coasts And humble all its state; Princes and rulers, at their posts, Awhile sit desolate.

- 2 Let all the people, high and low, Rich, poor, and great and small, Invoke, in fellowship of woe, The Maker of them all.
- 3 For God hath summon'd from his place Death in a direr form, To waken, warn, and scourge our race, Than earthquakes, fire, or storm.

 4 Let churches weep within their place, And families apart;
 Let each in secrecy bewail The plague of his own heart. 361

5 So, while the land bemoans its sin, The pestilence may cease, And mercy, temp'ring wrath, bring in God's blessed health and peace.

583

The new and flying year.

L. M.

RAPID my days and months run on; How soon another year is gone ' How swift my golden moments roll, How much neglected by my soul!

- 2 Let me begin, with holy fear, This new, this fleeting, flying year; Too many unimprov'd have pass'd, This year, perhaps, may be my last.
- 3 I ask new wisdom for this year, New fitness for my trials here; Of every grace a richer store, My God to love and honor more.

584

A new-year hymn.

M. 7s.

L^O! another year is gone! Quickly have the seasons pass'd: This we enter now upon Will to many prove the last. Mercy hitherto has spared; But have mercies been improv'd? Let us ask: Am I prepared, Should I be this year remov'd?

2 Some we now no longer see, Who their mortal race have run, Seem'd as fair for life as we, When the former year begun: Some—but who, God only knows— That are here assembled now, Ere the present year shall close, To the stroke of death must bow. 362

3 If from guilt and sin set free, By the knowledge of thy grace; Welcome then the call will be, To depart and see thy face.
To thy saints, while here below, With new years new mercies come; But the happiest year they know, Is their last, which leads them home.

585

Seed-time and harvest. Gen. 8: 22. C. M.

FOUNTAIN of therey, God of love, How rich thy bounties are! The changing seasons, as they move, Proclaim thy constant care.

2 When in the bosom of the earth The sower hid the grain, Thy goodness marked its secret birth,

And sent the early rain.

3 The spring's sweet influence Lord, was The plants in beauty grew; [thine Thou gav'st refulgent suns to shine, And soft, refreshing dew.

4 These varied mercies, from above, Matured the swelling grain:

A kindly harvest crowns thy love, And plenty fills the plain.

5 We own and bless thy gracious sway, Thy hand all nature hails:

Seed-time nor harvest, night nor day, Summer nor winter fails. 363

MISCELLANEOUS.

8s & 7s

586

The open gate.

THERE is a gate stands open wide— And, through its portals gleaming, A radiance from the cross, afar The Saviour's love revealing.

> O, depth of mercy, can it be That gate stands open wide for me? Stands open wide, both night and day, Stands open wide for me.

2 It open stands for old and young, Though filled with joy or sorrow; The Spirit wooes your souls along, The gate may close to-morrow.

3 O sinner, waken from your guilt, Nor let your heart deceive you; For you the blood of Christ was spilt, He's waiting to receive you.

4 O blessed Spirit, lead me in, And let me falter never; Make me a victor over sin, I'll praise thee, then, forever.

587

The believer's safety. L. M.

THAT man no guard nor weapon needs, Whose heart the blood of Jesus knows; But safe may pass, if duty leads, Thro' burning sands, or mountain snows.

2 Releas'd from guilt, he feels no fear, Redemption is his shield and tow'r; He sees his Saviour always near, To help in ev'ry trying hour.

3 Though I am weak, and Satan strong, And often to assault me tries; 364

When Jesus is my shield and song, Abash'd the wolf before me flies.

4 His love.possessing, I am blest— Secure whatever change may come; Whether I go to east or west, With him I still shall be at home.

589 Having a desire to depart. Phil. 1: 23. L. P. M.

W HAT must it be to dwell above, At God's right hand, where Jesus reigns, Since the sweet earnest of his love O'erwhelms us on these dreary plains? No heart can think, no tongue explain, What bliss it is with Christ to reign!

2 When sin no more obscures the sight, And sorrow pains the heart no more, How shall we view the Prince of light, And all his works of grace explore? What heights, what depths of love divine Shall there through endless ages shine!

3 This is the heav'n I long to know, For this I would with patience wait;
Till, wean'd from earth and all below, I mount to my celestial seat—
And wave my palm, and wear my crown, And with the elders cast it down.

590

How much we owe.

7s.

WHEN we stand before the throne, Dress'd in beauty not our own, When we see thee as thou art, Love thee with unsinning heart; Then, Lord, shall we fully know— Not till then—how much we owe.

2 When the praise of heav'n we hear, Loud as thunder to the ear, Loud as many waters' noise, Sweet as harps' melodious voice,

Then, Lord, shall we fully know— Not till then—how much we owe.

3 Even on earth, as through a glass, Darkly, let thy glory pass; Make forgiveness feel so sweet, Make thy Spirit's help so meet; Even on earth, Lord, make us know Something of how much we owe.

591

Love the proof of true piety. 1 John 3: 14. L. M.

YE diff"rent sects, who all declare, "Lo, here is Christ, or Christ is there!" Your stronger proofs divinely give, And show us where the Christians live!

- 2 Your claim, alas! ye cannot prove; Ye want the genuine mark of love: Thou only, Lord, thine own canst know, For sure thou hast a church below.
- 3 Scatter'd o'er all the earth they lie, Till thou collect them with thine eye; Draw by the music of thy name, And charm into a beauteous frame.
- 4 For this the pleading spirit groans, And cries in all thy banish'd ones: Love, greatest of thy gifts, impart, And make us of one mind and heart.

592

The house of the Lord.

Psalm 84: 10.

12s.

YOU may sing of the beauties of mountain and dale, Of the silvery streamlets and flowers of the vale; But the place most delightful this earth can afford, Is the place of devotion, the house of the Lord.

2 You may boast of the sweetness of day's early dawn, Of the sky's softening graces when day is just gone; But there's no other season or time can compare With the hour of devotion, the season of prayer.

3 You may value the friendships of youth and of age, And select for your conrades the noble and sage; But the friends that most cheer me on life's rugged road Are the friends of my Master, the children of God.

4 You may talk of your prospects of fame, or of wealth, And the hopes that off flatter the favorites of health, But the hope of bright glory, of heavenly bliss-Take away every other, and give me but this.

5 Ever hail, blessed temple, abode of my Lord ! I will turn to thee often, to hear from his word; I will walk to thine altar with those that I love, And rejoice in the prospects revealed from above.

Weep for the lost. Luke 19:41. 593 C. M. WEEP for the lost! Thy Saviour wept O'er Salem's hapless doom; He wept, to think their day was past, And come their night of gloom. 2 Weep for the lost! The prophets wept O'er Israel's gloomy fate, When vengeance had unsheath'd her sword Repentance came too late. 3 Weep for the lost! Apostles wept, That men should error choose; That dying men should Christ reject. And endless life refuse. 4 Weep for the lost! The lost will weep, In that long night of woe, On which no star of hope will rise, And tears in vain will flow. 5 Weep for the lost! Lord, make us weep, And toil with ceaseless care, To save our friends, ere yet they pass That point of deep despair. The anchor within the vail. Heb. 6:19. L. M. 594 MY bark is on a troubled sea; The winds and waves may adverse be; But hope, my anchor's firmly cast Within the vail, for ever fast. 2 How oft, when tempest-toss'd at night, I watch in vain for dawning light, Yet think, when terrors would prevail, My anchor is within the vail.

368

- 3 Within the vail-where Jesus stands, And shows to God his blood-stain'd hands; Within the vail-he went to bear My name upon the breast-plate there.
- 4 My hope must have his righteousness, For it can rest on nothing less; Within the vail—is still my pray'r, O! may my anchor enter there.
- 5 Although the billows round me roll, They never can o'erwhelm my soul; Within the vail my anchor's cast, Unshaken by the stormy blast.
- 6 Whene'er I quit this changing scene, May I depart in hope serene; And find, when heart and flesh shall fail, My anchor cast within the vail.

595 Now is our salvation nearer. Rom. 13: 1. S. M SWEETLY solemn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er, To-day I 'm nearer to my home Than e'er I 've been before.

2 Nearer my Father's house, Where many mansions be, And nearer to the great white throne, Nearer the crystal sea.

3 Nearer the bound of life, Where falls my burden down; Nearer to where I leave my cross,

And where I gain my crown.

4 Saviour, confirm my trust, Complete my faith in thee; And let me feel as if I stood Close on eternity ;--

5 Feel as if now my feet Were slipping o'er the brink; For I may now be nearer home, Much nearer than I think. (24)369

596

The Rock higher than I. Psalm 61: 2. 11s.

IN seasons of grief to my God 1'll repair, [care; When my heart's overwhelmed with sorrow and From the end of the earth unto thee will 1 cry, Lead me to the Rock that is higher than 1-Higher than 1-higher than 1-Lead me to the Rock that is higher than 1.

2 When Satan, my foe, counctl in like a flood, To drive my poor soul from the fountain of God, 1'll pray to the Saviour who kindly did die, Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I. Higher than I, etc.

3 When tempted by Satan the Spirit to grieve, And th' service of Christ, my Redeemer, to leave, I'll claim my relation to Jesus, on high— The Rock of Sulvation, that's higher than I. Higher than I, etc.

4 O Saviour of sinners, when faint and depress'd, With manifold trials and sorrows oppress'd, I'll bow at thy feet, and with confidence ery "Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I." Higher than I, etc.

5 And when I have ended my pilgrimage here, In Jesus' pure righteousness let me appear; In the swelling of Jordan on thee I'll rely, And look to the Roek that is higher than I. Higher than I, etc.

6 And when the last trumpet shall sound thro' the skies, And the dead from the dust of the earth shall arise; With millions 1'll join far above yonder sky, To praise the kind Roek that is higher than I.

o praise the kind Rock that is higher than 1. Higher than I, etc.

597

Looking to God in trouble.

C. M.

DEAR Refuge of my weary soul, On thee, when sorrows rise, On thee, when waves of trouble roll, My fainting hope relies.

2 To thee I tell each rising grief, For thou alone canst heal; Thy word can bring a sweet relief, For ev'ry pain I feel.

3 But O, when gloomy doubts prevail, I fear to call thee mine; The springs of comfort seem to fail, And all my hopes decline.

4 Yet, gracious God, where shall I flee? Thou art my only trust; And still my soul would cleave to thee, Though prostrate in the dust.

5 Hast thou not bid me seek thy face? And shall I seek in vain? And can the ear of sov'reign grace Be deaf when I complain?

 6 No, still the ear of sov'reign grace Attends the mourner's pray'r;
 O may I ever find access, To breathe my sorrows there.

598

A prayer of the Christian.

L. M.

A S pilgrims in this vale of tears, We sigh to reach our heav'nly home: That we, released from all our fears, May tune our harps and cease to roam.

2 O God, protect us by thy pow'r, And keep us safe within thy fold; That we, in each unguarded hour, May never lose on thee our hold.

3 O, wipe the tears from sorrow's eye, And let us all rejoice in thee; Give joy for ev'ry rising sigh, Make us from ev'ry fetter free.

4 Help us to view our dying Lord, And gaze upon his bleeding side; That we may, faithful to his word, Eternally in him abide.

371

5 Then, when we quit this mortal frame, O, may we soar away to thee; Raise hallelujahs to thy name, And our divine Redeemer see.

599

Stand for the right.

C. M.

BE firm, be bold, be strong, be true, "And dare to stand alone;" Strive for the right, whate'er you do, Though helpers there be none.

- Nay—bend not to the swelling surge Of fashion's sneer and wrong;
 'T will bear thee on to ruin's verge, With current wild and strong.
- 3 Stand for the right: though falsehood rail, And proud lips coldly sneer;
 - A poisoned arrow can not wound A conscience pure and clear.
- 4 Stand for the right, and with clean hands Exalt the truth on high;

Thou 'lt find warm, sympathizing hearts Among the passers-by.

5 Stand for the right: proclaim it loud, Thou'lt find an answering tone

In honest hearts, and then no more Be doomed to stand alone.

600 The presence of Christ affords delight. 8s.

HOW tedious and tasteless the hours When Jesus no longer I see! [flowers Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet Have all lost their sweetness to me: The midsummer sun shines but dim, The fields strive in vain to look gay: But when I am happy in him, December's as pleasant as May.

372

| 2 | His name yields the richest perfume, |
|------------|--|
| | And sweeter than music his voice; His presence disperses my gloom, |
| | And makes all within me rejoice; |
| | I should, were he always thus nigh, |
| | Have nothing to wish or to fear; |
| | No mortal so happy as I— My summer would last all the year. |
| 3 | Content with beholding his face, |
| | My all to his pleasure resign'd, |
| | No changes of seasons or place Would make any change in my mind; |
| | While blessed with a sense of his love, |
| | A palace a toy would appear, |
| | And prisons would palaces prove, If Jesus would dwell with me there. |
| | If Jesus would dwell with me there. |
| 4 | Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine, |
| | If thou art my sun and my song, Say, why do I languish and pine, |
| | And why are my winters so long? |
| | O, drive these dark clouds from my sky, |
| | Thy soul-cheering presence restore; |
| | Or take me to thee up on high, Where winter and clouds are no more. |
| | |
| i 0 | - Acts 7. 50. |
| | A ^S when the weary trav'ler gains The height of some o'erlooking hill, |
| | His heart revives, if 'cross the plains |
| | He eyes his home, though distant still. |
| 2 | While he surveys the much-lov'd spot, |
| | He slights the space that lies between; |
| | His past fatigues are now forgot, |
| | Because his journey's end is seen. |
| | |

3 Thus, when the Christian pilgrim views By faith his mansion in the skies,

The sight his fainting strength renews, And wings his speed to reach the prize.

4 The thought of home his spirit cheers; No more he grieves for troubles past, Nor any future trial fears So he may safe arrive at last.

5 "T is there, he says, I am to dwell With Jesus in the realms of day; Then shall I bid my cares farewell, And he shall wipe my tears away.

6 Jesus, on thee our hope depends, To lead us on to thine abode: Assur'd our home will make amends For all our toil while on the road.

602

The longing flock, etc.

L ET thy kingdom, blessed Saviour, Come, and bid our jarring cease; Come, O come, and reign for ever, God of love, and Prince of peace: Visit now thy precious Zion, See thy people mourn and weep; Day and night thy lambs are crying, Come, good Shepherd, feed thy sheep.

8s & 7s.

2 Lord, in us there is no merit, We've been sinners from our youth: Guide us, Lord, by thy good Spirit, That shall teach us all thy truth; On the gospel word we'll venture, Till in death's cold arms we sleep; Love's our bond, and Christ our center, Come, good Shepherd, feed thy sheep.

3 Hear the Prince of your salvation, Saying, "Fear not, little flock,

I myself am your foundation, Ye are built upon this rock:

Shun the paths of vice and folly, Near your Shepherd constant keep, Look to me and be ye holy, I delight to feed my sheep."

603 Whose forsaketh not all that he hath. C. M.

A ND must I part with all I have, Jesus, my Lord! for thee? This is my joy, since thou hast done Much more than this for me.

2 Yes, let it go; one look from thee Will more than make amends For all the losses I sustain Of credit, riches, friends.

3 Ten thousand worlds, ten thousand lives, How worthless they appear, Compar'd with thee, supremely good, Divinely bright and fair!

4 Saviour of souls! while I from thee A single smile obtain, Though destitute of all things else, I'll glory in my gain.

604 The ornament of a meek spirit. 1 Peter 3: 33. L. M. HOW proud we are, how fond, to show Our clothes, and call them rich and new; When the poor sheep and silk-worms wore That very clothing long before.

- 2 The tulip and the butterfly Appear in gayer coats than I: Let me be dressed fine as I will, Flies, worms, and flow'rs, exceed me still.
- 3 O, that my heart were set to find Inward adornings of the mind! Knowledge and virtue, truth and grace— These are the robes of richest dress.

- 4 Then, worms would not with me compare, For this is raiment angels wear; The Son of God, when here below, Put on this blest apparel too.
- 5 In this, on earth I should appear; Then go to heaven, and wear it there; God will approve it in his sight; 'T is his own work, and his delight.

605 The branch can not bear fruit itself. S. M. John 15: 4.

TO keep the lamp alive With oil we fill the bowl; 'T is water makes the willow thrive, And grace that feeds the soul.

- 2 The Lord's unsparing hand Supplies the living stream; It is not at our own command, But still deriv'd from him.
- Beware of Peter's words, Nor confidently say,
 "I never will deny thee, Lord," But—"Grant I never may."
- 4 Man's wisdom is to seek His strength in God alone; And e'en an angel would be weak, Who trusted in his own.
- 5 Retreat beneath his wings, And in his grace confide; This more exalts the King of kings Than all your works beside.

6 In Jesus is our store, Grace issues from his throne. Whoever says, "I want no more," Confesses he has none. 376

606

- THERE is a school on earth begun, Instructed by the Holy One; He calls his pupils there, to prove The sweetness of redeeming love.
- 2 The school-book is the Scripture true; The lessons are forever new; In this the pupils are agreed, It is a blessed school indeed.
- 3 'Tis here the blind may learn to see; Then come, ye blind, the school is free; And here the lame may learn to walk; The dumb may also learn to talk.
- 4 'T is here the deaf may learn to hear; Then come, ye deaf, and lend an ear; Listen to Jesus' pleasant voice, He'll make your mourning souls rejoice.
- 5 Come, brethren, you who are at school, Attention pay to ev'ry rule; • Here may we learn the happy art Of loving God with all our heart.

607 Desiring the divine presence. Ex. 33:15. L. M. BE with me, Lord, where'er I go, Teach me what thou wouldst have me Suggest whate'er I think or say, [do, Direct me in the narrow way.

2 Assist and teach me how to pray; Incline my nature to obey: What thou abhor'st, that let me flee, And only love what pleases thee.

608

Comfort in affliction.

C. M.

W HEN languor and disease invade This trembling house of clay, 'Tis sweet to look beyond my pain, And long to fly away:

377

2 Sweet to look inward, and attend The whispers of his love; Sweet to look upward, to the place Where Jesus pleads above:

3 Sweet to look back, and see my name In life's fair book set down; Sweet to look forward, and behold Eternal joys my own:

4 Sweet on his faithfulness to rest, Whose love can never end; Sweet on the cov'nant of his grace For all things to depend:

5 Sweet in the confidence of faith, To trust his firm decrees; Sweet to lie passive in his hands, And know no will but his.

6 If such the sweetness of the stream, What must the fountain be; Where saints and angels draw their bliss, O Lord, direct from thee!

609

The only foundation. Cor. 3: 11. 8, 8, 6, 8, 8, 6.

H AD I ten thousand gifts beside, I'd cleave to Jesus crucified, And build on him alone; For no foundation is there giv'n On which to place my hopes of heav'n, But Christ, the corner-stone.

Possessing Christ, I all possess— Wisdom, and strength, and righteousness, And holiness complete;
Bold in his name, I dare draw nigh Before the Ruler of the sky, And all his justice meet. 378

3 There is no path to heav'nly bliss, To solid joy or lasting peace, But Christ, th' appointed road; O may we tread the sacred way, By faith rejoice, and praise, and pray, Till we sit down with God!

610

Thoughts on death.

C. P. M.

A ND am I only born to die? And must I suddenly comply With nature's stern decree? What after death for me remains? Celestial joys, or hellish pains, To all eternity.

2 How then ought I on earth to live, While God prolongs his kind reprieve, And props the house of clay; My sole concern, my single care, To watch, and tremble, and prepare Against that fatal day!

3 No room for mirth or trifling here, For worldly hope, or worldly fear, If life so soon is gone; If now the Judge is at the door, And all mankind must stand before Th' inexorable throne!

4 Nothing is worth a thought beneath, But how I may escape the death That never, never dies!
How make mine own election sure; And when I fail on earth, secure A mansion in the skies.

5 Jesus, vouchsafe a pitying ray, Be thou my guide, be thou my way To glorious happiness!
Ah! write the pardon on my heart!
And whensoe'er I hence depart, Let me depart in peace!
379

The harvest is past, elc.

61111s. Jer. 8: 20. THE harvest is past, and the reapers are gone; The summer is ended, I sorrow alone: God's mercies and judgments were slighted by me, And now for deliv'rance no hope I can see. The harvest is past, and the wheat all returned, And now with the chaff I am doomed to be burned ; All warnings of danger I madly outbraved-The summer is ended, and 1 am not saved.

- 2 The harvest is past, and my soul, in despair, Must dwell with the lost, and their agonies share; In deep desolation I mourn at the last-All hopeless the future-the harvest is past. The harvest is past-I must part with my friends, Forever with them all my intercourse ends; With darkness around me, I feel the dread blast Of God's indignation-the harvest is past.
- 3 O. that I could now all my lifetime forget! 'T will fill my poor soul with eternal regret, To think of the seasons of mercy and grace, When I with the people of God took my place-To think how the spirit oft strove with me then. And called me to Jesus, again and again: I think of the promises ofttimes I made, Alas ! to fulfill them I always delayed.
- 4 To think of prayers offered, and tears which were shed.

That I, in my youth, to the cross might be led : To think of the loved ones who pleaded with me. Whose faces no more I 'm permitted to see; To think of a heaven, and friends who are there— O! memory, why dost thou enhance my despair? If with those dear loved ones my lot I had cast, I now would be saved-but the harvest is past.

5 O! sorrow of sorrows, eternally great! I'd now accept mercy, but now 't is too late! God's justice on me is exerted at last-I have my reward, and the harvest is past. [dwell, Though banished from God, in this torment to If prayers for the erring could rise up from hell, I'd groan out petitions for ages to come. To save one poor sinner from this awful doom !

7s & 6s.

COME, all ye weary trav'lers, Come, let us join and sing The everlasting praises Of Jesus Christ, our King; 380

612

We've had a tedious journey, And tiresome, it is true, But see how many dangers The Lord has brought us through.

2 At first when Jesus found us, He called us unto him, And pointed out the danger Of falling into sin; The world, the flesh, and Satan, Will prove a fatal snare, Unless we do reject them By faith and humble prayer.

3 The pleasant fruits of Canaan Give life, and joy, and peace, Revive our drooping spirits, And faith and love increase. Confess your Lord and Master, And run at his command; And hasten on your journey Unto the promised land.

4 Sinners, why stand ye idle, While we do march along? Has conscience never told you That you are going wrong? Down the broad road to ruin, To bear an endless curse? Oh, leave your ways of sinning, And come along with us.

5 But if you will refuse it, We bid you all farewell; We're on the way to Canaan, And you the way to hell: We're sorry thus to leave you, We'd rather you would go: Come, try a bleeding Saviour, And feel salvation flow. 281

The soul.

WHAT is the thing of greatest price, The whole creation 'round? That, which was lost in Paradise, That, which in Christ is found.

2 'The soul of man—Jehovah's breath! That keeps two worlds at strife; Hell moves beneath, to work its death, Heaven stoops, to give it life.

3 God, to reclaim it, did not spare His well-beloved Son;

Jesus, to save it, deigned to bear The sins of all in One.

4 And is this treasure borne below, In earthly vessels frail? Teach us, O God, its worth to know, Lest we its loss bewail.

5 Then let us gather 'round the cross, That knowledge to obtain— Not by the soul's eternal loss, But everlasting gain.

614

Presumption and despair.

HATE the tempter and his charms; I hate his flatt'ring breath; The serpent takes a thousand forms, To cheat our souls to death.

 2 He feeds our hopes with airy dreams, Or kills with slavish fear;
 And holds us still in wide extremes, Presumption or despair.

3 Now he persuades, "How easy 't is To walk the road to heav'n;" Anon he swells our sins, and cries, "They cannot be forgiv'n." 382

C. M.

C. M.

4 He bids young sinners, "Yet forbear To think of God or death; For prayer and devotion are But melancholy breath."

- 5 He tells the aged, "They must die, And 't is too late to pray;
 In vain for mercy now they cry, For they have lost their day."
- 6 Thus he supports his cruel throne, By mischief and deceit; And drags the sons of Adam down, To darkness and the pit.

615 C. M. "THOU shalt not covet," God hath said— But be content with what He, in his sovereign will, hath made The portion of thy lot.

2 "Thou shalt not covet."—Yet how strong Desire has sometimes grown; Until, in earnestness, we long For what is not our own.

3 "Thou shalt not covet."—O, how mean To want another's good! Ah! if these secret sins were seen.

How shame our face would cloud.

- 4 "Thou shalt not covet."—Each desire For what another holds, Is adding fuel to the fire Of envy in our souls.
- 5 "Thou shalt not covet."—Every theft In envy is begun: Lord, leave us not of grace bereft; Help us this sin to shun. 383

The penitent thief.

616

M. 7s.

W HEN our Lord was crucified, Two transgressors with him died: One, with vile blaspheming tongue, Scoff'd at Jesus as he hung.

- 2 Thus he spent his wicked breath, In the very jaws of death; Perished—as too many do— With the Saviour in his view.
- 3 But the other, moved by grace, Saw the danger of his case, And, by faith, embraced his Lord, Whom the scribes and priests abhorr'd.
- 4 "Lord," he prays, "remember me, When in glory thou shalt be:" "Soon with me," the Lord replies, "Thou shalt be in Paradise."
- 5 This was wondrous grace indeed, Grace bestowed in time of need; Sinners, trust in Jesus' name, You will find him still the same.
- 6 O, beware of unbelief! Think upon the hardened thief; If the gospel you disdain, Christ for you hath died in vain. 384

DOXOLOGIES.

8s & 7s.

 May the grace of Christ our Saviour, And the Father's boundless love, With the Spirit's holy favor, Rest upon us from above.

2 Thus may we abide in union With each other and the Lord, And possess, in sweet communion, Joys which earth cannot afford.

L. M.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below; Praise him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

L. M.

To God the Father, God the Son, And God the Spirit, Three in One, Be honor, praise, and glory given, By all on earth and all in heaven.

C. M.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, One God, whom we adore, Be glory, as it was, is now, And shall be evermore.

С. М.

Now let the Father, and the Son, And Spirit be ador'd, [known, Where there are works to make him Or saints to love the Lord. (25) 385

DOXOLOGIES.

S. M.

Give to the Father praise, Give glory to the Son, And to the Spirit of his grace Be equal honor done.

7s.

Praise the name of God most high; Praise him, all below the sky; Praise him, all ye heavenly host, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

8s, 7s & 4.

Great Jehovah! we adore thee— God, the Father—God, the Son,— God, the Spirit—joined in glory, On the same eternal throne: Endless praises, To Jehovah, Three in One.

P. M.

A Benediction.

7s & 6s

Now may grace and mercy rest On our congregation; May thy saints be richly blest, With thy great salvation; May thy word and spirit guide, All thy people in the way, Till, with all the sanctified, They shall reign in endless joy. 386

APPENDIX.

YOUTH.

617 Importance of early religion. L. M. NOW, in the heat of youthful blood, Remember your Creator, God; Behold, the months come hastening on, When you shall say, "My joys are gone."

- 2 Behold, the aged sinner goes, Laden with guilt and heavy woes, Down to the regions of the dead, With endless curses on his head.
- 3 The dust returns to dust again; The soul, in agonies of pain, Ascends to God; not there to dwell, But hears her doom and sinks to hell.
- 4 Eternal King, I fear thy name; Teach me to know how frail I am; And when my soul must hence remove, Give me a mansion in thy love.

618

Early piety.

7s & 6s.

G ⁰ thou in life's fair morning, Go, in thy bloom of youth, And seek, for thine adorning, The precious pearl of truth; Secure the heavenly treasure, And bind it on thy heart; And let no earthly pleasure, E'er cause it to depart. 887

2 Go, while the day-star shineth, Go, while thy heart is light, Go, ere thy strength declineth, While every sense is bright:
Sell all thou hast and buy it; 'T is worth all earthly things,— Rubies, and gold, and diamonds, Sceptres and crowns of kings!

3 Go, ere the cloud of sorrow Steals o'er thy bloom of youth;
Defer not till to-morrow; Go now, and buy the truth.
Go, seek thy great Creator;
Learn early to be wise;
Go, place upon the altar A morning sacrifice.

619

The ways of wisdom.

W HY should we spend our youthful days In folly and in sin, When wisdom shows her pleasant ways, And bids us walk therein?

C. M.

2 Folly and sin our peace destroy; They glitter, and are past; They yield us but a moment's joy, And end in death at last.

3 But, if true wisdom we possess, Our joys shall never cease; Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are peace.

4 O, may we in our youthful days, Attend to wisdom's voice; And make these holy, happy ways, Our own delightful choice! 388

Remember now thy Creator.

C. M.

P. M.

R EMEMBER thy Creator now, In these thy youthful days; He will accept thine earliest vow He loves thine earliest praise.

2 Remember thy Creator now; Seek him while he is near; For evil days will come, when thou Shalt find no comfort here.

 Remember thy Creator now; His willing servant be;
 Then, when thy head in death shall bow, He will remember thee.

 4 Almighty God, our hearts incline Thy heavenly voice to hear; Let all our future days be thine, Devoted to thy fear.

Conscience.

WHEN a foolish thought within Tries to take we Conscience tells us, "It is sin," And entreats us to beware.

2 If in something we transgress, And are tempted to deny, Conscience says, "Your fault confess; Do not dare to tell a lie."

3 In the morning, when we rise, And would fain omit to pray, "Child, consider," Conscience cries: "Should not God be sought to-day?"

4 When our angry passions rise, Tempting to revenge an ill, "Now subdue it," Conscience cries, "And command your temper still."

5 Thus, without our will or choice, This good monitor within, With a secret, gentle voice, Warns us to beware of sin.

6 But if we should disregard, While this friendly voice would call, Conscience soon will grow so hard, That it will not speak at all.

Looking to Jesus.

11s.

YIELD not to temptation, for yielding is sin; Each victory will help us some other to win: Fight manfully onward, dark passions subdue, Look ever to Jesus, he'll carry you through.

CHORUS.

Ask the Saviour to help you, comfort, strengthen and keep He is willing to aid you, He'll carry you through. [you:

- 2 Shun evil companions, bad language disdain : God's name hold in reverence, nor take it in vain : Be thoughtful and earnest, kind hearted and true, Look ever to Jesus, He'll carry you through.-CHO.

633

Because he loved me so.

7s & 6s.

LOVE to hear the story Which angel voices tell; How once the King of Glory Came down on earth to dwell. I am both weak and sinful, But this I surrely know, The Lord came down to save me Because he loved me so. I'm glad my blessed Saviour Was once a child like me:

To show how pure and holy

His little ones should be;

And if I try to follow

His footsteps here below,

³⁹⁶

He never will forsake me, Because he loves me so. 3 To sing his love and mercy. My sweetest songs I'll raise; And though I cannot see Him. I know He hears my praise. For He has kindly promised, That I shall surely go To sing among His angels, Because he loves me so. L. M. 634 What the Bible tells us. THIS is a precious book indeed; Happy the child that loves to read; 'T is God's own word which he hath given To show our souls the way to heaven ! 2 It tells us how the world was made: And how good men the Lord obeyed ; And his commands are in it too, To teach us what we ought to do. 3 It bids us all from sin to fly. Because our souls can never die ; It points to heaven where angels dwell,

And warns us to escape from hell. 4 But what is more than all beside,

- The Bible tells us Jesus died; This is its first, its chief intent, To lead poor sinners to repent.
- 5 Let us be thankful that we may Read this good Bible every day;
 'T is God's own word, which he has giv'n To show our souls the way to heav'n.

635

Sincerity in prayer.

C. M.

WHEN daily I kneel down to pray, As I am taught to do, God does not care for what I say, Unless I feel it too.

397

2 Yet foolish thoughts my heart beguile: And when I pray or sing, I'm often thinking all the while About some other thing. 3 O let me never, never dare To act a trifler's part, Or think that God will hear a pray'r That comes not from the heart. 4 But if I make his ways my choice. As holv children do, Then, while I seek him with my voice, My heart will love him too. 636 8s, 7s & 4. Rewards of early piety. 7 OD has said, "Forever blessed J Those who seek me in their youth; They shall find the path of wisdom, And the narrow way of truth;" Guide us, Saviour, In the narrow way of truth. 2 Be our strength, for we are weakness; Be our wisdom and our guide; May we walk in love and meekness, Nearer to our Saviour's side: Naught can harm us, While we thus in thee abide. 3 Thus, when evening shades shall gather, We may turn our tearless eye To the dwelling of our Father, To our home beyond the sky-Gently passing To the happy land on high. The good child's song.

7s & 6s.

WANT to be an angel And with the angels stand, A crown upon my forehead, A harp within my hand; There, right before my Saviour, So glorious and so bright, I'd wake the sweetest music, And praise him day and night. 2 I never would be weary, Nor ever shed a tear, Nor ever know a sorrow, Nor ever feel a fear: But, blessed, pure and holy, I'd dwell in Jesus' sight. And with ten thousand thousands Praise him both day and night. 3 I know I'm weak and sinful. But Jesus well forgive; For many little children Have gone to heav'n to live.

Dear Saviour, when I languish, And lay me down to die, O, send a shining angel, And bear me to the sky! 4 O, there I'll be an angel And with the angels stand, A crown upon my forehead, A harp within my hand; And there, before my Saviour, So glorious and so bright, I'll join the heavenly music, And praise him day and night. The sinner warned.

HASTE, O sinner, to be wise; Stay not for the morrow's sun; Wisdom warns thee, from the skies, All the paths of death to shun.

2 Haste, and mercy now implore; Stay not for the morrow's sun; Thy probation may be o'er, Ere this evening's work is done.

Haste, O sinner, now return;
 Stay not for the morrow's sun;
 Lest thy lamp should cease to burn,
 Ere salvation's work is done.

4 Haste, while yet thou canst be blest; Stay not for the morrow's sun:
Death may thy poor soul arrest. Ere the morrow is begun.

- 4 Delay not, delay not-the Spirit of grace, Loug grieved and resisted, may take its sad flight, And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race-To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.

T. M. 650 The wanderer recalled. DETURN, O wanderer, return, And seek an injured Father's face; Those warm desires that in thee burn Were kindled by reclaiming grace. 405

| 2 | Return, O wanderer, return, |
|----------|--|
| | And seek a Father's melting heart; His pitying eyes thy grief discern, |
| | His hand shall heal thine inward smart. |
| 3 | Return, O wanderer, return, |
| | Thy Saviour bids thy spirit live; |
| | Go to his bleeding feet, and learn How freely Jesus can forgive. |
| 4 | Return, O wanderer, return, |
| | And wipe away the falling tear; |
| | 'T is God who says, "No longer mourn," 'T is mercy's voice invites thee near. |
| 351 | |
| 001 | |
| | DROOPING souls, no longer grieve, Heaven is propitious:— |
| | If you do in Christ believe, |
| | You will find him precious. |
| | Jesus now is passing by, And he calls you to him: |
| | He has died for you and me,— |
| | He has died for you and me,— O! then come and view him. |
| 2 | From his hands, his feet, his side, |
| | Flows the healing lotion : See the purple swelling tide, |
| | Boundless as the ocean. |
| | See the living waters move, |
| | For the sick and dying; Now resolve to gain his love, |
| | Or to perish trying. |
| 3 | Gospel grace is always free, |
| | Drooping souls to gladden! |
| | Hence he says, "Come unto me, Weary, heavy laden." |
| | Though your sins like mountains rise, |
| | Rise and reach to heaven, |
| | Yet, if you on him believe, All shall be forgiven. |
| | An shall be lorgiven. |

4 Now, methinks, I hear one say, I will go and prove him; If he takes my sins away, Surely I will love him. Come, my Saviour, come and smile, Smiling moves my burden: I am guilty, poor and vile, Yet thou canst me pardon. 5 Streams of mercy, how they flow ! Surely now I feel it: Half has never yet been told-O. could I reveal it! Jesus' blood has heal'd my wound, O, the wondrous story! I was lost, but now I'm found, Glory, glory, glory! 6 If no greater jovs were known In the starry region, I would try to travel on, In this pure religion. Heaven's here, and heaven's there, Glory here and yonder! Brightest angels join with me. To adore and wonder. 652 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. L. M. Rev. 3: 20. (1AY, sinner, hath a voice within Oft whisper'd to thy secret soul-Urged thee to leave the ways of sin And yield thy heart to God's control? 2 Sinner, it was a heavenly voice ; It was the Spirit's gracious call; It bade thee make the better choice, And haste to seek, in Christ, thine all. 3 Spurn not the call to life and light; Regard in time this warning kind; That call thou mayest not always slight, And yet the gate of mercy find.

4 God's Spirit will not always strive With harden'd, self-destroying man; Ye, who persist his love to grieve, May never hear his voice again. 5 Sinner, perhaps this very day Thy last accepted time may be; O, should'st thou grieve him now away, Then hope may never beam on thee. How shall we escape ? 7s. 653 Heb. 2: 3. HEN thy mortal life is fled, [spread, When the death-shades o'er thee When is finished thy career, Sinner, where wilt thou appear? 2 When the world has passed away, When draws near the judgment-day, When the awful trump shall sound, Say, O, where wilt thou be found? 3 When the Judge descends in light. Clothed in majesty and might, When the wicked quail with fear, Where, O, where wilt thou appear? 4 What shall soothe thy bursting heart, When the saints and thou must part? When the good with joy are crowned, Sinner, where wilt thou be found? 5 While the Holy Ghost is nigh, Quickly to the Saviour fly: Then shall peace thy spirit cheer ; Then with Christ shalt thou appear. 654 L. M. Be reconciled to God. WHY wilt thou so long delay, And spurn the mercy of the Lord? Sinner, while it is called to-day, Obey the reconciling word. 408

2 Alas! thy day of grief draws nigh, When, haply, on a dying bed, Thou mayest for peace and pardon cry, When the last ray of hope is fled.

3 When through the clouds of wrath and gloom Shall shine the awful judgment throne, O, wilt thou burst the silent tomb To be eternally undone?

4 O, weary wanderer far from bliss, Wretched, and burdened, and forlorn; Return, and Christ shall give you peace,— His light shall be your endless morn.

655 To-day, if ye hear his voice. harden not L. M. your hearts.—Heb. 3: 7, 8. O DO not let the word depart, And close thine eyes against the light. Poor sinner, harden not thy heart; Thou would'st be saved—why not to-night?

2 To-morrow's sun may never rise To bless thy long-deluded sight:— This is the time; oh, then, be wise! Thou would'st besaved—why not to-night?

3 Our God in pity lingers still, And wilt thou thus his love requite? Renounce at once thy stubborn will; Thou would'st besaved—why not to-night?

4 The world has nothing left to give;
It has no new, no pure delight.
Oh, try the life which Christians live!
Thou would'st besaved—why notto-night?

5 Our blessed Lord refuses none Who would to him their souls unite. Believe on him, the work is done; Thou would'st be saved—why not to-night? 409

656

Come now.

C. M.

O SAY not, "I will yet delay To seek God's offer'd grace;" When Jesus, with a voice of love, Says now, "Seek thou my face."

2 Say not, "To-morrow I will turn:" To thee it may not come;

For e'en this night thy soul may hear Its everlasting doom.

3 Sav not, "When sickness lays me low, I will begin to pray;" For swift disease, or sudden death.

May call thy soul away.

4 But say, with earnestness and faith, "Jesus, I come to thee; Now, from this moment, by thy grace, Help me from sin to flee.

- 5 "Now, for thy tender mercy's sake, Forgive my past delay,
 - And in thine own redeeming blood Wash all my sins away.
- 6 "Now, by thy Holy Spirit's power, Renew this heart of mine;

And may the life which thou hast spared Be henceforth wholly thine."

657

P. M. 6s & 4s.

() HILD of sin and sorrow, fill'd with dismay, Wait not for to-morrow; yield thee to-day. Heaven bids thee come, while yet there's room; Child of sin and sorrow, hear and obey.

2 Child of sin and sorrow, why wilt thou die? Come, while thou canst borrow help from on high: Grieve not that love, which from above— Child of sin and sorrow—would bring thee nigh.

3 Child of sin and sorrow, where wilt thou flee Through that long to-morrow, eternity? Exiled from home, darkly to roam,— Child of sin and sorrow, where wilt thou flee?

- 4 Child of sin and sorrow, lift up thine eye! Heirship thou canst borrow in worlds on high! In that high home, graven thy name: Child of sin and sorrow, swift homeward fly!
- 658 Surely, he hath borne all our griefs. Isa. 53: 4. 7s. W EEPING soul, no longer mourn, Jesus all thy griefs hath borne; View him bleeding on the tree, Pouring out his life for thee; There thy every sin He bore,
 - Weeping soul, lament no more.
 - 2 All thy crimes on him were laid, See, upon his blameless head Wrath its utmost vengeance pours, Due to my offence and yours; Weary sinner, keep thine eyes On th' atoning sacrifice.
 - 3 Cast thy guilty sonl on him, Find him mighty to redeem; At his feet thy burden lay, Cast thy doubts and fears away; Now by faith the Son embrace, Plead his promise, trust his grace.

659

An appeal to the careless. Isa. 32: 19.

L. M.

WHY will ye lavish out your years, Amidst a thousand trifling cares, While, in the various range of thought, The one thing needful is fcrgot?

2 Why will ye chase the fleeting wind, And famish an immortal mind; While angels with regret look down, To see you spurn a heav'nly crown?

3 Th' eternal God calls from above, And Jesus pleads his dying love, Awaken'd conscience gives you pain, And shall they join their pleas in vain? 411

4 Not so your dying eyes shall view Those objects which ye now pursue; Not so shall heav'n and hell appear, When the decisive hour is near.

5 Almighty God! thine aid impart, To fix conviction on the heart; Thy pow'r can clear the darkest eyes, And make the haughtiest scorner wise.

660

Go to Jesus.

8s & 7s.

G to Jesus with thy sorrows, He thy burdened soul will ease; He will give thy troubled conscience A sweet sense of pardoning peace.

2 Go to Jesus with thy trials, Tell him all thy cares and woes; He has promised, if we ask him, He will give us sweet repose.

3 Go to Jesus when the tempter Seeks to lure thee from the right; When the wicked one assails thee, Ever keep the cross in sight.

- 4 Go to Jesus when thy burdens Are too hard for thee to bear; Tell him all thy cares and sorrows, He will lend a listening ear.
- 5 Go to Jesus when death's shadows Quickly gather round thy way; Ask of him to guide thy footsteps To the realms of endless day.

6 Then, in that celestial city, Thou shalt find a lasting rest From earth's turmoil, cares, and sorrows, With the saints forever blest. -412

My yoke is easy. Matt. 11: 30. L. M. OME, take my yoke, the Saviour said, To follow me be not afraid; For I in heart am lowly, meek, And offer you the rest you seek.

- 2 The yoke of pleasure may allure, And promise bliss that will endure; But when it has thy youth despoil'd, 'T will cast thee off as garment soil'd.
- 3 Take not on thee the yoke of wealth; 'T will eat thy soul, destroy thy health; And make thee feel how cheap the cost, If worlds could buy the peace it lost.
- 4 Ambition, too, its yoke displays, And hangs out its perennial bays: Be not, poor soul, by it misled; I offer thee a crown instead.
- 5 Then take my yoke—'t is soft and light, 'T will ne'er disturb thy rest at night; But guide thee to that world above, Where no restraint is known but love.

662 The gospet invitation. 8s & 7s.
MARK! the jubilee is sounding, O, the joyful news has come!
Free salvation is proclaiming, In and through God's own dear Son.
Now we have an invitation, To the meek and lowly Lamb;
Glory, honor, and salvation, Christ, the Lord, has come to reign.
2 Come, dear friends, and do n't neglect it, Come to Jesus in your prime;
Great salvation, on't reject it, O receive it, now's your time;

413

Now the Saviour is beginning To revive his work again; Glory, honor, and salvation, Christ the Lord has come to reign.

3 Come, dear children, praise your Jesus, Praise him, praise him evermore: May his boundless love constrain us, His great mercy to adore;
0 then let us join together, Crowns of glory to obtain;
Glory, honor, and salvation, Christ the Lord has come to reign.

REPENTANCE.

663

Exhortation to repentance.

C. M.

R EPENT, the voice celestial cries, Nor longer dare delay; The wretch that scorns the mandate dies, And meets a fiery day.

2 No more the sov'reign eye of God O'erlooks the crimes of men;
His heralds are despatch'd abroad, To warn the world of sin.

3 Together in his presence bow, And all your guilt confess; Accept the offer'd Saviour now, Nor trifle with his grace.

 4 Soon will the awful trumpet sound, And call you to his bar:
 For mercy knows th' appointed bound. And turns to vengeance there.

5 Amazing love, that yet will call, And yet prolong our days! Our hearts, subdued by goodness, fall, And weep, and love, and praise.

⁴¹⁴

S. M. 664 Prepare to meet thy God. DREPARE me, gracious God, To stand before thy face; Thy Spirit must the work perform, For it is all of grace. 2 In Christ's obedience clothe, And wash me in his blood: So shall I lift my head with joy, Among the sons of God. 3 Do thou my sins subdue, Thy sov'reign love make known, The Spirit of my mind renew, And save me in thy Son. 4 Let me attest thy pow'r, Let me thy goodness prove, Till my full soul can hold no more Of everlasting love. P. M. 8. 665 Wrestling with Christ. YOME, O thou Traveler unknown, Whom still I hold, but cannot see; My company before is gone, And I am left alone with thee: With thee all night I mean to stay, And wrestle till the break of day. 2 I need not tell thee who I am; My sin and misery declare; Thyself hast call'd me by my name; Look on thy hands and read it there; But who, I ask thee, who art thou? Tell me thy name, and tell me now. 3 In vain thou strugglest to get free; I never will unloose my hold;

Art thou the Man that died for me? The secret of thy love unfold; Wrestling, I will not let thee go, Till I thy name, thy nature know. 415 4 Wilt thou not yet to me reveal Thy new, unutterable name? Tell me, I still beseech thee, tell: To know it now, resolv'd I am: Wrestling, I will not let thee go, Till I thy name, thy nature know.

5 What tho' my shrinking flesh complain? And murmur-to contend so long;

I rise superior to my pain; When I am weak, then I am strong! And when my all of strength shall fail, I shall with the God-Man prevail.

666

An aged sinner awakened.

C. M.

WHAT a wretched sinner, Lord! I now begin to see, The danger of the ways I've trod, But know not where to flee.

2 Long have I turn'd my back on thee. And slighted all thy grace; Yet pity, Lord, O pity me, And let me see thy face.

3 O, should I now yield up my breath, I must go down to dwell In chains of everlasting death, With sinners cast to hell.

4 Lord, change my heart, or I am gone; O give me life divine! Though I am old, may I be born A heav'nly child of thine.

Longing for an interest in Christ.

78.

667 RACIOUS Lord, incline thine ear, T My requests vouchsafe to hear; Sore distress'd with guilt am I; Give me Christ, or else I die.

416

- 2 Wealth and honor I disdain, Earthly comforts all are vain: These can never satisfy; Give me Christ, or else I die.
- 3 Lord, deny me what thou wilt, Only take away my guilt; Mourning, at thy feet I lie; Give me Christ, or else I die.
- 4 All unholy and unclean, I am nothing else but sin; On thy mercy I rely; Give me Christ, or else I die.
- 5 Thou dost freely save the lost: In thy grace alone I trust: With my earnest suit comply; Give me Christ, or else I die.
- 6 O, my God, what shall I say? Take, O take my sins away: Jesus' blood to me apply; Give me Christ, or else I die.

668

A broken heart, God's sacrifice. Psalm 51: 17. L. M

A BROKEN heart, my God, my King, Is all the sacrifice I bring; The God of grace will ne'er despise A broken heart for sacrifice.

2 My soul is humbled in the dust, And owns thy dreadful sentence just; Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye, And save the soul condemn'd to die.

3 Then will I teach the world thy ways; Sinners shall learn thy sov'reign grace; I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood, And they shall praise a pard'ning God. (27) 417

4 O, may thy love inspire my tongue; Salvation shall be all my song; And all my pow'rs shall join to bless The Lord, my strength and right'ousness

669

S. M

G OD's holy law transgress'd, Speaks nothing but despair; Convinced of guilt, with grief oppress'd, We find no comfort there.

2 Not all our groans and tears, Nor works which we have done, Nor vows, nor promises, nor prayers, Can e'er for sin atone.

3 Relief alone is found In Jesus' precious blood:
'T is this that heals the mortal wound, And reconciles to God.

4 This is salvation's source; And all our hopes arise From Him who, hanging on the cross, A spotless victim dies.

670

The convicted sinner.

L. M.

WITH aching heart and weeping eyes, My guilty soul for mercy cries: What shall I do, or whither flee, T'escape that vengeance due to me?

2 Till now I saw no danger nigh, I lived at ease, nor fear'd to die; Wrapt up in self-deceit and pride, "I shall have peace at last," I cried.

3 But when, great God! thy light divine Had shone on this dark soul of mine, Then I beheld, with trembling awe, The terrors of thy holy law.

- 4 How dreadful now my guilt appears, In childhood, youth and growing years; Before thy pure discerning eye, Lord, what a filthy wretch am I!
- 5 Should vengeance still my soul pursue, Death and destruction are my due: Yet mercy can my guilt forgive, And bid a dying sinner live.
- 6 Does not thy sacred word proclaim Salvation free in Jesus' name? To him I look and anxious crv. "O, save a wretch condemn'd to die!"

671

Encouragement to prayer. 7s. Matt. v: 7.

COME, my soul, thy suit prepare; Jesus loves to answer prayer; He himself has bid thee pray, Therefore will not say thee nay.

- 2 With my burden I begin, Lord, remove this load of sin; Let thy blood, for sinners spilt, Set my conscience free from guilt.
- 3 Lord, I come to thee for rest, Take possession of my breast; There thy blood-bought right maintain, And without a rival reign.
- 4 While I am a pilgrim here, Let thy love my spirit cheer; As my guide, my guard, my friend, Lead me to my journey's end.
- 5 Show me what I have to do. Every hour my strength renew: Let me live a life of faith, Let me die thy people's death. 419

672 Mary hath chosen the good part. Luke 10: 42. L. M. THE one thing needful, that good part Which Mary chose with all her heart, I would pursue with heart and mind, And seek unwearied till I find.

- 2 But oh! I'm blind and ignorant, The Spirit of the Lord I want, To guide me in the narrow road, That leads to happiness and God.
- 3 O Lord my God, to thee I pray, Teach me to know and find the way, How I may have my sins forgiv'n, And safe and surely get to heav'n.
- 4 My mind enlighten with thy light, That I may understand aright The glorious gospel mystery, Which shows the way to heav'n and thee.
- 5 Hidden in Christ the treasure lies, That goodly pearl of so great price: No other way but Christ there is To endless happiness and bliss.
- 6 O Jesus Christ, my Lord and God! Who hast redeem'd me by thy blood; Unite my heart so fast to thee, That we may never parted be.
- 673 O that I knew where I might find Him. C. M. Job 23: 3, 4.
 O THAT I knew the secret place, Where I might find my God! I'd spread my wants before his face, And pour my woes abroad.
 2 I'd tell him how my sins arise, What sorrows I sustain:

How grace decays, and comfort dies, And leaves my heart in pain.

⁴²⁰

 3 I'd say, how flesh and sense rebel, What inward foes combine
 With this vain world and pow'rs of hell, To vex this heart of mine.

4 He knows what arguments I'd take, To wrestle with my God;
I'd plead for his own mercy's sake, And for my Saviour's blood.

5 My God will pity my complaints, And heal my broken bones: He takes the meaning of his saints, The language of their groans.

6 Arise, my soul, from deep distress, And banish every fear;
He calls thee to his throne of grace, To spread thy sorrows there!

674

The prodigal. Luke 15.

C. M.

BEHOLD the wretch, whose lust and Have wasted his estate; [wine He begs a share among the swine To taste the husks they eat.

2 "I die with hunger, here," he cries, "I starve in foreign lands; My Father's house hath large supplies, And bounteous are his hands.

3 "I'll go and with a mournful tongue, Fall down before his face; Father, I've done thy justice wrong, Nor can deserve thy grace."

4 He said, and hasten'd to his home, To seek his Father's love; The Father saw the rebel come, And all his bowels move. 5 He ran and fell upon his neck, Embraced and kissed his son; The rebel's heart with sorrow brake For follies he had done.

6 "A day of feasting I ordain, Let mirth and joy abound. My son was dead, and lives again, Was lost, and now is found."

675

Look again.

SEE a poor sinner, dearest Lord, Whose soul, encourag'd by thy word, At mercy's footstool would remain, And there would look, and look again.

L. N.

Jonah 2: 4.

- 2 How oft, deceiv'd by self and pride, Has my poor heart been turn'd aside! And Jonah-like has fled from thee, Till thou hast look'd again on me.
- 3 Ah! bring a wretched wand'rer home! And to thy footstool let me come; And tell thee all my grief and pain, And wait, and look, and look again.
- 4 Take courage then, my trembling soul, One look from Christ will make thee whole; Trust thou in him, 't is not in vain; But wait, and look, and look again.
- 5 Do Satan's darts thy soul molest? Does dark desertion fill thy breast? Art thou almost with sorrow slain? Yet wait, and look, and look again.
- 6 Do fears and doubts thy soul annoy, And thund'ring tempests drown thy joy ? And canst thou not one smile obtain ? Yet wait, and look, and look again.
- 7 Look to the Lord, his word, his throne; Look to his grace, and not your own;

There wait, and look, and look again, You shall not wait and look in vain.

8 Ere long that happy day will come, When I shall reach my blissful home; And when to glory I attain, O then I'll look, and look again.

JUSTIFICATION.

676 Justification and sanctification. L. M. BLESSED is the man, forever bless'd, Whose guilt is pardou'd by his God, Whose sins with sorrow are confess'd And cover'd with his Saviour's blood.

- 2 Blest is the man to whom the Lord Imputes not his iniquities;
 He pleads no merit of reward, And not on works, but grace relies.
- 3 From guile his heart and lips are free; His humble joy, his holy fear With deep repentance will agree, And join to prove his faith sincere.

4 How glorious is that righteousness That hides and cancels all his sins! While a bright evidence of grace Thro' his whole life appears and shines.

677 Joy of a remarkable conversion. C. M. WHEN God reveal'd his gracious name, And changed my mournful state, My rapture seem'd a pleasing dream, The grace appear'd so great.

2 The world beheld the glorious change, And did thy hand confess; My tongue broke out in unknown strains, And sung surprising grace.

O, what mercy flows from heaven! O, what joy and happiness! Love I much ?—I'm much forgiven, I'm a miracle of grace.

2 Once with Adam's race in ruin, Unconcerned in sin I lay;
Swift destruction still pursuing, Till my Saviour passed that way.
Witness, all ye hosts of heaven, My Redeemer's tenderness;
Love I much ?—I'm much forgiven, I'm a miracle of grace.

3 Shout, ye bright angelic choir, Praise the Lamb enthroned above;
Whilst astonished I admire God's free grace and boundless love.
That blest moment I received him, Fill'd my soul with joy and peace;
Love I much ?— I'm much forgiven, I'm a miracle of grace.

- 680 Born not of blood but of God. L. M. A SSIST my soul, my heavenly King, Thine everlasting love to sing: And joyful spread thy praise abroad, As one, through grace, that's born of God.
 - 2 No, it was not the will of man, My soul's new heav'nly birth began; Nor will, nor pow'r of flesh and blood, That turn'd my heart from sin to God.
 - 3 Herein let self be all abas'd. And heavenly love alone confess'd; This be my song through all the road, That born I am, and born of God.
 - 4 O, may this love my soul constrain, To make returns of love again,

That I, while earth is my abode, May live like one that's born of God. 5 And when th' appointed hour shall come, And thou wilt call me to my home; Joyful I'll pass the chilling flood, And sing, and say, I'm born of God. 681 Need of regeneration. C. P. M. 8s & 6s. WAKED by Sinai's awful sound, My soul in guilt and thrall I found, Exposed to endless woe; Eternal truth did loud proclaim, The sinner must be born again, Or else to ruin go. 2 Amazed I stood, but could not tell Which way to shun the gates of hell; For death and hell drew near. I strove, indeed, but strove in vain-The sinner must be born again, Still sounded in my ear. 3 The saints I heard with rapture tell How Jesus conquer'd death and hell. And broke the fowler's snare ; Yet when I found this truth remain,-The sinner must be born again,-I sunk in deep despair. 4 But while I thus in anguish lay, Jesus of Naz'reth pass'd that way,-I felt his pity move: The sinner, by his justice slain, Now by his grace is born again, And sings redeeming love. 682 L. M. Conversion affords joy. HENE'ER a sinner turns to God, With contrite heart and flowing eyes, The happy news makes angels smile, And tell their joys above the skies.

2 Well may the church below rejoice, And echo back the heav'nly sound: This soul was dead, but now's alive: This sheep was lost, but now is found. 3 Glory to God on high be giv'n, For this unbounded love to men; Let saints below and saints above In concert shout the loud amen! 683 7s, 8s & 6s. Pearl of great price. THE pearl that worldlings covet, Is not the pearl for me; Its beauty fades as quickly As sunshine on the sea: But there's a pearl, sought by the wise, It's called the pearl of greatest price, Though few its value see-O, that's the pearl for me! 2 The crown that decks the monarch. Is not the crown for me: It dazzles but a moment, Its brightness soon will flee: But there's a crown prepared above, For all who walk in humble love; Forever bright 't will be-O, that's the crown for me! 3 The road that many travel, Is not the road for me: It leads to death and sorrow. And endless misery: But there 's a road that leads to God. It 's mark'd by Christ's most precious blood; The passage here is free— O, that's the road for me! 4 The hope that sinners cherish, Is not the hope for me: Most surely will they perish, Unless from sin set free; 427

But there's a hope fixed in the Lord. It leads the soul to keep his word, And sinful pleasures flee-O, that 's the hope for me.

The convert setting out for glory.

7s&6s.

C. M.

HEN I set out for glory, I left the world behind : Determin'd for a city That's out of sight to find.

2 I left my worldly honors; I left my worldly fame;

- I left my young companions, And with them my good name.
- 3 Some said I'd better tarry, They thought I was too young, For to prepare for dying, But that was all my song.
- 4 Come, all my loving brethren, And listen to my cry; All you that are backsliders, Must either beg or die.

5 The Lord he loves the beggar, Who truly begs indeed; He always will relieve him, Whene'er he stands in need.

685

Subdued by the Cross.

'N evil long I took delight, Unawed by shame or fear, Till a new object struck my sight, And stopp'd my wild career.

2 I saw One hanging on a tree, In agonies and blood; He fix'd his languid eyes on me, As near his cross I stood.

⁴²⁸

JUSTIFICATION.

- 3 O! never till my latest breath, Shall I forget that look! It seem'd to charge me with his death, Though not a word he spoke.
- 4 My conscience felt and own'd the guilt, It plunged me in despair;
 I saw my sins his blood had spilt, And help'd to nail him there.
- 5 A second look he gave, which said "I freely all forgive; This blood is for thy ransom paid: I die that thou may'st live."
- 6 With pleasing grief and mournful joy, My spirit now is fill'd; That I should such a life destroy, Yet live by him I kill'd.

686 In life and death I belong to Christ. L. M.

ET thoughtless thousands choose the road That leads the soul away from God: This happiness, dear Lord, be mine, To live and die entirely thine.

- 2 On Christ, by faith, my soul would live, From him my life, my all receive: To him devote my fleeting hours; Serve him alone with all my pow'rs.
- 3 Christ is my everlasting all, To him I look, on him I call; He every want will well supply, In time, and through eternity.
- 4 Soon will the Lord, my life, appear; Soon shall I end my trials here; Leave sin and sorrow, death and pain: To live is Christ—to die is gain.

JUSTIFICATION.

The young convert. P. M. 7s & 6s. WHEN souls are first converted, They mount on wings above; The world thinks they 're distracted, Because they 're filled with love. They fly from ev'ry evil, They fly from ev'ry evil, They trust in God alone; They long to get to heaven, Their most desired home.

2 The world, the flesh, and Satan, Beset them on each hand; Bestrew their path with evil, To bar them from that land. But Jesus still invites them, Saying: "Follow, follow me; And I will fight your battles, And gain your liberty."

3 "O why are you dismayed?" 'T is thus the Saviour cries; While some are getting ready, And just a going to rise; To rise above triumphant In the bright world of joy, Where all things are rejoicing, There's nothing to annoy.

Experimental.

(IOME, brethren and sisters, assist me to sing The wonders of Jesus, my heavenly King; Great things for my soul, yea, he surely has done, '. All glory to God for the gift of his Son.

2 I wandered in darkness, a stranger to God, Neglected his calls and despised his word; In romance and novels I thought I should gain Some knowledge of pleasure, and honor obtain.

3 Atlength the gospel trumpet did sound in my ears, And thund'ring from heaven awaken'd my fears, The tears of repentance then freely did run, For slighting the Saviour, I cry'd "I'm undone."

JUSTIFICATION.

- 4 My sins were arrang'd and before me appear'd, The justice of God I then awfully fear'd, I fell on my knees and for mercy did cry, Dear Lord, have compassion—appear or I die.
- 5 One evening while musing, these words came with "O do not be troubled, nor doubt any more; [Dow'r, "Believe in your God, believe also in me; "In my father's house there's a mansion for thee."
- 6 'T is the voice of my Saviour, my soul then did cry On Calv'ry he suffer'd, and for me did die; His five bleeding wounds are now pleading for me, He 's given me pardon, who hung on the tree!
- 659 Regeneration by the Spirit. C. M. NOT all the outward forms on earth, Nor rites that God has given, Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth, Can raise a soul to heaven.
 - 2 The sovereign will of God alone Creates us heirs of grace,
 Born in the image of his Son,
 A new, peculiar race.
 - 3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind, Breathes on the sons of flesh, Creates anew the carnal mind, And forms the man afresh.

4 Our quickened souls awake and rise From their long sleep of death; On heavenly things we fix our eyes, And praise employs our breath.

690 The new birth. C. M. W HILE Jesus dwelt on earth below, Among the sons of men, He spared no pains to let them know, They must be born again.
2 We all have broke Jehovah's laws, And guilty must remain ; Condemn'd to all the pains of hell, Till we are born again.

- 3 Alas! whate'er good works we do, His favor to obtain, They can't our sinful hearts renew, We must be born again.
- 4 Were we baptized a thousand times, It would be all in vain; This cannot wash away our crimes; We must be born again.
- 5 The word of God is firm and sure, And always will remain; Eternal wrath we must endure, Unless we're born again.
- 6 There 's but one way for our escape From everlasting pain; And that is through the narrow gate Of being born again.
- 691 They desire a better country. Heb. 11: 16. 10s & 11s.

O TELL me no more of this world's vain store: The time for such trifles with me now is o'er; A country I've found, where true joys abound; To dwell I'm determined on that happy ground.

- 2 The souls that believe, in Paradise live; And me in that number will Jesus receive. My soul, don't delay—he calls thee away: Rise, follow thy Saviour, and bless the glad day.
- 3 No mortal doth know what he can bestow— What light, aid and comfort—go after him, go: Lo, onward I move, to a city above: [prove, None guesses how wondrous my journey will
- 4 Great spoils I shall win from death, hell and sin; 'Midst outward afflictions, I feel Christ within: And when I 'm to die, receive me, I 'll cry; For Jesus has loved me—I cannot tell why.
- 5 But this I do find—we two are so join'd, He'll not live in glory, and leave me behind. So this is the race I'm running, through grace, Henceforth, till admitted to see my Lord's face.

·Privileges of adoption.

BLESSED are the sons of God, They are bought with Jesus' blood: They are ransom'd from the grave— Life eternal they shall have; With them number'd may we be, Here, and in eternity.

- 2 They are justified by grace; They enjoy the Saviour's peace; All their sins are wash'd away; They shall stand in God's great day; With them number'd may we be, Here, and in eternity.
- 3 They produce the fruits of grace In the works of righteousness; They are harmless, meek and mild, Holy, blameless, undefil'd; With them number'd may we be, Here, and in eternity.
- 4 They are lights upon the earth, Children of a heav'nly birth; One with God, with Jesus one; Glory is with them begun; With them number'd may we be, Here, and in eternity.

693 Redeeming love. Isa. 63: 9. NOW begin the heavenly theme; Sing aloud in Jesus' name; Ye who his salvation prove, Triumph in redeeming love. 2 Ye who see the Father's grace Beaming in the Saviour's face As to Canaan on ye move, Praise and bless redeeming love. (28) 433

78.

- 3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears, Banish all your guilty fears; See your guilt and curse remove, Canceled by redeeming love.
- 4 Welcome, all by sin oppress'd, Welcome to his sacred rest, Nothing brought him from above, Nothing but redeeming love.

CHRISTIAN LIFE AND EXPERIENCE.

The roads to hell and heaven.

WIDE is the gate, and broad the way, Which leads to endless woe! My soul, behold what multitudes Down to perdition go!

- 2 But yonder see that narrow path, Which leads to endless bliss— There see a happy, chosen few Redeem'd by sov'reign grace.
- 3 They from destruction's city came-To Zion upward tend:

The Bible is their precious map, And God himself their friend.

4 Dear Lord, I would a pilgrim be; Guide thou my feet aright;

I would not, for ten thousand worlds, Be banish'd from thy sight.

5 'T is heav'n to see thy blissful face— I long to dwell above,

To feast on thy unbounding stores, And praise redeeming love.

BY the thoughtless world derided, Still I love the word of God; 'T is the crook by which I'm guided, Often 't is a chast'ning rod.

'T is a sword that cuts asunder All my pride and vanity, When abased, I lie and wonder That he spares a wretch like me.

2 This confirms me when I waver, Sets my trembling judgment right;
When I stray, how much soever, This is my restoring light.
Satan oft, and sin, assail me, With temptations ever new;
Then there's nothing can avail me, Till my bleeding Lord I view.

3 Faith I need; O Lord, bestow it, Give my lab'ring mind relief;
Oft, alas! I doubt, I know it, Help, O help my unbelief.
Dearest Saviour, by thy merit, May I gain the heavenly crown;
Guide, O guide me by thy Spirit, Till these storms are over blown.

696 8s & 7s. The wandering pilgrims. ANDERING pilgrims, mourning Christians, Weak and tempted lambs of Christ, Who endure great tribulation, And with sins are much distress'd: Christ has sent me to invite you To a rich and costly feast: Let not shame nor pride prevent you, Come, the sweet provision taste. 2 If you have a heart lamenting. And bemoan your wretched case, Come to Jesus Christ repenting, He will give you gospel grace. If you want a heart to fear him, Love and serve him all your days, 435

Only come to Christ and ask him. He will guide your feet always.

3 If your heart is unbelieving, Doubting Jesus' pard'ning love, Lie hard by Bethesda waiting, Till the troubled waters move. If no man appears to help you, All their efforts prove but talk: Jesus, Jesus, he will cleanse you, Rise, take up your bed and walk.

C. M. 697 Power and benefits of religion. DELIGION is the balm of life,-Its healing virtues feel; It calms the soul, and quells all strife; It melts the heart of steel.

2 Religion can the leper cure, It gives the blind his sight; The lame it makes to walk secure, And darkness turns to light.

3 Religion makes the dumb to speak, The deaf may hear its voice; The man his withered hand may reach. The broken heart rejoice.

4 Religion breaks the bonds of death, It bids the sleeper rise; It gives the palsied sinner health, And all his wants supplies.

5 Religion will the passions chide, The stubborn will control: It calms our fears, expels our pride, And sanctifies the soul.

6 Religion will through life sustain; And after death has given Its ling'ring gasp and latest pang, Will take us home to heaven. 436

HOW precious is the name! Brethren sing, brethren sing, How precious is the name Brethren sing. How precious is the name! Of Christ, the paschal Lamb, Who bore our guilt and shame, On the tree. 2 I've given all for Christ, He's my all, he's my all; : ||: I've given all for Christ, And my spirit cannot rest, Unless he's in my breast, Reigning there, reigning there. : ||: 3 His easy yoke I'll bear With delight, with delight; : ||: His easy voke I'll bear And his cross I will not fear; His name I will declare, Ever more, ever more. : ||: 4 And when we all get home We will sing, we will sing; : |: And when we all get home, Around our Father's throne, And myriads join the theme, We'll sing on, we'll sing on. : ||: Joy in God. Ps. 73: 25. C. M 699 Y God, my portion, and my love, My everlasting all, I've none but thee in heaven above, Or on this earthly ball. 2 What empty things are all the skies, And this inferior clod! There's nothing here deserves my joys, There's nothing like my God.

437

3 How vain a toy is glittering wealth, If once compared to thee! Or what's my safety, or my health Or all my friends to me?

4 Let others stretch their arms like seas, And grasp in all the shore; Grant me the visits of thy face, And I desire no more.

700

These things I command you that ye love one another.—John 15: 17.

L. M.

A M I indeed born from above? Do I partake of Jesus' love? Then let me all my duty know, And love by my obedience show.

- 2 Fain would I love His person more, And God in all His works adore; O may his love my heart inflame, With love to all that love His name.
- 3 Wherever I his image see, O let those souls be dear to me! Dear as the purchase of his blood, Dear as the favorites of God.
- 4 Jesus to us his love doth shew, And bids us love each other, too; But O how little love sincere, Is found in great professors here!
- 5 What anger, pride and malice swelt Those breasts where love alone should O why should Satan thus devour [dwell! Religious glory and its power?

701

Teach us to pray.

L. M.

TEACH us, O Lord, to sing and pray, Whilst in these tenements of clay; And never be asham'd of thee, Who bled and died on Calvary.

2 And when to glory we attain, We'll shout aloud the Saviour's name, Who bought our souls with precious blood, And made us kings and priests to God.

702

'MID scenes of confusion, and creature complaints,

How sweet to my soul is communion with saints; To find at the banquet of mercy there's room, And feel in the presence of Jesus at home.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home; Prepare me, dear Saviour, for glory, my home.

2 Sweet bonds that unite all the children of peace! And thrice precious Jesus, whose love can not ceuse!

Though oft from thy presence in sadness I roam, I long to behold thee in glory, at home, Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

3 I sigh from this body of sin to be free, Which hinders my joy and communion with thee; Though now my temptation like billows may foam, All, all will be peace, when I'm with thee at home. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

4 While here in the valley of conflict I stav, O give me submission, and strength as my day; In all my afflictions to thee would I come, Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

5 Whate'er thou deniest, O give me thy grace, The Spirit's sure witness, and smiles of thy face, Endue me with patience to wait at thy throne, And find, even now, a sweet foretaste of home. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

6 I long, dearest Lord, in thy beauties to shine; No more as an exile in sorrow to pine; And in thy dear image arise from the tomb, With glorified millions to praise thee at home. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

703 The heavenly treasure. P. M. 9s & 8s. Matt. 13: 44.

RELIGION ! 't is a glorious treasure, The purchase of a Saviour's blood, It fills the soul with consolation, It lifts the thoughts to things above, 439

It ealms our fears, it soothes our sorrows It smoothes our way o'er life's rough sea, 'T is mixed with goodness, meek humble pa-This heav'nly portion mine shall be. [tienee,

- 2 How fleeting—vain—how transitory, This world with all its pomp and show; Its vain delights, and short-lived pleasure— I'll gladly leave them all below. But love and grace shall be my story, While I in Christ such beauties see; While endless ages are onward rolling, This heav'nly portion mine shall be.
- 3 This earthly honse must be dissolved, And mortal life will soon be o'er; All earthly eare, and earthly sorrow Shall pain my eyes and heart no more; Religion pure will stand for ever, And my glad heart shall strengthen'd be, While endless ages are onward rolling, This heav'nly portion mine shall be,
- 4 While journeying here through tribulation, In Christian love we'll march along; And while strife severs the ambitious— In Jesus Christ we'll all be one; Religion pure unites together In bonds of love, and makes us free: While endless ages are on ward rolling, This heav'nly portion mine shall be.

704

Rejoicing in hope. Rom, 12: 12.

10s.

OFFULLY, joyfully onward I move, Bound to the land of bright spirits above; Angelic choristers sing as I come-Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home! Soon with my pilgrimage ended below, Home to the land of bright spirits 1 go; Pilgrim and stranger, no more shall I roam: Joyfully, joyfully resting at home.

2 Friends fondly cherished, but passed on before; Waiting, they watch me approaching the shore; Singing, to cheer me through death's chilling Joyfully, joyfully, haste to thy home. [gloom: Sounds of sweet melody fall on my ear; Harps of the blessed, your voices I hear! Rings with the harmony heaven's high dome--Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home.

Strengthen thy brethren. Luke 22: 32. 8s & 7s. 705 TELL me not, in mournful numbers, Life is but an empty dream; For the soul is dead that slumbers. And things are not what they seem. 2 Life is real! life is earnest! And the grave is not its goal : Dust thou art, to dust returnest, Was not spoken of the soul ! 3 Not enjoyment, and not sorrow, Is our destined end and way; But to act, that each to-morrow Finds us further than to-day. 4 Lives of true men all remind us We can make our lives sublime. And, departing, leave behind us Footprints on the sands of time; 5 Footprints which perhaps another, Sailing o'er life's solemn main, A forlorn and shipwrecked brother Seeing, shall take heart again. 6 Let us, then, be up and doing, With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing, Learn to labor and to wait. 706 The Christian's peace permanent. John 14: 27. C. M. THE world can neither give nor take, Nor can they comprehend, The peace of God, which Christ has bought, The peace which knows no end. 2 The burning bush was not consum'd While God remained there: The three, when Jesus made the fourth, Found fire as soft as air. 441

3 God's furnace doth in Zion stand; But Zion's God sits by,

As the refiner views his gold, With an observant eye.

4 His thoughts are high, his love is wise, His wounds a cure intend; And though he does not always smile,

He loves unto the end.

707

Trust in Jesus.

SAVIOUR, happy would I be, If I could but trust in thee! Trust thy wisdom me to guide, Trust thy goodness to provide.

- 2 Trust thy saving love and pow'r, Trust thee ev'ry day and hour; Trust in sickness, trust in health, Trust in poverty and wealth.
- 3 Trust in joy, and trust in grief, Trust thy promise for relief; Trust thy blood to cleanse my soul, Trust thy grace to make me whole.
- 4 Trust thee living, dying too, Trust thee all my journey through; Trust thee, till my feet shall be Planted on the crystal sea.
- 5 Trust thee, ever blessed Lamb, Till I wear the victor's palm; Trust thee, till my soul shall be Wholly swallowed up in thee.

Desiring divine communion.

C. M.

78.

A LAS! my God, that thou should'st be To me so much unknown: I long to walk and talk with thee, And dwell before thy throne.

442

- 2 Thou know'st, my soul doth dearly love The place of thine abode : No music gives so sweet a sound As these two words—my God.
- 3 I long not for the fruit that grows . Within these gardens here:
 I find no sweetness in the rose, When Jesus is not near.
- 4 Thy gracious presence, O my Christ, Can make a paradise. Ah, what are all the goodly pearls

Unto this pearl of price?

 5 Give me that sweet communion, Lord! Thy people have with thee;
 Thy spirit daily talks with them, O, let it talk with me!

6 Like Enoch, let me walk with God, And thus walk out my day, Attended with the heav'nly guards, Upon the King's highway.

709

Complaint under temptation. Psalm 13. C. M.

HOW long wilt thou conceal thy face? My God, how long delay? When shall I feel those heav'nly rays That drive my fears away?

2 See how the prince of darkness tries All his malicious arts;
He spreads a mist around my eyes, And throws his fiery darts.

 Be thou my sun and thou my shield, My soul in safety keep;
 Make haste, before my eyes are seal'd In death's eternal sleep.

4 How would the tempter boast aloud, If I became his prey ! Behold, the sons of hell grow proud At thy so long delay !

5 But they shall fly at thy rebuke, And Satan hide his head; He knows the terrors of thy look, And hears thy voice with dread.

710

Family of earth and heaven.

C. M.

OME, let us join our friends above, Who have obtained the prize, And on the eagle wings of love To joy celestial rise.

 2 Let saints below in concert sing With those to glory gone;
 For all the servants of our King, In heaven and earth, are one.

3 One family, we dwell in him; One church above, beneath; Though now divided by the stream— The narrow stream of death.

 4 One army of the living God, To his command we bow;
 Part of the host have cross'd the flood, And part are passing now.

5 How many to their endless home This solemn moment fly; And we are to the margin come, And soon expect to die.

6 Dear Saviour, be our constant guide; Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

The name of Jesus precious.

C. M.

JESUS! I love thy charming name, 'T is music to my ear: Fain would I sound it out so loud, That earth and heav'n might hear.

2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul, My transport and my trust; Jewels to thee are gaudy toys, And gold but sordid dust.

- 3 All my capacious pow'rs can wish, In thee doth richly meet; Nor to my eyes is light so dear, Nor friendship half so sweet.
- 4 Thy grace shall dwell upon my heart, And shed its fragrance there; The noblest balm of all its wounds, The cordial of its care.

712

711

Light in darkness.

C. M.

O THERE'S a better world on high; Hope on, thou pious breast; Faint not, thou travler; on the sky Thy weary feet shall rest.

- 2 Anguish may rend each vital part; Poor man, thy strength how frail! [heart, Yet heaven's own strength shall shield thy When flesh and heart shall fail.
- 3 Thro' death's dark vale of deepest shade Thy feet must surely go;
 Yet there, e'en there, walk undismayed;
 'T is thy last scene of woe.
- 4 Thy God—and with the tenderest hand— Shall guard the trav'ler through;
 "Hail!" shalt thou cry; "hail! promised land! And wilderness, adieu !"

713 The latter day glory. C. M. BEHOLD, the mountain of the Lord, In latter days, shall rise Above the mountains and the hills, And draw the wond'ring eyes. 2 To this the joyful nations round, All tribes and tongues shall flow; "Up to the hill of God," they say, "And to his courts we'll go."

3 No strife shall vex Messiah's reign, Or mar the peaceful years; [swords, To plougshares men shall beat their To pruning hooks their spears.

4 Come, then—O come from every land, To worship at his shrine: And, walking in the light of God, With holy beauties shine.

714

Receiving members.

C. M.

COME in, ye blessed of the Lord, O come in Jesus' name; We welcome you with one accord, In Christ we're all the same.

2 In weal or woe, in joy or care, Thy portion shall be ours; Christians their mutual burdens bear; They lend their mutual pow'rs.

3 Come with us; we will do thee good, As God to us hath done:
Stand but in him, as those have stood, Whose faith the victory won.

4 And when, by turns, we pass away, As star by star grows dim, May each, translated into day, Be lost, and found in him. 446

C. M. 715Entering into Church covenant. COME, let us use the grace divine, And all with one accord, In a perpetual cov'nant, join Ourselves to Christ, the Lord. 2 Give up ourselves through Jesus pow'r, His name to glorify: And promise, in this sacred hour, For God to live and die. 3 The cov'nant we this moment make Be ever kept in mind! We will no more our God forsake, Or cast his word behind. 4 We never will throw off his fear, Who hears our solemn vow; And if thou art well pleas'd to hear, Come down and meet us now. 5 To each the cov'nant blood apply, Which takes our sins away, And register our names on high, And keep us to that day. 716 The Christian's looking-glass. P. M. 7 & 6. 10ME, all ye mourning pilgrims, Who feel your need of Christ, Surrounded by temptation, And by the world despis'd; Attend to what I tell you, My exercise I'll show: And then you may inform me If it's been so with you. 2 Long time I liv'd in darkness,

Nor saw my dismal state, And when I was awaken'd, I thought I was too late. 447

A lost and hopeless sinner, Myself I plainly saw, Exposed to God's displeasure, Condemned by the law.

3 I thought the brute creation Were better off than me;
I spent my days in anguish, No pleasure could I see.
Through deep distress and sorrow My Saviour led me on,
Then shewed his love unto me, When all my hope was gone.

4 But when I was deliver'd, I scarcely could believe,
To think so vile a sinner A pardon could receive;
And when the solemn praises
Were flowing from my tongue,
Yet fears were often rising, That I might still be wrong.

5 But when these fears were banish'd, My tears began to flow, To think so vile a sinner Should be beloved so;
I thought my trials over, And all my troubles gone, That peace, and joy, and pleasure,

Would be my lot alone.

6 But now I find a warfare, Which often brings me low, The world, the flesh and Satan, They do beset me so;
Can one that is converted Have such a heart as mine?
Can one whose sins are pardoned, Not feel more love divine? 448

7 Do others feel so wretched, As oft is felt by me? Such trials and temptations Perhaps they never see; For I'm the chief of sinners, I freely own with Paul; And if I am a Christian, I am the least of all.

717

The happy Christian.

C. M.

C. M.

Y God—the spring of all my joys, The life of my delights; The glory of my brightest days, And comfort of my nights!

2 In darkest shades, if thou appear, My dawning is begun: Thou art my soul's bright morning star, And thou my rising sun.

3 The opening heav'ns around meshine, With beams of sacred bliss, If Jesus shows his mercy mine And whispers I am his.

718Asking Christ's grace. ESUS, the Saviour of my soul, Be thou my heart's delight; Ever the same to me remain-My joy by day and night.

2 Hungry and thirsty after thee May I be found each hour; Humble in heart, and happy kept By thine almighty pow'r.

3 O may I never once forget, What a poor worm I am; From death and hell redeem'd by blood, The blood of God's dear Lamb. (29)449

4 May thy blest Spirit, in my heart, Most sweetly shed abroad The love of my incarnate God, Who bought me with his blood.

5 The mystery of redeeming love Be ever dear to me; And may the flesh and blood of Christ

My daily manna be.

719

Wrestling with God.

7s.

C. M.

ORD, I cannot let thee go Till a blessing thou bestow Do not turn away thy face, Mine's an urgent, pressing case.

- 2 Thou did'st once a wretch behold. In rebellion, blindly bold, Scorn thy grace, thy pow'r defy— That poor rebel, Lord, was I.
- 3 Once a sinner, near despair, Sought thy mercy-seat by prayer; Mercy heard and set him free— Lord, that mercy came to me.
- 4 Many days have pass'd since then, Many changes I have seen; Yet I've been upheld till now; Who could hold me up but thou?
- 5 Thou hast help'd in ev'ry need This emboldens me to plead; After so much mercy past, Help, O help me to the last.

720

Thy will be done.

SEARCHER of hearts! from mine erase All thoughts that should not be, And in its deep recesses trace My gratitude to thee.

2 Hearer of prayer! O, guide aright Each word and deed of mine; Life's battle teach me how to fight, And be the victory thine.

 3 Giver of all—for every good In the Redeemer came—
 For shelter, raiment, and for food, I thank thee in His name.

4 Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost! Thou glorious Three in One! Thou knowest best what I need most, And let thy will be done.

721 The Christian's glory and fortitude. L. M. JESUS, my Saviour, and my God, Thou hast redeem'd me with thy blood; By ties both natural and divine, 1 am, and ever will be thine.

2 But ah! should my inconstant heart, Ere I'm aware, from thee depart, What dire reproach would fall on me, For such ingratitude to thee!

3 The thought I dread, the crime I hate; The guilt, the shame I deprecate; And yet, so mighty are my foes, I dare not trust my warmest vows.

4 Pity my frailty, dearest Lord, Grace in the needful hour afford: O, steel this tim'rous heart of mine With fortitude and love divine:

5 So shall I triumph o'er my fears, And gather joys from all my tears; So shall I to the world proclaim The honors of the Christian name. 451

Holiness and grace.

L. M.

So let our lips and lives express The holy gospel we profess; So let our works and virtues shine, To prove the doctrine all divine.

- 2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad The honors of our Saviour God; When his salvation reigns within, And grace subdues the power of sin.
- 3 Our flesh and sense must be denied, Passion and envy, lust and pride; While justice, temperance, truth and love Our inward piety approve.
- 4 Religion bears our spirits up, While we expect that blessed hope, The bright appearance of the Lord, And faith stands leaning on his word.

723

722

Christian submission.

C. M.

HOW sweet to be allowed to pray To God, the Holy One; With filial love and trust to say, O God, thy will be done!

2 We in these sacred words can find A cure for every ill,

They calm and soothe the troubled mind And bid all care be still.

 3 O, may that will that gave me birth, And an immortal soul,
 In joy or grief, in life or death, My every wish control.

4 O could my heart thus ever pray,— Thus imitate thy Son! Teach me, O God, in truth to say, Thy will, not mine, be done. 452

724

The golden rule.

THUS said Jesus:--"Go and do As thou woulds be done unto:" Here thy perfect duty see, All that God requires of thee.

- 2 Wouldst thou, when thy faults are known, Wish that pardon should be shown ? Be forgiving, then, and do As thou wouldst be done unto.
- 3 Shouldst thou helpless be and poor, Wouldst thou not for aid implore? Think of others, then, and be What thou wouldst they should to thee.
- 4 Dost thou for compassion call? Be compassionate to all; If thou wouldst affection find— Be affectionate and kind.
- 5 If thou wouldst obtain the love Of thy gracious God above, Then to all his children be What thou wouldst they should to thee.

Christian submission.

C. M.

O LORD, I would delight in thee, And on thy care depend; To thee in every trouble flee, My best, my only friend.

- 2 When all created streams are dried, Thy fullness is the same; May I with this be satisfied, And glory in thy name.
- 3 Why should the soul a drop bemoan, Who has a fountain near,
 - A fountain which shall ever run, With waters sweet and clear.

⁴⁵³

4 No good in creatures can be found, But may be found in thee:

I must have all things, and abound, While God is God to me.

5 O! that I had a stronger faith. To look within the veil; To credit what my Saviour saith, Whose word can never fail.

726

727

Seeking refuge in God.

C. M.

EAR Father, to thy mercy-seat My soul for shelter flies: T is here I find a safe retreat, When storms and tempests rise.

- 2 My cheerful hope can never die, If thou, my God, art near; Thy grace can raise my comforts high, And banish every fear.
- 3 My great Protector and my Lord, Thy constant aid impart;
 - O let thy kind and gracious word Sustain my trembling heart.

4 O never let my soul remove From this divine retreat; Still let me trust thy power and love, And dwell beneath thy feet.

At evening time it shall be light. C. M.

TE journey through a vale of tears By many a cloud o'ercast; And worldly cares, and worldly fears, Go with us to the last.

2 Not to the last! Thy word hath said, Could we but read aright,-Poor pilgrim, lift in hope thy head; At eve it shall be light!

454

3 Though earth-born shadows now may Thy thorny path awhile, [shroud God's blessed word can part each cloud, And bid the sunshine smile.

4 Only believe, in living faith, His love and power divine;
And ere thy sun shall set in death, His light shall round thee shine.

5 When tempest clouds are dark on high, His bow of love and peace Shines sweetly in the vaulted sky,— A pledge that storms shall cease.

6 Hold on thy way, with hope unchill'd, By faith and not by sight, And thou shalt own his word fulfill'd,— At eve it shall be light.

728

Meekness in distress.

C. M.

TEACH us, in time of deep distress, To own thy hand, O God, And in submissive silence learn The lessons of thy rod.

2 In every changing scene of life, Whate'er that scene may be, Give us a meek and humble mind, A mind at peace with thee.

 3 Do thou direct our steps aright; Help us thy name to fear;
 And give us grace to watch and pray, And strength to persevere.

4 Then may we close our eyes in death, Without a fear or care; For death is life, and labor rest, For thou art with us there. 455

Happy in eternity.

7s.

HAIL, my partners in distress, Pilgrims through this wilderness Though in sorrow here you roam, Destitute and far from home;

- 2 Do not then your fate deplore, Though despised, cast out and poor; Soon the joyful news will come, "Child, your Father calls, come home!"
- 3 Cruel death, with rudest hands, May divide the Christian bands; But, in brighter worlds above, Friends shall meet with friends they love.
- 4 Just beyond this vale of tears, Lo, a fruitful land appears; Pilgrim, lift your eyes and see— There's the home prepar'd for thee.

730

729

The pilgrimage of the saints. C. M.

ORD, what a wretched land is this, That yields us no supply; No cheering fruits, no wholesome trees, Nor streams of living joy!

2 Yet the dear path to thine abode Lies through this horrid land; Lord, we would keep the heav'nly road, And run at thy command.

3 Our journey is a thorny maze, But we march upward still; Forget the troubles of the ways, And aim for Zion's hill.

4 See the kind angels at the gates, Inviting us to come; There Jesus, the forerunner, waits To welcome travelers home.

731

The whole armor.

C. M.

SPEED thee, Christian, on thy way,

And to thy armor cling; With girded loins the call obey That grace and mercy bring.

2 There is a battle to be fought, An upward race to run,

A crown of glory to be sought, A victory to be won.

3 The shield of faith repels the dart That Satan's hand may throw; His arrow cannot reach thy heart, If Christ control the bow.

4 O faint not, Christian, for thy sighs Are heard before his throne; The race must come before the prize, The cross before the crown.

732

The mind that was in Christ.

E QUIP me for the war, And teach my hands to fight; My simple, upright heart prepare, And guide my words aright.

2 Control my every thought; My whole of sin remove: Let all my works in thee be wrought; Let all be wrought in love.

3 O, arm me with the mind, Meek Lamb, that was in thee; And let my knowing zeal be join'd With perfect charity.

4 With calm and temper'd zeal Let me enforce thy call; And vindicate thy gracious will, Which offers life to all.

S. M.

| 5 O, may I love like thee,— |

| In all thy footsteps tread; |
| Thou hatest all iniquity, |
| But nothing thou hast made. |
| 6 O, may I learn the art, |
| With meekness to reprove; |
| To hate the sin with all my heart, |
| But still the sinner love. |
| 733 The Shepherd of Israel. 85. |
| THOU Shepherd of Israel and mine, |
| The joy and desire of my heart, |
| For closer communion I pine, |
| I long to reside where thou art. |
| The pasture I languish to find, |
| Where all who their Shepherd obey |
| Are fed, on thy bosom reclin'd, |

3 O that I may forever sit, With Mary, at the Master's feet! Be this my happy choice:--My only care, delight and bliss, My joy, my heaven on earth be this, To hear the Bridegroom's voice.
4 O that I may, with favored John, Recline my weary head upon The dear Redeemer's breast! From care, and sin, and sorrow free, Give me, O Lord, to find in thee My everlasting rest.

735

Christian fellowship.

S. M.

BLEST be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love The fellowship of kindred minds Is like to that above.

2 Before our Father's throne
 We pour our ardent pray'rs;
 Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one—
 Our comforts and our cares.

3 We share our mutual woes, Our mutual burdens bear;

And often for each other flows The sympathizing tear.

4 From sin, and toil, and pain, Soon shall our souls be free; And perfect love and friendship reign Through all eternity.

736

Union and peace.

S. M.

BLEST are the sons of peace, Whose hearts and hopes are one; Whose kind designs to serve and please, Through all their actions run.

2 Blest is the pious house Where zeal and friendship meet; Their songs of praise, their mingled Make their communion sweet. [vows,

3 Thus, when on Aaron's head They pour'd the rich perfume, The oil through all his raiment spread, And fragrance fill'd the room.

 4 Thus, on the heav'nly hills, The saints are blest above;
 Where joy like morning dew distils, And all the air is love.

737

It is well. 2 Kings 4: 26.

C. M.

T shall be well, let sinners know, With those who love the Lord; His saints have always found it so, When resting on his word.

2 Peace, then, ye chastened sons of God; Why let your sorrows swell?
Wisdom directs your Father's rod, His word says, it is well.

3 Though you may trials sharp endure, From sin, or death, or hell; Your heavenly Father's love is sure, And, therefore, it is well.

4 Soon will your sorrows all be o'er, And you shall sweetly tell, On Canaan's calm and pleasant shore,

That all at last is well.

738

Ye have the poor always with you. Matt. 26: 11. C. M.

ORD, lead the way the Saviour went, By lane and cell obscure, And let our treasures still be spent, Like his, upon the poor.

2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress, Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their gloomy loneliness, Would seek the desolate.

3 For thou hast placed us side by side In this wide world of ill;

And, that thy follow'rs may be tried, The poor are with us still.

4 Small are the off'rings we can make; Yet thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

739

Holy love.

S. M.

LOVE is the strongest tie That can our souls unite; Love makes our service liberty, Our every burden light.

2 We run in God's commands When love directs the way; With willing hearts and active hands Our Master's will obey.

3 Love softens all our toil, And makes our bondage blest; The gloomy desert wears a smile, When love inspires the breast.

4 When we ascend the skies And see the Saviour's face, Love will to full perfection rise, And reign through all the place.

740

Glory in the cross.

8s & 7s.

IN the cross of Christ I glory, Towering o'er the wrecks of time; All the light of sacred story Gathers round its head sublime. 461

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me, Hopes deceive, and fears annoy, Never shall the cross forsake me: Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming Light and love upon my way, From the cross the radiance streaming Adds new lustre to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure, By the cross are sanctified; Peace is there that knows no measure, Joys that through all time abide.

8s & 7s.

741

Christian courage.

OME, Christian brethren, courage take, Though foes and fiends assail you, Although despised for Jesus' sake, Let not your courage fail you. The path our glorious Saviour trod Was mark'd through tribulation; Then, for his sake, fresh courage take, And fight for your salvation. 2 How many saints have gone before, Disdaining to surrender; Laid down their lives for Jesus' sake. And died his bold defender. And shall we then expect the prize, For which our souls are waiting, Without our share of sorrows here, Those worldly follies hating? 3 What have we here, to render dear This life, unknown to pleasure;

Since Jesus' love, warm from above, Unfolds a boundless treasure.

The shining worlds of pure delight

Are waiting to receive us: [bring And death (grim king!) shall pleasure By coming to relieve us.

4 That peace that reigns within our hearts, (Though men may cry delusion) To us sweet happiness imparts. In spite of persecution. Though Satan rage and men engage, His friends as one assail you, Still boldly fight, in love unite, And vict'ry ne'er will fail you. 5 A few more days of sorrow here Those mortal bands will sever: And we before the Lord appear, To reign with him forever. Then why should we distracted be, Since nothing here can harm us? If heart and hand we valiant stand, Worldlings cannot alarm us. L.M. 742The good old way. IFT up your hearts, Immanuel's friends, And taste the pleasure Jesus sends; Let nothing cause you to delay, But hasten on the good old way. 2 Our conflicts here, though great they be, Shall not prevent our victory, If we but watch, and strive, and pray, Like soldiers in the good old way. 3 O, good old way, how sweet thou art! May none of us from thee depart; But may our actions always say, We're marching in the good old way. 4 Though Satan may his power employ, Our peace and comfort to destroy; Yet never fear, we'll gain the day, And triumph in the good old way.

5 And when on Pisgah's top we stand, And view by faith the promised land, Then we may sing, exult and pray, And march along the good old way. 463

8 Ye valiant souls, for heav'n contend; Remember, glory's at the end: Our God will wipe all tears away, When we have run the good old way.

743

Faith and works.

L. M.

IN vain men talk of living faith, When all their works exhibit death; When they indulge some sinful view In all they say, and all they do.

- 2 The true believer fears the Lord, Obeys his precepts, keeps his word; Commits his work to God alone, And seeks his will before his own.
- 3 A barren tree that bears no fruit, Brings no great glory to its root; When on its boughs rich fruit we see, 'T is then we cry, "a goodly tree."
- 4 Never did men, by faith divine, To selfishness and sloth incline; The Christian works with all his pow'r. And grieves that he can work no more.

744

C.P.M.

HELP, Lord, to whom for help I fly, And still my tempted soul stand by Throughout the evil day; The sacred watchfulness impart, And keep the issues of my heart, And stir me up to pray.

2 My soul with thy whole armour arm, In each approach of sin alarm, And show the danger near: Surround, sustain, and strengthen me, And fill with godly jealousy, And sanctifving fear. 464

- Whene'er my careless hands hang down, O, let me see thy gathering frown, And feel thy warning eye;
 And starting, cry from ruin's brink, Save, Jesus, or I yield, I sink ! O save me, or I die!
- 4 If near the pit I rashly stray, Before I wholly fall away, The keen conviction dart! Recall me by that pitying look, That kind upbraiding glance, which broke Unfaithful Peter's heart.

 5 In me thine utmost mercy show, And make me like thyself below, Unblamable in grace;
 Ready prepared and fitted here, By perfect holiness t' appear Before thy glorious face.

745

Choosing the better part.

L. M.

BESET with snares on every hand, In life's uneven path I stand: Saviour divine, diffuse thy light To guide my doubtful footsteps right.

- 2 Engage this roving, treach'rous heart To fix on Mary's better part;
 To scorn the trifles of a day, For joys that none can take away.
- 3 Then let the wildest storms arise, Let tempests mingle earth and skies; No fatal shipwreck shall I fear, But all my treasures with me bear.
- 4 If thou, my Jesus, still be nigh, Cheerful I live, and joyful die; Secure, when mortal comforts flee, To find ten thousand worlds in thee. (20) 465

746

Always with us. Matt. 28: 20. 8s & 7s. LWAYS with us, always with us— Words of cheer and words of love; Thus the risen Saviour whispers From his dwelling-place above.

2 With us when we toil in sadness, Sowing much and reaping none, Telling us that in the future Golden harvests shall be won;

3 With us when the storm is sweeping O'er our pathway dark and drear; Waking hope within our bosoms, Stilling ev'ry anxious fear;

4 With us in the lonely valley, When we cross the chilling stream, Lighting up the steps to glory With salvation's radiant beam.

747 Set your affection on things above. 7s & 6s.

R ISE, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Lise, from transitory things,

Toward heaven, thy native place. Sun, and moon, and stars decay;

Time shall soon this earth remove; Rise, my soul, and haste away

To seats prepared above !

2 Rivers to the ocean run,

Nor stay in all their course; Fire ascending seeks the sun;

Both speed them to their source: So a soul that's born of God

Pants to view his glorious face ; Upward tends to his abode,

To rest in his embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn; Press onward to the prize;
Soon your Saviour will return Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, and you know Happy entrance will be given,
All your sorrows left below,
And earth exchang'd for heav'n.

718

C. M.

UNCERTAIN how the way to find, Which to salvation led, I listen'd long, with anxious mind, To hear what others said.

- 2 When some of joys and comforts told, I fear'd that I was wrong; For I was stupid, dead and cold, Had neither joy nor song.
- 3 The Lord my lab'ring heart reliev'd And made my burden light; Then for a moment I believ'd, Supposing all was right.
- 4 Of fierce temptations others talked, Of anguish and dismay,
 Through what distresses they had walked, Before they found the way.
- 5 Ah! then I thought my hopes were vain, For I had liv'd at ease;
 - I wished for all my fears again, To make me more like these.
- 6 I had my wish, the Lord disclosed The evils of my heart; And left my naked soul exposed To Satan's fiery dart.

7 Alas! "I now must give it up," I cried, in deep despair; How could I dream of drawing hope From what I cannot bear!"

8 Again my Saviour brought me aid, And when he set me free,
"Trust simply on my word," he said,
"And leave the rest to me."

749

Be perfectly joined together. 1 Cor. 1: 10. C. M.

A LL praise to our redeeming Lord, Who joins us by his grace, And bids us, each to each restored, Together seek his face.

 2 He bids us build each other up; And, gather'd into one, To our high calling's glorious hope, We hand in hand go on.

3 The gift which he on one bestows, We all delight to prove;

The grace through ev'ry vessel flows, In purest streams of love.

4 E'en now we think and speak the same, And cordially agree— United all, through Jesus' name, In perfect harmony.

 5 The kiss of peace to each we give— A plege of Christian love;
 In love, while here on earth, we'll live, In love we'll dwell above.

6 Love is the golden chain that binds Believers all in one;
And he's an heir of heav'n that finds His bosom glow with love. 750 All is vanity. Eccl. 20: 2. 8s & 7s. Eccl. 20: 2. 8s & 7s. Eccl. 20: 2. Nixed with dross the purest gold; Seek we then for heavenly treasures, Treasures never waxing old. Let our best affections centre On the things around the throne: There no thief can ever enter; Moth and rust are there unknown.
2 Earthly joys no longer please us; Here would we renounce them all; Seek our only rest in Jesus,--

Him our Lord and Master call. Faith, our languid spirits cheering, Points to brighter things above; Bids us look for his appearing; Bids us triumph in his love.

3 May our lights be always burning, And our loins be girded round, Waiting for our Lord's returning,— Longing for the welcome sound. Thus the Christian life adorning, Never need we be afraid, Should he come at night or morning, Early dawn,or even shade.

751 How shall he not also with him give us 7s & 6s. all things.-Rom. 8: 32.

> WHAT, my soul, should bow thee Perils or temptation? [down? Is not Christ upon the throne Still thy strong salvation?

2 Cast thy burden on the Lord, Thy Almighty Saviour;
He, who death for thee endured, Surely will deliver.

- 3 Mention to him every want, Yea, whate'er may grieve thee; If for comfort thou dost pant, Jesus will relieve thee.
- 4 Turn, my soul, unto thy rest; Quickly turn to Jesus; In his presence thou art blest, He to thee is gracious.
- 5 Mourn whene'er thou hast forgot Him whose great compassion Never fails, whose blood hath bought Thy complete salvation.
- 6 Earthly things do not regard; Trust in Jesus' favor; He will be thy great reward, And thy shield forever.

752

God is our refuge and strength. Psalm 46: 1, 2. C. M.

HENE'ER the clouds of sorrow roll And trials whelm the mind,-When, faint with grief, thy wearied soul No joys on earth can find,-Then lift thy voice to God on high, Dry up the trembling tear, And hush the low, complaining sigh; "Fear not;" thy God is near. 2 When dark temptations spread their snares And earth with charms allures, And when thy soul, oppressed with fears, The world's assault endures. Then let thy Father's friendly voice Thy fainting spirit cheer, And bid thy trembling heart rejoice : "Fear not;" thy God is near. 3 And when the final hour shall come. That calls thee to thy rest-

To dwell within thy heavenly home, A welcome, joyful guest,— Be calm; though Jordan's waves may roll, No ills shall meet thee there; Angels shall whisper to thy soul, "Fear not;" thy God is near.

753 Yea, they may forget, yel will I not forget 7s.

W HEN, along life's thorny road, Faints the soul beneath the load; When, by cares and sin oppressed, Earth affords no peace or rest; When the wily tempter's near, Filling us with doubt and fear;— Jesus, to thy feet we flee, Jesus, we will look to thee.

- 2 Thou, our Saviour, from the throne Listenest to thy people's moan; Thou, the living Head, dost share Every ping thy members bear. Full of tenderness thou art; Thou wilt heal the broken heart; Full of power, thine arm shall quell All the rage and might of hell!
- 3 Mighty to redeem and save, Thou hast overcome the grave; Thou the bars of death hast riven, Opened wide the gates of heaven. Soon in glory thou shalt come, Taking thy poor pilgrims home. Jesus, then we all shall be Ever, ever, Lord, with thee.

Trust in Jesus.

8s & 7s.

TRUST in Jesus, weeping mourner ! Fear not! he is guiding thee; By the stream of living waters He is leading tenderly.

2 All thy tearful supplications
 Fall upon his list'ning ear;
 He will grant relief in anguish,
 And have pity on thy prayer.

3 Though thy path be rough and lonely, He will never lead astray: He is guiding thee with wisdom, By a straight, though painful way.

 4 Every step he takes before thee, Whispering comfort all the while; He will brighten thy sad spirit, And thine hours of grief beguile.

5 By the waters so refreshing Thou shalt never fainting be; For the loving arms of Jesus Are around to shelter thee.

6 All along thy pathway flowing Is this stream of life divine; Thou art passing on to glory, And a Father's care is thine.

757

L. M.

COME to thee, I come to thee! Thou precious Lamb, who died for me, I rest confiding on thy word, And "cast my burden on the Lord."

2 I come to thee with all my grief; Dear Saviour, help my unbelief; Thy blessed name my only plea— With this, O Lord, I come to thee!

- 3 I come to thee, whose sovereign power Can cheer me in the darkest hour; I come to thee, through storm and shade, For thou hast said—"Be not afraid."
- 4 I come to thee with all my tears, My pain and sorrow, doubts and fears; Thou precious Lamb, who died for me, I come to thee, I come to thee!
- 5 To thee my trembling spirit flies, When faith grows weak, and comfort dies I bow adoring at thy feet, And hold with thee communion sweet.
- 6 O, wondrous love! O, joy divine! To feel thee near and call thee mine! Thou precious Lamb, who died for me, I come to thee, I come to thee!

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

758

God's paternal love and care.

C. M.

O GOD, on thee we all depend, On thy paternal care; Thou wilt the Father and the Friend In ev'ry act appear.

- 2 With open hand and lib'ral heart, Thou wilt our wants supply; The needful blessings still impart, And no good thing deny.
- 3 Our Father knows what's good and fit, And wisdom guides his love; To thine appointments we submit, And ev'ry choice approve.

4 In thy paternal love and care, With cheerful hearts we trust; Thy tender mercies boundless are, And all thy thoughts are just.

- 5 We can not want while God provides; What he ordains, is best;
 - And heav'n, whate'er we want besides, Will give eternal rest.

759 Sower and reaper rejoicing in the end. L. M. John. 4: 36.

G REAT Husbandman, at thy command, We sow thy seed with liberal hand,— And mindful of thy heavenly call, Onward we go, forsaking all.

- 2 On, through the sad and weary years, We sow the precious seed with tears; And stay our hearts in faith sublime, With prospects of the harvest time.
- 3 Not long shall we in sorrow go, Not long endure earth's toil and woe; For he who bids us sow and weep, Shall call us then in joy to reap.
- 4 Then shall the trembling mourner come, And bind his sheaves and bear them home; The voice long broke with sighs shall sing, Till heaven with hallelujahs ring.
- 5 Thick on the hills of light shall stand The gathered sheaves from every land; While they that sow, and they that reap, The "Harvest Home" in glory keep.

S. M.

760 The universal King. OME, sound his praise abroad, And hymns of glory sing; Jehovah is the sovereign God, The universal King.

> 2 He formed the deeps unknown, He gave the seas their bound; The watery worlds are all his own, And all the solid ground.

Come, worship at his throne;
 Come, bow before the Lord;
 We are his work, and not our own;
 He formed us by his word.

4 To-day attend his voice, Nor dare provoke his rod; Come, like the children of his choice, And own your gracious God.

С. М.

O LORD, our languid souls inspire, For here we trust thou art! Send down a coal of heav'nly fire To warm each waiting heart.

 Show us some token of thy love, Our fainting hopes to raise;
 And pour thy blessing from above, That we may render praise.

3 Within these walls, let holy peace And love, and concord dwell; Here give the troubled conscience ease, The wounded spirit heal.

4 The feeling heart, the melting eye, The humble mind bestow; And shine upon us from on high, To make our graces grow.

5 May we in faith receive thy word, In faith present our pray'rs; And in the presence of our Lord Unbosom all our cares.

 6 And may the gospel's joyful sound, Enforced by mighty grace,
 Awaken sinners all around To come and fill the place.

| 76 | Met for worship. C. M. |
| 0 | HERE, in the presence of our God, We've met to seek thy face; O, let us feel th' eternal word, And feast upon thy grace. |
| | O, may this be a happy hour, To ev'ry mourning soul; Display thy love, make known thy pow'r, And make the wounded whole. |
| 3 | O, may a spark of heav'nly fire Each stupid soul inflame, And sacred love our tongues inspire, To praise thy worthy name. |
| 4 | Let ev'ry soul the Saviour see, And taste his love divine; And ev'ry heart forever be United, Lord, with thine. |
| 766 | с. м. |
| | THOU Son of God, whose fiaming eyes Our inmost thoughts perceive, Accept the grateful sacrifice Which now to thee we give. |

478

2 Is there a soul that knows thee not, Nor feels his need of thee, A stranger to the blood which bought His pardon on the tree? 3 Convince him now of unbelief: His desp'rate state explain; And fill his heart with sacred grief And penitential pain. 4 Speak with that voice that wakes the dead, And bid the sleeper rise; And bid his guilty conscience dread The death that never dies. In whom we have redemption through 11s. 767 his blood.-Eph. 1, 7. COME, children of Zion, and help us to sing J Loud anthems of praise to our Saviour and King; Whose life once was given our souls to redeem, And bring us to heaven to reign there with him. 2 In regions of darkness, and sorrow, and pains, We all lay in ruin, in prison and chains; But Jesus has bought us with his precious blood-The ransom provided to bring us to God. 3 O come to the Saviour and take up the cross, Seek treasure in heaven, count all else but dross; His mercy invites us, then let us comply, O, why should we linger when he is so nigh? 4 We'll fear not the dangers that lie in our way, His arm will protect us, by night and by day All this we must suffer, and love him the more, Till Jesus will take us where sufferings are o'er. 768C. M. Before sermon. THE saints appear, to tread the courts Of their dear God below : Behold, the multitude resorts, To hear the trumpet blow. 2 Lord God! appear for our relief. What can we do alone? Come, Saviour, banish unbelief, And take us for thine own. 3 Our eyes, O Lord, are unto thee, Assist us, Lord. we pray ; 479

O, may thy Spirit present be; O Lord, thy power display.

4 Jesus, let us thy gospel hear, Teach us to know thy voice; Make ev'ry stubborn sinner fear, And all thy saints rejoice.

 5 Come, Lord, nor let us be dismay'd; Lord, hear thy people pray;
 And let thy mercy be display'd Amongst us here this day.

6 May sinners hear thy pow'rful call, And thy salvation see; So shall our hearts, both one and all, Sing songs of praise to thee.

769

Before preaching.

S. M.

ORD, at thy sacred feet, Joyful would we appear; Within thy earthly temple meet, To see thy glory here. 2 We come to worship thee. For thou art God alone: In humble pray'r to bend the knee Before thy holy throne. 3 Thy word is our delight, Thy truth will make us free: 'T is from thyself a heavenly light, It leads our souls to thee. 4 Thy goodness we behold. While in thy presence, Lord; Thy wondrous truth and love unfold, The treasures of thy word. 770 This is my body which is broken for you. C. M. 1 Cor. 11: 24. O-DAY Emmanuel feeds his sheep, The purchase of his blood; To-day Jehovah keeps a feast, For all the sons of God. 480

2 The bread of God is freely given, The food of saints above— That blessed bread sent down from heaven, The food of pardoning love.

 3 O let us all this love adore, And raise our final song Until we shall, forevermore, To him our praise prolong.

771

Resignation, and blissful hope. L. M.

MY dearest Lord, in love appear, And banish every guilty fear; Increase my faith, confirm my hope, And lift my drooping spirit up.

- 2 Should all forsake, my God is kind! Make me to all thy will resigned; And when disease my frame decays Thy promise can my comforts raise.
- 3 And when my earthly house breaks down, O bear me to thy blissful throne, To view the Lamb that once was slain, My life, my portion and my gain.
- 4 Eye hath not seen, nor ear hath heard, What God hath for his saints prepared: There sin and sorrow never come; I long for that eternal home.

SOCIAL WORSHIP.

772

Sweet prayer.

11s.

WHEN torn is the bosom by sorrow or care, Be it evers so simple, there's nothing like prayer: It comforts, it softens, subdues, yet sustains, Bids hope rise exulting, and passion restrains; Prayer, prayer, O sweet prayer,

Be it everso simple, there's nothing like prayer. 2 When far from the friends that are dearest we part, What fond recollections still eling to the heart; Past scenes and enjoyments live painfully there; And restless we languish till peace comes in prayer, Prayer, prayer, &c.

(31)

- 8 When earthly delusions would lead us astray In folly's gay mazes, or sin's treach'rous way, How strong the enchantment, how fatal the snare ! But, looking to Jesus, we conquer by prayer. Prayer, prayer, &c.
- 4 While strangers to prayer, we are strangers to bliss; The world has no refuge, no solace like this; And till we the seraph's full eostacy share, Our chalice of joy must be guarded by prayer. Prayer, prayer, &c.

773

"Enter into thy closet."

G ⁰ when the morning shineth, Go when the eve declineth, Go in the hush of night; Go with pure mind and feeling, Fling earthly thoughts away, And, in thy closet kneeling, Do thou in secret pray.

2 Remember all who love thee, All who are loved by thee;
Pray, too, for those who hate thee, If any such there be;
Then for thyself, in meekness, A blessing humbly claim,
And blend with each petition Thy great Redeemer's name.

774

Another day.

CONSIDER, man, another day Has joined the many past, Which brings us further on the way, Where all the living haste.

 2 Unceasing we must journey on, In life there is no stay:
 As many have before us gone, So we must pass away. C. M.

7s & 6s.

Prayer the balm for sorrow. 7s & 6s. O WHEN the tear is gushing From sorrow's faded eye, When gathering storms are rushing Across the gloomy sky, When the full heart is breaking, And hope is far away, How sweet, the world forsaking, Alone with God, to pray!

2 The mourner, lowly bending, Flies to the Saviour's feet, And healing balm, descending From Mercy's holy seat, The joy that earth gives never, Sheds o'er the troubled breast; And peace that lasts for ever Lulls every care to rest.

3 O, weary child of sadness, Pilgrim bereft and lone, Behold the fount of gladness, Springing from heaven's throne; Each want and sin confessing, On Christ thy burden lay, And learn how rich the blessing, Alone with God, to pray!

776

775

Morning prayer.

C. M.

O MAY I love, at early day To rise, when all is still, And hear my Saviour kindly say, "Come, ask me what ye will."

2 O may I love to search his law, To hear his words of love, And feel his Spirit sweetly draw My soul to "things above." 483

3 O may I love to ask, in prayer, His Spirit's guiding ray-Through every scene of anxious care. Through life's bewildered way. 4 Thus let me spend each rising hour, Thus close my latest days, Till I shall wake, to sleep no more, Where prayer is changed to praise. While I was musing. Psalm 39: 3. 8s & 7s. 777CILENTLY the shades of evening Gather round my lowly door; Silently they bring before me Faces I shall see no more. 2 O! the lost, the unforgotten, Though the world be off forgot; O! the shrouded and the lonely-In our hearts they perish not. 3 Living in the silent hours, Where our spirits only blend, They, unlink'd with earthly trouble; We, still hoping for its end. 4 How such holy mem'ries cluster. Like the stars when storms are past; Pointing up to that far heaven We may hope to gain at last. 8s & 7s. 778Morning humn. HEN the joyous day is dawning, And the happy light we see, We, who live in life's pure morning, Father, would remember thee. 2 While in quiet we were sleeping, Kindly, though we knew it not, Thou a guardian watch wert keeping: Never is thy child forgot.

PRAYER MEETING.

3 Well may I tremble at his pow'r, He's holy, just and wise: Why has he spared me to this hour, Whose guilt for vengeance cries? 4 Jesus yet stands before the throne, And pleads for sinners there; Then let me lean on him alone, Till he subdues my fear. 5 By faith in him I now will come, And lift my eyes to heav'n: He will my secret groans perfume, And shew my sins forgiv'n. C. M. 783 Throne of grace. O LORD, to us, assembled here, Reveal thy smiling face; While we, by faith, with love and fear, Approach a throne of grace. 2 With holy boldness may we come, Though of a sinful race: Thankful to find there yet is room Before the throne of grace. 3 Thy tender pity and thy love Our every fear can chase; And all our help, we then shall prove, Comes from the throne of grace. 4 We bless thee for thy word and laws; We bless thee for thy peace; And O, we bless thee, Lord, because There is a throne of grace. 784M. 7s. Close of a Prayer Meeting. TF' tis sweet to mingle where Christians meet for social prayer;

If 'tis sweet with them to raise Songs of holy joy and praise— Passing sweet that state must be, Where they meet eternally.

2 Saviour, may these meetings prove Antepasts to that above; While we worship in this place, May we grow from grace to grace. Till we each, in his degree, Fit for endless glory be.

S. M. 785 Morning Prayer Meeting. OW sweet the melting lay, Which breaks upon the ear, When, at the hour of rising day, Christians unite in prav'r. 2 The breezes waft their cries Up to Jehovah's throne: He listens to their humble sighs. And sends his blessings down. 3 So Jesus rose to pray Before the morning light-Once on the chilling mount did stay, And wrestle all the night. 4 Glory to God on high, Who sends his blessings down To rescue souls condemned to die, And make his people one. L. M. 786 Noon-day worship. OW sweet to leave the world awhile. And seek the presence of our Lord! Dear Saviour, on thy people smile, According to thy faithful word. 2 From busy scenes we now retreat, That we may here converse with thee: O Lord, behold us at thy feet; Let this the gate of heaven be. 3 "Chief of ten thousand," now appear, That we, by faith, may view thy face: O speak, that we thy voice may hear,

And let thy presence fill the place!

2 O sinner, now to Christ draw near, Invited by his word— The chief of sinners need not fear; Behold the Lamb of God!

3 In every state, and time, and place, Nought plead but Jesus' blood, However wretched be your state, Behold the Lamb of God!

790 Christ's presence. 8s & 6s. WHERE two or three together meet, My love and mercy to repeat, And tell what I have done, There will I be," said God, "to bless, And every burden'd soul redress, Who worships at my throne."

2 Make one in this assembly, Lord, Speak to each heart some cheering word To set the spirit free; Impart a kind, celestial show'r, And grant that we may spend an hour In fellowship with thee.

791 Close of an experience meeting. L. M. WE now have heard our brethren tell How they escap'd the snares of hell: They all relate that conqu'ring grace, Which gives them in the church a place.

2 The testimony they have giv'n, Now proves that they are heirs of heav'n; Like angels may they shine at last, When all this storm of life is past.

792

Union with Christ.

8s & 7s.

COME, saints and sinners, hear me tell, The wonders of Immanuel: Who sav'd me from a burning hell,

490

And brought my soul with him to dwell, And gave me heav'nly union.

- 2 When Jesus saw me from on high, Beheld my soul in ruin lie, He look'd on me with pitying eye, And said to me, as he pass'd by, With God you have no union.
- 3 Then I began to pray and cry; I look'd this way and that to fly; It grieved me sore that I must die; I sought salvation for to buy; But still I found no union.
- 4 But when I hated all my sin, My dear Redeemer took me in, And with his blood he wash'd me clean; And, O! what seasons I have seen, E'er since I felt this union.
- 5 I prais'd the Lord both night and day, I went from house to house to pray; And if I met one on the way, I always something found to say About this heav'nly union.
- 6 Almighty God, teach heart and tongue To thee to raise a grateful song: All praises to thy name belong; Let Zion sing, "Thy kingdom come," And fill the world with union.

793

The soul given up to Christ.

S. M.

A ND can I yet delay My little all to give— To tear my soul from earth away, My Jesus to receive? Naw, but I wield I wield!

2 Nay, but I yield—I yield! I can hold out no more: I sink, by dying love compell'd, And own thee conqueror. 491

3 Though late, I all forsake, My friends, my all resign; Gracious Redeemer, take, O take And seal me ever thine.

4 Come, and possess me whole, Nor hence again remove; Settle and fix my wav'ring soul With all thy weight of love.

791

Self-dedication.

WELCOME, O Saviour, to my heart; Possess thy humble throne; Bid every rival hence depart, And claim me for thine own.

C. M.

2 The world and Satan I forsake,— To thee I all resign;
My longing heart, O Jesus, take, And fill with love divine.

3 O, may I never turn aside, Nor from thy bosom flee;
Let nothing here my heart divide,— I give it all to thee.

795 Burdened souls invited. C. M. Y E burdened souls, to Jesus come; You need not be afraid; He loves to hear poor sinners cry— He loves to hear them plead.

2 Ye humble souls, to Jesus come; 'T is he who made you see Your wretched, ruin'd, helpless state, Your guilt and misery.

3 Christ is a friend to mourning souls— Then why should you despair, Since Saul and Mary Madgalene Found grace and mercy there? 492

2 'T was by his bidding we were call'd. In pain awhile to part;
'T is by his care we meet again, And gladness fills our heart.

2 Blest be the hand that has preserv'd Our feet from every snare, And blest the goodness of the Lord, Which to this hour we share.

4 O, may the Spirit's quick'ning pow'r Now sanctify our joy, And warm our zeal, in works of love Our talents to employ.

5 Fast, fast our minutes fly away;
 Soon shall our wand'rings cease;
 Then with our Father we shall dwell,
 A family of peace.

799

Christian fellowship.

L. M.

K INDRED in Christ, for his dear sake A hearty welcome here receive; May we together now partake The joys which only he can give.

- 2 May he, by whose kind care we meet, Send his good Spirit from above; Make our communications sweet, And cause our hearts to burn with love.
- 3 Forgotten be each worldly theme, When Christians meet together thus; We only wish to speak of him Who lived, and died, and reigns for us.

4 We'll talk of all he did, and said, And suffer'd for us here below: The path he marked for us to tread, And what he's doing for us now. 494

5 Thus—as the moments pass away— We'll love, and wonder, and adore; And hasten on that glorious day When we shall meet to part no more.

800

Grateful acknowledgments. Psalm 116: 12. C. M. W HAT shall I render to my God For all his kindness shown? My feet shall visit thine abode, My songs address thy throne.

- 2 Among the saints that fill thine house My off'ring shall be paid; There shall my zeal perform the vows My soul in anguish made.
- 3 How happy all thy servants are! How great thy grace to me! My life, which thou hast made thy care, Lord, I devote to thee.
- 4 Now I am thine—for ever thine, Nor shall my purpose move;
 Thy hand has loosed my bonds of pain, And bound me with thy love.
- 5 Here, in thy courts, I leave my vow, And thy rich grace record; Witness, ye saints, who hear me now, If I forsake the Lord.

801 "Look to Jesus." 7s. ⁽¹⁾ LOOK to Jesus!" See, he stands Holding forth his bleeding hands, Saying. "Come to me for rest, And be sav'd among the blest!"

2 "Look to Jesus!" Sinner, come! Without Christ, behold your doom; Present pain and endless hell! Come, and all may yet be well! 495

- 3 "Look to Jesus!" Mourner, hear Mercy whisp'ring in your ear;
 "Though your sins as scarlet be, I can cleanse, and set you free."
- 4 "Look to Jesus!" weeping one! Hope, for thou art not undone: Those are blest who shed such tears; He will hush thy doubts and fears.
- 5 "Look to Jesus!" Christian, look! Thy dear name is in his book; Read it there, and with delight, Humbly seek perfection's height.
- 6 "Look to Jesus!" Joy in life, Cure for sin, and end of strife; Life in death, and endless bliss Where the blessed Saviour is!

802

He forgetteth not.

Isa. 49: 15.

H. M.

O THOU that hearest prayer! Attend our humble cry; And let thy servants share Thy blessing from on high; We plead the promise of thy word, Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord!

2 If earthly parents hear Their children when they cry; If thev, with love sincere,

Their children's wants supply; Much more wilt thou thy love display And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heaven'y Father, Тноυ; We, children of thy grace:

Oh, let thy Spirit now

Descend and fill the place, That all may feel the heavenly flame, And all unite to praise thy name. 496

All his paths are peace.

WE go the way that leads to God, The way that saints have ever trod ; So let us leave this sinful shore, For realms where we shall die no more.

- 2 The ways of God are ways of bliss, And all his paths are happiness; Then, weary souls, your sighs give o'er, We're going home, to die no more.
- 3 Come, sinners, come-oh! come along, And join our happy pilgrim throng! Farewell, vain world, and all your store, We're going home, to die no more.

Joys of the Christian.

L. M.

DRESERVED by thy almighty pow'r, O Lord, our Maker, Saviour, King, And brought to see this happy hour, We come thy praises here to sing.

- 2 We praise thee for thy constant care, For life preserved, for mercies given; O may we still those mercies share; And taste the joys of sins forgiven.
- 3 We praise thee for the joyful news Of pardon through a Saviour's blood: O Lord, incline our hearts to choose The way to happiness and God.
- 4 And when our work on earth is done, Grant, Lord, that we in heaven may see Each other faces 'round thy throne, And there forever happy be.

805 L. M. We shall meet again. NCE more we press the hand and part, For we must say farewell again ; Yet still we mingle heart with heart, Linked by a never-broken chain. (32)497

MISSIONARY.

Still one in life, and one in death, One in our hope laid up above, One in our joy, our trust, our faith, One in each other's steadfast love.

2 Yet we must part, and, parting, weep; What else has earth for us in store But farewell pangs so sharp and deep, And farewell words so sad and sore?
But we shall meet again in peace, To sing the song of festal joy,
Where none shall bid our gladness cease, And naught our fellowship destroy.

A hiding-place.

HAIL, wondrous love, that first began The scheme to rescue fallen man ! Hail matchless, free, eternal grace, That made for me a hiding-place!

- 2 Against that God who rules on high, The purpose of my heart did lie; I fought the councils of his grace— Too proud to seek a hiding-place!
- 3 Encompass'd with a fearful night, And fond of darkness more than light, Madly I ran a sinful race, Despising mercy's hiding-place!
- 4 But lo! a heavenly voice I heard, And Jesus to my soul appeared, And offered me his saving grace, And thus became my hiding-place!

MISSIONARY.

From many an ancient river, From many a palmy plain, They call us to deliver Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though ev'ry prospect pleases, And only man is vile;
In vain with lavish kindness The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness, Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted By wisdom from on high, Can we to men benighted The lamp of light deny?
Salvation, O salvation! The joyful sound proclaim, Till earth's remotest nation Has learn'd Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story; And you, ye waters, roll, Till, like a sea of glory, It spreads from pole to pole: Till o'er our ransom'd nature, The Lamb for sinners slain, Redeemer, King, Creator, In bliss returns to reign.

2 Home, thy joys are passing lovely-Joys no stranger-heart can tell; Happy home, indeed I love thee: Can I-can I say, "farewell?" Can I leave thee, Far in heathen lands to dwell? 3 Yes, I hasten from you gladly-From the scenes I love so well: Far away, ye billows, bear me: Lovely native land, farewell: Pleased I leave thee, Far in heathen lands to dwell. 4 In the deserts let me labor; On the mountains let me tell How he died-the blessed Saviour-To redeem a world from hell: Let me hasten. Far in heathen lands to dwell. 5 Bear me on, thou reckless ocean; Let the winds my canvass swell: Heaves my heart with warm emotion, While I go far hence to dwell: Glad I bid thee. Native land, farewell-farewell! C. M 809 Missionaries commended to God. ATHER of mercies, condescend To hear our fervent pray'r, While these our brethren we commend To thy paternal care. 2 Before them set an open door; Their faithful labors bless; On them thy Holy Spirit pour, And crown them with success. 3 Endow them with a heavenly mind; Supply their every need; Make them in spirit meek, resign'd, But bold in word and deed.

MISSIONARY.

4 In every tempting, trying hour, Uphold them by thy grace; And guard them by thy mighty pow'r, Till they shall end their race. 5 Then, follow'd by a numerous train, Gather'd from heathen lands, A crown of life may they obtain From their Redeemer's hands. Matt. 10: 7. S. M. As ye go, preach. 810 Y E messengers of Christ, His sov'reign voice obey; Arise and follow where he leads-And peace attend your way. 2 The Master whom you serve Will needful strength bestow; Depending on his promis'd aid, With sacred courage go. 3 Mountains shall sink to plains, And hell in vain oppose; The cause is God's, and must prevail In spite of all his foes. 4 Go, spread a Saviour's fame, And tell his matchless grace To the most guilty and deprav'd Of Adam's num'rous race. 5 We wish you, in his name, The most divine success; Assur'd that he who sends you forth Will your endeavors bless. 7s & 6s. 811 O, reapers of life's harvest! . Why stand with rusted blade, Until the night draws round you, And day begins to fade? Why stand ye idle, waiting For reapers more to come?

The golden morn is passing. Why sit ye idle, dumb? 2 Thrust in your sharpened sickle, And gather in the grain; The night is fast approaching, And soon will come again. Thy Master calls for reapers, And shall he call in vain? Shall sheaves lie there ungathered, And waste upon the plain? 3 Come down from hill and mountain, In morning's ruddy glow; Nor wait until the dial Points to the noon below; And come with the strong sinew, Nor faint in heat and cold : And pause not till the evening Draws round its wealth of gold. 4 Mount up the heights of wisdom. And crush each error low; Keep back no words of knowledge That human hearts should know. Be faithful to thy mission-The service of the Lord; And then a golden chaplet Shall be thy just reward.

SPIRITUAL DECLENSION.

812 O, that I were as in months past! C. M. SWEET was the time when first I felt The Saviour's pard'ning blood, Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt, And bring me home to God.
2 Soon as the light the morn renew'd, His praises tun'd my tongue; And when the evening shades prevail'd His love was all my song. 502

 In pray'r my soul drew near the Lord, And saw his glory shine;
 And when I read his holy word, I call'd each promise mine.

- 4 Then to his saints I often spoke Of what his love had done; But now my heart is almost broke, For all my joys are gone.
- 5 Now, when the evening shade prevails, My soul in darkness mourns;
 - And when the morn the light reveals, No light to me returns.
- 6 Rise, Lord, and help me to prevail; O, make my soul thy care!
 - I know thy mercy cannot fail; Let me that mercy share.

Remember Lot's wife.

11s.

YE careless professors, who rest on your lees, Amidst your vain pleasures, your profit and ease.

Now God says, "Arise and escape for your life," And look not behind you;-"Remember Lot's wife."

- 2 Awake from your slumber, the warning receive; 'T is Jesus that warns you, the message believe; While dangers are pending, "Escape for your life And look not belind you; remember Lot's wife."
- 3 The first bold apostate will tempt you to stray, And tell you no dangers are found in the way; He means to deceive you; "Escape for your life, And look not belind you; remember Lot's wife."
- 4 How many poor souls has the serpent beguil'd, With specious temptations how many defil'd; Then be not deludel; "Escape for your life, And look not behind you; remember Lot's wife."
- 5 The ways of religion true pleasures afford; No pleasures can equal the joys of the Lord; Forsake then the world, and "Escape for your life, And look not behind you: remember Lot's wife."
- 6 But if you determine the call to refuse, And venture the way of destruction to choose, For hell you must part with the blessings of life, And then, if not now, you'll remember Lot's wife.

Loss of first love.

O THAT I were as heretofore, When warm in my first love; I only lived my God t' adore, And seek the things above.

- 2 Upon my head his candle shone, And, lavish of his grace, With cords of love he drew me on, And half unveil'd his face.
- 3 Far, far above all earthly things, Triumphantly I rode;
 - I soared to heaven on eagles' wings, And found, and talk'd with God.
- 4 Where am I now? from what a height Of happiness cast down! The glory's swallow'd up in night.

And faded is the crown.

5 O God, thou art my home, my rest, For which I sigh in pain; How shall I 'scape into thy breast? My Eden how regain?

815

814

The barren fig tree.

BARREN still this tree is found, Culture it has had for years, But as yet no fruit appears. Cut it down,—why all this toil? It no more shall curse the soil.

- 2 But the dresser cries, "Forbear! Let it stand another year: Still it shall my care employ; Then, if fruit appears, with joy At thy feet it shall be laid, And my care be well repaid."
- 3 Lord, this parable's for me; I'm that dead and fruitless tree; 504

7s.

C. M.

I within the vineyard stand, Planted by thy gracious hand; Yet with all the dresser's care, Scarcely any fruit I bear.

- 4 I have peaceful Sabbath days, I have hours of pray'r and praise: Faithful sermons, they are mine, Threat'nings, promises divine, All that widom could devise, Lent in mercy from the skies.
- 5 Yet my heart is cold and dead, Like a branch that's withered; Yet my hands inactive prove, To promote the cause I love; Blessed Jesus! can there be Life in such a barren tree?
- 6 O! for grace this year to be All that God delights to see;
 O! for wisdom from above, Every moment to improve;
 And when time has pass'd away,
 O, for mercy in that day!

816

Returning to God. Mal. 3: 7.

C. M.

How oft, alas! this wretched heart Has wandered from the Lord! How oft my roving thoughts depart, Forgetful of his word!

- 2 Yet sovereign mercy calls, "Return!" Dear Lord, and may I come? My vile ingratitude I mourn; O, take the wanderer home!
- 3 And canst thou, wilt thou yet forgive, And bid my crimes remove? And shall a pardoned rebel live. To speak thy wondrous love? 505

 4 Almighty grace! thy healing pow'r, How glorious—how divine! That can to life and bliss restore A heart so vile as mine.

5 Thy pardoning love—so free, so sweet, Dear Saviour, I adore;

O keep me at thy sacred feet, And let me rove no more.

817

Returning to God's people.

7s.

PEOPLE of the living God, I have sought the world around, Paths of sin and sorrow trod, Peace and comfort nowhere found

2 Now to you my spirit turns, Turns—a fugitive unblest; Brethren, where your altar burns, O, receive me into rest!

3 Lonely I no longer roam, Like the clouds, the wind, the wave; Where you dwell shall be my home, Where you die shall be my grave

4 Mine the God whom you adore-Your Redeemer shall be mine: Earth can fill my soul no more-Every idol I resign.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS.

818 Pardon implored in danger. 8s & 7s.
BREAD Jehovah! God of nations! From thy temple in the skies, Hear thy people's supplications; Now for their deliv'rance rise.
2 Lo! with deep contrition turning, In thy holy place we bend: Hear us, fasting, praying, mourning; Hear us, spare us, and defend. 506

SPECIAL OCCASIONE. 3 Though our sins, our hearts confounding, Long and loud for vengeance call, Thou hast mercy more abounding-Jesus' blood can cleanse them all. 4 Let that mercy veil transgression; Let that blood our guilt efface; Save thy people from oppression; Save from spoil thy holy place. L.M 819 Praise for national blessings. LMIGHTY Sov'reign of the skies To thee let songs of gladness rise, Each grateful heart its tribute bring, And every voice thy goodness sing. 2 From thee our choicest blessings flow; Life, health and strength thy hands bestow: The daily good thy creatures share, Springs from thy providential care. 3 The rich profusion nature yields, The harvest waving o'er the fields, The cheering light, refreshing show'r, Are gifts from thy exhaustless store; 4 From thee proceed domestic ties; Connubial bliss, parental joys; On thy support the nations stand, Obedient to thy high command. 5 Let every pow'r of heart and tongue, Unite to swell the grateful song; While age and youth in chorus join, To praise the majesty divine. 820 L. M. The joy in harvest. ¬ REAT God, as seasons disappear, T And changes mark the rolling year, Thy favor still doth crown our days,

And we would celebrate thy praise.

2 The harvest song we would repeat :---"Thou givest us the finest wheat;" 507

"The joy of harvest," we have known: The praise, O Lord, is all thine own.

- 3 Our tables spread, our garners stor'd, O give us hearts to bless the Lord ! Forbid it, Source of light and love, Our hearts and lives should barren prove.
- 4 Another harvest comes apace: Mature our spirits by thy grace, That we may calmly meet the blow The sickle gives to us below.
- 5 That so, when angel reapers come To gather sheaves to thy blest home, Our spirits may be borne on high To thy safe garner in the sky.

821

The God of harvest.

6s & 4s.

THE God of harvest praise; In loud thanksgiving raise Hand, heart and voice; The valleys smile and sing, Forests and mountains ring, The plains their tribute bring, The streams rejoice.

2 Yea, bless his holy name, And purest thanks proclaim Through all the earth; To glory in your lot Is duty—but be not God's benefits forgot, Amidst your mirth

3 The God of harvest praise; Hands, hearts and voices, raise With sweet accord; From field to garner throng, Bearing your sheaves along, And in your harvest song Bless ye the Lord. 508

822 Travier's melody. 85, 75 & 4.
THOU who art the ever present And all-seeing gracious God, Make our journey useful, pleasant, Guard and bless us on the road; As we travel— Trav'ling still to thine abode.
2 In this journey, and life's travel, Go with us—thy love display; May we see a bright to-morrow Through the storm-clouds of to-day; Give thine angels Charge to keep us on the way.

823 The Christian voyage. Heb. 6: 19. 8s & 4 W HEN for eternal worlds we steer, And seas are calm, and skies are And faith, in lively exercise, [clear, Sees distant fields of Canaan rise, The soul for joy then spreads her wings, And loud her lovely sonnet sings, Vain world, adieu.

2 With cheerful hope, her eyes explore Each land-mark on the distant shore, The trees of life, the pastures green, The golden streets, the crystal stream : Again for joy she spreads her wings And loud her lovely sonnet sings, I'm going home.

3 The nearer still she draws to land, More eager all her powers expand; With steady helm, and free-bent sail, Her anchor drops within the vail— And now for joy she folds her wings, And her celestial sonnet sings, I'm safe at home. 509

824 Reign of intemperance. C. M. INTEMPERANCE, like a raging flood, Is sweeping o'er the land; Its dire effects, in tears and blood, Are traced on every hand.
2 It still flows on, and bears away

Ten thousands to their doom; Who shall the mighty torrent stay, And disappoint the tomb?

 3 Almighty God, no hand but thine Can check this flowing tide;
 Stretch out thine arm of power divine, And bid the flood subside.

 4 Dry up the source from whence it flows; Destroy its fountain-head;
 That dire intemp'rance and its woes No more the earth o'erspread.

825

The fast-revolving year.

REMARK, my soul, the narrow bound Of the revolving year; How swift the weeks complete their round! How short the months appear!

C. M.

2 So fast eternity comes on, And that important day, When all that mortal life has done, God's judgment shall survey.

3 Yet, like an idle tale, we pass The swift revolving year,

And study artful ways t' increase The speed of its career.

4 Arrest, O Lord, my wand'ring heart, Its great concerns to see, That I may act the Christian part, And give the year to thee. 510

| 5 | So shall their course more grateful roll, |
|---|---|
| | If future years arise; |

826

Autumn.

C. M.

NOW let us raise our voices high, 'And bless the liberal hand Of him who rules above the sky, And smiles upon the land.

- 2 He gives us fruitful trees and fields,— The autumn's ample store;
 With all the comforts nature yields, To bless both rich and poor.
- 3 But autumn does not lessons teach Of gratitude alone :
 - It brings its warning voice, to reach Our hearts, so thoughtless grown.

 4 It warns us, by each chilly eve, And every shortening day—
 By every fading, dropping leaf—
 We, too, must pass away.

5 May holy love and fear combine, Our conduct to control; And rich supplies of grace divine, Renew and save each soul.

827 Prayer of the aged. C. M. TERNAL God, enthroned on high, Whom angel hosts adore— Who yet to suppliant dust art nigh; Thy presence I implore. 2 O, guide me down the steep of age, And keep my passions cool; Teach me to scan the sacred page,

And practice every rule.

While I have breath to pray! (33) 513

 My flesh declined, my spirit fell, And I drew near the dead;
 While inward pangs, and fears of hell, Perplex'd my wakeful head.

4 "My God," I cried, "thy servant save, Thou ever good and just;
Thy power can rescue from the grave, Thy power is all my trust."

5 The Lord beheld me sore distress'd; He bade my pains remove; Return, my soul, to God, thy rest, For thou hast known his love.

6 My God has saved my soul from death, And dried my falling tears; Now to his praise I'll spend my breath, And my remaining years.

832 A prayer for an increase of laborers. S. M. Matt. 9: 33. S. M. CORD of the harvest, hear Thy needy servants' cry; Answer our faith's effectual pray'r, And all our wants supply.

- 2 On thee we humbly wait, Our wants are in thy view; The harvest, Lord, is truly great The laborers are few.
- 3 Anoint and send forth more Into thy church abroad;
 Thy Spirit on their spirits pour,
 And make them strong for God.

4 O, let them spread thy name, Their mission fully prove; Thy universal grace proclaim, Thine all-redeeming love. 514

PARENTAL HYMNS.

Parental entreaty.

MY son, know thou the Lord; Thy father's God obey; Seek his protecting care by night, His guardian hand by day.

835

2 Call, while he may be found; O, seek him while he's near; Serve him with all thy heart and mind, And worship him with fear.

- 3 If thou wilt seek his face, His ear will hear thy cry;
 Then shalt thou find his mercy sure, His grace forever nigh.
- 4 Yield, then, to love divine, Break off your sins to-day; Accept the Saviour's pardoning grace, Believe, repent, and pray.

836 Prayer for children's conversion.

C. M.

S. M.

O LORD, behold us at thy feet, A small paternal band; As suppliants 'round thy mercy-seat,

We come at thy command.

2 'Tis for our children we would plead, The offspring thou hast giv'n; Where shall we go, in time of need, But to the God of heav'n?

3 We ask not for them wealth and fame, Amid the worldly strife; But, in thy all-prevailing name, We ask eternal life.

4 We seek the Spirit's quick'ning grace, To make them pure in heart.

That they may stand before thy face, And see thee as thou art.

Gentleness the fruit of the Spirit.

C. M.

Speak gently! it is better far To rule by love than fear; Speak gently! let not harsh words mar The good we might do here.

2 Speak gently to the little child Its love be sure to gain;
Teach it in accents soft and mild: It may not long remain.

3 Speak gently to the young; for they Will have enough to bear;
Pass through this life as best they may,
'T is full of anxious care.

4 Speak gently! 'tis a little thing, Dropp'd in the heart's deep well; The good, the joy which it may bring Eternity shall tell.

Love at home.

7s & 5s.

THERE is beauty all around, When there's love at home; There is joy in every sound, When there's love at home. Peace and plenty here abide, Smiling sweet on every side, Time doth softly, sweetly glide, When there's love at home. Love at home,

Love at home, Time doth softly, sweetly glide, When there's love at home.

2 In the cottage there is joy, When there's love at home; Hate and envy ne'er annoy, When there's love at home. Roses blossom 'neath our feet, 517

All the earth's a garden sweet, Making life a bliss complete, When there's love at home.

3 Kindly heaven smiles above, When there's love at home;
All the earth is filled with love, Where there's love at home.
Sweeter sings the brooklet by, Brighter beams the azure sky;
O, there's One who smiles on high, When there's love at home.

4 Jesus, make me wholly thine, Then there's love at home; May thy sacrifice be mine, Then there's love at home. Safely from all harm I'll rest, With no sinful care distressed, Thro' thy tender mercy blessed,

With thy love at home .---

839

God's works recounted to posterity. C. M.

ET children hear the mighty deeds Which God performed of old— Which in our younger years we saw, And which our fathers told.

2 He bids us make his glories known, His works of power and grace; And we'll convey his wonders down Through every rising race.

3 Our lips shall tell them to our sons, And they again to theirs, That generations yet unborn May teach them to their heirs.

4 Thus shall they learn, in God alone Their hope securely stands, That they may ne'er forget his works, But practice his commands. 518

Maternal association.

G REAT God, we would to thee make Each fond maternal care; [known For this we gather 'round thy throne, And bring our children there.

2 Lord, hear the parents' earnest cry, And save our children dear; Now send thy Spirit from on high, And fill them with thy fear.

 3 O make them love thy holy law, And joyful walk therein;
 Their hearts to new obedience draw, Save them from every sin.

841

840

Parents' prayer.

S. M.

C. M.

- CAVE all my children, Lord! For less I dare not ask: I know thou wilt fulfil thy word, If I fulfil my task.

2 Thy word is, "Work and pray; Toil on, 'mid hopes and fears; The sowing brings the reaping day, The harvest follows tears."

3 O, let me strive to be The laborer thou wilt bless, And hourly offer unto thee The works of righteousness.

4 Yet, when my best is done, 'T is sin and folly still; My only plea is that thy Son Wrought out thy perfect will.

5 Then hear me while I ask, "Save all my children, Lord !" While I, in faith, fulfil my task, Do thou fulfil thy word.

FRAILTY, SICKNESS AND DEATH.

FRAILTY, SICKNESS AND DEATH.

842

Life passing away.

A S flows the rapid river, With channel broad and free, Its waters rippling ever, And hasting to the sea; So life is onward flowing, And days of offered peace, And man is swiftly going Where calls of mercy cease.

7s & 6s.

2 As moons are ever waning, As hastes the sun away, As stormy winds, complaining, Bring on the wintry day; So fast the night comes o'er us— The darkness of the grave; And death is just before us— God takes the life he gave.

3 Say, hath thy heart its treasure Laid up in worlds above?
And is it all thy pleasure Thy God to praise and love?
Beware, lest death's dark river Its billows o'er thee roll,
And thou lament forever The ruin of thy soul.

843 For sundry occasions. C. M. COME, let us now forget our mirth, And think that we must die; What are our best delights on earth, Compared with those on high ? 2 Our pleasures here will soon be past, Our brightest joys decay; But pleasures there forever last, And cannot fade away.

3 Here sins and sorrows we deplore. With many cares distressed; But there the mourners weep no more, And there the weary rest. 4 Our dearest friends, when death shall call, At once must hence depart; But there we hope to meet them all, And never, never part. 5 Then let us love and serve the Lord. With all our ransomed pow'rs; And we shall gain this great reward, This glory shall be ours. P. M. 844 Dying Christian. WHAT'S this that steals, that steals upon my ls it death?—Is it death? [frame? That soon will guench-will guench this mortal Is it death ?- Is it death ? [flame? If this be death, I soon shall be From every pain and sorrow free: I shall the King of glory see ;-All is well !- All is well ! 2 Weep not, my friends-my friends, weep not for me; All is well !- All is well ! My sins are pardon'd, pardon'd-I am free; All is well !- All is well ! There's not a cloud that doth arise, To hide my Saviour from my eyes: I soon shall mount the upper skies ;-All is well !- All is well ! 3 Tune, tune your harps-your harps, ye saints above; All is well !- All is well ! I will rehearse-rehearse redeeming love; All'is well !- All is well ! Bright angels are from glory come; They're 'round my bed, they're in my room : They wait to waft my spirit home ;-All is well !- All is well ! 4 Hark! hark! my Lord and Master calls for me; All is well !- All is well ! I soon his face, in glory bright, shall see; All is well !- All is well ! Farewell, dear friends,-adieu-adieu : I can no longer stay with you : My glittering crown appears in view ;--All is well !- All is well ! 521

FRAILTY, SICKNESS AND DEATH.

845 Serious thoughts under affliction. C. M. MY life declines, my strength is gone, Disease and pains prevail; Death threatens to arrest me soon, My heart and flesh do fail.

2 Soon I must leave this body here, Soon must my soul away;

O, awful thought! my soul, prepare For that tremendous day!

3 But how shall I prepare my heart, Eternal life to gain? Jesus, thy grace, thy strength impart, For all I do is vain.

4 Renew'd and justified by grace, Complete I then shall stand Before th' almighty Father's face, When he'll my life demand.

846

A lively hope.

SWEET to rejoice in lively hope, That, when my change shall come, Angels will hover 'round my bed, And waft my spirit home.

C. M.

2 There shall my disembodied soul View Jesus, and adore; Be with his likeness satisfied, And grieve and sin no more.

6 Soon, too, my slumb'ring dust shall hear The trumpet's quickening sound, And by my Saviour's power rebuilt, At his right hand be found.

If such the views which grace unfolds, Faint as they are below,

What rapture must the church above In Jesus' presence know! 847

Death of a child.

C. M.

LIFE is a span—a fleeting hour: How soon the vapor flies! Man is a tender, transient flow'r, That e'en in blooming dies.

2 The once-loved form, now cold and dead, Each mournful thought employs; And nature weeps her comforts fled,

And withered all her joys.

 3 Hope looks beyond the bounds of time, When what we now deplore
 Shall rise in full, immortal prime, And bloom to fade no more.

4 Cease, then, fond nature, cease thy tears; Thy Saviour dwells on high; There everlasting spring appears; There joys shall never die.

848

Weep not.

P. M.

CHED not a tear o'er your friend's early bier, When I am gone-when I am gone; Smile, if the slow-tolling bell you should hear, When I am gone-I am gone. Weep not for me, when you stand 'round my Think who has died his beloved to save; [grave, Think of the crown all the ransomed shall have, When I am gone-I am gone. 2 Shed not a tear, when you stand 'round my grave, When I am gone-when I am gone; Sing a sweet song unto him who doth save, When I am gone-I am gone. Sing to the Lamb, who on earth once was slain; Sing to the Lamb, who in heaven doth reign; Sing, till the world shall be fill'd with his name, When I am gone-I am gone. 3 Plant ye a tree, which may wave over me, When I am gone-when I am gone; Sing ye a song, if my grave you should see, When I am gone-I am gone. Come, at the close of a bright summer day;

Come, when the sun sheds its last ling'ring ray; Come, and rejoice that I thus pass'd away,

When I am gone-I am gone.

849 The righteous have peace in death. 6s & 8s

G⁰ to thy rest in peace; And soft be thy repose: Thy toils are o'er, thy troubles cease; From earthly cares, in sweet release, Thine eye-lids gently close.

2 Go to thy peaceful rest, For thee we need not weep; Since thou art now among the blest, No more by sin and sorrow pressed, But hushed in quiet sleep.

3 Go to thy rest; and while Thy absence we deplore, One thought our sorrow shall beguile, For soon with a celestial smile, We'll meet to part no more.

Meditation on the tomb.

HOW still and peaceful is the grave, Where, life's vain tumults past, Th' appointed place, by heaven's decree, Receives us all at last.

C. M.

- 2 There servants, masters, small and great, Partake the same repose; And there in peace the ashes mix Of those who once were foes.
- 3 All, level'd by the hand of death, Lie sleeping in the tomb, Till God in judgment calls them forth . To meet their final doom.

4 0 may I stand before the Lamb, When earth and seas are fled, And hear the judge pronounce my name, With blessings on my head. 524

Sing to me of Heaven.

S. M.

O SING to me of heaven, When I am call'd to die. Sing songs of holy ecstasy, To waft my soul on high!

2 When cold and sluggish drops Roll off my pallid brow, Burst forth in strains of joyfulness: Let heaven begin below 1

3 When the last moment comes, O, watch my dying face, And catch the bright, seraphic gleam, Which o'er each feature plays.

4 Then, to my raptur'd ears, Let one sweet song be given— Let music charm me last on earth, And greet me first in heaven.

5 Then close my sightless eyes, And lay me down to rest, And clasp my pale and icy hands, Upon my lifeless breast:—

6 Then 'round my senseless clay Assemble those I love, And sing of heaven, delightful heav'n, My glorious home above.

The uncertainty of life

C. M.

BENEATH our feet and o'er our head Is equal warning given; Beneath us lie the countless dead, Above us is the heaven.

 2 Death rides on every passing breeze, And lurks in every flow'r;
 Each season has its own disease, Its peril every hour.

FRAILTY, SICKNESS AND DEATH.

3 Our eyes have seen the rosy light Of youth's soft cheek decay, And fate descend in sudden night On manhood's middle day.

4 Our eyes have seen the steps of age Halt feebly at the tomb; And yet shall earth our hearts engage, And dreams of days to come?

5 Turn, mortal, turn—thy danger know; Where'er thy foot can tread, The earth rings hollow from below, And warns thee of her dead.

6 Turn, sinner, turn: thy soul apply To truths divinely given: The forms which underneath thee lie Shall live, in hell or heaven.

853 Moses dying in the embraces of God. C. M. DEATH cannot make our souls afraid, If God be with us there; We may walk through the darkest shade, And never yield to fear.

 2 I could renounce my all below, If my Creator bid;
 And run, if I were call'd to go, And die as Moses did.

3 Might I but climb to Pisgah's top, And view the promis'd land, My flesh itself would long to drop, And pray for the command.

4 Clasp'd in my heav'nly Father's arms, I would forget my breath, And lose my life among the charms Of so divine a death. 526

C. M. 854 To a departed saint. EAR as thou wast, and justly dear, We will not weep for thee: One thought shall check the starting tear: It is, that thou art free. 2 And thus shall faith's consoling pow'r The tears of love restrain: O, who that saw thy parting hour Could wish thee here again? 3 Triumphant in thy closing eye The hope of glory shone; Joy breathed in thy expiring sigh, To think the race was run. 4 The passing spirit gently fled, Sustain'd by grace divine; O, may such grace on us be shed, And make our end like thine. Brevity of life. C. M. 855 Gen. 48: 9. UR days, alas! our mortal days Are short and wretched too; "Evil and few," the patriarch says, And well the patriarch knew. 2 'T is but at best a narrow bound, That heav'n allows to men: And pains and sins run thro' the round Of three score years and ten. 3 Let heav'nly love prepare my soul, And call her to the skies. Where years of long salvation roll, And glory never dies. 856 7, 6s & 8.NOTHER, thou art gone to rest! We will not weep for thee, For thou art now where oft on earth Thy spirit longed to be. 527

| And darkness has seal'd up mine eyes, |
| And deep in the dust I am laid? |

| I'll trust for defence to his rod, |
| And lean on his staff as I go. |

Death of an infant.

C. M

WE lay thee in the silent tomb, Sweet blossom of a day; We just began to view thy bloom, When thou wert call'd away.

2 Friendship and love have done their last And now can do no more;
The bitterness of death is past, And all thy sufferings o'er.

3 Thy gentle spirit passed away 'Mid pain the most severe;
So great we could not wish thy stay A moment longer here.

4 O, who could wish thy longer stay In such a world as this, Since thou hast gain'd the realms of day And pure, undying bliss?

Death of a sister.

C. M

DEATH has been here, and borne away A sister from our side: Just in the morning of her day, As young as we, she died.

2 Perhaps our time may be as short, Our days may fly as fast :

O Lord, impress the solemn thought That this may be our last!

We cannot tell who next may fall Beneath thy chastening rod; One must be first—O, may we all Prepare to meet our God!

 All needful help is thine to give; To thee our souls apply
 For grace to teach us how to live, And make us fit to die.

FRAILTY, SICKNESS AND DEATH.

Death of an aged saint.

L. M.

G 0 to thy rest, with sorrow worn, With burdens bowed, with woos oppressed By storms and tempests tossed and torn, All now is calm; go to thy rest.

2 Go to thy rest; thy pains are past; Thy groans and sighs and tears are o'er; Thy soft repose has come at last: Go, rest in hope, and weep no more.

3 Go to thy rest; in Jesus sleep, With heaven's own blessing on thee shed; For thee we have no tears to weep; Rest, with the holy, blessed dead.

4 Go to thy rest; thy Lord shall come, And vanquished death shall lose his sting; Then, rising from the rending tomb, Behold thy God, and wake and sing.

5 Go to thy slumbers; close thine eyes; This brief repose no terror brings; Thy Sun of righteousness shall rise On thee, with healing in his wings.

861

The dying saint's farewell.

C. M.

DEAR friends, farewell, I go to dwell With Jesus Christ on high; There for to sing praise to my King To all eternity.

2 While I've been here, you have been dear; I've always found you kind; But now thro' grace I quit this place, And leave you all behind.

 Weep not for me, for here you see My trials have been great;
 But now ('tis true) I bid adieu, And chânge my mournful state.

 4 'T will not be long before the throng Will all together be;
 And you that know the Lord below, Shall then your Saviour see.
 530

 5 There we shall join in songs divine, God's holy name shall praise,
 And view Christ's smiles, forget the toils Of these few evil days.

 6 There we shall stand at his right hand, And in his presence dwell,
 And him adore forever more, So, brethren, now farewell.

HEAVEN.

862

Christian's home.

6s & 4s.

I'M but a stranger here— Heaven is my home; Earth is a desert drear— Heaven is my home: Danger and sorrow stand 'Round me on every hand— Heaven is my father-land, Heaven is my home.

2 What, though the tempests rage? Heaven is my home;
Short is my pilgrimage— Heaven is my home:
And time's wild, wintry blast
Soon will be overpassed :
I shall reach home at last— Heaven is my home.

3 There, at my Saviour's side,— Heaven is my home; I shall be glorified,--

Heaven is my home: There are the good and blest, Those I love most and best; There, too, I soon shall rest,— Heaven is my home. 531

4 Therefore, I murmur not— Heaven is my home; Whate'er my earthly lot, Heaven is my home; And I shall surely stand There at my Lord's right hand— Heaven is my father-land; Heaven is my home.

863

Believer's hope and portion.

WHAT have I in this barren land, When Jesus is not here? My soul is never bless'd, until My Jesus doth appear.

C. M.

2 My Jesus has gone up to heav'n, To fix a place for me:
For 't is his will, that where he is, His followers should be.

 3 Canaan I view from Pisgah's top;
 Of Canaan's grapes I taste;
 My Lord, who sends them to me here, Will send for me at last.

4 I have a God who changeth not; Why should I be perplex'd? My God, who owns me in this world, Will own me in the next.

864 Heaven, the pilgrim's home. C. M WHILE through this changing world we From infancy to age, [roam, Heaven is the Christian pilgrim's home, His rest at every stage.
2 Thither his raptured thought ascends, Eternal joys to share ; There his adoring spirit bends, While here he kneels in pray'r.

532

 From earth his freed affections rise, To fix on things above,
 Where all his hope of glory lies— Where all is perfect love.

4 There, too, may we our treasure place, There let our hearts be found; That still, where sin abounded, grace May more and more abound.

5 Henceforth our conversation be With Christ before the throne; Ere long we eye to eye shall see, And know as we are known.

865

The heavenly rest.

8s & 7s.

THERE is an hour of peaceful rest, To weary wanderers given; There is relief for souls distressed; A balm for every wounded breast; 'Tis found above, in heaven.

2 There is a home for weary souls, By sin and sorrow driven— Who're toss'd on life's tempestuous shoals, Where storms arise and ocean rolls, And all is drear;—'t is heaven.

3 There faith lifts up the tearless eye To brighter prospects given;
It views the tempest passing by, Sees evening shadows quickly fly, And all serene, in heaven.

4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom, And joys supreme are given; There rays divine disperse the gloom;— Beyond the confines of the tomb Appears the dawn of heaven. 533

| 2 He is fitting up my mansion, Which eternally shall stand; For my stay shall not be transient In that holy, happy land. |
| Bain nor sickness ne'er shall enter, Grief nor woe my lot shall share, But in that celestial centre, I a crown of life shall wear. |
| 4 Death itself shall then be vanquish'd; And his sting shall be withdrawn; Shout for gladness, O ye ransom'd! Hail with joy the rising morn. |

The saint's home.

C. M.

THERE is a land of glorious light, Beyond this vale of tears,

Where all the blood-washed saints unite, Redeemed from all their fears.

 2 In heaven is that happy place, Where all the ransomed rest;
 Where saints can sing of pardoning grace, And be forever blest.

3 O! were we, on those shores of bliss, To view our Saviour's face,

We'd leave a world of woe like this, And sing redeeming grace.

870 He shall give his angels charge over thee. C. M. Psalm 91.

O MAY the Lord our footsteps guide, In all the ways of right; And fit us for that happy bride, In mansions of delight.

2 Then, when our spirits shall be free From all we've done amiss,

Then can we there together be, In that sweet land of bliss. 535

10s & 8s. 876 When shall we greet them, etc. WE shall greet them at home, we shall greet them. When the sorrow of life shall be o'er; Our lov'd ones, we hope soon to meet them, On Eden's fair, beautiful shore : The glorious thought, how consoling, To know that the time is so nigh, When Jesus, the world, shall, controlling, Permit us to join them on high. 2 We shall greet them at home, we shall greet them, Though now they are hid from our sight, We think of the time we shall meet them, And it oft fills our hearts with delight ; We have laid them away in deep sadness. Yet not without hope in our breast ; For again they will join us with gladness, And enter the heavenly rest. 3 We shall greet them at home, we shall greet them, Where nothing can ever divide : Where sickness, or death, can not harm them, Nor tear them again from our side: There we'll range beside life's cooling river. 'Neath the tree of life's shade we shall roam. With the glory of God shining ever, We'll greet them, we'll greet them at home. The holy Jerusalem. 877 C. M. Rev. 21: 10. ERUSALEM, my glorious home! A home in heaven.

8s & 7s.

FAR beyond these sea-girt islands, Far beyond time's stormy shore,— Rise the glad celestial highlands, Where the woes of earth are o'er.

2 Though my bark, at anchor lying, Feels the storms that round me blow, Yet my home-sick heart is sighing-Loose the cable; let me go!

 3 Crested waves are dashing near me, Howling winds around me wail;
 But, to comfort me and cheer me, I've a hope within the vail.

4 One by one earth's ties dividing, Part me from this scene of woe; From the shore I'll soon be gliding— Loose the cable; let me go!

5 When the stormy voyage's ended, With what peace I shall be blest; Christ, with angel hosts attended, Shall appear to give me rest.

SHALL we meet beyond the river, Where the surges cease to roll? Where in all the bright forever, Sorrows ne'er shall press the soul? Shall we meet with those departed, Who have bowed beneath death's wave? Shall we meet the holy myriads, Who are ransomed from the grave? Shall we meet? Shall we meet? Say, brother, shall we meet?

2 Shall we meet in that blest harbor, When our stormy voyage 's o'er? Shall we meet and cast the anchor, By the fair celestial shore?
Shall we rest from all our labors, 'Mid the swelling of the tide? Shall we meet and rest forever, By our blessed Saviour's side?

3 Shall we meet with Christ our Saviour, When he comes to claim his own? Shall we know his blessed favor, And sit down upon his throne?
Will he bid us share his glory, Where no shame shall ever be?
Will he bid us sing his praises, On that radiant crystal sea?

4 Shall we meet, my wandering brother? Say, O will you meet me there? When earth's glory shall be darkness, And its joy shall be despair? When before the throne of judgment We shall all together stand? Will you pray and strive to meet me With the blest at Christ's right hand? 543

The beautiful shore.

12s & 9s.

THERE's a home for the blest on the beautiful shore, Where our trials and cares all shall cease; Sorrows never shall enter that blissful abode Ever there shall abide perfect peace. On that beautiful shore, where the bright angels stay All our sorrow and pain will be o'er: O! we long to go home to that beautiful land, There to rest, sweetly rest, evermore.

2 The bright streets of the city are paved with pure gold, And its flowers are fragrant and fair; Its inhabitants never grow weary nor old, For the Lord reigns eternally there.

5 There will be no more parting from those that we love, No more sighing or shedding of tears, For no discords shall ruffle that peaceful repose, Which flows through eternity's year.

4 O! we soon shall be called to that beautiful land, There to dwell with the just evermore; There to join in sweet songs with the friends that we love Safe at home on the beautiful shore.

All things become new.

C. M.

SINCE man, by sin, has lost his God, He seeks creation through, And vainly hopes for solid good, In finding something new.

- 2 The new possess'd, like fading flow'rs, Soon loses its gay hue; The gilded, too, no longer charms, We still want something new.
- 3 The brighest things below the sky Give but a flattering light; We should suspect some danger nigh Where we possess delight.

 4 Our dearest joys, our nearest friends, The partners of our blood—
 How they divide our wavering minds, And leave but half for God!

5 The fondness of a creature's love, How strong it strikes the sense! Thither the strong affections move, Nor can we call them thence.

885

Tokens of the latter days.

L. M.

ARK! don't you hear the turtle dove, The tokens of redeeming love? From hill to hill, we hear the sound, The neighboring valleys echo 'round! O Zion! hear the turtle dove, The tokens of redeeming love: They're come the barren land to cheer, And welcome in the jubile year.

- 2 The winter's past, the rain is o'er, We feel the chilling winds no more; Sweet spring is come, and summer too, All things appear divinely new; On Zion's mount the watchmen cry, The resurrection's drawing nigh; Behold! the nations from abroad Are flocking to the mount of God.
- 3 The latter days have now come on, And fugitives are flocking home; Behold them crowd the gospel road, All pressing for the mount of God. O yes! and I will join the band— Now here's my heart, and here's my hand; With Satan's bands no more I'll be, But fight for Christ and liberty.
- 4 His banner soon shall be unfurl'd, And he will come to judge the world; On Zion's mountain we will stand, Surrounded by fair Canaan's land. The sun and moon shall darken'd be, The flames consume the land and sea; When worlds on worlds together blaze, We'll sing God's everlasting praise. (35) 545

886 7 TELCOME, welcome, day of rest, To the world in kindness given, Welcome to this humble breast, As the beaming light from heaven. 2 Day of soft and sweet repose, Gently now thy moments run, As the peaceful streamlet flows, Radiant with a summer's sun. 3 Day of tidings from the skies, Day of solemn praise and prayer, Day to make the simple wise-O, how great thy blessings are!. 4 Welcome, welcome, day of rest, With thy influence all divine, May thy haliow'd hours be blest To this feeble heart of mine! 887 How beautiful upon the mountains. 8s, 7s & 4 Isaiah 52: 7. N the mountain's top appearing, Lo! the sacred herald stands, Welcome news to Zion bearing-Zion, long in hostile lands: Mourning captive, God himself will loose thy bands. 2 Has thy night been long and mournful? Have thy friends unfaithful prov'd? Have thy foes been proud and scornful, By thy sighs and tears unmov'd? Cease thy mourning; Zion still is well-belov'd. 3 God, thy God, will now restore thee: He himself appears thy Friend; All thy foes shall flee before thee : Here their boasts and triumphs end. Great deliv'rance Zion's King will surely send. 546

MISCELLANEOUS. 4 Peace and joy shall now attend thee: All thy warfare now be past; God thy Saviour will defend thee; Victory is thine at last: All thy conflicts End in everlasting rest. C. P. M. 888 The complainer reformed. I SET myself against the Lord, Despis'd his Spirit and his word, And wish'd to take his place; It vex'd me sore that I must die, And perish too, eternally,. Or else be sav'd by grace. 2 Of ev'ry preacher I'd complain, One spoke thro' pride, and one for gain, Another's learning small: This spoke too fast, and that too slow; One pray'd too loud, and one too low, The other had no call. 3 With no professors could I join, Some dress'd too mean, and some too fine, And others talked too long; Some had a tone, some had no gift, Some talk'd so weak, and some so swift, That all of them were wrong. 4 I thought they'd better keep at home, Than to exhort where'er they come. And tell us of their joys; They'd better keep their gardens free From weeds, than to examine me, And vex me with their noise. 5 Kindred and neighbors all were bad.

And no true friends were to be had— My rulers, too, were vile; At length I was brought clear to see,

The fault did mostly lie in me, And had done all the while.

An old sinner dying in despair.

С. М

BEHOLD the man, three-score and ten, Upon a dying bed, Has run his race, and got no grace, An awful sight indeed!

2 Poor man, he lies in sad surprise, And thus he doth complain : No grace I've got, and I cannot Recall my time again.

3 This is the truth—I spent my youth . In sinful sports and mirth; Put far away the evil day, And scarcely thought on death.

4 My conscience then could not refrain, But gave me many a check; But willingly I put him by, His voice I did reject. 550 5 God's Spirit came once and again To me from realms above; Alas! but I would not comply; I grieved the heavenly Dove.

- 6 In middle age, I did engage In the affairs of life, Some wealth to gain, that might sustain My children and my wife.
- 7 This worldly care did prove a snare, The devil led me on; And now, alas! this is the case, My day of grace is gone.
- 8 My sins are all, both great and small, Before my fixed eye, And I must go to dismal woe, To groan, to gasp, to die.
- 9 O dreadful hell, what tongue can tell The wrath that reigneth there!
 - O second death! I yield my breath, In horror and despair.
- 10 My race is run, and I'm undone, No mercy can I find! And instantly the man doth die, And leave no hope behind!
- 11 An awful sight! God grant it might A warning be to all,
 To seek his face for saving grace, And hearken to his call.

The meal and cruise of oil.

С. М.

BY the poor widow's oil and meal, Elijah was sustain'd; Though small the stock, it lasted well, For God the store maintain'd. 551

2 It seem'd as if, from day to day, They-were to eat and die; But still, though in a secret way, He sent a fresh supply.

3 Thus to his poor he still will give, Just for the present hour; But for to-morrow they must live Upon his word and pow'r.

 4 No barn or store-house they possess, On which they can depend;
 Yet have no cause to fear distress, For Jesus is their friend.

5 Then let no doubts your mind assail: Remember, God has said,

"The cruse and barrel shall not fail, My people shall be fed."

6 And thus, though faint it often seems, He keeps their grace alive; Supplied by his refreshing streams, Their dying hopes revive.

 7 Though in ourselves we have no stock, The Lord is nigh to save;
 His door flies open when we knock, And 't is but ask and have.

Pure religion.

893

C. P. M.

 $igoplus {f f}$ all religions that are found. Whose forms do lead their subjects round, In all this earthly region. There is one better than the rest, Which properly is call'd the best-And that is pure Religion.

2 To visit widows with relief, And save the fatherless from grief In time of their affliction; And then, against temptations hurl'd, To keep unspotted from the world, Is real, pure Religion. 552

- 3 There's many people who profess To have religion more or less, And talk of sins forgiven; Who say they walk the heav'nly road, And say they feel the love of God, And think they're heirs of heaven:
- 4 But if they gratify their pride, And will be eovetous beside, And pattern after sinners— To set their hearts on things below, And talk as other worldlings do, "T is only vain religion.
- 5 But thanks to God, I find a few, Who good sincerity do shew, To follow after Jesus : They joyfully forsake their pride, And lay their vanities aside, For the sake of pure Rèligion.
- 6 And now if they have earthly store, Which God has lent them, less or more, They give it up with freedom: Like uneient Paul, who suffer't loss, They gladly now endure the cross, For the sake of pure Religion.
- 7 They bring their thoughts to judgment now And thus they make their actions bow To Jesus, their Redeemer; They know, if they're defil'd with sin, And if they have not Christ within, 'Twill not be pure Religion.
- 8 All those who count all things as loss, And willingly take up the eross, To gain a heav'nly mansion – Although by sinners they're despised They're precious in the Saviour's eye, For they have pure Religion.
- 9 My precious friends, let us be strong, And take the cross, and run along, And leave the world's confusion: That we may gain the heav'nly prize, And see the Saviour with our eyes— The end of pure Religion.

10 Professors say we are too strict, And some good things they contradict, Which strikes against the worldling And now, because we live to God, There's many call us very odd, Despising pure Religion. 553

11 But, while we walk this heav'nly road, This way of truth which leads to God, In which we find such freedom; We'll bear reproach for Jesus' name, Endure the cross, despise the shame, For the sake of pure Religion.

12 Although for Christ we suffer loss, We find such virtue in his cross, The beauty of his Kingdom— O, let us count all things as loss, And like the dung, or as the dross, For the sake of pure Religion.

All is vanily. Eccl. 1:2. 8s & 7s.

AM weary, I am weary Of the cares and toils of life; I am weary of its sorrows I am weary of its strife; I am weary of its flowers, That are blooming soon to die; And th' immortal spirit pineth For its home beyond the sky.

2 I am weary of the trifles That consume away my days;

- I am weary of the longing For mere human love and praise.
- I am weary of the thoughts that turn So constantly to earth;

Fain would my spirit rise above Its transient joy and mirth.

- 3 I have seen the flowers wither; I have seen the lov'd ones die;
 - I have seen the clouds of sorrow Overcast youth's summer sky.
 - I am pining, I am pining

For my home among the blest, Where the wicked cease from troubling, And the weary are at rest.

Excellence of faith

6s & 8s.

HAITH is the Christian's prop, Whereon his sorrows lean; It is the substance of his hope, His proof of things unseen; It is the anchor of his soul, When tempests rage and billows roll.

2 Faith is the polar star That guides the Christian's way, Directs his wand'rings from afar, To realms of endless day; It points the course where'er he roam, And safely leads the pilgrim home.

3 Faith is the rainbow's form, Hung on the brow of heaven, A shelter from the passing storm, A pledge of mercy given; It is the bright triumphal arch, Thro' which the saints to glory march.

4 The faith that works by love, And purifies the heart,
A foretaste of the joys above To mortals can impart;
It bears us through this earthly strife, And triumphs in immortal life.

The way of the cross. 7

7s, 6s & 8s.

W HY will you not, O Chrisian, Your wicked self deny? Why will you run such hazard, Yourself to gratify? To hold the worldly spirit fast, Against the truth's instruction, Will shut you out of heaven at last, And land you in destruction. 555

2 Think not, it is too little To wear a modest dress : Consider what is needful, And lay aside the rest: And take the rule of Jesus Christ, By which yourself to measure; And always choose to help the poor, Before an earthly treasure. 3 Lay by all carnal weapons, By which men are destroy'd: For safety and protection Trust wholly in the Lord: And never lift your hands to swear, Lest God should be offended: In tender conscience now forbear. Whatever is pretended. 4 Refuse all worldly honors, Which ever man bestow: Thou canst not be a worldling, And Christ's disciple too: Come out and leave the wicked throng, In political confusion: O, come ye out from Babylon, From Egypt, and from Sodom. S.M. 897 Unity. • ET strife forever cease. And envy quit the field; Come join and live in love and peace, And to the Gospel yield. 2 Let bitter words no more Among the saints remain; Let ev'ry member, ev'ry hour, Submit to Jesus' reign.

3 When bitter words arise, Then Satan has his ends; We wound the heart and hands of Christ, Amidst his chosen friends. 556

4 Then why should we contend For meat, and drink, and dress, And crucify the Lord again, And pierce his wounds afresh?

 5 No more we'll feed the flame, Nor judge ourselves too wise;
 But search with care to find the beam That lurks within our eyes.

6 Unto the world we'll prove That we disciples are;
They shall behold us walk in love, And say the Lord is there.

898 No man can come to me except the Father L. M draw him.-John. 6:44.

THE Father, in his boundless love, Invites the sinner to the Son! And in his mercy from above, Wills not that he should be undone.

2 The Son the penitent receives, And, in his boundless love and grace, Forgives his sins, when he believes, And fills his heart with heav'nly rays.

3 The Holy Ghost is sent in love, To lead and guide us on the way; Until we all shall meet above, In realms of bliss and endless day.

 4 So we in baptism also show, God's order toward the fallen race— How we're reclaimed from sin and woe, And find in him a hiding-place.

Joseph made known to his brethren.

899

W HEN Joseph his brethren beheld, Afflicted and trembling with fear, His heart with compassion was fill'd; From weeping he could not forbear. 557

8s.

Awhile his behaviour was rough, To bring their past sin to their mind; But when they were humbled enough, He hasten'd to show himself kind.

2 How little they thought it was he, Whom they had ill-treated and sold! How great their confusion must be, As soon as his name he had told! I'm Joreph, your brother, (he said,) And still to my heart you are dear; You sold me, and thought I was dead; But God for your good sent me here.

3 Though greatly distressed before, When charged with purloining the cup, They now were confounded much more— Not one of them durst to look up:
Can Joseph, whom we would have slain, Forgive us the evil we did?
And will he our household maintain?
O, this is a brother indeed!

4 Thus, pierc'd by my conscience, I came (And laden with guilt) to the Lord; Surrounded with terror and shame, Unable to utter a word:

At first he look'd stern and severe; What anguish then pierc'd my poor Expecting each moment to hear [heart! The sentence, "Thou cursed, depart."

5 But O! what surprise, when he spoke, While tenderness beam'd in his face,

My heart then to pieces was broke, O'erwhelm'd and confounded with grace.

"Poor sinner, I know thee full well; By thee I was wounded and slain;

I died to redeem thee from hell, And raise thee in glory to reign. 558

6 "I'm Jesus, whom thou hast blasphem'd, And crucified often afresh; But let me henceforth be esteem'd Thy brother, thy bone, and thy flesh. My pardon I freely bestow, Thy wants I will fully supply; I'll guide thee and guard thee below, And soon will remove thee on high. 7 "Go, publish to sinners around, (That they may be willing to come) The mercy which now thou hast found, And tell them that yet there is room." O! sinner, the message obey: No more vain excuses pretend ; But come without further delay. To Jesus, our brother and friend.

Strength from heaven.

H. M

BY whom was David taught To aim the dreadful blow, When he Goliah fought, And laid the Gittite low? No sword or spear the stripling took, But chose a pebble from the brook.

2 'T was Israel's God and King Who sent him to the fight, Who gave him strength to sling, And skill to aim aright. Ye feeble saints, your strength endures, Because young David's God is yours.

Who order'd Gideon forth, To storm th' invader's camp,
With arms of little worth, A pitcher and a lamp?
The trumpet made his coming known,
And all the host was overthrown. 559

4 O! I have seen the day, When with a single word—
God helping me to say, My trust is in the Lord—
My soul has quell'd a thousand foes, Fearless of all that could oppose.

5 But unbelief, self-will, Self-righteousness and pride, How often do they steal My weapon from my side! Yet David's Lord and Gideon's friend, Will help his servant to the end.

The tender-hearted.

9s,8s&7.

COME, all ye tender-hearted Christians, O! come, and help us now to mourn ! Behold! the Son of God lies bleeding; And view his precious body torn ! Behold him, praying in the garden, While his soul in grief is bound; And the bloody sweat is running In crimson drops upon the ground

2 He was a man of constant sorrow And went a mourner all his days;
With sore distress was well acquainted, But never went in sinful ways.
The foxes have their holes provided, And the birds they have their nest, But the Son of man had nowhere To lay his weary head to rest.

Behold him, when the soldiers took him, And led him unto Pilate's bar!
O! come, ye tender-hearted Christians, And view your dear Redeemer there!
Behold him, when be was condemned, Wearing of a thorny crown, 560

And his tender temples pierced, Until the blood came running down. 4 And then behold the soldiers take him, And nail him to a shameful tree: O! see him on the cross a-bleeding, His soul in mortal agony; Hark, how the legal thunders smite him. Forgiveness of others. C. M. double. 905 Matt. 6: 12-15. GOD! my sins are manifold, Against my life they cry, And, all my guilty deeds foregone, Up to thy temple fly: Wilt thou release my trembling soul, Which to despair is driven ?---"Forgive!" a blessed voice replied, "And thou shalt be forgiven!" 2 My foemen, Lord, are fierce and fell, They spurn me in their pride; They render evil for my good, My patience they deride: Arise, O King! and be the proud To righteous ruin driven!-"Forgive!" an awful answer came, "As thou wouldst be forgiven !" 3 Seven times, O Lord, I pardon'd them; Seven times they sinn'd again; They practice still to work my woe. They triumph in my pain; But let them dread my vengeance now, To just resentment driven !--"Forgive!" the voice of thunder spake, "Or never be forgiven!" The church in trouble. Rev. 12. L. Love one another.

12s & 11s.

LET us love one another. Not long may we stay In this brief world of mourning, so brief is life's day; Some fade ere 't is noon, and few linger till eve; There breaks not a heart, but leaves some one to grieve.

- 2 And the fondest, the purest, the truest that met, Have found there was need to forgive and forget; Then, O, though the hopes that we nourish'd decay, Let us love one another as long as we may.
- 3 Thus we'll love one another 'midst sorrow the worst, Unalter'd and fond as we loved at the first; Though the false wing of pleasure may change and forsake, And the bright urn of wealth into particles break.

4 There are some sweet affections that earth cannot buy, That cling but the closer when sorrow draws nigh, And remain with us yet, though all else pass away: Yes, we'll love one another as long as we stay.

910 And I saw the dead, great and small, 8s & 7s. stand before God.-Rev. 20: 12.

GREAT God, what do I see and hear? The end of things created:

The Judge of man I see appear, On clouds of glory seated! The trumpet sounds; the graves restore The dead which they contained before; Prepare, my soul, to meet him.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise, At the last trumpet's sounding; Caught up to meet him in the skies, With joy their Lord surrounding: No gloomy fears their souls dismay; His presence sheds eternal day On those prepared to meet him.

But sinners, filled with guilty fears, Behold his wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise, and find their tears And sighs are unavailing;
The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne, All unprepared to meet him.

4 Great God, what do I see and hear? The end of things created; The Judge of man I see appear, On clouds of glory seated. Before his cross I view the day When heaven and earth shall pass away, And thus prepare to meet him.

911

Crucify him, crucify him ! John 19: 6.

C. M

SEE the crowd in Pilate's hall; I mark their wrathful mien; Their shouts of "crucify" appall, With blasphemy between. 566 2 And of that shouting multitude I feel that I am one; And in that din of voices rude, I recognize my own.

- 3 I see the scourges tear his back, I see the piercing crown; And of that crowd who smite and mock I feel that I am one.
- 4 Around yon cross the throng I see, Mocking the sufferer's groan;
 Yet still my voice it seems to be, As if I mocked alone.
- 5 'T was I that shed the sacred blood; I nailed him to the tree;
 - I crucified the Christ of God; I joined the mockery!
- 6 Yet not the less that blood avails To cleanse away my sin! And not the less that cross prevails To give me peace within!

912 Let us love him, for he first loved us. 1 John 4: 19. L. M.

O THOU, my soul, forget no more The Friend who all thy sorrows bore: Let every idol be forgot; But O, my soul, forget him not!

- 2 Jesus for thee a body takes, Thy guilt assumes, thy fetters breaks, Discharging all thy dreadful debt; And canst thou e'er such love forget?
- 3 Renounce thy ways and works with grief, And fly to this most sure relief; Nor him forget, who left his throne, And for thy life gave up his own.

| | 4 Infinite truth and mercy shine In him, and he himself is thine: And canst thou, then, with sin beset, Such love, such matchless love, forget? |
|---|---|
| | 5 O, no! till time itself depart, His name shall cheer and warm my heart; And lisping this, from earth I'll rise To join the chorus of the skies. |
| 9 | 13 L.M. |
| - | SINNERS, perhaps this news to you May have no weight, although so true; The carnal pleasures of the earth Cast off the thoughts and fears of death. |
| 2 | The aged sinner will not turn— His heart's so hard, he cannot mourn : Much harder than a flinty rock— He will not turn, though Jesus knock. |
| 3 | The blooming youths, in all their prime, Are counting out their length of time; They ofttimes say 't is their intent, When they get old, they will repent. |
| 4 | But O! the sad and awful state Of those who stay, and come too late: The foolish virgins—they begin To knock, but can not enter in. |
| 5 | When Christ the Lord shall come again, In clouds of heaven and a flame, And Gabriel shall proclaim the sound, "Awake, ye nations under ground"— |
| 6 | O! how will parents, tremble there, Who raise their children without prayer! Methinks they'll hear their children say, |

"I never heard my parents pray." 568 7 Good Lord! what groans, what bitter cries, What thunder rolling through the skies!
 Poor sinners sink in dark despair, While saints are caught up in the air.

914 Farewett. C. M BRETHREN and sisters, we must part, And to our callings go; But let us all keep one in heart, Whilst we remain below.

2 We may but meet a few times more, Till we shall meet above,

Where pain and parting are no more, In that bright world of love.

3 We shall with Christ, in Paradise, To endless ages dwell;

Then let us instant watch and pray, So now, dear friends, farewell.

 4 And when we meet in heaven above, Where saints and angels dwell,
 We'll sing of his redeeming love, And never say farewell.

The Lost Sheep.

P. M.

THERE were ninety-and-nine that safely lay In the shelter of the fold; And one was out on the hills away, Far off from the gates of gold; Away on the montains wild and bare – Away from the tender Shepherd's care.

2 "Lord, thou hast here the ninety-and-nine— Are they not enough for thee?" But the Shepherd made answer, "This of mine Has wandered away from me; And, although the road be rough and steep, I go to the desert to find my sheep."

 But none of the ransomed ever knew How deep were the waters crossed: Nor how dark the night that the L rd passed through Ere he found his siteep that was lost. Out in the desert he heard its cry.
 Sitek, and helpless, and ready to die.

4 "Lord, whence are those blood drops all the way That mark out the mountain's track ?"
"They were shed for one who had gone astray Ere the Shepherd could bring him back."

Lord, whence are thy hands so rent and torn ?" "They were pierced to-night by many a thorn."

5 And all through the mountains, thunder-riven, And up from the rocky steep There rose a cry to the gates of heaven "Rejoice, I have found my sheep." And the angels echoed around the throne, "Rejoice, for the Lord brings back his own."

916

M.6s. & 4s.

MY faith looks up to thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary; Saviour divine; Now hear me while I pray; Take all my guilt away; O, let me from this day Be wholly thine.

2 May thy rich grace impart Strength to my fainting heart : My zeal inspire ; As thou hast died for me, O may my love to thee, Pure, warm and changeless be— A living fire.

- 3 While life's dark maze I tread, And griefs around me spread, Be thou my guide; Bid darkness turn to day; Wipe sorrow's tears away, Nor let me ever stray From thee aside.
- 4 When ends life's transient dream; When death's cold, sullen stream Shall o'er me roll; Blest Saviour, then in love, Fear and distress remove; O bear me safe above— A ransom'd soul. 570

917

L. M.

O^F him who did salvation bring, I could forever think and sing; Arise, ye needy—he'll relieve; Arise, ye guilty—he'll forgive.

2 Ask but his grace, and lo, 'tis given, Ask, and he turns your hell to heaven; Though sin and sorrow wound thy soul, Jesus, thy balm will make it whole.

3 To shame our sins he blush'd in blood; He closed his eyes to show us God; Let all the world fall down and know That none but God such love can show.

4 'Tis thee I love; for thee alone I shed my tears and make my moan; Where'er I am, where'er I move, I meet the object of my love.

5 Insatiate to this spring I fly; I drink, and yet am ever dry; Ah! who against thy charms is proof; Ah! who that loves, can love enough?

918

8s. & 7s.

What a friend we have in Jesus. All our sins and griefs to bear; What a privilege to carry Everything to God in prayer. Oh, what peace we often forfeit, Oh, what needless pain we bear— All because we do not carry Everything to God in prayer.

 2 Have we trials and temptations? Is there trouble anywhere?
 We should never be discouraged— Take it to the Lord in prayer. 571

Can we find a friend so faithful, Who will all our sorrows share? Jesus knows our every weakness, Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3 Are we weak and heavy laden, Cumbered with a load of care ? Precious Saviour, still our refuge, Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee? Take it to the Lord in prayer:
In his arms he'll take and shield thee Thou wilt find a solace there.

Built Upon a Rock.

M. 8s.

MY anchor is within the veil, Whatever may my soul betide Against me nothing can prevail. For God the Lord is on my side: Though heaven and earth shall pass away, My trust shall still unshaken stay.

2 The Rock of truth I now have found, Here shall I ever stand secure: I safely anchor in the ground, That shall for ever more endure. When all the things of earth are fied. With joy shall I lit up my head.

3 Nor waves nor storms can bring me harm, While on this Rock I place my trust; My strength is the Almighty arm-The shield and refuge of the just; Here shall I dwell, and dwell serene, Amid live's every checkered scene,

4 Though fiends of hell against me rise, Their looks of wrath I will not fear; While on the Lord my soul relies, He shall for my defence appear: He is my fortress and high tower, My helper in the evil hour.

5 My honse I built upon this Rock, Which shall for ever be my stay; To fire, nor flood, nor tempest shock, Shall its foundation e'er give way; But here shall stand for ever fast, Long as eternity shall last.

Alone with Jesus. M. 8, 8, 8, 6.

A LONE with Jesus! Blessed place, And every line of beauty trace,— Companionship divine.

2 Alone with Jesus, while without Are care and danger, lear and doubt; But while with him, the world shut out, The joys of heaven are mine.

3 Alone with him, on bended knee, No ear to hear, no eye to see, The Saviour deigns to meet with me, And to my prayer incline.

4 Alone with Jesus—oh, the bliss Of holding converse such as this, All anxious care I now dismiss, And all of earth resign.

 5 Alone with Jesus—oh, how blest !
 Close folded to my Saviour's breast, Be thou, dear Lord, my constant guest, And keep me wholly thine.

923

S. M.

FIGHT on, my soul, fight on, Till all thy foes must yield; Thou canst not wear the victor's crown, Till thou hast gained the field.

- Follow thy Saviour on, Where'er he leads the way : Through fiery trials and through scorn, He leads to endless day.
- Though all thy friends turn foes, And Satan threats and storms, He gently guards, and always knows, To keep you safe from harm.
